

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PSALM I.

- BLESSED is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly,
    { Nor standeth in the way of sinners,
    { Nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
- 2 But his delight is in the law of the LORD;
    And in his law doth he meditate day and night.
- 3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water,
    That bringeth forth his fruit in his season ;
    His leaf also shall not wither ;
    And whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
- 4 The ungodly are not so :
    But are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
- 5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment,
    Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
- 6 For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous :
    But the way of the ungodly shall perish.

PSALM II.

- WHY do the heathen rage,
    And the people imagine a vain thing ?
- 2 The kings of the earth set themselves,
    { And the rulers take counsel together,
    { Against the LORD and against his Anointed, saying,
- 3 Let us break their bands asunder,
    And cast away their cords from us.
- 4 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh :
    The LORD shall have them in derision.

- 5 Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath,
And vex them in his sore displeasure.
- 6 Yet have I set my king
Upon my holy hill of Zion.
- 7 I will declare the decree :
 { The LORD hath said unto me, Thou art my son ;
This day have I begotten thee.
- 8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance,
And the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.
- 9 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron ;
Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.
- 10 Be wise now therefore, O ye kings :
Be instructed, ye judges of the earth.
- 11 Serve the LORD with fear,
And rejoice with trembling.
- 12 { Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way,
 { When his wrath is kindled but a little.
Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

PSALM III.

- L ORD, how are they increased that trouble me !
Many are they that rise up against me.
- 2 Many there be which say of my soul,
There is no help for him in God.
- 3 But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me ;
My glory, and the lifter up of mine head.
- 4 I cried unto the LORD with my voice,
And he heard me out of his holy hill.
- 5 I laid me down and slept ;
I awaked ; for the LORD sustained me.
- 6 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people,
That have set themselves against me round about.
- 7 { Arise, O LORD ; save me, O my God :
 { For thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone ;
Thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly.
- 8 Salvation belongeth unto the LORD ;
Thy blessing is upon thy people.

LESSON 2.

PSALM IV.

- HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness :
 Thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress ;
Have mercy upon me and hear my prayer.
- 2 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame ?
How long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing ?
- 3 But know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself.
The LORD will hear when I call unto him.
- 4 Stand in awe, and sin not :
Commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still.
- 5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness,
And put your trust in the LORD.
- 6 There may be many that say, Who will shew us any good ?
LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.
- 7 Thou hast put gladness in my heart,
More than in the time that their corn and their wine increased
- 8 I will both lay me down in peace and sleep :
For thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

PSALM V.

- GIVE ear to my words, O LORD ;
Consider my meditation.
- 2 Harken unto the voice of my cry, my King and my God :
For unto thee will I pray.
- 3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD ;
In the morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up.
- 4 For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness :
Neither shall evil dwell with thee.
- 5 The foolish shall not stand in thy sight :
Thou hatest all workers of iniquity.
- 6 Thou shalt destroy them that speak leasing :
The LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.
- 7 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy mercy
And in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

- 8 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness, because of mine enemies ;
Make thy way straight before my face.
- 9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth ; their inward part is very wickedness
Their throat is an open sepulchre ; they flatter with their tongue.
- 10 Destroy thou them, O God ; let them fall by their own counsels ;
Cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions ; for they have rebelled against thee.
- 11 { But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice :
 { Let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them :
Let them also that love thy name be joyful in thee.
- 12 For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous ;
With favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

LESSON 3

PSALM VIII.

- { O LORD our LORD,
 How excellent is thy name in all the earth !
Who hast set thy glory above the heavens.
- 2 { Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength,
 { Because of thine enemies,
That thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.
- 3 When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers,
The moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained ;
- 4 What is man, that thou art mindful of him ?
And the son of man, that thou visitest him ?
- 5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels,
And hast crowned him with glory and honour.
- 6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands ;
Thou hast put all things under his feet :
- 7 All sheep and oxen,
Yea, and the beasts of the field ;
- 8 The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea,
And whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas.
- 9 O LORD, our LORD,
How excellent is thy name in all the earth !

PSALM IX.

- [ WILL praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart ;
I will shew forth all thy marvellous works.

- 2 I will be glad and rejoice in thee :
I will sing praise to thy name, O thou Most High.
- 3 When mine enemies are turned back,
They shall fall and perish at thy presence.
- 4 For thou hast maintained my right and my cause ;
Thou satest in the throne judging right.
- 5 Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked,
Thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.
- 6 O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end :
And thou hast destroyed cities ; their memorial is perished with them.
- 7 But the LORD shall endure for ever ;
He hath prepared his throne for judgment.
- 8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness,
He shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.
- 9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed,
A refuge in times of trouble.
- 10 And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee :
For thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.
- 11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion :
Declare among the people his doings.
- 12 When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them :
He forgetteth not the cry of the humble.
- 13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD ; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me,
Thou that liftest me up from the gates of death :
- 14 That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the daughter of Zion :
I will rejoice in thy salvation.
- 15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made :
In the net which they hid is their own foot taken.
- 16 The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth :
The wicked is snared in the work of his own hands.
- 17 The wicked shall be turned into hell,
And all the nations that forget God.
- 18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten :
The expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.
- 19 Arise, O LORD ; let not man prevail :
Let the heathen be judged in thy sight.
- 20 Put them in fear, O LORD :
That the nations may know themselves to be but men.

THE PSALTER

LESSON 4.

PSALM XV.

- [ LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle?
Who shall dwell in thy holy hill?
- 2 He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness,
And speaketh the truth in his heart.
- 3 { He that backbiteth not with his tongue,
  { Nor doeth evil to his neighbour,
    Nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbour.
- 4 In whose eyes a vile person is contemned;
    But he honoureth them that fear the LORD.
He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.
- 5 He that putteth not out his money to usury,
Nor taketh reward against the innocent.
    He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

PSALM XVI.

- PRESERVE me, O God:
    For in thee do I put my trust.
- 2 O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my LORD
    My goodness extendeth not to thee;
- 3 But to the saints that are in the earth,
    And to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.
- 4 { Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god:
  { Their drink offerings of blood will I not offer,
    Nor take up their names into my lips.
- 5 The LORD is the portion of mine inheritance and of my cup:
    Thou maintainest my lot.
- 6 The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places;
    Yea, I have a goodly heritage.
- 7 I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel:
    My reins also instruct me in the night seasons.
- 8 I have set the LORD always before me:
    Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.
- 9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth;
    My flesh also shall rest in hope.
- 10 For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell;
    Neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption

- 1 { Thou wilt show me the path of life:
 { In thy presence is fulness of joy;
At thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

PSALM XVII.

- HEAR the right, O LORD, attend unto my cry;
Give ear unto my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.
- 2 Let my sentence come forth from thy presence;
Let thine eyes behold the things that are equal.
- 3 { Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited me in the night;
 { Thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing:
I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.
- 4 Concerning the works of men,
By the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.
- 5 Hold up my goings in thy paths,
That my footsteps slip not.
- 6 I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God:
Incline thine ear unto me and hear my speech.
- 7 Shew thy marvellous loving kindness, O thou that savest by thy right hand them which put their trust in thee,
From those that rise up against them.
- 8 Keep me as the apple of the eye;
Hide me under the shadow of thy wings,
- 9 From the wicked that oppress me,
From my deadly enemies, who compass me about.
- 10 They are enclosed in their own fat:
With their mouth they speak proudly.
- 11 They have now compassed us in our steps:
They have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;
- 12 Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey,
And as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.
- 13 Arise, O Lord, disappoint him, cast him down;
Deliver my soul from the wicked, which is thy sword:
- 14 { From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world,
 { Which have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with they hid treasure:
They are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.
- 5 As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness:
I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness

LESSON 5.

PSALM XVIII. 1-35.

- I WILL love thee, O LORD, my strength.
 2 The LORD is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer ;
 My God, my strength, in whom I will trust ;
My buckler, and the horn of my salvation, and my high tower,
 3 I will call upon the LORD, who is worthy to be praised :
So shall I be saved from mine enemies.
 4 The sorrows of death compassed me,
And the floods of ungodly men made me afraid.
 5 The sorrows of hell compassed me about :
The snares of death prevented me.
 6 In my distress I called upon the LORD,
And cried unto my God :
 He heard my voice out of his temple,
And my cry came before him, even into his ears.
 7 Then the earth shook and trembled ;
     { The foundations also of the hills moved
     { And were shaken, because he was wroth.
 8 { There went up a smoke out of his nostrils,
     { And fire out of his mouth devoured :
     Coals were kindled by it.
 9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down :
     And darkness was under his feet.
 10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly :
     Yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.
 11 He made darkness his secret place ;
     His pavilion round about him were dark waters, and thick clouds of the skies
 12 At the brightness that was before him his thick clouds passed,
     Hail stones and coals of fire.
 13 { The LORD also thundered in the heavens,
     { And the Highest gave his voice ;
     Hail stones and coals of fire.
 14 Yea, he sent out his arrows, and scattered them ;
     And he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them.
 15 Then the channels of waters were seen,
     And the foundations of the world were discovered,
 At thy rebuke, O LORD,
     At the blast of the breath of thy nostrils

- 16 He sent from above, he took me,
He drew me out of many waters.
- 17 He delivered me from my strong enemy,
And from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me.
- 18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity:
But the LORD was my stay.
- 19 He brought me forth also into a large place;
He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
- 20 The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness:
According to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.
- 21 For I have kept the ways of the LORD,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
- 22 For all his judgments were before me,
And I did not put away his statutes from me.
- 23 I was also upright before him,
And I kept myself from mine iniquity.
- 24 Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness,
According to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.
- 25 With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful;
With an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright;
- 26 With the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure;
And with the froward thou wilt shew thyself froward.
- 27 For thou wilt save the afflicted people;
But wilt bring down high looks.
- 28 For thou wilt light my candle;
The LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.
- 29 For by thee I have run through a troop;
And by my God have I leaped over a wall.
- 30 { As for God, his way is perfect:
 { The word of the LORD is tried:
He is a buckler to all those that trust in him.
- 31 For who is God save the LORD?
Or who is a rock save our God?
- 32 It is God that girdeth me with strength,
And maketh my way perfect.
- 33 He maketh my feet like hind's feet,
And setteth me upon my high places.
- 34 He teacheth my hands to war,
So that a bow of steel is broken by mine arms.
- 35 { Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation
 { And thy right hand hath holden me up,
And thy gentleness hath made me great.

LESSON 6.

PSALM XIX.

- THE heavens declare the glory of God ;
And the firmament sheweth his handywork.
- 2 Day unto day uttereth speech,
And night unto night sheweth knowledge.
- 3 There is no speech nor language,
Where their voice is not heard.
- 4 Their line is gone out through all the earth,
And their words to the end of the world.
- 5 { In them hath he set a tabernacle for the sun,
 { Which is as a bridegroom coming out of his chamber,
And rejoiceth as a strong man to run a race.
- 6 { His going forth is from the end of the heaven,
 { And his circuit unto the ends of it :
And there is nothing hid from the heat thereof.
- 7 The law of the LORD is perfect, converting the soul :
The testimony of the LORD is sure, making wise the simple.
- 8 The statutes of the LORD are right, rejoicing the heart :
The commandment of the LORD is pure, enlightening the eyes.
- 9 The fear of the LORD is clean, enduring for ever :
The judgments of the LORD are true and righteous altogether.
- 10 More to be desired are they than gold, yea, than much fine gold :
Sweeter also than honey, and the honeycomb.
- 11 Moreover by them is thy servant warned : and in keeping of them there is great reward.
- 12 Who can understand his errors ? cleanse thou me from secret faults.
- 13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins ; let them not have dominion over me :
Then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression
- 14 Let the words of my mouth, and the meditation of my heart, be acceptable in thy sight,
O LORD, my strength, and my redeemer.

PSALM XX.

- THE LORD hear thee in the day of trouble ;
The name of the God of Jacob defend thee ;
- 2 Send thee help from the sanctuary,
And strengthen thee out of Zion :

- 3 Remember all thy offerings,
And accept thy burnt sacrifice ;
- 4 Grant thee according to thine own heart,
And fulfil all thy counsel.
- 5 { We will rejoice in thy salvation,
{ And in the name of our God we will set up our banners :
The LORD fulfil all thy petitions.
- 6 Now know I that the LORD saveth his anointed ;
{ He will hear him from his holy heaven
{ With the saving strength of his right hand.
- 7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses :
But we will remember the name of the LORD our God.
- 8 They are brought down and fallen :
But we are risen, and stand upright.
- 9 Save, LORD :
Let the king hear us when we call.

LESSON 7.

PSALM XXIII.

- THE LORD is my shepherd ;
I shall not want.
- 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures :
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
- 3 He restoreth my soul :
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness, for his name's sake.
- 4 { Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death.
{ I will fear no evil : for thou art with me ;
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
- 5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies.
Thou anointest my head with oil ; my cup runneth over.
- 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life .
And I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

PSALM XXIV.

- THE earth is the LORD's and the fulness thereof ;
The world, and they that dwell therein.
- 2 For he hath founded it upon the seas,
And established it upon the floods.

- 3 Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD?
And who shall stand in his holy place?
- 4 He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart;
 { Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity,
 { Nor sworn deceitfully.
- 5 He shall receive the blessing from the LORD,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation.
- 6 This is the generation of them that seek him,
That seek thy face, O Jacob.
- 7 { Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
 { And be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors;
And the King of glory shall come in.
- 8 Who is this King of glory?
The LORD strong and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle.
- 9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors.
And the King of glory shall come in.
- 10 Who is this King of glory?
The LORD of hosts, He is the King of glory.

PSALM XXVII.

- THE LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
- 2 When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up
They stumbled and fell. [my flesh]
- 3 Though a host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear:
Though war should rise against me, in this will I be confident.
- 4 { One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after;
 { That I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life,
To behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in his temple.
- 5 { For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion:
 { In the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me;
He shall set me up upon a rock.
- 6 { And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me
 { Therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy;
I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.
- 7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice:
Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.
- 8 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face;
My heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek

- 9 Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger:
 { Thou hast been my help;
 { Leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.
- 10 When my father and my mother forsake me,
Then the LORD will take me up.
- 11 Teach me thy way, O LORD,
And lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.
- 12 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies:
For false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.
- 13 I had fainted unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.
- 14 Wait on the LORD:
 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart:
Wait, I say, on the LORD.

LESSON 8.

PSALM XXIX.

- GIVE unto the LORD, O ye mighty,
Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
- 2 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name;
Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.
- 3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters:
The God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon many waters
- 4 The voice of the LORD is powerful;
The voice of the LORD is full of majesty.
- 5 The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars:
Yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.
- 6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf;
Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.
- 7 { The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire.
 8 { The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness;
The LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.
- 9 { The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to calve,
 { And discovereth the forests:
And in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.
- 10 The LORD sitteth upon the flood;
Yea, the LORD sitteth King forever.
- 11 The LORD will give strength unto his people;
The LORD will bless his people with peace.

PSALM XXXIII.

REJOICE in the LORD, O ye righteous :

For praise is comely for the upright.

2 Praise the LORD with harp :

Sing unto him with the psallery, and an instrument of ten strings.

3 Sing unto him a new song ;

Play skilfully with a loud noise.

4 For the word of the LORD is right ;

And all his works are done in truth.

5 He loveth righteousness and judgment :

The earth is full of the goodness of the LORD.

6 By the word of the LORD were the heavens made ;

And all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.

7 He gathereth the waters of the sea together as a heap :

He layeth up the depth in storehouses.

8 Let all the earth fear the LORD :

Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.

9 For he spake and it was done ;

He commanded, and it stood fast.

10 The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought :

He maketh the devices of the people of none effect.

11 The counsel of the LORD standeth forever,

The thoughts of his heart to all generations.

12 Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD ;

And the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

13 The LORD looketh from heaven ;

He beholdeth all the sons of men.

14 From the place of his habitation he looketh

Upon all the inhabitants of the earth.

15 He fashioneth their hearts alike ;

He considereth all their works.

16 There is no king saved by the multitude of a host :

A mighty man is not delivered by much strength.

17 An horse is a vain thing for safety :

Neither shall he deliver any by his great strength.

18 Behold, the eye of the LORD is upon them that fear him,

Upon them that hope in his mercy ;

19 To deliver their soul from death,

And to keep them alive in famine.

- 20 Our soul waiteth for the LORD :
He is our help and our shield.
 21 For our heart shall rejoice in him,
Because we have trusted in his holy name.
 22 Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us,
According as we hope in thee.

LESSON 9.

PSALM XXXIV.

- [ WILL bless the LORD at all times :
His praise shall continually be in my mouth.
 2 My soul shall make her boast in the LORD :
The humble shall hear thereof, and be glad.
 3 Oh magnify the LORD with me,
And let us exalt his name together.
 4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me,
And delivered me from all my fears.
 5 They looked unto him, and were lightened :
And their faces were not ashamed.
 6 This poor man cried; and the LORD heard him,
And saved him out of all his troubles.
 7 The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them that fear him,
And delivereth them.
 8 Oh taste and see that the LORD is good.
Blessed is the man that trusteth in him.
 9 Oh fear the LORD, ye his saints :
For there is no want to them that fear him.
 10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger :
But they that seek the LORD shall not want any good thing.
 11 Come, ye children, hearken unto me :
I will teach you the fear of the LORD.
 12 What man is he that desireth life,
And loveth many days, that he may see good ?
 13 Keep thy tongue from evil,
And thy lips from speaking guile.
 14 Depart from evil, and do good ;
Seek peace, and pursue it.
 15 The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous,
And his ears are open unto their cry.

- 16 The face of the LORD is against them that do evil,
To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth
- 17 The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth,
And delivereth them out of all their troubles.
- 18 The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart
And saveth such as be of a contrite spirit.
- 19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous:
But the LORD delivereth him out of them all
- 20 He keepeth all his bones :
Not one of them is broken.
- 21 Evil shall slay the wicked :
And they that hate the righteous shall be desolate.
- 22 The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants ;
And none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

PSALM XXXVI.

- THE transgression of the wicked saith within my heart,
That there is no fear of God before his eyes.
- 2 For he flattereth himself in his own eyes,
Until his iniquity be found to be hateful.
- 3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit :
He hath left off to be wise, and to do good.
- 4 He deviseth mischief upon his bed ,
He setteth himself in a way that is not good ; he abhorreth not evil
- 5 Thy mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens ;
And thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds.
- 6 { Thy righteousness is like the great mountains :
 { Thy judgments are a great deep :
O LORD, thou preservest man and beast.
- 7 How excellent is thy loving kindness, O God !
Therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.
- 8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy ncuse ,
And thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures.
- 9 For with thee is the fountain of life :
In thy light shall we see light.
- 10 Oh continue thy loving kindness unto them that know thee ;
And thy righteousness to the upright in heart.
- 11 Let not the foot of pride come against me,
And let not the hand of the wicked remove me.
- 12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen :
They are cast down, and shall not be able to rise

LESSON 10.

PSALM XXXVII, 1-11, 22-40.

FRET not thyself because of evil doers,
Neither be thou envious against the workers of iniquity.

2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass,
And wither as the green herb.

3 Trust in the LORD, and do good ;
So shalt thou dwell in the land, and verily thou shalt be fed

4 Delight thyself also in the LORD ;
And he shall give thee the desires of thine heart.

5 Commit thy way unto the LORD ;
Trust also in him ; and he shall bring it to pass.

6 And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light,
And thy judgment as the noonday.

7 Rest in the LORD, and wait patiently for him :
 { Fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way.
 { Because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass.

8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath :
Fret not thyself in any wise to do evil.

9 For evil doers shall be cut off :
But those that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth.

10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be :
Yea, thou shalt diligently consider his place, and it shall not be.

11 But the meek shall inherit the earth ;
And shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

22 For such as be blessed of him shall inherit the earth ;
And they that be cursed of him shall be cut off.

23 The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD :
And he delighteth in his way.

24 Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast down
For the LORD upholdeth him with his hand.

25 I have been young, and now am old ;
Yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his seed begging bread.

26 He is ever merciful, and lendeth ;
And his seed is blessed.

27 Depart from evil, and do good ;
And dwell for evermore.

- 28 For the LORD loveth judgment,
And forsaketh not his saints ;
 They are preserved forever :
But the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.
- 29 The righteous shall inherit the land,
And dwell therein forever.
- 30 The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom,
And his tongue talketh of judgment.
- 31 The law of his God is in his heart ;
None of his steps shall slide.
- 32 The wicked watcheth the righteous,
And seeketh to slay him.
- 33 The LORD will not leave him in his hand,
Nor condemn him when he is judged.
- 34 { Wait on the LORD and keep his way,
 And he shall exalt thee to inherit the land :
When the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it
- 35 I have seen the wicked in great power,
And spreading himself like a green bay tree.
- 36 Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not :
Yea, I sought him, but he could not be found.
- 37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright :
For the end of that man is peace.
- 38 But the transgressors shall be destroyed together :
The end of the wicked shall be cut off.
- 39 But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD :
He is their strength in the time of trouble.
- 40 And the LORD shall help them, and deliver them :
 { He shall deliver them from the wicked,
 { And save them, because they trust in him.

LESSON 11.

PSALM XLI.

- BLESSED is he that considereth the poor :
The LORD will deliver him in time of trouble.
- 2 { The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive ;
 { And he shall be blessed upon the earth :
And thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies.

- 3 The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing:
Thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness.
- 4 I said, LORD, be merciful unto me:
Heal my soul ; for I have sinned against thee.
- 5 Mine enemies speak evil of me,
When shall he die, and his name perish ?
- 6 And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity:
{ His heart gathereth iniquity to itself ;
{ When he goeth abroad, he telleth it.
- 7 All that hate me whisper together against me:
Against me do they devise my hurt.
- 8 An evil disease, say they, cleaveth fast unto him :
And now that he lieth he shall rise up no more.
- 9 Yea, mine own familiar friend, in whom I trusted,
Which did eat of my bread, hath lifted up his heel against me.
- 10 But thou, O LORD, be merciful unto me, and raise me up,
That I may requite them.
- 11 By this I know that thou favourest me,
Because mine enemy doth not triumph over me.
- 12 And as for me, thou upholdest me in mine integrity,
And settest me before thy face forever.
- 13 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting,
And to everlasting. Amen and amen.

PSALM XLII.

- AS the hart panteth after the water brooks,
So panteth my soul after thee, O God.
- 2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God :
When shall I come and appear before God ?
- 3 My tears have been my meat day and night,
While they continually say unto me, Where is thy God ?
- 4 { When I remember these things I pour out my soul in me :
{ For I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God,
With the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holyday.
- 5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul ? and why art thou disquieted in me ?
{ Hope thou in God : for I shall yet praise him
{ For the help of his countenance.
- 6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me : therefore will I remember thee,
From the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar.

- 7 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts :
All thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.
- 8 Yet the LORD will command his lovingkindness in the daytime,
And in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.
- 9 I will say unto God, my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me ?
Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy ?
- 10 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me ;
While they say daily unto me, Where is thy God ?
- 11 Why art thou cast down, O my soul ? and why art thou disquieted within me ?
 { Hope thou in God : for I shall yet praise him,
 { Who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

PSALM XLIII.

- JUDGE me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation :
Oh deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.
- 2 For thou art the God of my strength : why dost thou cast me off ?
Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy ?
- 3 Oh send out thy light and thy truth : let them lead me ;
Let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles ;
- 4 Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy :
Yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God, my God.
- 5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul ? and why art thou disquieted within me ?
 { Hope in God : for I shall yet praise him,
 { Who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

LESSON 12.

PSALM XLV.

- { MY heart is inditing a good matter :
 { I speak of the things which I have made touching the king :
My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.
- 2 Thou art fairer than the children of men : grace is poured into thy lips :
Therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.
- 3 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most mighty,
With thy glory and thy majesty.
- 4 { And in thy majesty ride prosperously,
 { Because of truth and meekness and righteousness ;
And thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

- 5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies ;
Whereby the people fall under thee.
- 6 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever :
The sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.
- 7 Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness :
 { Therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee
 { With the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
- 8 All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia,
Out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.
- 9 Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women :
Upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.
- 10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear ;
Forget also thine own people, and thy father's house ;
- 11 So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty :
For he is thy LORD ; and worship thou him.
- 12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift ;
Even the rich among the people shall entreat thy favour.
- 13 The king's daughter is all glorious within :
Her clothing is of wrought gold.
- 14 She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needlework
The virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.
- 15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought :
They shall enter into the king's palace.
- 16 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children,
Whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth.
- 17 I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations :
Therefore shall the people praise thee, for ever and ever.

PSALM XLVI.

- GOD is our refuge and strength,
A very present help in trouble.
- 2 Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed,
And though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea ;
- 3 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled,
Though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.
- 4 There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God ;
The holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.
- 5 God is in the midst of her ; she shall not be moved :
God shall help her, and that right early.

- 6 The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved :
He uttered his voice, the earth melted.
- 7 The LORD of hosts is with us ;
The God of Jacob is our refuge.
- 8 Come, behold the works of the LORD,
What desolations he hath made in the earth.
- 9 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth ;
 } He breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder ;
 } He burneth the chariot in the fire.
- 10 Be still, and know that I am God :
I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth
- 11 The LORD of hosts is with us ;
The God of Jacob is our refuge.

LESSON 18.

PSALM XLVII.

- O H clap your hands, all ye people ;
Shout unto God with the voice of triumph.
- 2 For the LORD most high is terrible :
He is a great King over all the earth.
- 3 He shall subdue the people under us,
And the nations under our feet.
- 4 He shall choose our inheritance for us,
The excellency of Jacob whom he loved.
- 5 God is gone up with a shout,
The LORD with the sound of a trumpet.
- 6 Sing praises to God, sing praises :
Sing praises unto our King, sing praises.
- 7 For God is the King of all the earth :
Sing ye praises with understanding.
- 8 God reigneth over the heathen :
God sitteth upon the throne of his holiness.
- 9 The princes of the people are gathered together,
Even the people of the God of Abraham :
- For the shields of the earth belong unto God :
He is greatly exalted.

PSALM XLVIII.

- GREAT is the LORD, and greatly to be praised
In the city of our God, in the mountain of his holiness.
- 2 Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is Mount Zion,
On the sides of the north, the city of the great King.
- 3 God is known in her palaces for a refuge.
- 4 For, lo, the kings were assembled, they passed by together.
- 5 They saw it, and so they marvelled;
They were troubled, and hasted away.
- 6 Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.
- 7 Thou breakest the ships of Turshish with an east wind.
- 8 { As we have heard, so have we seen
 { In the city of the LORD of hosts, in the city of our God:
God will establish it for ever.
- 9 We have thought of thy lovingkindness, O God,
In the midst of thy temple.
- 10 According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise, unto the ends of the earth.
Thy right hand is full of righteousness.
- 11 Let mount Zion rejoice,
Let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy judgments.
- 12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her:
Tell the towers thereof.
- 13 Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces;
That ye may tell it to the generation following.
- 14 For this God is our God for ever and ever;
He will be our guide even unto death.

LESSON 14.

PSALM LI.

- HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness:
According unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgressions
- 2 Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity,
And cleanse me from my sin.
- 3 For I acknowledge my transgressions:
And my sin is ever before me.
- 4 Against thee, thee only, have I sinned,
And done this evil in thy sight:

- That thou mightest be justified when thou speakest,
And be clear when thou judgest.
- 5 Behold, I was shapen in iniquity ;
And in sin did my mother conceive me.
- 6 Behold thou desirest truth in the inward parts :
And in the hidden part thou shalt make me to know wisdom
- 7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean :
Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
- 8 Make me to hear joy and gladness ;
That the bones which thou hast broken may rejoice.
- 9 Hide thy face from my sins,
And blot out all mine iniquities.
- 10 Create in me a clean heart, O God ;
And renew a right spirit within me.
- 11 Cast me not away from thy presence ;
And take not thy Holy Spirit from me.
- 12 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation ;
And uphold me with thy free Spirit.
- 13 Then will I teach transgressors thy ways ;
And sinners shall be converted unto thee
- 14 Deliver me from blood guiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation ;
And my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.
- 15 O LORD, open thou my lips ;
And my mouth shall shew forth thy praise.
- 16 For thou desirest not sacrifice ; else would I give it :
Thou delightest not in burnt offering.
- 17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit :
A broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.
- 18 Do good in thy good pleasure unto Zion :
Build thou the walls of Jerusalem.
- 19 Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness, with burnt offering and whole burnt offering.
Then shall they offer bullocks upon thine altar.

PSALM CXXX.

- OUT of the depths have I cried unto thee, O LORD.
2 LORD, hear my voice :
Let thine ears be attentive
To the voice of my supplications

- 1 If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities,
O LORD, who shall stand ?
- 2 But there is forgiveness with thee,
That thou mayest be feared,
- 3 I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait,
And in his word do I hope.
- 4 My soul waiteth for the LORD, more than they that watch for the morning.
I say, more than they that watch for the morning.
- 7 Let Israel hope in the LORD : for with the LORD there is mercy,
And with him is plenteous redemption.
- 8 And he shall redeem Israel
From all his iniquities.

LESSON 15.

PSALM LV.

- GIVE ear to my prayer, O God ;
And hide not thyself from my supplication.
- 2 Attend unto me and hear me :
I mourn in my complaint, and make a noise ;
- 3 Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked
For they cast iniquity upon me, and in wrath they hate me.
- 4 My heart is sore pained within me :
And the terrors of death are fallen upon me
- 5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me,
And horror hath overwhelmed me.
- 6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove !
For then would I fly away, and be at rest.
- 7 Lo, then would I wander far off,
And remain in the wilderness.
- 8 I would hasten my escape,
From the windy storm and tempest.
- 9 Destroy, O LORD, and divide their tongues :
For I have seen violence and strife in the city.
- 10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof :
Mischief, also, and sorrow are in the midst of it.
- 11 Wickedness is in the midst thereof :
Deceit and guile depart not from her streets.
- 12 For it was not an enemy that reproached me ; then could I have borne it :
 { Neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me ,
 { Then I would have hid myself from him :

- 3 But it was thou, a man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance,
 14 { We took sweet counsel together,
       And walked unto the house of God in company.
 15 Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell :
       For wickedness is in their dwellings, and among them.
 16 As for me, I will call upon God ;
       And the LORD shall save me.
 17 Evening, and morning, and at noon, will I pray, and cry aloud :
       And he shall hear my voice.
 18 He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against me :
       For there were many with me.
 19 God shall hear, and afflict them,
       Even he that abideth of old.
       Because they have no changes,
       Therefore they fear not God.
 20 He hath put forth his hands against such as be at peace with him :
       He hath broken his covenant.
 21 The words of his mouth were smother than butter, but war was in his heart
       His words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords.
 22 Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain thee :
       He shall never suffer the righteous to be moved.
 23 But thou, O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction :
       Bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days ;
       BUT I WILL TRUST IN THEE.

LESSON 16.

PSALM LXI.

- HEAR my cry, O God ;
       Attend unto my prayer.
 2 From the end of the earth will I cry unto thee, when my heart is overwhelmed
       Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
 3 For thou hast been a shelter for me,
       And a strong tower from the enemy.
 4 I will abide in thy tabernacle for ever :
       I will trust in the covert of thy wings.
 5 For thou, O God, hast heard my vows :
       Thou hast given me the heritage of those that fear thy name.
 6 Thou wilt prolong the king's life :
       And his years as many generations.

7 He shall abide before God for ever :

Oh prepare mercy and truth, which may preserve him.

8 So will I sing praise unto thy name for ever,

That I may daily perform my vows.

PSALM LXII.

TRULY my soul waiteth upon God :

From him cometh my salvation.

2 He only is my rock and my salvation ;

He is my defence ; I shall not be greatly moved.

3 How long will ye imagine mischief against a man ? ye shall be slain, all of you ;

As a bowing wall shall ye be, and as a tottering fence.

4 They only consult to cast him down from his excellency : they delight in lies :

They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly.

5 My soul, wait thou only upon God ;

For my expectation is from him.

6 He only is my rock and my salvation :

He is my defence ; I shall not be moved.

7 In God is my salvation and my glory :

The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.

8 Trust in him at all times ; ye people, pour out your heart before him :

God is a refuge for us.

9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie :

To be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity.

10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery :

If riches increase, set not your heart upon them.

11 God hath spoken once ; twice have I heard this ;

That power belongeth unto God.

12 Also unto thee, O LORD, belongeth mercy :

For thou renderest to every man according to his work.

PSALM LXIII.

O GOD, thou art my God ; early will I seek thee : my soul thirsteth for thee,
My flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is :

2 To see thy power and thy glory,

So as I have seen thee in the sanctuary.

3 Because thy lovingkindness is better than life,

My lips shall praise thee.

- 4 Thus will I bless thee while I live :
I will lift up my hands in thy name.
- 5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness ;
And my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips :
- 6 When I remember thee upon my bed,
And meditate on thee in the night watches.
- 7 Because thou hast been my help,
Therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice.
- 8 My soul followeth hard after thee :
Thy right hand upholdeth me.
- 9 But those that seek my soul to destroy it,
Shall go into the lower parts of the earth
- 10 They shall fall by the sword :
They shall be a portion for foxes.
- 11 But the king shall rejoice in God ; every one that sweareth by him shall glory :
But the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

LESSON 17.

PSALM LXIV.

- HEAR my voice, O God, in my prayer :
Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
- 2 Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked ;
From the insurrection of the workers of iniquity :
- 3 Who whet their tongue like a sword,
And bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words :
- 4 That they may shoot in secret at the perfect :
Suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.
- 5 { They encourage themselves in an evil matter ;
 { They commune of laying snares privily ;
They say, Who shall see them ?
- 6 They search out iniquities ; they accomplish a diligent search :
Both the inward thought of every one of them, and the heart is deep.
- 7 But God shall shoot at them with an arrow ;
Suddenly shall they be wounded.
- 8 So they shall make their own tongue to fall upon themselves
All that see them shall flee away.
- 9 And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God ;
For they shall wisely consider of his doing.
- 10 The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him ;
And all the upright in heart shall glory.

PSALM LXV.

PRAISE waiteth for thee, O God, in Zion :

And unto thee shall the vow be performed.

2 O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.

3 { Iniquities prevail against me :

As for our transgressions, thou shalt purge them away.

4 Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee,
that he may dwell in thy courts :

We shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy temple.

5 By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation ;

Who art the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea.

6 Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains ; being girded with power ·

7 { *Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves,
And the tumult of the people.*

8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens :

Thou makest the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice

9 Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it :

Thou greatly enrichest it,

With the river of God, which is full of water :

Thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so provided for it.

10 Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly, thou settlest the furrows thereof

Thou makest it soft with showers. thou blessest the springing thereof.

11 Thou crownest the year with thy goodness ;

And thy paths drop fatness.

12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness :

And the little hills rejoice on every side.

13 The pastures are clothed with flocks ;

{ The valleys also are covered over with corn ;

They shout for joy, they also sing.

LESSON 18

PSALM LXVI.

MAKE a joyful noise unto God, all ye lands :

2 Sing forth the honor of his name : make his praise glorious.

3 Say unto God, How terrible art thou in thy works !

Through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee.

- 4 All the earth shall worship thee, and shall sing unto thee;
They shall sing to thy name.
- 5 Come and see the works of God :
He is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.
- 6 He turned the sea into dry land : they went through the flood on foot .
There did we rejoice in him.
- 7 He ruleth by his power forever ; his eyes behold the nations :
Let not the rebellious exalt themselves.
- 8 Oh bless our God, ye people,
And make the voice of his praise to be heard :
- 9 Which holdeth our soul in life,
And suffereth not our feet to be moved.
- 10 For thou, O God, hast proved us :
Thou hast tried us as silver is tried.
- 11 Thou broughtest us into the net ;
Thou laidst affliction upon our loins.
- 12 { Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads ;
    { We went through fire and through water :
        But thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place.
- 13 I will go into thy house with burnt offerings :
I will pay thee my vows,
- 14 Which my lips have uttered,
And my mouth hath spoken, when I was in trouble.
- 15 { I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of fatlings,
    { With the incense of rams :
        I will offer bullocks with goats.
- 16 Come and hear, all ye that fear God,
And I will declare what he hath done for my soul
- 17 I cried unto him with my mouth,
And he was extolled with my tongue.
- 18 If I regard iniquity in my heart,
The LORD will not hear me :
- 19 But verily God hath heard me ;
He hath attended to the voice of my prayer.
- 20 Blessed be God, which hath not turned away my prayer,
Nor his mercy from me.

PSALM LXVII.

- GOD be merciful unto us, and bless us :
And cause his face to shine upon us ;
 2 That thy way may be known upon earth,
Thy saving health among all nations.
 3 Let the people praise thee, O God ;
Let all the people praise thee.
 4 { Oh let the nations be glád and sing for joy :
 { For thou shalt judge the people righteously,
And govern the nations upon earth.
 5 Let the people praise thee, O God,
Let all the people praise thee.
 6 Then shall the earth yield her increase ;
And God, even our own God, shall bless us.
 7 GOD SHALL BLESS US ;
AND ALL THE ENDS OF THE EARTH SHALL FEAR HIM.

LESSON 19.

PSALM LXVIII.

- LET God arise, let his enemies be scattered :
Let them also that hate him flee before him.
 2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away :
 { As wax melteth before the fire,
 { So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
 3 But let the righteous be glád ; let them rejoice before God :
Yea, let them exceedingly rejoice.
 4 { Sing unto God, sing praises to his name :
 { Extol him that rideth upon the heavens,
By his name JAH, and rejoice before him.
 5 A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows,
Is God in his holy habitation.
 6 { God setteth the solitary in families :
 { He bringeth out those which are bound with chains :
But the rebellious dwell in a dry land.
 8 O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people,
When thou didst march through the wilderness ;
 8 The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God ;
Even Sinai itself was moved at the presence of God, the God of Israel

- 9 Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain,
Whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.
- 10 Thy congregation hath dwelt therein :
Thou, O God, hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor.
- 11 The LORD gave the word :
Great was the company of those that published it.
- 12 Kings of armies did flee apace :
And she that tarried at home divided the spoil.
- 13 { Though ye have lain among the pots,
 { Yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver,
And her feathers with yellow gold.
- 14 When the Almighty scattered kings in it,
It was white as snow in Salmon.
- 15 The hill of God is as the hill of Bashan ;
A high hill, as the hill of Bashan.
- 16 Why leap ye, ye high hills ? this is the hill which God desireth to dwell in ;
Yea, the LORD will dwell in it for ever.
- 17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands of angels :
The LORD is among them, as in Sinai, in the holy place.
- 18 { Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive :
 { Thou hast received gifts for men ;
Yea, for the rebellious also, that the LORD God might dwell among them.
- 19 Blessed be the LORD, who daily loadeth us with benefits.
Even the God of our salvation.
- 20 He that is our God is the God of Salvation ;
And unto God the LORD belong the issues from death.
- 21 But God shall wound the head of his enemies,
And the hairy scalp of such a one as goeth on still in his trespasses.
- 22 The LORD said, I will bring again from Bashan,
I will bring my people again from the depths of the sea :
- 23 That thy foot may be dipped in the blood of thine enemies,
And the tongue of thy dogs in the same.
- 24 They have seen thy goings, O God :
Even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary.
- 25 The singers went before, the players on instruments followed after :
Among them were the damsels playing with timbrels.
- 26 Bless ye God in the congregations,
Even the LORD, from the fountain of Israel.
- 27 { There is little Benjamin with their ruler,
 { The princes of Judah and their council,
The princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali.

- 28 Thy God hath commanded thy strength.
Strengthen, O God, that which thou hast wrought for us.
- 29 Because of thy temple at Jerusalem
Shall kings bring presents unto thee.
- 30 { Rebuke the company of spearmen, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people,
 Till every one submit himself with pieces of silver :
Scatter thou the people that delight in war.
- 31 Princes shall come out of Egypt ;
Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God.
- 32 Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth ;
Oh sing praises unto the LORD ;
- 33 To him that rideth upon the heavens of heavens, which were of old ;
Lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice.
- 34 Ascribe ye strength unto God :
His excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the clouds.
- 35 O God, thou art terrible out of thy holy places :
The God of Israel is he that giveth strength and power unto his people.
 BLESSED BE GOD.

LESSON 20.

PSALM LXXII

- GIVE the king thy judgments, O God,
And thy righteousness unto the king's son.
- 2 He shall judge thy people with righteousness,
And thy poor with judgment.
- 3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people,
And the little hills, by righteousness.
- 4 He shall judge the poor of the people,
He shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.
- 5 They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure,
Throughout all generations.
- 6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass :
As showers that water the earth.
- 7 In his days shall the righteous flourish ;
And abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.
- 8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea,
And from the river unto the ends of the earth.

- 6 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him,
And his enemies shall lick the dust.
- 10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents:
The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.
- 11 Yea, all kings shall fall down before him:
All nations shall serve him.
- 12 For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth;
The poor also, and him that hath no helper
- 13 He shall spare the poor and needy,
And shall save the souls of the needy.
- 14 He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence:
And precious shall their blood be in his sight.
- 15 And he shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba.
Prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised.
- 16 { There shall be a handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains
 { The fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon:
And they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.
- 7 { His name shall endure for ever:
 { His name shall be continued as long as the sun:
And men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed.
- 8 Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel,
Who only doeth wondrous things.
- 19 And blessed be his glorious name for ever:
And let the whole earth be filled with his glory.
 AMEN, AND AMEN.

PSALM LXXVI.

IN Judah is God known:

- His name is great in Israel.*
- 2 In Salem also is his tabernacle,
And his dwelling-place in Zion.
- 3 There brake he the arrows of the bow,
The shield, and the sword, and the battle.
- 4 { Thou art more glorious and excellent than the mountains of prey. -
 5 { The stouthearted are spoiled,
 { They have slept their sleep:
 { And none of the men of might have found their hands.
- 6 At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob,
Both the chariot and horse are cast into a dead sleep.

- 7 Thou, even thou, art to be feared :
And who may stand in thy sight when once thou art angry ?
- 8 Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven ;
The earth feared, and was still,
- 9 When God arose to judgment,
To save all the meek of the earth.
- 10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee :
The remainder of wrath shalt thou restrain.
- 11 Vow, and pay unto the LORD your God :
Let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that ought to be feared.
- 12 He shall cut off the spirit of princes :
He is terrible to the kings of the earth.

LESSON 21.

PSALM LXXX.

- GIVE ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock ;
Thou that dwellest between the cherubim, shine forth.
- 2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up thy strength,
And come and save us.
- 3 Turn us again, O God,
And cause thy face to shine ; and we shall be saved.
- 4 O LORD God of hosts,
How long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people ?
- 5 Thou feedest them with the bread of tears ;
And givest them tears to drink in great measure.
- 6 Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours :
And our enemies laugh among themselves.
- 7 Turn us again, O God of hosts,
And cause thy face to shine ; and we shall be saved.
- 8 Thou hast brought a vine out of Egypt :
Thou hast cast out the heathen and planted it.
- 9 Thou preparedst room before it,
And didst cause it to take deep root, and it filled the land.
- 10 The hills were covered with the shadow of it,
And the boughs thereof were like the goodly cedars.
- 11 She sent out her boughs unto the sea,
And her branches unto the river.

- 12 Why hast thou then broken down her hedges,
So that all they which pass by the way do pluck her ?
- 13 The boar out of the wood doth waste it,
And the wild beast of the field doth devour it.
- 14 Return, we beseech thee, O God of hosts :
Look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine :
- 15 And the vineyard which thy right hand hath planted,
And the branch that thou madest strong for thyself.
- 16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down :
They perish at the rebuke of thy countenance.
- 17 Let thy hand be upon the man of thy right hand,
Upon the son of man whom thou madest strong for thyself.
- 18 So will not we go back from thee :
Quicken us, and we will call upon thy name.
- 19 Turn us again, O LORD God of hosts,
Cause thy face to shine ; and we shall be saved.

PSALM LXXXI.

- SING aloud unto God our strength ;
Make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob.
- 2 Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel,
The pleasant harp with the psaltery.
- 3 Blow up the trumpet in the new moon,
In the time appointed, on our solemn feast day.
- 4 For this was a statute for Israel,
And a law of the God of Jacob.
- 5 { This he ordained in Joseph for a testimony,
 { When he went out through the land of Egypt :
Where I heard a language that I understood not.
- 6 I removed his shoulder from the burden :
His hands were delivered from the pots.
- 7 Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee ;
 { I answered thee in the secret place of thunder :
 { I proved thee at the waters of Meribah.
- 8 Hear, O my people, and I will testify unto thee :
O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me ;
- 9 There shall no strange God be in thee :
Neither shall thou worship any strange God.
- 10 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt :
Open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it.

- 11 But my people would not hearken to my voice ;
And Israel would none of me.
- 12 So I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust :
And they walked in their own counsels.
- 13 Oh that my people had hearkened unto me,
And Israel had walked in my ways !
- 14 I should soon have subdued their enemies,
And turned my hand against their adversaries.
- 15 The haters of the LORD should have submitted themselves unto him :
But their time should have endured for ever.
- 16 He should have fed them also with the finest of the wheat :
And with honey out of the rock should I have satisfied thee.

LESSON 22.

PSALM LXXXIV.

- HOW amiable are thy tabernacles,
O LORD of hosts !
- 2 My soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the LORD .
My heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God.
- 3 Yea, the sparrow hath found a house,
And the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young
 Even thine altars, O LORD of hosts,
My King and my God.
- 4 Blessed are they that dwell in thy house :
They will be still praising thee.
- 5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in thee ;
In whose heart are the ways of them,
- 6 Who passing through the valley of Baca make it a well :
The rain also filleth the pools.
- 7 They go from strength to strength,
Every one of them in Zion appeareth before God.
- 8 O LORD God of hosts, hear my prayer :
Give ear, O God of Jacob.
- 9 Behold, O God our shield,
And look upon the face of thine anointed.
- 10 For a day in thy courts is better than a thousand.
 { I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God,
 { Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

- 11 For the LORD God is a sun and shield : the LORD will give grace and glory.
No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.
- 12 O LORD of hosts,
Blessed is the man that trusteth in thee.

PSALM LXXXV.

- L ORD, thou hast been favourable unto thy land :
Thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob.
- 2 Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy people ;
Thou hast covered all their sin.
- 3 Thou hast taken away all thy wrath :
Thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger.
- 4 Turn us, O God of our salvation,
And cause thine anger toward us to cease.
- 5 Wilt thou be angry with us for ever ?
Wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations ?
- 6 Wilt thou not revive us again :
That thy people may rejoice in thee ?
- 7 Shew us thy mercy, O LORD,
And grant us thy salvation.
- 8 { I will hear what God the LORD will speak :
 { For he will speak peace unto his people. and to his saints :
But let them not turn again to folly.
- 9 Surely his salvation is nigh them that fear him ;
That glory may dwell in our land.
- 10 Mercy and truth are met together ;
Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
- 11 Truth shall spring out of the earth ;
And righteousness shall look down from heaven.
- 12 Yea, the LORD shall give that which is good ;
And our land shall yield her increase.
- 13 Righteousness shall go before him ;
And shall set us in the way of his steps.

LESSON 23

PSALM LXXXVI.

BOW down thine ear, O LORD, hear me:

For I am poor and needy.

2 Preserve my soul; for I am holy:

O thou my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee.

3 Be merciful unto me, O LORD:

For I cry unto thee daily.

4 Rejoice the soul of thy servant:

For unto thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.

5 For thou, LORD, art good, and ready to forgive;

And plenteous in mercy unto all them that call upon thee.

6 Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer;

And attend to the voice of my supplications.

7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon thee:

For thou wilt answer me.

8 Among the Gods there is none like unto thee, O LORD;

Neither are there any works like unto thy works.

9 All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O LORD:

And shall glorify thy name.

10 For thou art great, and doest wondrous things:

Thou art God alone.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth.

Unite my heart to fear thy name.

12 I will praise thee, O LORD my God, with all my heart:

And I will glorify thy name for evermore.

13 For great is thy mercy toward me:

And thou hast delivered my soul from the lowest hell.

14 { O God, the proud are risen against me,

{ And the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul;

And have not set thee before them.

15 But thou, O LORD, art a God full of compassion, and gracious,

Longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth.

16 Oh turn unto me, and have mercy upon me;

Give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thine handmaid.

17 { Shew me a token for good;

{ That they which hate me may see it, and be ashamed:

Because thou, LORD, hast holpen me, and comforted me.

PSALM LXXXVII.

- { HIS foundation is in the holy mountains.
 2 The LORD loveth the gates of Zion,
More than all the dwellings of Jacob.
 3 Glorious things are spoken of thee,
O city of God.
 4 I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon to them that know me:
Behold Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia; this man was born there.
 5 And of Zion it shall be said, This and that man was born in her:
And the Highest himself shall establish her.
 6 The LORD shall count, when he writeth up the people,
That this man was born there.
 7 As well the singers as the players on instruments shall be there:
All my springs are in thee.

LESSON 24.

PSALM LXXXIX, 1-34.

- [ WILL sing of the mercies of the LORD for ever:
With my mouth will I make known thy faithfulness to all generations.
 2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever:
Thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens.
 3 I have made a covenant with my chosen,
I have sworn unto David my servant,
 4 Thy seed will I establish for ever,
And build up thy thrones to all generations.
 5 And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD:
Thy faithfulness also in the congregation of the saints.
 6 For who in the heavens can be compared unto the LORD?
Who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the LORD?
 7 God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints,
And to be had in reverence of all them that are about him.
 8 O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD like unto thee?
Or to thy faithfulness round about thee?
 9 Thou rulest the raging of the sea:
When the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them.
 10 Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain;
Thou hast scattered thine enemies with thy strong arm.

- 11 The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine :
As for the world and the fulness thereof, thou hast founded them.
- 12 The north and the south, thou hast created them :
Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name.
- 13 Thou hast a mighty arm :
Strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.
- 14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne :
Mercy and truth shall go before thy face.
- 15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound :
They shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy countenance.
- 16 In thy name shall they rejoice all the day :
And in thy righteousness shall they be exalted.
- 17 For thou art the glory of their strength :
And in thy favour our horn shall be exalted.
- 18 For the LORD is our defence ;
And the Holy One of Israel is our king.
- 19 { Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst.
 { I have laid help upon one that is mighty ;
I have exalted one chosen out of the people.
- 20 I have found David my servant ;
With my holy oil have I anointed him :
- 21 With whom my hand shall be established :
My arm also shall strengthen him.
- 22 The enemy shall not exact upon him :
Nor the son of wickedness afflict him.
- 23 And I will beat down his foes before his face,
And plague them that hate him.
- 24 But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him :
And in my name shall his horn be exalted.
- 25 I will set his hand also in the sea,
And his right hand in the rivers.
- 26 He shall cry unto me, Thou art my father,
My God, and the rock of my salvation.
- 27 Also I will make him my firstborn,
Higher than the kings of the earth.
- 28 My mercy will I keep for him for evermore,
And my covenant shall stand fast with him.
- 29 His seed also will I make to endure for ever,
And his throne as the days of heaven.
- 30 If his children forsake my law,
And walk not in my judgments ;

- 37 If they break my statutes,
And keep not my commandments ;
 32 Then will I visit their transgression with the rod,
And their iniquity with stripes.
 33 Nevertheless my lovingkindness will I not utterly take from him
Nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.
 34 My covenant will I not break,
Nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.

LESSON 25.

PSALM XC.

- LORD, thou hast been our dwelling-place,
In all generations.
 2 { Before the mountains were brought forth,
 { Or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world,
Even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God.
 3 Thou turnest man to destruction ;
And sayest, Return, ye children of men.
 4 For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past
And as a watch in the night.
 5 Thou carriest them away as with a flood ; they are as a sleep :
In the morning they are like grass which groweth up ;
 6 In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up ;
In the evening it is cut down, and withereth.
 7 For we are consumed by thine anger,
And by thy wrath we are troubled.
 8 Thou hast set our iniquities before thee,
Our secret sins in the light of thy countenance.
 9 For all our days are passed away in thy wrath :
We spend our years as a tale that is told.
 10 The days of our years are threescore years and ten :
And if by reason of strength they be fourscore years,
 Yet is their strength labour and sorrow ;
For it is soon cut off, and we fly away.
 11 Who knoweth the power of thine anger ?
Even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath.
 2 So teach us to number our days,
That we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

- 13 Return, O LORD, how long ?
And let it repent thee concerning thy servants.
- 14 O satisfy us early with thy mercy :
That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
- 15 Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us,
And the years wherein we have seen evil.
- 16 Let thy work appear unto thy servants,
And thy glory unto their children.
- 17 And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us :
And establish thou the work of our hands upon us ;
 YEA, THE WORK OF OUR HANDS ESTABLISH THOU IT.

PSALM XCI.

- HE that dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High
Shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
- 2 I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress :
My God ; in him will I trust.
- 3 Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler,
And from the noisome pestilence.
- 4 He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust :
His truth shall be thy shield and buckler.
- 5 Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night ;
Nor for the arrow that flieth by day ;
- 6 Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness :
Nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.
- 7 A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand ;
But it shall not come nigh thee.
- 8 Only with thine eyes shalt thou behold,
And see the reward of the wicked.
- 9 Because thou hast made the LORD, which is my refuge,
Even the Most High, thy habitation ;
- 10 There shall no evil befall thee,
Neither shall any plague come nigh thy dwelling.
- 11 For he shall give his angels charge over thee,
To keep thee in all thy ways.
- 12 They shall bear thee up in their hands,
Lest thou dash thy foot against a stone.
- 13 Thou shalt tread upon the lion and adder :
The young lion, and the dragon, shalt thou trample under feet.

- 14 Because he hath set his love upon me, therefore will I deliver him :
I will set him on high, because he hath known my name.
- 15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him : I will be with him in trouble
I will deliver him and honor him.
- 16 With long life will I satisfy him,
And shew him my salvation.

LESSON 26.

PSALM XCV.

- OH come, let us sing unto the LORD :
Let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our Salvation.
- 2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving,
And make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.
- 3 For the LORD is a great God,
And a great King above all gods.
- 4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth :
The strength of the hills is his also.
- 5 The sea is his, and he made it :
And his hands formed the dry land.
- 6 Oh come let us worship and bow down :
Let us kneel before the LORD our maker.
- 7 For he is our God ;
And we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.
- 8 { To day if ye will hear his voice,
 { Harden not your heart, as in the provocation,
And as in the day of temptation in the wilderness :
- 9 When your fathers tempted me,
Proved me, and saw my work.
- 10 { Forty years long was I grieved with this generation,
 { And said, It is a people that do err in their heart,
And they have not known my ways :
- 11 Unto whom I sware in my wrath
That they should not enter into my rest.

PSALM XCVI.

- OH sing unto the LORD a new song :
Sing unto the LORD, all the earth,
- 2 Sing unto the LORD, bless his name ;
Shew forth his salvation from day to day.

- 3 Declare his glory among the heathen,
His wonders among all people.
- 4 For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised :
He is to be feared above all gods.
- 5 For all the gods of the nations are idols :
But the LORD made the heavens.
- 6 Honor and majesty are before him :
Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
- 7 Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people,
Give unto the LORD glory and strength.
- 8 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name :
Bring an offering, and come into his courts.
- 9 Oh worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness :
Fear before him, all the earth.
- 10 { Say among the heathen that the LORD reigneth :
    { 'The world also shall be established that it shall not be moved :
        He shall judge the people righteously.
- 11 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad ;
Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof.
- 12 Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein :
Then shall all the trees of the wood rejoice,
- 13 Before the LORD : for he cometh,
For he cometh to judge the earth :
    He shall judge the world with righteousness,
    And the people with his truth.

LESSON 27.

PSALM XCVII.

- THE LORD reigneth ; let the earth rejoice ;
Let the multitude of isles be glad thereof.
- 2 Clouds and darkness are round about him :
Righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne.
  - 3 A fire goeth before him,
And burneth up his enemies round about.
  - 4 His lightnings enlightened the world :
The earth saw, and trembled.
  - 5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD,
At the presence of the LORD of the whole earth.

- 6 The heavens declare his righteousness,
And all the people see his glory.
- 7 { Confounded be all they that serve graven images,
 { That boast themselves of idols:
Worship him, all ye gods.
- 8 Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced,
Because of thy judgments, O LORD.
- 9 For thou, LORD, art high above all the earth:
Thou art exalted far above all gods.
- 10 Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints;
He delivereth them out of the hand of the wicked.
- 11 Light is sown for the righteous,
And gladness for the upright in heart.
- 12 Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous;
And give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

PSALM XCVIII.

- OH sing unto the LORD a new song; for he hath done marvellous things:
His right hand and his holy arm, hath gotten him the victory.
- 2 The LORD hath made known his salvation:
His righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.
- 3 He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel:
All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
- 4 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth:
Make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise.
- 5 Sing unto the LORD with the harp;
With the harp, and the voice of a psalm.
- 6 With trumpets, and sound of cornet,
Make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King.
- 7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;
The world, and they that dwell therein.
- 8 Let the floods clap their hands:
Let the hills be joyful together,
- 9 Before the LORD; for he cometh to judge the earth;
With righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity

LESSON 28.

PSALM XCIII.

THE LORD reigneth,

He is clothed with majesty ;

The LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself.

The world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved.

2 Thy throne is established of old :

Thou art from everlasting.

3 The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice.

The floods lift up their waves.

4 The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters,

Yea, than the mighty waves of the sea.

5 Thy testimonies are very sure :

Holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, for ever.

PSALM XCIX.

THE LORD reigneth ; let the people tremble :

He sitteth between the cherubim ; let the earth be moved.

2 The LORD is great in Zion ;

And he is high above all the people.

3 Let them praise thy great and terrible name ;

For it is holy.

4 The king's strength also loveth judgment ; thou dost establish equity

Thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob.

5 Exalt ye the LORD our God,

And worship at his footstool ; for he is holy.

6 { Moses and Aaron among his priests,

{ And Samuel among them that call upon his name ;

They called upon the LORD, and he answered them.

7 He spake unto them in the cloudy pillar :

They kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them.

8 Thou answeredst them, O LORD our God :

{ Thou wast a God that forgavest them,

{ Though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions.

9 Exalt the LORD our God, and worship at his holy hill ;

For the LORD our God is holy.

PSALM C.

- MAKE a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands.
 2 Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.
 3 { Know ye that the LORD he is God:
   { It is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves;
     We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
 4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise.
     Be thankful unto him, and bless his name.
 5 For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting;
     And his truth endureth to all generations.

LESSON 29.

PSALM CII.

- HEAR my prayer, O LORD,
     And let my cry come unto thee.
 2 { Hide not thy face from me
   { In the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me:
     In the day when I call answer me speedily.
 3 For my days are consumed like smoke,
     And my bones are burned as a hearth.
 4 My heart is smitten, and withered like grass;
     So that I forget to eat my bread.
 5 { By reason of the voice of my groaning my bones cleave to my skin
 6 { I am like a pelican of the wilderness:
     I am like an owl of the desert.
 7 { I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the housetop.
 8 { Mine enemies reproach me all the day;
     And they that are mad against me are sworn against me.
 9 For I have eaten ashes like bread,
     And mingled my drink with weeping.
 10 Because of thine indignation and thy wrath:
     For thou hast lifted me up, and cast me down.
 11 My days are like a shadow that declineth;
     And I am withered like grass.
 12 But thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever;
     And thy remembrance unto all generations.

- 13 Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion :
For the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is come.
- 14 For thy servants take pleasure in her stones,
And favour the dust thereof.
- 15 So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD,
And all the kings of the earth thy glory.
- 16 When the LORD shall build up Zion,
He shall appear in his glory.
- 17 He will regard the prayer of the destitute,
And not despise their prayer.
- 18 This shall be written for the generation to come,
And the people which shall be created shall praise the LORD.
- 19 For he hath looked down from the height of his sanctuary ;
From heaven did the LORD behold the earth ;
- 20 To hear the groaning of the prisoner ;
To loose those that are appointed to death ;
- 21 To declare the name of the LORD in Zion,
And his praise in Jerusalem ;
- 22 When the people are gathered together,
And the kingdoms, to serve the LORD.
- 23 He weakened my strength in the way ;
He shortened my days.
- 24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days :
Thy years are throughout all generations.
- 25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth :
And the heavens are the work of thy hands.
- 26 They shall perish, but thou shalt endure :
Yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment ;
As a vesture shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed :
- 27 But thou art the same, and thy years shall have no end.
- 28 The children of thy servants shall continue,
And their seed shall be established before thee.

LESSON 30.

PSALM CIII.

- BLESS the LORD, O my soul :
And all that is within me, bless his holy name.
- 2 Bless the LORD, O my soul,
And forget not all his benefits.

- 3 Who forgiveth all thine iniquities ;
Who healeth all thy diseases ;
- 4 Who redeemeth thy life from destruction ;
Who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies ;
- 5 Who satisfieth thy mouth with good things ;
So that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- 6 The LORD executeth righteousness,
And judgment for all that are oppressed.
- 7 He made known his ways unto Moses,
His acts unto the children of Israel.
- 8 The LORD is merciful and gracious,
Slow to anger and plenteous in mercy.
- 9 He will not always chide :
Neither will he keep his anger for ever.
- 10 He hath not dealt with us after our sins ;
Nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.
- 11 For as the heaven is high above the earth,
So great is his mercy toward them that fear him.
- 12 As far as the east is from the west,
So far hath he removed our transgressions from us.
- 13 Like as a father pitieth his children,
So the LORD pitieth them that fear him.
- 14 For he knoweth our frame ;
He remembereth that we are dust.
- 15 As for man, his days are as grass :
As a flower of the field, so he flourisheth.
- 16 For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone ;
And the place thereof shall know it no more.
- 17 But the mercy of the LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him,
And his righteousness unto children's children ;
- 18 To such as keep his covenant,
And to those that remember his commandments to do them.
- 19 The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens ;
And his kingdom ruleth over all.
- 20 Bless the LORD, ye his angels, that excel in strength,
That do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word.
- 21 Bless ye the LORD, all ye his hosts ;
Ye ministers of his, that do his pleasure.
- 22 Bless the LORD, all his works in all places of his dominion :
Bless the LORD, O my soul.

LESSON 31.

PSALM CIV.

BLESS the LORD, O my soul. O LORD my God, thou art very great;
Thou art clothed with honour and majesty.

2 Who coverest thyself with light as with a garment :

Who stretchest out the heavens like a curtain :

3 { Who layeth the beams of his chambers in the waters :

{ Who maketh the clouds his chariot .

Who walketh upon the wings of the wind :

4 Who maketh his angels spirits ;

His ministers a flaming fire :

5 Who laid the foundations of the earth,

That it should not be removed for ever.

6 Thou coveredst it with the deep as with a garment :

The waters stood above the mountains.

7 At thy rebuke they fled ;

At the voice of thy thunder they hasted away.

8 They go up by the mountains ; they go down by the valleys,

Unto the place which thou hast founded for them.

9 Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over ;

That they turn not again to cover the earth.

10 He sendeth the springs into the valleys,

Which run among the hills.

11 They give drink to every beast of the field :

The wild asses quench their thirst.

12 By them shall the fowls of the heaven have their habitation,

Which sing among the branches.

13 He watereth the hills from his chambers :

The earth is satisfied with the fruit of thy works.

14 He canseth the grass to grow for the cattle,

And herb for the service of man :

That he may bring forth food out of the earth ;

15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man,

And oil to make his face to shine,

And bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

16 The trees of the LORD are full of sap ;

The cedars of Lebanon, which he hath planted ;

17 Where the birds make their nests :

As for the stork, the fir trees are her house.

- 18 The high hills are a refuge for the wild goats;
And the rocks for the conies.
- 19 He appointed the moon for seasons:
The sun knoweth his going down.
- 20 Thou makest darkness, and it is night:
Wherein all the beasts of the forest do creep forth.
- 21 The young lions roar after their prey,
And seek their meat from God.
- 22 The sun ariseth, they gather themselves together,
And lay them down in their dens
- 23 Man goeth forth unto his work
And to his labour until the evening.
- 24 O LORD, how manifold are thy works! in wisdom hast thou made them all:
The earth is full of thy riches.
- 25 So is this great and wide sea, wherein are things creeping innumerable,
Both small and great beasts.
- 26 There go the ships:
There is that leviathan, whom thou hast made to play therein.
- 27 These wait all upon thee;
That thou mayest give them their meat in due season.
- 28 That thou givest them they gather:
Thou openest thine hand, they are filled with good.
- 29 Thou hidest thy face, they are troubled:
Thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.
- 30 Thou sendest forth thy spirit, they are created:
And thou renewest the face of the earth.
- 31 The glory of the LORD shall endure for ever:
The LORD shall rejoice in his works.
- 32 He looketh on the earth, and it trembleth:
He toucheth the hills, and they smoke.
- 33 I will sing unto the LORD as long as I live:
I will sing praises to my God while I have my being.
- 34 My meditation of him shall be sweet:
I will be glad in the LORD.
- 35 Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth,
And let the wicked be no more.
Bless thou the LORD, O my soul.
PRAISE YE THE LORD.

LESSON 32.

PSALM CV.

- OH give thanks unto the LORD; call upon his name;
Make known his deeds among the people.
- 2 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him:
Talk ye of all his wondrous works.
- 3 Glory ye in his holy name:
Let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD.
- 4 Seek the LORD, and his strength:
Seek his face evermore.
- 5 Remember his marvellous works that he hath done;
His wonders, and the judgments of his mouth;
- 6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant,
Ye children of Jacob his chosen.
- 7 He is the LORD our God:
His judgments are in all the earth.
- 8 He hath remembered his covenant for ever,
The word which he commanded to a thousand generations.
- 9 Which covenant he made with Abraham,
And his oath unto Isaac;
- 10 And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law,
And to Israel for an everlasting covenant:
- 11 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan,
The lot of your inheritance:
- 12 When they were but a few men in number;
Yea, very few, and strangers in it.
- 13 When they went from one nation to another,
From one kingdom to another people;
- 14 He suffered no man to do them wrong:
Yea, he reprov'd kings for their sakes;
- 15 Saying, Touch not mine anointed,
And do my prophets no harm.
- 16 Moreover he called for a famine upon the land:
He brake the whole staff of bread.
- 17 He sent a man before them,
Even Joseph, who was sold for a servant:
- 18 Whose feet they hurt with fetters
He was laid in iron.

- 19 Until the time that his word came :
The word of the LORD tried him.
- 20 The king sent and loosed him :
Even the ruler of the people, and let him go free.
- 21 He made him lord of his house,
And ruler of all his substance :
- 22 To bind his princes at his pleasure ;
And teach his senators wisdom.
- 23 Israel also came into Egypt ;
And Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
- 24 And he increased his people greatly ;
And made them stronger than their enemies.
- 25 He turned their heart to hate his people,
To deal subtilly with his servants.
- 26 He sent Moses, his servant ;
And Aaron whom he had chosen.
- 27 They shewed his signs among them,
And wonders in the land of Ham.
- 28 He sent darkness, and made it dark ;
And they rebelled not against his word.
- 29 He turned their waters into blood,
And slew their fish.
- 30 Their land brought forth frogs in abundance,
In the chambers of their kings.
- 31 He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies,
And lice in all their coasts.
- 32 He gave them hail for rain,
And flaming fire in their land.
- 33 He smote their vines also, and their fig trees ;
And brake the trees of their coasts.
- 34 He spake, and the locusts came,
And caterpillars, and that without number,
- 35 And did eat up all the herbs in their land,
And devoured the fruit of their ground.
- 36 He smote also all the firstborn in their land,
The chief of all their strength.
- 37 He brought them forth also with silver and gold :
And there was not one feeble person among their tribes.
- 38 Egypt was glad when they departed :
For the fear of them fell upon them.

- 39 He spread a cloud for a covering ;
And fire to give light in the night.
- 40 The people asked, and he brought quails,
And satisfied them with the bread of heaven.
- 41 He opened the rock, and the waters gushed out ;
They ran in the dry places like a river.
- 42 For he remembered his holy promise,
And Abraham, his servant.
- 43 And he brought forth his people with joy,
And his chosen with gladness :
- 44 And gave them the lands of the heathen :
And they inherited the labour of the people ;
- 45 That they might observe his statutes,
And keep his laws.
- PRAISE YE THE LORD.

LESSON 33.

PSALM CVII.

- UN give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good
For his mercy endureth for ever.
- 2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so,
Whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy ;
- 3 And gathered them out of the lands,
From the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south.
- 4 They wandered in the wilderness, in a solitary way ;
They found no city to dwell in.
- 5 Hungry and thirsty,
Their soul fainted in them.
- 6 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble,
And he delivered them out of their distresses.
- 7 And he led them forth by the right way,
That they might go to a city of habitation.
- 8 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men !
- 9 For he satisfieth the longing soul,
And filleth the hungry soul with goodness.
- 10 Such as sit in darkness and the shadow of death,
Being bound in affliction and iron ;

- 11 Because they rebelled against the words of God,
And contemned the counsel of the Most High :
- 12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labour ;
They fell down, and there was none to help.
- 13 Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble,
And he saved them out of their distresses.
- 14 He brought them out of darkness, and the shadow of death,
And brake their bands in sunder.
- 15 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men !
- 16 For he hath broken the gates of brass,
And cut the bars of iron in sunder.
- 17 Fools, because of their transgression,
And because of their iniquities, are afflicted.
- 18 Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat ;
And they draw near unto the gates of death.
- 19 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble,
And he saveth them out of their distresses.
- 20 He sent his word, and healed them,
And delivered them from their destructions.
- 21 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men !
- 22 And let them sacrifice the sacrifices of thanksgiving,
And declare his works with rejoicing.
- 23 They that go down to the sea in ships,
That do business in great waters ;
- 24 These see the works of the LORD,
And his wonders in the deep.
- 25 For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind,
Which lifteth up the waves thereof.
- 26 They mount up to the heaven, they go down again to the depths ;
Their soul is melted because of trouble.
- 27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man,
And are at their wit's end.
- 28 Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble,
And he bringeth them out of their distresses.
- 29 He maketh the storm a calm,
So that the waves thereof are still.
- 30 Then are they glad because they be quiet ;
So he bringeth them unto their desired haven.

- 31 Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness,
And for his wonderful works to the children of men !
- 32 Let them exalt him also in the congregation of the people,
And praise him in the assembly of the elders.
- 33 He turneth rivers into a wilderness,
And the watersprings into dry ground ;
- 34 A fruitful land into barrenness,
For the wickedness of them that dwell therein.
- 35 He turneth the wilderness into a standing water,
And the dry ground into watersprings.
- 36 And there he maketh the hungry to dwell,
That they may prepare a city for habitation ;
- 37 And sow the fields, and plant vineyards,
Which may yield fruits of increase.
- 38 He blesseth them also, so that they are multiplied greatly ;
And suffereth not their cattle to decrease.
- 39 Again, they are minished and brought low,
Through oppression, affliction, and sorrow.
- 40 He poureth contempt upon princes,
And causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.
- 41 Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction,
And maketh him families like a flock.
- 42 The righteous shall see it, and rejoice :
And all iniquity shall stop her mouth.
- 43 Whoso is wise, and will observe these things,
Even they shall understand the lovingkindness of the LORD.

LESSON 34

PSALM CXI.

- PRAISE ye the LORD. I will praise the LORD with my whole heart,
In the assembly of the upright, and in the congregation.
- 2 The works of the LORD are great,
Sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.
- 3 His work is honourable and glorious.
And his righteousness endureth for ever.
- 4 He hath made his wonderful works to be remembered :
The LORD is gracious and full of compassion.
- 5 He hath given meat unto them that fear him :
He will ever be mindful of his covenant.

- 6 He hath shewed his people the power of his works,
That he may give them the heritage of the heathen.
- 7 The works of his hands are verity and judgment;
All his commandments are sure.
- 8 They stand fast for ever and ever,
And are done in truth and uprightness.
- 9 { He sent redemption unto his people:
 { He hath commanded his covenant for ever:
Holy and reverend is his name.
- 10 The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom:
A good understanding have all they that do his commandments
 HIS PRAISE ENDURETH FOR EVER.

PSALM CXII.

- PRAISE ye the LORD. Blessed is the man that feareth the LORD,
That delighteth greatly in his commandments.
- 2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth:
The generation of the upright shall be blessed.
- 3 Wealth and riches shall be in his house:
And his righteousness endureth for ever.
- 4 Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness:
He is gracious, and full of compassion, and righteous.
- 5 A good man sheweth favour, and lendeth;
He will guide his affairs with discretion.
- 6 Surely he shall not be moved for ever:
The righteous shall be in everlasting remembrance.
- 7 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings:
His heart is fixed, trusting in the LORD.
- 8 His heart is established, he shall not be afraid,
Until he see his desire upon his enemies.
- 9 { He hath dispersed, he hath given to the poor:
 { His righteousness endureth for ever;
His horn shall be exalted with honour.
- 10 { The wicked shall see it, and be grieved;
 { He shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away:
The desire of the wicked shall perish.

PSALM CXIII.

- PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise, O ye servants of the LORD,
Praise the name of the LORD.
- 2 Blessed be the name of the LORD,
From this time forth and for evermore.
- 3 From the rising of the sun, unto the going down of the same,
The LORD's name is to be praised.
- 4 The LORD is high above all nations,
And his glory above the heavens.
- 5 Who is like unto the LORD our God,
Who dwelleth on high,
- 6 Who humbleth himself to behold
The things that are in heaven, and in the earth !
- 7 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust,
And lifteth the needy out of the dunghill ;
- 8 That he may set him with princes,
Even with the princes of his people.
- 9 He maketh the barren woman to keep house,
And to be a joyful mother of children.
- PRAISE YE THE LORD.

LESSON 36.

PSALM CXIV.

- WHEN Israel went out of Egypt,
The house of Jacob from a people of strange language ;
- 2 Judah was his sanctuary,
And Israel his dominion.
- 3 The sea saw it, and fled :
Jordan was driven back.
- 4 The mountains skipped like rams,
And the little hills like lambs.
- 5 What ailed thee, O thou sea, that thou fleddest ?
Thou Jordan, that thou wast driven back ?
- 6 Ye mountains, that ye skipped like rams ;
And ye little hills, like lambs ?
- 7 Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the LORD,
At the presence of the God of Jacob ;

- 8 Which turned the rock into a standing water,
The flint into a fountain of waters.

PSALM CXV.

NOT unto us, O LORD, not unto us, but unto thy name give glory.

For thy mercy, and for thy truth's sake.

- 2 Wherefore should the heathen say,

Where is now their God ?

- 3 But our God is in the heavens :

He hath done whatsoever he hath pleased.

- 4 Their idols are silver and gold,

The work of men's hands.

- 5 They have mouths, but they speak not :

Eyes have they, but they see not :

- 6 They have ears, but they hear not :

Noses have they, but they smell not :

- 7 They have hands, but they handle not :

Feet have they, but they walk not : neither speak they through their throat

- 8 They that make them are like unto them ;

So is every one that trusteth in them.

- 9 O Israel, trust thou in the LORD :

He is their help and their shield.

- 10 O house of Aaron, trust in the LORD :

He is their help and their shield.

- 11 Ye that fear the LORD, trust in the LORD :

He is their help and their shield.

- 12 { The LORD hath been mindful of us : he will bless us ;

{ He will bless the house of Israel ;

He will bless the house of Aaron

- 13 He will bless them that fear the LORD,

Both small and great.

- 14 The LORD shall increase you more and more,

You and your children.

- 15 Ye are blessed of the LORD

Which made heaven and earth.

- 16 The heaven, even the heavens, are the LORD's :

But the earth hath he given to the children of men.

- 17 The dead praise not the LORD,

Neither any that go down into silence.

- 31 But we will bless the LORD,
From this time forth, and for evermore.
 PRAISE THE LORD.

LESSON 36.

PSALM CXVIII.

- OH give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good:
Because his mercy endureth for ever.
- 2 Let Israel now say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.
- 3 Let the house of Aaron now say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.
- 4 Let them now that fear the LORD say,
That his mercy endureth for ever.
- 5 I called upon the LORD in distress:
The LORD answered me, and set me in a large place.
- 6 The LORD is on my side; I will not fear:
What can man do unto me?
- 7 The LORD taketh my part with them that help me:
Therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.
- 8 It is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in man.
- 9 It is better to trust in the LORD
Than to put confidence in princes.
- 10 All nations compassed me about:
But in the name of the LORD will I destroy them.
- 11 They compassed me about; yea, they compassed me about:
But in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
- 12 { They compassed me about like bees;
 { They are quenched as the fire of thorns:
For in the name of the LORD I will destroy them.
- 13 Thou hast thrust sore at me that I might fall:
But the LORD helped me.
- 14 The LORD is my strength and song,
And is become my salvation.
- 15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tabernacles of the righteous
The right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.
- 16 The right hand of the LORD is exalted:
The right hand of the LORD doeth valiantly.

- 17 I shall not die, but live,
And declare the works of the LORD.
- 18 The LORD hath chastened me sore:
But he hath not given me over unto death.
- 19 Open to me the gates of righteousness:
I will go into them, and I will praise the LORD:
- 20 This gate of the LORD,
Into which the righteous shall enter.
- 21 I will praise thee: for thou hast heard me,
And art become my salvation.
- 22 The stone which the builders refused
Is become the head stone of the corner.
- 23 This is the LORD's doing;
It is marvellous in our eyes.
- 24 This is the day which the LORD hath made;
We will rejoice and be glad in it.
- 25 Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD:
O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.
- 26 Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the LORD:
We have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.
- 27 God is the LORD, which hath shewed us light:
Bind the sacrifices with cords, even unto the horns of the altar.
- 28 Thou art my God, and I will praise thee:
Thou art my God, I will exalt thee.
- 29 Oh give thanks unto the LORD; for he is good:
For his mercy endureth for ever.

LESSON 37.

PSALM CXIX, 97-128.

- OH how love I thy law!
It is my meditation all the day.
- 98 Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies:
For they are ever with me.
- 99 I have more understanding than all my teachers:
For thy testimonies are my meditation.
- 100 I understand more than the ancients,
Because I keep thy precepts.
- 101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way,
That I might keep thy word.

- 102 I have not departed from thy judgments
For thou hast taught me.
- 103 How sweet are thy words unto my taste .
Yea, sweeter than honey to my mouth.
- 104 Through thy precepts I get understanding .
Therefore I hate every false way.
- 105 Thy word is a lamp unto my feet,
And a light unto my path.
- 106 I have sworn, and I will perform it,
That I will keep thy righteous judgments.
- 107 I am afflicted very much :
Quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word.
- 108 Accept, I beseech thee, the freewill offerings of my mouth. O LORD,
And teach me thy judgments.
- 109 My soul is continually in my hand :
Yet do I not forget thy law.
- 110 The wicked have laid a snare for me :
Yet I erred not from thy precepts.
- 111 Thy testimonies have I taken as a heritage for ever :
For they are the rejoicing of my heart.
- 112 I have inclined mine heart to perform thy statutes
Alway, even unto the end.
- 113 I hate vain thoughts :
But thy law do I love.
- 114 Thou art my hiding place and my shield :
I hope in thy word.
- 115 Depart from me, ye evil doers :
For I will keep the commandments of my God.
- 116 Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live :
And let me not be ashamed of my hope.
- 117 Hold thou me up, and I shall be safe :
And I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.
- 118 Thou hast trodden down all them that err from thy statutes :
For their deceit is falsehood.
- 119 Thou puttest away all the wicked of the earth like dross :
Therefore I love thy testimonies.
- 120 My flesh trembleth for fear of thee ;
And I am afraid of thy judgments.
- 121 I have done judgment and justice :
Leave me not to mine oppressors.

- 122 Be surety for thy servant for good :
Let not the proud oppress me.
- 123 Mine eyes fail for thy salvation,
And for the word of thy righteousness.
- 124 Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy,
And teach me thy statutes.
- 125 I am thy servant ; give me understanding,
That I may know thy testimonies.
- 126 It is time for thee, LORD, to work :
For they have made void thy law.
- 127 Therefore I love thy commandments
Above gold ; yea, above fine gold.
- 128 Therefore I esteem all thy precepts concerning all things to be right ;
And I hate every false way.

LESSON 38.

PSALM CXIX, 129-160.

- 129 Thy testimonies are wonderful :
Therefore doth my soul keep them.
- 130 The entrance of thy words giveth light ;
It giveth understanding unto the simple.
- 131 I opened my mouth, and panted :
For I longed for thy commandments.
- 132 Look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me,
As thou usest to do unto those that love thy name.
- 133 Order my steps in thy word :
And let not any iniquity have dominion over me.
- 134 Deliver me from the oppression of man :
So will I keep thy precepts.
- 135 Make thy face to shine upon thy servant ;
And teach me thy statutes.
- 136 Rivers of waters run down mine eyes,
Because they keep not thy law.
- 137 Righteous art thou, O LORD,
And upright are thy judgments.
- 138 Thy testimonies that thou hast commanded are righteous
And very faithful.
- 139 My zeal hath consumed me,
Because mine enemies have forgotten thy words.

- 140 Thy word is very pure :
Therefore thy servant loveth it.
- 141 I am small and despised :
Yet do not I forget thy precepts.
- 142 Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness,
And thy law is the truth.
- 143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me :
Yet thy commandments are my delights.
- 144 The righteousness of thy testimonies is everlasting .
Give me understanding, and I shall live.
- 145 I cried with my whole heart ; hear me O LORD :
I will keep thy statutes.
- 146 I cried unto thee ; save me,
And I shall keep thy testimonies.
- 147 I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried
I hoped in thy word.
- 148 Mine eyes prevent the night watches,
That I might meditate in thy word.
- 149 Hear my voice, according unto thy lovingkindness :
O LORD, quicken me according to thy judgment.
- 150 They draw nigh that follow after mischief :
They are far from thy law.
- 151 Thou art near, O LORD ;
And all thy commandments are truth.
- 152 Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old
That thou hast founded them for ever.
- 153 Consider mine affliction, and deliver me :
For I do not forget thy law.
- 154 Plead my cause, and deliver me :
Quicken me according to thy word.
- 155 Salvation is far from the wicked :
For they seek not thy statutes.
- 156 Great are thy tender mercies, O LORD :
Quicken me according to thy judgments.
- 157 Many are my persecutors and mine enemies ;
Yet do I not decline from thy testimonies.
- 158 I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved ;
Because they kept not thy word.
- 159 Consider how I love thy precepts :
Quicken me, O LORD, according to thy lovingkindness.
- 160 Thy word is true from the beginning :
And every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever.

LESSON 39.

PSALM CXXI.

- I WILL lift up mine eyes unto the hills,
From whence cometh my help.
- 2 My help cometh from the LORD,
Which made heaven and earth.
- 3 He will not suffer thy foot to be moved :
He that keepeth thee will not slumber.
- 4 Behold, he that keepeth Israel
Shall neither slumber nor sleep.
- 5 The LORD is thy keeper :
The LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand.
- 6 The sun shall not smite thee by day,
Nor the moon by night.
- 7 The LORD shall preserve thee from all evil :
He shall preserve thy soul.
- 8 The LORD shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in,
From this time forth, and even for evermore.

PSALM CXXII.

- I WAS glad when they said unto me,
Let us go into the house of the LORD.
- 2 Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem.
- 3 Jerusalem is builded as a city that is compact together
- 4 Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD,
Unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name of the LORD.
- 5 For there are set thrones of judgment,
The thrones of the house of David.
- 6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem :
They shall prosper that love thee.
- 7 Peace be within thy walls,
And prosperity within thy palaces.
- 8 For my brethren and companions' sakes,
I will now say, Peace be within thee.
- 9 Because of the house of the LORD our God,
I will seek thy good.

PSALM CXXIII.

- UNTO thee I lift up mine eyes,
O thou that dwellest in the heavens.
- 2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters,
And as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress ;
 So our eyes wait upon the LORD our God,
Until that he have mercy upon us.
- 3 Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us :
For we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
- 4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease,
And with the contempt of the proud.

PSALM CXXV.

- THEY that trust in the LORD shall be as Mount Zion,
Which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever.
- 2 As the mountains are round about Jerusalem,
So the LORD is round about his people, from henceforth even for ever.
- 3 For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous ;
Lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity.
- 4 Do good, O LORD, unto those that be good,
And to them that are upright in their hearts.
- 5 As for such as turn aside unto their crooked ways,
The LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity.
- BUT PEACE SHALL BE UPON ISRAEL.

LESSON 40.

PSALM CXXXIII.

- BEHOLD, now good and how pleasant it is
For brethren to dwell together in unity.
- 2 { It is like the precious ointment upon the head,
 { That ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard :
That went down to the skirts of his garments ;
- 3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion :
For there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

PSALM CXXXIV.

- BEHOOLD, bless ye the LORD, all ye servants of the LORD,
Which by night stand in the house of the LORD.
 2 Lift up your hands in the sanctuary,
And bless the LORD.
 3 The LORD, that made heaven and earth,
Bless thee out of Zion.

PSALM CXXXV.

- PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise ye the name of the LORD;
Praise him, O ye servants of the LORD.
 2 Ye that stand in the house of the LORD,
In the courts of the house of our God,
 3 Praise the LORD; for the LORD is good :
Sing praises unto his name ; for it is pleasant.
 4 For the LORD hath chosen Jacob unto himself,
And Israel for his peculiar treasure.
 5 For I know that the LORD is great,
And that our LORD is above all gods.
 6 Whatsoever the LORD pleased, that did he in heaven, and in earth,
In the seas, and all deep places.
 7 { He causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth ;
 { He maketh lightnings for the rain ;
He bringeth the wind out of his treasures.
 8 Who smote the firstborn of Egypt,
Both of man and beast.
 9 Who sent tokens and wonders into the midst of thee, O Egypt,
Upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants.
 10 Who smote great nations, and slew mighty kings ;
 11 { Sihon, king of the Amorites, and Og, king of Bashan,
 { And all the kingdoms of Canaan :
 12 And gave their land for a heritage,
A heritage unto Israel his people.
 13 Thy name, O LORD, endureth for ever ;
And thy memorial, O LORD, throughout all generations.
 14 For the LORD will judge his people,
And he will repent himself concerning his servants.

- 15 The idols of the heathen are silver and gold,
The work of man's hands.
- 16 They have mouths, but they speak not;
Eyes have they, but they see not ;
- 17 They have ears, but they hear not;
Neither is their any breath in their mouths.
- 18 They that make them are like unto them:
So is every one that trusteth in them.
- 19 Bless the LORD, O house of Israel:
Bless the LORD, O house of Aaron :
- 20 Bless the LORD, O house of Levi;
Ye that fear the LORD, bless the LORD.
- 21 Blessed be the LORD out of Zion,
Which dwelleth at Jerusalem.
- PRAISE YE THE LORD.

LESSON 41.

PSALM CXXXVIII.

- [ WILL praise thee with my whole heart:
Before the gods will I sing praise unto thee.
- 2 I will worship toward thy holy temple,
And praise thy name,
For thy lovingkindness and for thy truth:
For thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.
- 3 In the day when I cried thou answeredst me,
And strengthenedst me with strength in my soul.
- 4 All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O LORD,
When they hear the words of thy mouth.
- 5 Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the LORD:
For great is the glory of the LORD.
- 6 Though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the lowly:
But the proud he knoweth afar off.
- 7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me.
{ Thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies,
  And thy right hand shall save me.
- 8 { The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me:
  { Thy mercy, O LORD, endureth for ever:
    Forsake not the works of thine own hands.

PSALM CXXXIX.

- { O LORD, thou hast searched me, and known me.
 2 Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising;
Thou understandest my thought afar off.
 3 Thou compassest my path and my lying down,
And art acquainted with all my ways.
 4 For there is not a word in my tongue,
But lo, O LORD, thou knowest it altogether.
 5 Thou hast beset me behind and before,
And laid thine hand upon me.
 6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me;
It is high, I cannot attain unto it.
 7 Whither shall I go from thy spirit?
Or whither shall I flee from thy presence?
 8 If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there:
If I make my bed in hell, behold, thou art there.
 9 If I take the wings of the morning,
And dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
 10 Even there shall thy hand lead me,
And thy right hand shall hold me.
 11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me;
Even the night shall be light about me.
 12 { Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee;
 { But the night shineth as the day:
The darkness and the light are both alike to thee.
 13 For thou hast possessed my reins:
Thou hast covered me in my mother's womb.
 14 I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made:
Marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.
 15 My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret,
And curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.
 16 { Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect;
 { And in thy book all my members were written,
Which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there was none of them
 17 How precious also are thy thoughts unto me, O God!
How great is the sum of them!
 18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand:
When I awake, I am still with thee.

- 19 Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O God !
Depart from me, therefore, ye bloody men.
- 20 For they speak against thee wickedly,
And thine enemies take thy name in vain.
- 21 Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee ?
And am I not grieved with those that rise up against thee ?
- 22 I hate them with perfect hatred :
I count them mine enemies.
- 23 Search me, O God, and know my heart :
Try me, and know my thoughts :
- 24 And see if there be any wicked way in me,
And lead me in the way everlasting.

LESSON 42.

PSALM CXLIV.

- BLESSED be the LORD my strength,
Which teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight
- 2 My goodness, and my fortress ;
My high tower, and my deliverer ;
 My shield, and he in whom I trust ;
Who subdueth my people under me.
- 3 LORD, what is man, that thou takest knowledge of him !
Or the son of man, that thou makest account of him !
- 4 Man is like to vanity :
His days are as a shadow that passeth away.
- 5 Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and come down :
Touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.
- 6 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them :
Shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them.
- 7 Send thine hand from above ; rid me, and deliver me out of great waters,
From the hand of strange children ;
- 8 Whose mouth speaketh vanity,
And their right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
- 9 I will sing a new song unto thee, O God :
Upon a psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee.
- 10 It is he that giveth salvation unto kings :
Who delivereth David his servant from the hurtful sword.

- 11 { Rid me, and deliver me from the hand of strange children,
 { Whose mouth speaketh vanity,
And their right hand is a right hand of falsehood :
- 12 That our sons may be as plants grown up in their youth ;
That our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace ;
- 13 That our garners may be full, affording all manner of store ;
That our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets :
- 14 That our oxen may be strong to labour ; that there be no breaking in, nor going out :
That there be no complaining in our streets.
- 15 Happy is that people, that is in such a case :
Yea, happy is that people whose God is the LORD.

PSALM CXLV.

- [ WILL extol thee, my God, O king ;
And I will bless thy name for ever and ever.
- 2 Every day will I bless thee ;
And I will praise thy name for ever and ever.
- 3 Great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised ;
And his greatness is unsearchable.
- 4 One generation shall praise thy works to another,
And shall declare thy mighty acts.
- 5 I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty,
And of thy wondrous works.
- 6 And men shall speak of the might of thy terrible acts :
And I will declare thy greatness.
- 7 They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness,
And shall sing of thy righteousness.
- 8 The LORD is gracious, and full of compassion ;
Slow to anger, and of great mercy.
- 9 The LORD is good to all :
And his tender mercies are over all his works.
- 10 All thy works shall praise thee, O LORD ;
And thy saints shall bless thee.
- 11 They shall speak of the glory of thy kingdom,
And talk of thy power ;
- 12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts,
And the glorious majesty of his kingdom.

- 13 Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,
And thy dominion endureth throughout all generations.
- 14 The LORD upholdeth all that fall,
And raiseth up all those that be bowed down.
- 15 The eyes of all wait upon thee ;
And thou givest them their meat in due season.
- 16 Thou openest thine hand,
And satisfiest the desire of every living thing.
- 17 The LORD is righteous in all his ways,
And holy in all his works.
- 18 The LORD is nigh unto all them that call upon him,
To all that call upon him in truth.
- 19 He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him,
He also will hear their cry, and will save them.
- 20 The LORD preserveth all them that love him :
But all the wicked will he destroy.
- 21 My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD :
And let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

LESSON 43.

PSALM CXLVI.

PRAISE ye the LORD.

- Praise the LORD, O my soul.*
- 2 While I live will I praise the LORD :
I will sing praises unto my God while I have any being
- 3 Put not your trust in princes,
Nor in the son of man, in whom there is no help.
- 4 His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth ;
In that very day his thoughts perish.
- 5 Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help,
Whose hope is in the LORD his God :
- 6 Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is :
Which keepeth truth for ever :
- 7 Which executeth judgment for the oppressed :
Which giveth food to the hungry.
- The LORD looseth the prisoners :
- 8 The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind :
The LORD raiseth them that are bowed down :
The LORD loveth the righteous .

- 9 The LORD preserveth the strangers : he relieveth the fatherless and the widow :
But the way of the wicked he turneth upside down.
- 10 The LORD shall reign forever,
Even thy God, O Zion, unto all generations.
- PRAISE YE THE LORD.

PSALM CXIVII.

PRAISE ye the LORD : for it is good to sing praises unto our God ;
For it is pleasant, and praise is comely.

- 2 The LORD doth build up Jerusalem :
He gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.
- 3 He healeth the broken in heart,
And bindeth up their wounds.
- 4 He telleth the number of the stars ;
He calleth them all by their names.
- 5 Great is our LORD, and of great power :
His understanding is infinite.
- 6 The LORD lifteth up the meek :
He casteth the wicked down to the ground.
- 7 Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving ;
Sing praise upon the harp unto our God.
- 8 Who covereth the heaven with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth,
Who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains.
- 9 He giveth to the beast his food,
And to the young ravens which cry.
- 10 He delighteth not in the strength of the horse :
He taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man.
- 11 The LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him,
In those that hope in his mercy.
- 12 Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem ;
Praise thy God, O Zion.
- 13 For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates ;
He hath blessed thy children within thee.
- 14 He maketh peace in thy borders,
And filleth thee with the finest of the wheat.
- 15 He sendeth forth his commandment upon earth :
His word runneth very swiftly.
- 16 He giveth snow like wool :
He scattereth the hoar frost like ashes.

- 17 He casteth forth his ice like morsels :
Who can stand before his cold ?
- 18 He sendeth out his word, and melteth them :
He causeth his wind to blow, and the waters flow.
- 19 He sheweth his word unto Jacob,
His statutes and his judgments unto Israel.
- 20 He hath not dealt so with any nation :
And as for his judgments, they have not known them.
- PRAISE YE THE LORD.

LESSON 44.

PSALM CXLVIII.

- PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise ye the LORD from the heavens :
Praise him in the heights.
- 2 Praise ye him, all his angels :
Praise ye him, all his hosts.
- 3 Praise ye him, sun and moon :
Praise him, all ye stars of light.
- 4 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens,
And ye waters that be above the heavens.
- 5 Let them praise the name of the LORD :
For he commanded, and they were created.
- 6 He hath also stablished them for ever and ever :
He hath made a decree which shall not pass.
- 7 Praise the LORD from the earth,
Ye dragons, and all deeps :
- 8 Fire, and hail ; snow, and vapour ;
Stormy wind fulfilling his word :
- 9 Mountains, and all hills ;
Fruitful trees, and all cedars :
- 10 Beasts, and all cattle ;
Creeping things, and flying fowl :
- 11 Kings of the earth, and all people ;
Princes, and all judges of the earth :
- 12 Both young men, and maidens :
Old men, and children :
- 13 Let them praise the name of the LORD : for his name alone is excellent ;
His glory is above the earth and heaven.

- 14 He also exalteth the horn of his people,
The praise of all his saints ;
 Even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him.
Praise ye the LORD.

PSALM CXLIX.

- PRAISE ye the LORD. Sing unto the LORD a new song,
And his praise in the congregation of saints.
- 2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him :
Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
- 3 Let them praise him in the dance :
Let them sing praises unto him with the timbrel and harp.
- 4 For the LORD taketh pleasure in his people :
He will beautify the meek with salvation.
- 5 Let the saints be joyful in glory :
Let them sing aloud upon their beds.
- 6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth,
And a two-edged sword in their hand ;
- 7 To execute vengeance upon the heathen,
And punishments upon the people ;
- 8 To bind their kings with chains,
And their nobles with fetters of iron ;
- 9 To execute upon them the judgment written :
This honour have all his saints.
- PRAISE YE THE LORD.

PSALM CL.

- PRAISE ye the LORD. Praise God in his sanctuary :
Praise him in the firmament of his power.
- 2 Praise him for his mighty acts :
Praise him according to his excellent greatness.
- 3 Praise him with the sound of the trumpet :
Praise him with the psaltery and harp.
- 4 Praise him with the timbrel and dance :
Praise him with stringed instruments and organs.
- 5 Praise him upon the loud cymbals :
Praise him upon the high sounding cymbals.
- 6 Let everything that hath breath praise the LORD.
- PRAISE YE THE LORD.

[NOTE.—A few Lessons are added from the Messianic prophecies of Isaiah—similar to the Psalms in their poetical structure, and equally appropriate for responsive reading.]

LESSON 45.

ISAIAH XI, 1-9

- AND there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse,
And a Branch shall grow out of his roots :
- 2 And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him,
The spirit of wisdom and understanding,
The spirit of counsel and might,
The spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD ;
- 3 And shall make him of quick understanding,
In the fear of the LORD :
 And he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes,
Neither reprove after the hearing of his ears :
- 4 But with righteousness shall he judge the poor,
And reprove with equity for the meek of the earth.
 And he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth,
And with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.
- 5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins,
And faithfulness the girdle of his reins.
- 6 The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb,
And the leopard shall lie down with the kid ;
 And the calf, and the young lion, and the fatling together ;
And a little child shall lead them.
- 7 And the cow and the bear shall feed ; their young ones shall lie down together ;
And the lion shall eat straw like the ox.
- 8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp,
And the weaned child shall put his hand on the cockatrice' den.
- 9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain,
For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD, as the waters cover the sea.

ISAIAH XLII, 1-12.

- BEHOLD my servant, whom I uphold ;
Mine elect, in whom my soul delighteth ;
 I have put my Spirit upon him ;
He shall bring forth judgment to the Gentiles.

- 2 He shall not cry, nor lift up,
Nor cause his voice to be heard in the street.
- 3 A bruised reed shall he not break, and the smoking flax shall he not quench
He shall bring forth judgment unto truth.
- 4 He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth :
And the isles shall wait for his law.
- 5 Thus saith God the LORD,
He that created the heavens, and stretched them out ;
 He that spread forth the earth,
And that which cometh out of it ;
 He that giveth breath unto the people upon it,
And spirit to them that walk therein :
- 6 I the LORD have called thee in righteousness,
And will hold thine hand, and will keep thee,
 And give thee for a covenant of the people,
For a light of the Gentiles ;
- 7 To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison,
And them that sit in darkness, out of the prison-house.
- 8 I am the LORD : that is my name : and my glory will I not give to another,
Neither my praise to graven images.
- 9 Behold the former things are come to pass. and new things do I declare :
Before they spring forth I tell you of them.
- 10 Sing unto the LORD a new song,
And his praise from the end of the earth,
 Ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein ;
The isles, and the inhabitants thereof.
- 11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice,
The villages that Kedar doth inhabit :
 Let the inhabitants of the rock sing,
Let them shout from the top of the mountains.
- 12 Let them give glory unto the LORD,
And declare his praise in the islands.

LESSON 46.

ISAIAH LXI, 1-7.

THE Spirit of the LORD GOD is upon me ;
Because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek
 He hath sent me to bind up the broken-hearted,
 { To proclaim liberty to the captives,
 { And the opening of the prison to them that are bound.

- 2 } To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD,
 { And the day of vengeance of our God ;
To comfort all that mourn ;
- 3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion,
To give unto them beauty for ashes,
 The oil of joy for mourning,
The garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness ;
 That they might be called trees of righteousness ;
The planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.
- 4 And they shall build the old wastes,
They shall raise up the former desolations,
 And they shall repair the waste cities,
The desolations of many generations.
- 5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks,
And the sons of the alien shall be your ploughmen and your vine-dressers.
- 6 But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD :
Men shall call you the Ministers of our God :
 Ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles,
And in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.
- 7 For your shame ye shall have double ;
And for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion ;
 Therefore in their land they shall possess the double :
Everlasting joy shall be upon them.

ISAIAH LV, 1-13.

- 1 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters,
And he that hath no money : come ye, buy, and eat ;
 Yea, come, buy wine and milk,
Without money and without price.
- 2 Wherefore do ye spend money for that which is not bread ?
And your labour for that which satisfieth not ?
 Harken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good,
And let your soul delight itself in fatness.
- 3 Incline your ear, and come unto me ;
Hear, and your soul shall live :
 And I will make an everlasting covenant with you,
Even the sure mercies of David.
- 4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people,
A leader and commander to the people.

- 5 Behold, thou shalt call a nation that thou knowest not,
And nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee,
 Because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel ;
For he hath glorified thee.
- 6 Seek ye the LORD while he may be found,
Call ye upon him while he is near :
- 7 Let the wicked forsake his way,
And the unrighteous man his thoughts :
 And let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him ;
And to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.
- 8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
Neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.
- 9 { For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
 { So are my ways higher than your ways,
And my thoughts than your thoughts.
- 10 For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven,
And returneth not thither,
 But watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud,
That it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater :
- 11 So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth ;
It shall not return unto me void,
 But it shall accomplish that which I please,
And it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.
- 12 For ye shall go out with joy,
And be led forth with peace :
 The mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing,
And all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.
- 13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree,
And instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree :
 And it shall be to the LORD for a name,
For an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

LESSON 47.

ISAIAH XL, 1-13, 22-31.

COMFORT ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

- 2 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her,
 That her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned :
For she hath received of the LORD's hand double for all her sins.

- 3 { The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness,
 { Prepare ye the way of the LORD,
Make straight in the desert a highway for our God.
- 4 Every valley shall be exalted,
And every mountain and hill shall be made low ;
 And the crooked shall be made straight,
And the rough places plain :
- 5 { And the glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
 { And all flesh shall see it together :
For the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.
- 6 The voice said, Cry.
And he said, What shall I cry ?
 All flesh is grass,
And all the goodness thereof is as the flower of the field :
- 7 { The grass withereth, the flower fadeth :
 { Because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it :
Surely the people is grass.
- 8 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth :
But the word of our God shall stand for ever.
- 9 O Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountain ;
O Jerusalem, that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength ;
 Lift it up, be not afraid ;
Say unto the cities of Judah, Behold your God !
- 10 Behold the LORD GOD will come with strong hand,
And his arm shall rule for him :
 Behold his reward is with him,
And his work before him.
- 11 He shall feed his flock like a shepherd :
He shall gather the lambs with his arm,
 And carry them in his bosom,
And shall gently lead those that are with young.
- 12 Who hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand,
And meted out heaven with the span,
 And comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure,
And weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance ?
- 13 Who hath directed the Spirit of the LORD,
Or being his counsellor hath taught him ?
- * * * * *
- 12 It is he that sitteth upon the circle of the earth,
And the inhabitants thereof are as grasshoppers ;

- That stretcheth out the heavens as a curtain,
And spreadeth them out as a tent to dwell in :
- 23 That bringeth the princes to nothing ;
He maketh the judges of the earth as vanity.
- 24 Yea, they shall not be planted ; yea, they shall not be sown :
Yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth :
 And he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither,
And the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.
- 25 To whom then will ye liken me,
Or shall I be equal ? saith the Holy One.
- 26 Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created these things.
That bringeth out their host by number :
 He calleth them all by names, by the greatness of his might,
For that he is strong in power ; not one faileth.
- 27 Why sayest thou, O Jacob,
And speakest, O Israel,
 My way is hid from the LORD,
And my judgment is passed over from my God ?
- 28 Hast thou not known ? hast thou not heard, that the everlasting God,
The LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth,
 Fainteth not, neither is weary ?
There is no searching of his understanding.
- 29 He giveth power to the faint ;
And to them that have no might he increaseth strength.
- 30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary,
And the young men shall utterly fall :
- 31 But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength ;
They shall mount up with wings as eagles ;
 They shall run, and not be weary ;
And they shall walk, and not faint.

LESSON 48.

ISAIAH LX : 1-20.

- ARISE, shine : for thy light is come,
And the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.
- 2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth,
And gross darkness the people :
 But the LORD shall arise upon thee,
And his glory shall be seen upon thee.

- 3 And the Gentiles shall come to thy light,
And kings to the brightness of thy rising.
- 4 { Lift up thine eyes round about, and see:
 { All they gather themselves together,
They come to thee :
 Thy sons shall come from far,
And thy daughters shall be nursed at thy side.
- 5 Then thou shalt see, and flow together,
And thine heart shall fear and be enlarged ;
 Because the abundance of the sea shall be converted into thee,
The forces of the Gentiles shall come unto thee.
- 6 { The multitude of camels shall come unto thee,
 { The dromedaries of Midian and Ephah :
All they from Sheba shall come :
 They shall bring gold and incense ;
And they shall shew forth the praises of the LORD.
- 7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee,
The rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee :
 They shall come up with acceptance on mine altar,
And I will glorify the house of my glory.
- 8 Who are these that fly as a cloud,
And as the doves to their windows ?
- 9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first,
To bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them,
 Unto the name of the LORD thy God,
And to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee.
- 10 And the sons of strangers shall build up thy walls,
And their kings shall minister unto thee ;
 For in my wrath I smote thee,
But in my favour have I had mercy on thee.
- 11 Therefore thy gates shall be open continually ;
They shall not be shut day nor night ;
 That men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles,
And that their kings may be brought.
- 12 For the nation and kingdom that will not serve thee shall perish :
Yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted.
- 13 The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee,
The fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together,
 To beautify the place of my sanctuary ;
And I will make the place of my feet glorious.

- 14 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto thee :
And all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the sole of thy feet ;
And they shall call thee The city of the LORD,
The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
- 15 Whereas thou hast been forsaken and hated,
So that no man went through thee,
I will make thee an eternal excellency,
A joy of many generations.
- 16 Thou shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles,
And shalt suck the breast of kings :
And thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour,
And thy Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.
- 17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver,
And for wood brass, and for stones iron ;
I will also make thy officers peace,
And thine exactors righteousness.
- 18 Violence shall no more be heard in thy land,
Wasting nor destruction within thy borders ;
But thou shalt call thy walls Salvation,
And thy gates Praise.
- 9 The sun shall be no more thy light by day ;
Neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee :
But the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light,
And thy God thy glory.
- 20 Thy sun shall no more go down ;
Neither shall thy moon withdraw itself ;
For the LORD shall be thine everlasting light,
And the days of thy mourning shall be ended.

PREFACE.

---

THE compiler of this book has never assumed that he had received any special call to the work of preparing a Manual of Worship for all Christian people, although this is the third which has appeared with his name. Each of these has had its peculiarity, and for each of them in turn he has had a local reason and a recognized invitation.

The present selection has been gathered for the use of a few pastors, who desire it for the churches to which they are ministering. It is issued in the usual way, because the conjecture is hazarded that other congregations, like those, may find it adapted to their needs also.

Still, it would be an affectation for him to profess any indifference to the manifest favor with which his efforts in this direction have been received hitherto. If there be one thing more than another which at the same moment humbles and rejoices a Christian heart, it is the consciousness that unostentatious endeavor, costing care and toil to him who attempts it, is setting other hearts singing on their way to heaven.

It moves him inexpressibly to think, as he commits this volume to the charities of his brethren of every name, and leaves it to the acceptance of God, that there may be many groups of Christ's children lifting the melodies of these Spiritual Songs, to which he will never listen. He has but a single prayer left for himself,—that he may sing one new song with them all by and by.

SPIRITUAL SONGS.

DALSTON. S. P. M.

A. WILLIAMS.

1. How pleased and blest was I, To hear the people cry, "Come, let us seek our God to-day!"

Yes, with a cheerful zeal, We haste to Zion's hill, And there our vows and honors pay.

L. WATTS.

How pleased and blest was I,
To hear the people cry,
"Come, let us seek our God to-day!"
Yes, with a cheerful zeal,
We haste to Zion's hill,
And there our vows and honors pay.

2 Zion—thrice happy place—
Adorned with wondrous grace,
While walls of strength embrace thee round: For here my friends and kindred dwell;
In thee our tribes appear,
To pray, and praise, and hear
The sacred gospel's joyful sound.

3 May peace attend thy gate,
And joy within thee wait,
To bless the soul of every guest:
The man who seeks thy peace,
And wishes thine increase,
A thousand blessings on him rest!

4 My tongue repeats her vows,
"Peace to this sacred house!"
And since my glorious God
Makes thee his blest abode,
My soul shall ever love thee well.

HENDON. 7a.

C. H. A. MALAN.

"Thy face we seek." W. HAMMOND.

LORD, we come before thee now,
At thy feet we humbly bow;
Oh, do not our suit disdain!
Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

2 Lord, on thee our souls depend,
In compassion now descend;
Fill our hearts with thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing thy praise.

3 In thine own appointed way,
Now we seek thee; here we stay;
Lord, we know not how to go,
Till a blessing thou bestow.

4 Comfort those who weep and mourn;
Let the time of joy return;
Those that are cast down lift up;
Make them strong in faith and hope.

5 Grant that all may seek and find
Thee a God supremely kind;
Heal the sick; the captive free;
Let us all rejoice in thee.

Jesus intercedes. J. MONTGOMERY.

To thy temple we repair—
Lord, we love to worship there,
When within the veil we meet
Thee upon the mercy-seat.

2 While thy glorious name is sung,
Tune our lips—unloose our tongue;
Then our joyful souls shall bless
Thee, the Lord our Righteousness.

3 While to thee our prayers ascend,
Let thine ear in love attend;
Hear us, for thy Spirit pleads—
Hear, for Jesus intercedes.

4 While thy word is heard with awe,
While we tremble at thy law,
Let thy gospel's wondrous love
Every doubt and fear remove.

5 From thy house when we return,
Let our hearts within us burn;
That at evening we may say—
"We have walked with God to-day."

GERMAN EVENING HYMN.

1. To thy pastures fair and large, Heaven - ly Shepherd, lead thy charge,
And my couch with ten - d'rest care, 'Mid the springing grass pre - pare.

Psalm 23.

J. MERRICK.

Twilight.

S. F. SMITH.

To thy pastures fair and large,
Heavenly Shepherd, lead thy charge,
And my couch, with tenderest care,
'Mid the springing grass prepare.

2 When I faint with summer's heat,
Thou shalt guide my weary feet
To the streams that, still and slow,
Through the verdant meadows flow.

3 Safe the dreary vale I tread,
By the shades of death o'erspread,
With thy rod and staff supplied,
This my guard—and that my guide.

4 Constant to my latest end,
Thou my footsteps shalt attend;
And shalt bid thy hallowed dome
Yield me an eternal home.

Softly fades the twilight ray
Of the holy Sabbath day;
Gently as life's setting sun,
When the Christian's course is run.

2 Peace is on the world abroad;
'Tis the holy peace of God—
Symbol of the peace within
When the spirit rests from sin.

3 Still the Spirit lingers near,
Where the evening worshiper
Seeks communion with the skies,
Pressing onward to the prize.

4 Saviour! may our Sabbaths be
Days of joy and peace in thee,
Till in heaven our souls repose,
Where the Sabbath ne'er shall close.

BAKEM. L. M. 61.

"Day of Rest."

T. KELLY.

The day of rest once more comes round,
A day to all believers dear;
The silver trumpets seem to sound,
That call the tribes of Israel near;
Ye people all, obey the call,
And in Jehovah's courts appear.

2 Obedient to thy summons, Lord,
We to thy sanctuary come;

Thy gracious presence here afford,
And send thy people joyful home;
Of thee our King, oh, may we sing,
And none with such a theme be dumb.
3 Oh, hasten, Lord, the day when those
Who know thee here shall see thy face;
When suffering shall for ever close,
And they shall reach their destined place;
Then shall they rest, supremely blest,
Eternal debtors to thy grace.

ADMAH. L. M. 61.

LOWELL MASON.

2 Hence, ye vain cares and trifles, fly!
Where God resides appear no more;
Omniscient God, thy piercing eye
Can every secret thought explore;
Oh, may thy grace our hearts refine,
And fix our thoughts on things divine.

Grace in Service.

A. STEELE.

GREAT God! this sacred day of thine
Demands the soul's collected powers;
With joy we now to thee resign
These solemn, consecrated hours;
Oh, may our souls, adoring, own
The grace that calls us to thy throne.

3 Thy Spirit's powerful aid impart;
Oh, may thy word, with life divine,
Engage the ear and warm the heart;
Then shall the day indeed be thine;
Then shall our souls, adoring, own
The grace which calls us to thy throne.

BROWNELL. L. M. 61.

FROM F. J. HAYDN.

1. The Lord my pasture shall prepare, And feed me with a shepherd's care; His presence shall my wants supply,

And guard me with a watchful eye; My noonday walks he shall attend, And all my midnight hours defend.

Psalm 23.

J. ADDISON.

THE Lord my pasture shall prepare,
And feed me with a shepherd's care;
His presence shall my wants supply,
And guard me with a watchful eye;
My noonday walks he shall attend,
And all my midnight hours defend.

2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
To fertile vales, and dewy meads,

My weary, wandering steps he leads;
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.

3 Though in a bare and rugged way,
Through devious, lonely wilds I stray,
Thy presence shall my pains beguile:
The barren wilderness shall smile,
With sudden greens and herbage crowned;
And streams shall murmur all around.

YOAKLEY. L. M. 61.

W. YOAKLEY.

1. { When, streaming from the eastern skies, The morning light salutes mine eyes, } Oh, chase the cloud of guilt

Oh, chase the clouds of guilt away,
And turn my darkness into day.

2 And when to heaven's all-glorious King
My morning-sacrifice I bring,
And, mourning o'er my guilt and shame,
Ask mercy in my Saviour's name;
Then, Jesus, cleanse me with thy blood,
And be my Advocate with God.

Constant Devotion.

W. SHRUBSOLE.

WHEN, streaming from the eastern skies,
The morning light salutes mine eyes,
O Sun of righteousness divine,
On me with beams of mercy shine!

3 When each day's scenes and labors close,
And wearied nature seeks repose,
With pardoning mercy richly blest,
Guard me, my Saviour, while I rest;
And, as each morning sun shall rise,
Oh, lead me onward to the skies!

LISCHER. H. M.

F. SCHNEIDER.

1. Welcome, delight-ful morn, Thou day of sa - cred rest;
 { I hail thy kind re - turn;— Lord, make these moments blest: } From the low train Of mortal toys,

10

Welcome Worship.

HAYWARD.

WELCOME, delightful morn,
 Thou day of sacred rest;
 I hail thy kind return;—
 Lord, make these moments blest:
 From the low train | I soar to reach
 Of mortal toys, | Immortal joys.
 2 Now may the King descend,
 And fill his throne of grace;
 Thy sceptre, Lord, extend,
 While saints address thy face:
 Let sinners feel | And learn to know
 Thy quickening word, | And fear the Lord.
 3 Descend, celestial Dove,
 With all thy quickening powers;
 Disclose a Saviour's love,
 And bless these sacred hours:
 Then shall my soul | Nor Sabbaths be
 New life obtain, | Enjoyed in vain.

MILLENNIUM. H. M.

1. Lord of the worlds above! How pleasant, and how fair, The dwellings of thy love, Thine earth - ly temples are! To thine a - bode my heart as - pires, With warm desires to see my God.

11

Psalm 84.

I. WATTS.

LORD of the worlds above!
 How pleasant, and how fair,
 The dwellings of thy love,
 Thine earthly temples are!
 To thine abode my heart aspires,
 With warm desires to see my God.
 2 Oh, happy souls who pray,
 Where God appoints to hear!
 Oh, happy men who pay
 Their constant service there!
 They praise thee still; and happy they,
 Who love the way to Zion's hill.
 3 They go from strength to strength,
 Through this dark vale of tears,
 Till each arrives at length,
 Till each in heaven appears;
 Oh, glorious seat, when God, our King,
 Shall thither bring our willing feet!

Psaln 43.

T. DWIGHT.

Now, to thy sacred house,
With joy I turn my feet,
Where saints, with morning-vows,
In full assembly meet:
Thy power divine shall there be shown,
And from thy throne thy mercy shine.

2 Oh, send thy light abroad;
Thy truth with heavenly ray
Shall lead my soul to God,
And guide my doubtful way;
I'll hear thy word with faith sincere,
And learn to fear and praise the Lord.

3 Here reach thy bounteous hand,
And all my sorrows heal;
Here health and strength divine,
Oh, make my bosom feel;
Like balmy dew shall Jesus' voice
My heart rejoice, my strength renew.

4 Now in thy holy hill,
Before thine altar, Lord!
My harp and song shall sound
The glories of thy word:
Henceforth, to thee, O God of grace!
A hymn of praise, my life shall be.

SABBATH. 7<sup>a</sup>. 61.

LOWELL MASON.

1. Safe - ly through ano - ther week, God has brought us on our way; Let us now a blessing

13

Sabbath morning.

J. NEWTON.

SAFELY through another week,
God has brought us on our way;
Let us now a blessing seek,
Waiting in his courts to-day:
Day of all the week the best,
Emblem of eternal rest.

2 While we seek supplies of grace,
Through the dear Redeemer's name,
Show thy reconciling face—
Take away our sin and shame;
From our worldly cares set free,—
May we rest this day in thee.

3 Here we come thy name to praise;
Let us feel thy presence near;
May thy glory meet our eyes,
While we in thy house appear:
Here afford us, Lord, a taste
Of our everlasting feast.

4 May thy gospel's joyful sound
Conquer sinners, comfort saints;
Make the fruits of grace abound,
Bring relief for all complaints:
Thus let all our Sabbaths prove,
Till we rest in thee above.

HALLE. 7s. 6l.

F. J. HAYDN.

1. { Christ, whose glo - ry fills the skies, Christ, the true, the on - ly light, }
 { Sun of Right - eous - ness, a - rise, Tri - umph o'er the shades of night; }
 Day - spring from on high, be near, Day - star in my heart ap - pear.

14

Morning.

C. WESLEY.

CHRIST, whose glory fills the skies,
 Christ, the true, the only light,
 Sun of Righteousness, arise,
 Triumph o'er the shades of night;
 Day-spring from on high, be near,
 Day-star in my heart appear.

2 Dark and cheerless is the morn,
 If thy light is hid from me;
 Joyless is the day's return,
 Till thy mercy's beams I see;
 Till they inward light impart,
 Warmth and gladness to my heart.
 3 Visit, then, this soul of mine,
 Pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
 Fill me, radiant Sun divine!
 Scatter all my unbelief;
 More and more thyself display,
 Shining to the perfect day.

15

Evening.

T. HASTINGS.

NOW, FROM labor and from care,
 Evening shades have set me free;
 In the work of praise and prayer,
 Lord! I would converse with thee:
 Oh, behold me from above,
 Fill me with a Saviour's love.
 2 Sin and sorrow, guilt and woe,
 Wither all my earthly joys;
 Naught can charm me here below,
 But my Saviour's melting voice;
 Lord! forgive—thy grace restore,
 Make me thine for evermore.
 3 For the blessings of this day,
 For the mercies of this hour,
 For the gospel's cheering ray,
 For the Spirit's quickening power,—
 Grateful notes to thee I raise;
 Oh, accept my song of praise.

MENDELSOHN. 7s &amp; 6s. D.

LOWELL MASON, arr.

1. { O day of rest and gladness, O day of joy and light, balm of care and sadness, Most beautiful, most bright; } On thee, the high and low-ly,
Bend-ing be-fore the throne, Sing Ho-ly, Ho-ly, Ho-ly, To the Great Three in One.

16

"Day of Rest." C. WORDSWORTH.

O DAY of rest and gladness,
O day of joy and light,
O balm of care and sadness,
Most beautiful, most bright;
On thee, the high and lowly,
Bending before the throne,
Sing, Holy, Holy, Holy,
To the Great Three in One.

2 To-day on weary nations
The heavenly manna falls;
To holy convocations
The silver trumpet calls,
Where gospel light is glowing
With pure and radiant beams,
And living water flowing
With soul-refreshing streams.

3 New graces ever gaining
From this our day of rest,
We reach the rest remaining
To spirits of the blest.

To Holy Ghost be praises,
To Father and to Son;
The Church her voice upraises
To thee, blest Three in One.

17

"Thine holy day." RAY PALMER.

THINE holy day's returning,
Our hearts exult to see;
And with devotion burning,
Ascend, O God, to thee!
To-day with purest pleasure,
Our thoughts from earth withdraw;
We search for heavenly treasure,
We learn thy holy law.

2 We join to sing thy praises,
Lord of the Sabbath day;
Each voice in gladness raises
Its loudest, sweetest lay!
Thy richest mercies sharing,
Inspire us with thy love,
By grace our souls preparing
For nobler praise above.

18

18a. Communion in love. P. H. BROWN.

HAIL, happy day! thou day of holy rest,
What heavenly peace and transport fill
our breast!

When Christ, the God of grace, in love
descends,

And kindly holds communion with his friends.

2 Let earth and all its vanities be gone,
Move from my sight, and leave my soul alone;

Its flattering, fading glories I despise,
And to immortal beauties turn my eyes.

3 Fain would I mount and penetrate the skies,

And on my Saviour's glories fix my eyes:
Oh, meet my rising soul, thou God of love,
And waft it to the blissful realms above!

MARLOW. C. M.

LOWELL MASON.

19

Psalm 118.

L. WATTS.

- THIS is the day the Lord hath made;
 He calls the hours his own;
 Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad,
 And praise surround the throne.
- 2 To-day he rose, and left the dead,
 And Satan's empire fell;
 To-day the saints his triumph spread,
 And all his wonders tell.
- 3 Hosanna to the anointed King,
 To David's only Son;
 Help us, O Lord; descend, and bring
 Salvation from thy throne.
- 4 Blest be the Lord who comes to men
 With messages of grace;
 Who comes, in God his Father's name,
 To save our sinful race.
- 5 Hosanna in the highest strains
 The church on earth can raise;
 The highest heavens, in which he reigns,
 Shall give him nobler praise.

20

Psalm 122.

L. WATTS.

- How did my heart rejoice to hear
 My friends devoutly say,—
 "In Zion let us all appear,
 And keep the solemn day."
- 2 I love her gates, I love the road;
 The Church, adorned with grace,
 Stands like a palace built for God,
 To show his milder face.
- 3 Up to her courts, with joys unknown,
 The holy tribes repair;
 The Son of David holds his throne,
 And sits in judgment there.
- 4 Peace be within this sacred place,
 And joy a constant guest;
 With holy gifts and heavenly grace,
 Be her attendants blest.
- 5 My soul shall pray for Zion still,
 While life or breath remains;
 There my best friends, my kindred dwell,
 There God, my Saviour reigns.

1. Early, my God, without delay, I haste to seek thy face; My thirsty spirit - it faints a - way, My thirsty spirit - it faints a - way, With - out thy cheer - ing grace.

21

Psalms 63.

L. WATTS.

EARLY, my God, without delay,
I haste to seek thy face;
My thirsty spirit faints away,
Without thy cheering grace.

2 I've seen thy glory and thy power
Through all thy temple shine;
My God, repeat that heavenly hour,
That vision so divine.

3 Not life itself, with all its joys,
Can my best passions move,
Or raise so high my cheerful voice,
As thy forgiving love.

4 Thus, till my last expiring day,
I'll bless my God and King;
Thus will I lift my hands to pray,
And tune my lips to sing.

1. Lord! when we bend before thy throne, And our confessions pour,
Oh, may we feel the sins we own, And hate what we deplore.

22

Sincerity.

J. D. CARLYLE.

LORD! when we bend before thy throne,
And our confessions pour,
Oh, may we feel the sins we own,
And hate what we deplore.

2 Our contrite spirits pitying see;
True penitence impart:
And let a healing ray from thee
Beam hope on every heart.

3 When we disclose our wants in prayer,
May we our wills resign;
Nor let a thought our bosom share,
Which is not wholly thine.

4 Let faith each meek petition fill,
And waft it to the skies;
And teach our heart 'tis goodness still
That grants it or denies.

"Worthy the Lamb!" J. MONTGOMERY.

SING we the song of those who stand
Around the eternal throne,
Of every kindred, clime, and land,
A multitude unknown.

2 Life's poor distinctions vanish here:
To-day the young, the old,
Our Saviour and his flock appear
One Shepherd and one fold.

3 Toil, trial, sufferings still await
On earth the pilgrim throng;
Yet learn we in our low estate
The Church Triumphant's song.

4 "Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain,"—
Cry the redeemed above,
"Blessing and honor to obtain,
And everlasting love!"

5 "Worthy the Lamb," on earth we sing,
"Who died our souls to save!
Henceforth, O Death! where is thy sting?
Thy victory, O Grave!"

24

Psalm 122.

H. F. LYTH.

WITH joy we hail the sacred day
Which God hath called his own;
With joy the summons we obey
To worship at his throne.

2 Thy chosen temple, Lord, how fair!
Where willing votaries throng
To breathe the humble, fervent prayer,
And pour the choral song.

3 Spirit of grace! oh, deign to dwell
Within thy church below;
Make her in holiness excel,
With pure devotion glow.

4 Let peace within her walls be found:
Let all her sons unite
To spread with grateful zeal around
Her clear and shining light.

5 Great God, we hail the sacred day
Which thou hast called thine own;
With joy the summons we obey
To worship at thy throne.

25

"The Rising Day."

I. WATTS.

ONCE more, my soul, the rising day
Salutes thy waking eyes;
Once more, my voice, thy tribute pay
To him that rules the skies.

2 Night unto night his name repeats,
The day renews the sound,
Wide as the heaven on which he sits
To turn the seasons round.

3 'Tis he supports my mortal frame;
My tongue shall speak his praise;
My sins would rouse his wrath to flame,
And yet his wrath delays.

4 Great God, let all my hours be thine,
While I enjoy the light;
Then shall my sun in smiles decline,
And bring a pleasant night.

1. My soul, how love - ly is the place, To which thy God re - sorts!

'Tis heaven to see his smil - ing face, Though in his earth - ly courts.

26

Psalms 24.

I. WATTS.

- My soul, how lovely is the place,
To which thy God resorts!
'Tis heaven to see his smiling face,
Though in his earthly courts.
- 2 There the great Monarch of the skies
His saving power displays;
And light breaks in upon our eyes,
With kind and quickening rays.
- 3 With his rich gifts the heavenly Dove
Descends and fills the place;
While Christ reveals his wondrous love,
And sheds abroad his grace.
- 4 There, mighty God, thy words declare
The secrets of thy will;
And still we seek thy mercy there,
And sing thy praises still.

Psalms 25: 14.

C. WESLEY, alt.

- SPEAK to me, Lord, thyself reveal,
While here on earth I rove;
Speak to my heart, and let me feel
The kindling of thy love.
- 2 With thee conversing, I forget
All time and toil and care;
Labor is rest, and pain is sweet,
If thou, my God, art here.
- 3 Thou callest me to seek thy face;
Thy face, O God, I seek,—
Attend the whispers of thy grace,
And hear thee inly speak.
- 4 Let this my every hour employ,

Enter into my Master's joy,
And find my heaven in thee.

- How CHARMING is the place
Where my Redeemer, God,
Unveils the beauty of his face,
And sheds his love abroad!
- 2 Not the fair palaces,
To which the great resort,
Are once to be compared with this,
Where Jesus holds his court.
- 3 Here on the mercy-seat,
With radiant glory crowned,
Our joyful eyes behold him sit
And smile on all around.
- 4 Give me, O Lord, a place
Within thy blest abode,
Among the children of thy grace,
The servants of my God.

Psalms 63.

I. WATTS.

- My God! permit my tongue
This joy, to call thee mine;
And let my early cries prevail
To taste thy love divine.
- 2 My thirsty fainting soul
Thy mercy doth implore;
Not travelers, in desert lands,
Can pant for water more.
- 3 For life, without thy love,
No relish can afford;
No joy can be compared to this,—
To serve and please the Lord.

- 4 In wakeful hours at night,
I call my God to mind;
I think how wise thy counsels are,
And all thy dealings kind.
- 5 Since thou hast been my help,
To thee my spirit flies;
And, on thy watchful providence,
My cheerful hope relies.
- 6 The shadow of thy wings
My soul in safety keeps;
I follow where my Father leads,
And he supports my steps.

30

Psalms 24.

I. WATTS.

- WELCOME, sweet day of rest,
That saw the Lord arise!
Welcome to this reviving breast,
And these rejoicing eyes!
- 2 The King himself comes near,
And feasts his saints to-day;
Here may we sit and see him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.
- 3 One day, amid the place
Where my dear Lord hath been,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Within the tents of sin.
- 4 My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this,
And sit and sing herself away
To everlasting bliss.

"Immanuel's ground."

I. WATTS.

COME, we who love the Lord,
And let our joys be known;
Join in a song of sweet accord,
And thus surround the throne.

- 2 Let those refuse to sing
Who never knew our God;
But children of the heavenly King
May speak their joys abroad.
- 3 The men of grace have found
Glory begun below;
Celestial fruits on earthly ground
From faith and hope may grow.
- 4 The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets
Before we reach the heavenly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.
- 5 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We're marching through Immanuel's ground
To fairer worlds on high.

Rev. 15: 3.

W. HAMMOND.

AWAKE, and sing the song
Of Moses and the Lamb;
Wake, every heart and every tongue,
To praise the Saviour's name.

- 2 Sing of his dying love;
Sing of his rising power;
Sing, how he intercedes above
For those whose sins he bore.
- 3 Ye pilgrims! on the road
To Zion's city, sing!
Rejoice ye in the Lamb of God,—
In Christ, the eternal King.
- 4 Soon shall we hear him say,—
"Ye blessed children! come;"
Soon will he call us hence away,
And take his wanderers home.
- 5 There shall each raptured tongue
His endless praise proclaim;
And sweeter voices tune the song
Of Moses and the Lamb.

T. JERVIS.

With joy we lift our eyes
To those bright realms above,
That glorious temple in the skies,
Where dwells eternal Love.

2 Before thy throne we bow,
O thou almighty King;
Here we present the solemn vow,
And hymns of praise we sing.

3 While in thy house we kneel,
With trust and holy fear,
Thy mercy and thy truth reveal,
And lend a gracious ear.

4 Lord, teach our hearts to pray,
And tune our lips to sing;
Nor from thy presence cast away
The sacrifice we bring.

Christian outlook.

F. DODDRIDGE.

Now let our voices join
To raise a sacred song;
Ye pilgrims! in Jehovah's ways,
With music pass along.

2 See—flowers of paradise,
In rich profusion, spring;
The sun of glory gilds the path,
And dear companions sing.

3 See—Salem's golden spires,
In beauteous prospect, rise;
And brighter crowns than mortals wear,
Which sparkle through the skies.

4 All honor to his name,
Who marks the shining way,—
To him who leads the pilgrims on
To realms of endless day.

I love thy kingdom, Lord,
The house of thine abode,
The Church our blest Redeemer saved
With his own precious blood.

2 I love thy Church, O God!
Her walls before thee stand,
Dear as the apple of thine eye,
And graven on thine hand.

3 For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend;

To her my cares and toils be given,
Till toils and cares shall end.

4 Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.

To Zion shall be given
The brightest glories earth can yield,

Psalm 5.

I. WATTS.

LORD! in the morning thou shalt hear
My voice ascending high;
To thee will I direct my prayer,
To thee lift up mine eye;—

2 Up to the hills, where Christ has gone
To plead for all his saints,

Presenting, at his Father's throne,
Our songs and our complaints.

3 Thou art a God, before whose sight
The wicked shall not stand;
Sinners shall ne'er be thy delight,
Nor dwell at thy right hand.

4 But to thy house will I resort,
To taste thy mercies there;
I will frequent thy holy court,
And worship in thy fear.

5 Oh, may thy Spirit guide my feet,
In ways of righteousness;
Make every path of duty straight,
And plain before my face.

"Come, Lord!"

A. STEELE.

COME, thou Desire of all thy saints!
Our humble strains attend,
While with our praises and complaints,
Low at thy feet we bend.

2 How should our songs, like those above,
With warm devotion rise!

How should our souls, on wings of love,
Mount upward to the skies!

3 Come, Lord! thy love alone can raise
In us the heavenly flame;
Then shall our lips resound thy praise,
Our hearts adore thy name.

4 Dear Saviour, let thy glory shine,
And fill thy dwellings here,
Till life, and love, and joy divine
A heaven on earth appear.

5 Then shall our hearts enraptured say,
Come, great Redeemer! come,
And bring the bright, the glorious day,
That calls thy children home.

38

Psalm 84.

L. WATTS.

HOW PLEASANT, how divinely fair,
O Lord of hosts! thy dwellings are!
With long desire my spirit faints,
To meet the assemblies of thy saints.

2 My flesh would rest in thine abode,
My panting heart cries out for God;
My God! my King! why should I be
So far from all my joys, and thee?

3 Blest are the saints who sit on high,
Around thy throne of majesty;
Thy brightest glories shine above,
And all their work is praise and love.

4 Blest are the souls who find a place
Within the temple of thy grace;
There they behold thy gentler rays,
And seek thy face, and learn thy praise.

5 Cheerful they walk with growing strength,
Till all shall meet in heaven at length;
Till all before thy face appear,
And join in nobler worship there.

39

Psalm 84.

L. WATTS.

GREAT God! attend, while Zion sings
The joy that from thy presence springs;
To spend one day with thee on earth
Exceeds a thousand days of mirth.

2 Might I enjoy the meanest place
Within thy house, O God of grace!
Nor tents of ease, nor thrones of power,
Should tempt my feet to leave thy door.

3 God is our sun, he makes our day;
God is our shield, he guards our way
From all the assaults of hell and sin,
From foes without, and foes within.

4 All needful grace will God bestow,
And crown that grace with glory, too;
He gives us all things, and withholds
No real good from upright souls.

5 O God, our King, whose sovereign sway
The glorious hosts of heaven obey,
Display thy grace, exert thy power,
Till all on earth thy name adore!

Morning Hymn. J. CHANDLER, tr.

O CHRIST! with each returning morn
Thine image to our hearts be borne;
And may we ever clearly see
Our God and Saviour, Lord, in thee!

2 All hallowed be our walk this day;
May meekness form our early ray,
And faithful love our noontide light,
And hope our sunset, calm and bright.

3 May grace each idle thought control,
And sanctify our wayward soul;
May guile depart, and malice cease,
And all within be joy and peace.

4 Our daily course, O Jesus, bless;
Make plain the way of holiness:
From sudden falls our feet defend,
And cheer at last our journey's end.

BLESS, O my soul! the living God,
Call home thy thoughts that rove abroad;
Let all the powers, within me, join

2 Bless, O my soul! the God of grace;
His favors claim thy highest praise:
Why should the wonders he hath wrought
Be lost in silence and forgot?

3 'Tis he, my soul! who sent his Son
To die for crimes which thou hast done:
He owns the ransom, and forgives
The hourly follies of our lives.

4 Let the whole earth his power confess,
Let the whole earth adore his grace;

The Gentile with the Jew shall join

2 Praise ye the Lord, the Lord is good;
To praise his name is sweet employ:

3 Bless ye the Lord who taste his love,

Thy works of grace, how bright they shine!
How deep thy counsels! how divine!

4 Lord, I shall share a glorious part,

"A nobler Rest."

P. DODDRIDGE.

THINE earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love,
But there's a nobler rest above;
To that our longing souls aspire,
With cheerful hope and strong desire.

2 No more fatigue, no more distress,
Nor sin nor death shall reach the place;
No groans shall mingle with the songs
That warble from immortal tongues.

3 No rude alarms of raging foes,
No cares to break the long repose,
No midnight shade, no clouded sun,
But sacred, high, eternal noon.

4 O long-expected day, begin!
Dawn on these realms of woe and sin;
Fain would we leave this weary road,
And sleep in death, to rest with God.

45

Invocation.

L. WATTS.

COME, gracious Lord, descend and dwell,
By faith and love, in every breast;
Then shall we know, and taste, and feel
The joys that cannot be expressed.

2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength, 3 This heavenly calm, within the breast,
Make our enlarged souls possess, Is the dear pledge of glorious rest,
And learn the height, and breadth, and length Which for the church of God remains—
Of thine eternal love and grace. The end of cares, the end of pains.

3 Now to the God whose power can do 4 In holy duties, let the day,
More than our thoughts and wishes know, In holy pleasures, pass away;
Be everlasting honors done, How sweet a Sabbath thus to spend,
By all the Church, through Christ his Son. In hope of one that ne'er shall end.

46

Morning.

J. HUTTON.

My opening eyes with rapture see
The dawn of thy returning day;
My thoughts, O God, ascend to thee,
While thus my early vows I pay.

2 Oh, bid this trifling world retire,
And drive each carnal thought away;
Nor let me feel one vain desire—
One sinful thought through all the day.

3 Then, to thy courts when I repair,
My soul shall rise on joyful wing,
The wonders of thy love declare,
And join the strains which angels sing.

47

"Return, my soul!"

J. STENNETT.

ANOTHER six days' work is done,
Another Sabbath is begun;
Return, my soul! enjoy thy rest,
Improve the day thy God hath blessed.

2 Oh, that our thoughts and thanks may rise,

Which none, but he that feels it, knows.

Psalms 65.

H. F. LYTH.

AWAKE, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.

2 Awake, lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praises to the eternal King.

3 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me when I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless life partake.

4 Lord, I my vows to thee renew:
Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.

5 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite.

PRAISE, Lord, for thee in Zion waits;
Prayer shall besiege thy temple gates;
All flesh shall to thy throne repair,
And find, through Christ, salvation there.

2 How blest thy saints! how safely led!
How surely kept! how richly fed!
Saviour of all in earth and sea,
How happy they who rest in thee!

3 Thy hand sets fast the mighty hills,
Thy voice the troubled ocean stills!
Evening and morning hymn thy praise,
And earth thy bounty wide displays.

4 The year is with thy goodness crowned;
Thy clouds drop wealth the world around;
Through thee the deserts laugh and sing,
And nature smiles and owns her king.

5 Lord, on our souls thy Spirit pour;

Oh, let thy love our spring-tide be,
And make us all bear fruit to thee.

Redeeming Love.

C. BURDER.

SWEET the time, exceeding sweet,
When the saints together meet ;
When the Saviour is the theme,
When they join to sing of him.

2 Sing we then eternal love,
Such as did the Father move :
He beheld the world undone,
Loved the world, and gave his Son.

3 Sing the Son's amazing love :
How he left the realms above,
Took our nature and our place,
Lived and died to save our race.

4 Sing we, too, the Spirit's love :
With our wretched hearts he strove,
Took the things of Christ, and showed
How to reach his blest abode.

5 Sweet the place, exceeding sweet,
Where the saints in glory meet ;
Where the Saviour's still the theme,
Where they see, and sing of him.

The Mercy-seat.

A. STEELE.

DEAR Father, to thy mercy-seat

My soul for shelter flies :

'T is here I find a safe retreat
When storms and tempests rise.

2 My cheerful hope can never die,
If thou, my God, art near ;
Thy grace can raise my comforts high,
And banish every fear.

3 My great Protector, and my Lord !
Thy constant aid impart ;
Oh ! let thy kind, thy gracious word
Sustain my trembling heart.

4 Oh ! never let my soul remove
From this divine retreat ;
Still let me trust thy power and love,
And dwell beneath thy feet.

Retirement.

W. COWPER.

FAR from the world, O Lord, I flee,
From strife and tumult far ;
From scenes where Satan wages still
His most successful war.

2 The calm retreat, the silent shade,
With prayer and praise agree ;

And seem by thy sweet bounty made
For those who follow thee.

3 There, if thy Spirit touch the soul,
And grace her mean abode,
Oh ! with what peace, and joy, and love,
She then communes with God.

4 Author and Guardian of my life !
Sweet Source of light divine,
And—all harmonious names in one—
My Saviour !—thou art mine !

5 What thanks I owe thee, and what love—
A boundless, endless store—
Shall echo through the realms above,
When time shall be no more.

Public Worship.

A. L. BARBAULD.

WHEN, as returns this solemn day,
Man comes to meet his God,
What rites, what honors shall he pay ?
How spread his praise abroad ?

2 From marble domes and gilded spires
Shall clouds of incense rise ?
And gems, and gold, and garlands deck
The costly sacrifice ?

3 Vain, sinful man ! creation's Lord
Thy offerings well may spare ;
But give thy heart, and thou shalt find
Thy God will hear thy prayer.

Psalms 92.

H. AUBER.

SWEET is the work, O Lord,
Thy glorious name to sing ;
To praise and pray—to hear thy word,
And grateful offerings bring.

2 Sweet—at the dawning light,
Thy boundless love to tell ;
And, when approach the shades of night,
Still on the theme to dwell.

3 Sweet—on this day of rest,
To join in heart and voice,
With those who love and serve thee best,
And in thy name rejoice.

4 To songs of praise and joy
Be every Sabbath given,
That such may be our blest employ
Eternally in heaven.

55 L. M. Hour of Prayer. T. RAFFLES.

BLEST hour! when mortal man retires
To hold communion with his God,
To send to heaven his warm desires,
And listen to the sacred word.
2 Blest hour! when earthly cares resign
Their empire o'er his anxious breast,
While all around, the calm divine
Proclaims the holy day of rest.
3 Blest hour! when God himself draws
nigh,
Well pleased his people's voice to hear,
To hush the penitential sigh,
And wipe away the mourner's tear.
4 Blest hour! for where the Lord resorts,
Foretastes of future bliss are given;
And mortals find his earthly courts
The house of God, the gate of Heaven!

56 L. M. "Gate of Heaven." T. KELLY.

How sweet to leave the world awhile,
And seek the presence of our Lord!
Dear Saviour! on thy people smile,
And come, according to thy word.
2 From busy scenes we now retreat,
That we may here converse with thee:
Ah, Lord! behold us at thy feet;
Let this the "gate of heaven" be.
3 "Chief of ten thousand!" now appear,
That we by faith may see thy face:
Oh, speak, that we thy voice may hear,
And let thy presence fill this place.

57 2s, 7s, 4s. "We draw near." T. KELLY.

IN thy name, O Lord, assembling,
We, thy people, now draw near;
Teach us to rejoice with trembling;
Speak, and let thy servants hear;
Hear with meekness—
Hear thy word with godly fear.
2 While our days on earth are lengthened,
May we give them, Lord, to thee;
Cheered by hope, and daily strengthened,
May we run, nor weary be,
Till thy glory
Without cloud in heaven we see.
3 There, in worship purer, sweeter,
All thy people shall adore;
Tasting of enjoyment greater
Than they could conceive before;
Full enjoyment,
Full and pure for evermore.

58 L. M. Invocation. I. WATTS.

FAR from my thoughts, vain world, begone!
Let my religious hours alone:
Fain would mine eyes my Saviour see:
I wait a visit, Lord, from thee.
2 My heart grows warm with holy fire,
And kindles with a pure desire:
Come, my dear Jesus! from above,
And feed my soul with heavenly love.
3 Blest Saviour! what delicious fare,
How sweet thine entertainments are!
Never did angels taste, above,
Redeeming grace and dying love.
4 Hail, great Immanuel, all-divine!
In thee thy Father's glories shine:
Thou brightest, sweetest, fairest One
That eyes have seen, or angels known!

59 L. M. "Two or Three." S. STENNETT.

WHERE two or three, with sweet accord,
Obedient to their sovereign Lord,
Meet to recount his acts of grace,
And offer solemn prayer and praise;—
2 There will the gracious Saviour be,
To bless the little company;
There, to unvail his smiling face,
And bid his glories fill the place.
3 We meet at thy command, O Lord!
Relying on thy faithful word;
Now send the Spirit from above,
And fill our hearts with heavenly love.

60 S. M. Invitation. E. TAYLOR.

COME to the house of prayer,
O thou afflicted, come;
The God of peace shall meet thee there—
He makes that house his home.
2 Come to the house of praise,
Ye who are happy now;
In sweet accord your voices raise,
In kindred homage bow.
3 Ye aged, hither come,
For ye have felt his love;
Soon shall your trembling tongues be dumb,
Your lips forget to move.
4 Ye young, before his throne,
Come, bow; your voices raise;
Let not your hearts his praise disown
Who gives the power to praise.

A Prayer in Need.

J. NEWTON.

COME, my soul, thy suit prepare,
Jesus loves to answer prayer;
He himself has bid thee pray,
Therefore will not say thee nay.

2 With my burden I begin:—
Lord! remove this load of sin;
Let thy blood, for sinners spilt,
Set my conscience free from guilt.

3 Lord! I come to thee for rest;
Take possession of my breast:

There, thy blood-bought right maintain,
And, without a rival, reign.

4 While I am a pilgrim here,
Let thy love my spirit cheer;
As my Guide, my Guard, my Friend,
Lead me to my journey's end.

5 Show me what I have to do,
Every hour my strength renew;
Let me live a life of faith,
Let me die thy people's death.

The Case Argued.

J. NEWTON.

LORD! I cannot let thee go,
Till a blessing thou bestow;
Do not turn away thy face,
Mine's an urgent, pressing case.

2 Once a sinner, near despair,
Sought thy mercy-seat by prayer;
Mercy heard and set him free—
Lord! that mercy came to me.

3 Many days have passed since then,
Many changes I have seen;

Yet have been upheld till now;
Who could hold me up but thou?

4 Thou hast helped in every need—
This emboldens me to plead;
After so much mercy past,
Canst thou let me sink at last?

5 No—I must maintain my hold;
'Tis thy goodness makes me bold;
I can no denial take,
Since I plead for Jesus' sake.

The Guiding Star.

W. C. DIX.

As with gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold,
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright;
So, most gracious Lord, may we
Evermore be led to thee.

2 As with joyful steps they sped,
Saviour, to thy manger bed,
There to bend the knee before
Thee whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek the mercy-seat.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
At thy cradle rude and bare,
So may we with holy joy,
Pure and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to thee our heavenly King.

4 Holy Jesus, every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds thy glory hide.

God everywhere.

ANON.

THEY who seek the throne of grace
Find that throne in every place;
If we live a life of prayer,
God is present everywhere.

2 In our sickness and our health,
In our want, or in our wealth,
If we look to God in prayer,
God is present everywhere.

3 When our earthly comforts fail,
When the foes of life prevail,
'Tis the time for earnest prayer;
God is present everywhere.

4 Then, my soul, in every strait,
To thy Father come, and wait;
He will answer every prayer:
God is present everywhere.

Retirement.

P. H. BROWN.

I LOVE to steal awhile away
From every cumbering care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.

2 I love in solitude to shed
The penitential tear,
And all his promises to plead,
Where none but God can hear.

3 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore,

And all my cares and sorrows cast
On him whom I adore.

4 I love by faith to take a view
Of brighter scenes in heaven;
The prospect doth my strength renew,
While here by tempests driven.

5 Thus, when life's toilsome day is o'er,
May its departing ray
Be calm as this impressive hour,
And lead to endless day.

"Tranquil hour."

L. BACON.

HAIL, tranquil hour of closing day!
Begone, disturbing care!
And look, my soul, from earth away,
To him who heareth prayer.

2 How sweet the tear of penitence,
Before his throne of grace,
While, to the contrite spirit's sense,
He shows his smiling face.

3 How sweet, thro' long remembered years,
His mercies to recall;

And, pressed with wants, and griefs, and
To trust his love for all. [fears,

4 How sweet to look, in thoughtful hope,
Beyond this fading sky,
And hear him call his children up
To his fair home on high.

5 Calmly the day forsakes our heaven
To dawn beyond the west;
So let my soul, in life's last even,
Retire to glorious rest.

1. Prayer is the soul's sincere desire, Ut-tered or un-expressed; The motion of a hidden fire That trembles in the breast.

67

What prayer is. J. MONTGOMERY.

PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire,
Uttered or unexpressed;
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.

2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.

3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

4 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air:
His watchword at the gates of death—
He enters heaven with prayer.

5 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
Returning from his ways;
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry—"Behold he prays!"

6 O thou, by whom we come to God—
The Life, the Truth, the Way;
The path of prayer thyself hast trod;
Lord! teach us how to pray.

68

"The sacred fire." B. REDDOW.

PRAYER is the breath of God in man,
Returning whence it came;
Love is the sacred fire within,
And prayer the rising flame.

2 It gives the burdened spirit ease,
And soothes the troubled breast;
Yields comfort to the mourning soul,
And to the weary rest.

3 When God inclines the heart to pray,
He hath an ear to hear;
To him there's music in a sigh,
And beauty in a tear.

4 The humble suppliant cannot fail
To have his wants supplied,
Since He for sinners interceded,
Who once for sinners died.

The mercy-seat.

H. STOWELL.

FROM every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat;
'Tis found beneath the mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,—
A place than all besides more sweet;
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;

Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.

4 There, there, on eagle wings we soar,
And sense and sin molest no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

5 Oh, let my hand forget her skill,
My tongue be silent, cold, and still,
This throbbing heart forget to beat,
If I forget the mercy-seat.

Importunity.

J. NEWTON.

Jesus, who knows full well
The heart of every saint,
Invites us all our grief to tell,
To pray and never faint.

2 He bows his gracious ear,—
We never plead in vain;
Then let us wait till he appear,
And pray, and pray again.

3 Jesus, the Lord, will hear
His chosen when they cry;
Yes, though he may a while forbear,
He'll help them from on high.

4 Then let us earnest cry,
And never faint in prayer;
He sees, he hears, and, from on high,
Will make our cause his care.

"God pities."

P. DODDRIDGE.

Our heavenly Father calls.
And Christ invites us near;
With both, our friendship shall be sweet,
And our communion dear.

2 God pities all our griefs:
He pardons every day;
Almighty to protect our souls,
And wise to guide our way.

3 How large his bounties are!
What various stores of good,
Diffused from our Redeemer's hand,
And purchased with his blood!

4 Jesus, our living Head,
We bless thy faithful care;
Our Advocate before the throne,
And our Forerunner there.

5 Here fix, my roving heart!
Here wait, my warmest love!
Till the communion be complete,
In nobler scenes above.

72

"The throne of grace."

J. NEWTON.

BEHOLD the throne of grace!
The promise calls me near;
There Jesus shows a smiling face,
And waits to answer prayer.

2 That rich atoning blood,
Which sprinkled round I see,
Provides for those who come to God
An all-prevailing plea.

3 My soul! ask what thou wilt;
Thou canst not be too bold:
Since his own blood for thee he spilt,
What else can he withhold?

4 Thine image, Lord, bestow,
Thy presence and thy love;
I ask to serve thee here below,
And reign with thee above.

5 Teach me to live by faith;
Conform my will to thine:
Let me victorious be in death,
And then in glory shine.

W. W. WALFORD.

SWEET hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer! 2 Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer!
 That calls me from a world of care, Thy wings shall my petition bear
 And bids me, at my Father's throne, To him, whose truth and faithfulness
 Make all my wants and wishes known: Engage the waiting soul to bless:
 In seasons of distress and grief, And, since he bids me seek his face,
 My soul has often found relief, Believe his word, and trust his grace,
 And oft escaped the tempter's snare, I'll cast on him my every care,
 By thy return, sweet hour of prayer! And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer!

The mercy-seat.

W. COWPER.

Jesus, where'er thy people meet,
 There they behold thy mercy-seat;
 Where'er they seek thee thou art found,
 And every place is hallowed ground.

2 For thou, within no walls confined,
 Inhabitest the humble mind;
 Such ever bring thee where they come,
 And going, take thee to their home.

3 Great Shepherd of thy chosen few,
 Thy former mercies here renew;
 Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
 The sweetness of thy saving name.

4 Here may we prove the power of prayer,
 To strengthen faith and sweeten care,
 To teach our faint desires to rise,
 And bring all heaven before our eyes.

75

"The evil hour."

M. BRUCE.

WHERE high the heavenly temple stands,
The house of God not made with hands,
A great High Priest our nature wears,—
The Guardian of mankind appears.

2 Though now ascended up on high,
He bends on earth a brother's eye;
Partaker of the human name,
He knows the frailty of our frame.

3 Our Fellow-sufferer yet retains
A fellow-feeling of our pains;
And still remembers, in the skies,
His tears, his agonies, and cries.

4 In every pang that rends the heart,
The Man of Sorrows had a part;
He sympathizes with our grief,
And to the sufferer sends relief.

5 With boldness, therefore, at the throne,
Let us make all our sorrows known;
And ask the aid of heavenly power,
To help us in the evil hour.

76

"What thou wilt."

J. NEWTON.

AND dost thou say, "Ask what thou wilt?"
Lord, I would seize the golden hour:
I pray to be released from guilt,
And freed from sin and Satan's power.

2 More of thy presence, Lord, impart;
More of thine image let me bear:
Erect thy throne within my heart,
And reign without a rival there.

3 Give me to read my pardon sealed,
And from thy joy to draw my strength:
Oh, be thy boundless love revealed
In all its height and breadth and length.

4 Grant these requests—I ask no more,
But to thy care the rest resign:
Sick, or in health, or rich, or poor,
All shall be well, if thou art mine.

77

Prayers hindered.

W. COWPER.

WHAT various hindrances we meet
In coming to a mercy-seat!
Yet who that knows the worth of prayer
But wishes to be often there?

2 Prayer makes the darkened cloud withdraw;

Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw,
Gives exercise to faith and love,
Brings every blessing from above.

3 Restraining prayer, we cease to fight;
Prayer makes the Christian's armor bright;
And Satan trembles when he sees
The weakest saint upon his knees.

4 Have you no words? ah! think again;
Words flow apace when you complain,
And fill a fellow-creature's ear
With the sad tale of all your care.

5 Were half the breath thus vainly spent
To heaven in supplication sent,
Our cheerful song would oftener be,
"Hear what the Lord hath done for me!"

Psalm 100.

L. WATTS.

BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne,

Ye nations! bow with sacred joy:

Know that the Lord is God alone:

He can create, and he destroy.

2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and formed us men;And when, like wandering sheep, we strayed,
He brought us to his fold again.3 We are his people, we his care,—
Our souls, and all our mortal frame:What lasting honors shall we rear,
Almighty Maker! to thy name?4 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise;And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.5 Wide as the world is thy command,
Vast as eternity, thy love;Firm as a rock thy truth must stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.3 Oh, enter then his gates with praise,
Approach with joy his courts unto:
Praise, laud, and bless his name always,
For it is seemly so to do.4 For why? the Lord our God is good,
His mercy is for ever sure;
His truth at all times firmly stood,
And shall from age to age endure.

Psalm 100.

W. KETNER.

ALL people that on earth do dwell,
Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice:
Him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell,
Come ye before him and rejoice.2 Know that the Lord is God indeed;
Without our aid he did us make:We are his flock, he doth us feed,
And for his sheep he doth us take.

82

Psalm 117.

L. WATTS.

FROM all that dwell below the skies,
Let the Creator's praise arise:
Let the Redeemer's name be sung,
Through every land, by every tongue.2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord!
Eternal truth attends thy word:
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.

God's grace.

L. WATTS.

Now to the Lord a noble song!
 Awake, my soul! awake, my tongue!
 Hosanna to the eternal name,
 And all his boundless love proclaim.

2 See where it shines in Jesus' face,—
 The brightest image of his grace!
 God, in the person of his Son,
 Hath all his mightiest works outdone.

3 Grace!—'tis a sweet, a charming theme:
 My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name:
 Ye angels! dwell upon the sound:
 Ye heavens! reflect it to the ground.

4 Oh, may I reach that happy place,
 Where he unveils his lovely face,
 Where all his beauties you behold,
 And sing his name to harps of gold.

84

Psalms 36.

L. WATTS.

High in the heavens, eternal God!
 Thy goodness in full glory shines;
 Thy truth shall break through every cloud
 That veils and darkens thy designs.

2 For ever firm thy justice stands,
 As mountains their foundations keep:
 Wise are the wonders of thy hands;
 Thy judgments are a mighty deep.

3 My God, how excellent thy grace!
 Whence all our hope and comfort springs;
 The sons of Adam, in distress,
 Fly to the shadow of thy wings.

4 From the provisions of thy house
 We shall be fed with sweet repast;
 There, mercy like a river flows,
 And brings salvation to our taste.

5 Life, like a fountain rich and free,
 Springs from the presence of my Lord;
 And in thy light our souls shall see
 The glories promised in thy word.

85

"Te Deum." T. COTTERILL, alt.

Lord God of Hosts, by all adored!
 Thy name we praise with one accord;
 The earth and heavens are full of thee,
 Thy light, thy love, thy majesty.

2 Loud hallelujahs to thy name
 Angels and seraphim proclaim;
 Eternal praise to thee is given
 By all the powers and thrones in heaven.

3 The apostles join the glorious throng,
 The prophets aid to swell the song,
 The noble and triumphant host
 Of martyrs make of thee their boast.

4 The holy church in every place
 Throughout the world exalts thy praise;
 Both heaven and earth do worship thee,
 Thou Father of eternity!

5 From day to day, O Lord, do we
 Highly exalt and honor thee;
 Thy name we worship and adore,
 World without end for evermore.

Psalms 146.

L. WATTS.

PRAISE ye the Lord: my heart shall join
In work so pleasant, so divine;
Now while the flesh is mine abode,
And when my soul ascends to God.

2 Praise shall employ my noblest powers,
While immortality endures;
My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
While life, and thought, and being last.

3 Happy the man whose hopes rely
On Israel's God: he made the sky,
And earth, and seas, with all their train;
And none shall find his promise vain.

4 His truth for ever stands secure;
He saves the oppressed, he feeds the poor;
He helps the stranger in distress,
The widow and the fatherless.

5 He loves his saints, he knows them well,
But turns the wicked down to hell;
Thy God, O Zion, ever reigns;
Praise him in everlasting strains.

87

Psalms 147.

L. WATTS.

PRAISE ye the Lord!—'tis good to raise
Our hearts and voices in his praise;
His nature and his works invite
To make this duty our delight.

2 The Lord builds up Jerusalem,
And gathers nations to his name;
His mercy melts the stubborn soul,
And makes the broken spirit whole.

3 He formed the stars—those heavenly flames,
He counts their numbers, calls their names:
His wisdom's vast, and knows no bound,—
A deep, where all our thoughts are drowned.

4 Great is our Lord, and great his might,
And all his glories infinite:
He crowns the meek, rewards the just,
And treads the wicked to the dust.

5 But saints are lovely in his sight;
He views his children with delight;
He sees their hope, he knows their fear,
And looks, and loves his image there.

Psalms 149.

L. WATTS.

GIVE to the Lord, ye sons of fame,
Give to the Lord renown and power;
Ascribe due honors to his name,
And his eternal might adore.

2 The Lord proclaims his power aloud,
O'er all the ocean and the land;
His voice divides the watery cloud,
And lightnings blaze at his command.

3 The Lord sits Sovereign on the flood;
The Thunderer reigns for ever King;
But makes his church his blest abode,
Where we his awful glories sing.

4 In gentler language, there the Lord
The councils of his grace imparts:
Amid the raging storm, his word
Speaks peace and courage to our hearts.

Psalms 145.

L. WATTS.

My God, my King, thy various praise
Shall fill the remnant of my days:
Thy grace employ my humble tongue
Till death and glory raise the song.

2 The wings of every hour shall bear
Some thankful tribute to thine ear;
And every setting sun shall see
New works of duty done for thee.

3 Thy works with sovereign glory shine,
And speak thy majesty divine:
Let Zion in her courts proclaim
The sound and honor of thy name.

4 But who can speak thy wondrous deeds?
Thy greatness all our thoughts exceeds:
Vast and unsearchable thy ways;
Vast and immortal be thy praise.

Psalm 37.

L. WATTS.

THE Lord of glory is my light,
And my salvation too;
God is my strength,—nor will I fear
What all my foes can do.
2 One privilege my heart desires,—
Oh, grant me an abode
Among the churches of thy saints,—
The temples of my God.
3 There shall I offer my requests,
And see thy beauty still;

Shall hear thy messages of love,
And there inquire thy will.

4 When troubles rise and storms appear,
There may his children hide;
God has a strong pavilion, where
He makes my soul abide.

5 Now shall my head be lifted high
Above my foes around;
And songs of joy and victory
Within thy temple sound.

Psalm 65.

L. WATTS.

PRAISE waits in Zion, Lord! for thee;
There shall our vows be paid;
Thou hast an ear when sinners pray;
All flesh shall seek thine aid.
2 O Lord! our guilt and fears prevail,
But pardoning grace is thine;
And thou wilt grant us power and skill,
To conquer every sin.
3 Blest are the men, whom thou wilt choose
To bring them near thy face;

Give them a dwelling in thy house,
To feast upon thy grace.

4 In answering what thy church requests,
Thy truth and terror shine;
And works of dreadful righteousness
Fulfill thy kind design.

5 Thus shall the wondering nations see
The Lord is good and just;
The distant isles shall fly to thee,
And make thy name their trust.

LEONI. 6, 8, 4s.

RABBI LEONI, arr.

1. The God of Abrah'm praise, Who reigns enthroned above, Ancient of everlasting days, And God of love:

Jehovah, great I AM, By earth and heaven confessed; I bow and bless the sacred name, For ever blest.

95

"I Am."

T. OLIVERS.

THE God of Abraham praise,
Who reigns enthroned above,
Ancient of everlasting days,
And God of love!
Jehovah! great I AM!
By earth and heaven confessed;
I bow and bless the sacred name,
For ever blest!
2 The God of Abraham praise!
At whose supreme command
From earth I rise, and seek the joys
At his right hand:

I all on earth forsake,
Its wisdom, fame, and power,
And him my only portion make,
My shield and tower.

3 The God of Abraham praise!
Whose all-sufficient grace
Shall guide me all my happy days
In all my ways:
He calls a worm his friend!
He calls himself my God!
And he shall save me to the end
Through Jesus' blood!

96

P. M. The triune God. R. WEBER.
HOLY, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty!
 Early in the morning our song shall rise
 to thee;
Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty,
 God in three persons, blessed Trinity!
 2 Holy, holy, holy! all the saints adore
 thee,
 Casting down their golden crowns
 around the glassy sea;
 Cherubim and seraphim falling down before thee,
 Which wert and art and evermore shalt be

3 Holy, holy, holy! though the darkness hide thee,
 Though the eye of sinful man thy glory
 may not see;
 Only thou art holy; there is none beside
 thee,
 Perfect in power, in love and purity.
 4 Holy, holy, holy! Lord God Almighty!
 All thy works shall praise thy name, in earth and sky and sea;
 Holy, holy, holy, merciful and mighty;
 God in three persons, blessed Trinity!

LYONS. 10s, 11s.

FRANCIS JOSEPH HAYDN.

1. Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim, And publish abroad his won-derful name; The name all-vic-tor-ious of Jesus ex-tol;
 D. S. His kingdom is glorious, he rules over all.

97

"Salvation to God." C. WESLEY.

YE servants of God, your Master proclaim,
 And publish abroad his wonderful name;
 The name all-victorious of Jesus extol;
 His kingdom is glorious, he rules over all.
 2 God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
 And still he is nigh—his presence we have;
 The great congregation his triumph shall sing,
 Ascribing salvation to Jesus our King.
 3 Salvation to God, who sits on the throne,
 Let all cry aloud and honor the Son;
 The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
 Fall down on their faces and worship the Lamb.
 4 Then let us adore and give him his right,
 All glory, and power, and wisdom and might;
 All honor and blessing, with angels above,
 And thanks never ceasing, and infinite love.

Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days,
 Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.
 2 Oh, tell of his might and sing of his grace,
 Whose robe is the light, whose canopy
 space;
 His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-
 clouds form,
 And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.
 3 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
 It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
 It streams from the hilla, it descends to the plain,
 And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.
 4 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
 In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
 Thy mercies how tender! how firm to the end!
 Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer and Friend.

98

"Worship the King." R. GRANT.

Oh, worship the King, all-glorious above,
 And gratefully sing his wonderful love;

HAMLIN. 7a. D.

J. DOWLAND.

1. Let us with a joy - ful mind Praise the Lord, for he is kind, For his mer - cies

99

"Ever faithful."

J. MILTON.

LET us, with a joyful mind
Praise the Lord, for he is kind,
For his mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.
Let us sound his name abroad,
For of gods he is the God
Who by wisdom did create
Heaven's expanse and all its state;—

2 Did the solid earth ordain
How to rise above the main;
Who, by his commanding might,
Filled the new-made world with light:
Caused the golden-tresséd sun
All the day his course to run;
And the moon to shine by night,
'Mid her spangled sisters bright.

3 All his creatures God doth feed,
His full hand supplies their need;
Let us, therefore, warble forth
His high majesty and worth.
He his mansion hath on high,
'Bove the reach of mortal eye;
And his mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

100

Psalm 107.

J. MONTGOMERY.

THANK and praise Jehovah's name;
For his mercies firm and sure,
From eternity the same,
To eternity endure.
Let the ransomed thus rejoice,
Gathered out of every land,
As the people of his choice,
Plucked from the destroyer's hand.

2 In the wilderness astray
Hither, thither, while they roam,
Hungry, fainting by the way,
Far from refuge, shelter, home,—
Then unto the Lord they cry;
He inclines a gracious ear,
Sends deliverance from on high,
Rescues them from all their fear.

3 To a pleasant land he brings,
Where the vine and olive grow,
Where from flowery hills the springs
Through luxuriant valleys flow.
Oh, that men would praise the Lord
For his goodness to their race;
For the wonders of his word,
And the riches of his grace.

LOWELL MASON, 877.

1. God e - ter - nal, Lord of all! Lowly at thy feet we fall: All the world doth worship thee;
We a - midst the throng would be. All the ho - ly an - gels cry, Hail, thrice-ho - ly,
God most high! Lord of all the heavenly pow'rs, Be the same loud anthem ours.

101

"Te Deum." J. E. MILLARD, 7<sup>a</sup>.

God eternal, Lord of all!
Lowly at thy feet we fall:
All the world doth worship thee;
We amidst the throng would be.
All the holy angels cry,
Hail, thrice-holy, God most high!
Lord of all the heavenly powers,
Be the same loud anthem ours.

2 Glorified apostles raise,
Night and day, continual praise;
Hast thou not a mission too
For thy children here to do?
With the prophets' goodly line
We in mystic bond combine;
For thou hast to babes revealed
Things that to the wise were sealed.

3 Martyrs, in a noble host,
Of thy cross are heard to boast;
Since so bright the crown they wear,
We with them thy cross would bear.
All thy church, in heaven and earth,
Jesus! hail thy spotless birth;—
Seated on the judgment-throne,
Number us among thine own!

102

"In Excelsis." C. WESLEY.

GLORY be to God on high,—
God, whose glory fills the sky;
Peace on earth to man forgiven,—
Man, the well-beloved of heaven.
Sovereign Father, Heavenly King!
Thee we now presume to sing;
Glad thine attributes confess,
Glorious all, and numberless.

2 Hail, by all thy works adored!
Hail, the everlasting Lord!
Thee with thankful hearts we prove,—
God of power, and God of love!
Christ our Lord and God we own,—
Christ the Father's only Son;
Lamb of God, for sinners slain,
Saviour of offending man.

3 Jesus! in thy name we pray,
Take, oh, take our sins away!
Powerful Advocate with God!
Justify us by thy blood.
Hear, for thou, O Christ! alone,
Art with thy great Father one;
One the Holy Ghost with thee;—
One supreme eternal Three.

103

75, D.

"God on High."

G. SANDYS.

THOU who art enthroned above,
 Thou by whom we live and move !
 Oh, how sweet, with joyful tongue,
 To resound thy praise in song !
 When the morning paints the skies,
 When the sparkling stars arise,
 All thy favors to rehearse,
 And give thanks in grateful verse.

2 Sweet the day of sacred rest,
 When devotion fills the breast,
 When we dwell within thy house,
 Hear thy word, and pay our vows ;
 Notes to heaven's high mansions raise,
 Fill its courts with joyful praise ;
 With repeated hymns proclaim
 Great Jehovah's awful name.

3 From thy works our joys arise,
 O thou only good and wise !
 Who thy wonders can declare ?
 How profound thy counsels are !
 Warm our hearts with sacred fire ;
 Grateful fervors still inspire ;
 All our powers, with all their might,
 Ever in thy praise unite.

104

88, 75.

"Praise to Thee."

J. FAWCETT.

PRAISE to thee, thou great Creator !
 Praise to thee from every tongue ;
 Join, my soul, with every creature,
 Join the universal song.

2 Father ! source of all compassion !
 Pure, unbounded grace is thine :
 Hail the God of our salvation,
 Praise him for his love divine !

3 For ten thousand blessings given,
 For the hope of future joy,
 Sound his praise thro' earth and heaven,
 Sound Jehovah's praise on high !

4 Praise to God, the great Creator,
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost ;
 Praise him, every living creature,
 Earth and heaven's united host.

5 Joyfully on earth adore him,
 Till in heaven our song we raise ;
 Then enraptured fall before him,
 Lost in wonder, love, and praise !

105

115.

"Alleluia."

ANON.

Oh, join ye the anthems of triumph that rise
 From the throne of the blest, from the hosts of the skies ;
 Alleluia, they sing in rapturous strains,
 Alleluia, the Lord God omnipotent
 reigns !

2 He gave to the light its beneficent
 wings ;
 He controlleth the councils of senates
 and kings ;
 From his throne in the clouds the light-
 nings are hurled,
 And he ruleth the factions that rage
 through the world.

3 Rejoice, ye that love him ; his power
 cannot fail ;
 His omnipotent goodness shall surely prevail ;
 The triumph of evil will shortly be passed,
 The omnipotent King shall conquer at last.

106

75, 68.

Psalm 150.

C. WESLEY.

PRAISE the Lord, who reigns above,
 And keeps his courts below ;
 Praise him for his boundless love,
 And all his greatness show !
 Praise him for his noble deeds ;
 Praise him for his matchless power ;
 Him, from whom all good proceeds,
 Let earth and heaven adore.

2 Publish, spread to all around,
 The great Immanuel's name ;
 Let the gospel trumpet sound,
 The Prince of Peace proclaim !
 Praise him, every tuneful string ;
 All the reach of heavenly art,
 All the power of music bring,
 The music of the heart.

3 Him, in whom they move and live,
 Let every creature sing ;
 Glory to our Saviour give,
 And homage to our King :
 Hallowed be his name beneath,
 As in heaven, on earth adored ;
 Praise the Lord in every breath,
 Let all things praise the Lord.

107 75, D. Singing to God. J. MONTGOMERY.

Songs of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
When he spake, and it was done.
Songs of praise awoke the morn,
When the Prince of Peace was born ;
Songs of praise arose, when he
Captive led captivity.

2 Heaven and earth must pass away—
Songs of praise shall crown that day ;
God will make new heavens and earth—
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.
And shall man alone be dumb,
Till that glorious kingdom come ?
No ; the Church delights to raise
Psalms and hymns and songs of praise.

3 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice ;
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.
Borne upon their latest breath
Songs of praise shall conquer death ;
Then, amid eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ.

108 C. M. "Hearts to Pray." J. NEWTON.

AGAIN our earthly cares we leave,
And to thy courts repair ;
Again with joyful feet we come,
To meet our Saviour here.

2 Great Shepherd of thy people, hear !
Thy presence now display ;
We bow within thy house of prayer ;
Oh, give us hearts to pray !

3 The clouds which yail thee from our sight,
In pity, Lord, remove ;
Dispose our minds to hear aright
The message of thy love.

4 The feeling heart, the melting eye,
The humble mind, bestow ;
And shine upon us from on high,
To make our graces grow.

5 Show us some token of thy love,
Our fainting hopes to raise ;
And pour thy blessing from above,
To aid our feeble praise.

109 L. M. Psalm 39. I. WATTS.

JEHOVAH reigns ; his throne is high ;
His robes are light and majesty ;
His glory shines with beams so bright,
No mortal can sustain the sight.

2 His terrors keep the world in awe ;
His justice guards his holy law ;
Yet love reveals a smiling face,
And truth and promise seal the grace.

3 Through all his works his wisdom shines,
And baffles Satan's deep designs ;
His power is sovereign to fulfill
The noblest counsels of his will.

4 And will this glorious Lord descend
To be my Father and my Friend ?
Then let my songs with angels join ;
Heaven is secure, if God be mine.

110 L. M. "God is Here." J. WESLEY, tr.

Lo, God is here !—let us adore !
And own how dreadful is this place !
Let all within us feel his power,
And, silent, bow before his face.

2 Lo, God is here !—him day and night
United choirs of angels sing :
To him, enthroned above all height,
Let saints their humble worship bring.

3 Lord God of hosts ! oh, may our praise
Thy courts with grateful incense fill !
Still may we stand before thy face,
Still hear and do thy sovereign will.

111 C. M. "Light in thy Light." C. WESLEY.

ETERNAL Sun of righteousness,
Display thy beams divine,
And cause the glory of thy face
Upon my heart to shine.

2 Light, in thy light, oh, may I see,
Thy grace and mercy prove,
Revived, and cheered, and blest by thee
The God of pardoning love.

3 Lift up thy countenance serene,
And let thy happy child
Behold, without a cloud between,
The Father reconciled.

4 On me thy promised peace bestow,
The peace by Jesus given ;—
The joys of holiness below,
And then the joys of heaven.

HURSLEY. L. M.

W. H. MONK, OPF.

1. Sun of my soul! thou Sav-our dear, It is not night if thou be near;
Oh, may no earth-born cloud a-rise To hide thee from thy servant's eyes!

112

"Sun of my soul!"

J. KEBLE.

SUN of my soul! thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if thou be near:
Oh, may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide thee from thy servant's eyes!
2 When soft the dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought—how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast!

3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without thee I dare not die.

4 Be near to bless me when I wake,
Ere through the world my way I take;
Abide with me till in thy love
I lose myself in heaven above.

EVENING HYMN. L. M.

THOS. TALLIS.

1. Glo-ry to thee, my God, this night, For all the blessings of the light;
Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings! Be-neath thine own al-might-y wings.

113

Evening song.

T. KEN.

GLORY to thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light;
Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings!
Beneath thine own almighty wings.

2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ill which I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed:
Teach me to die, that so I may
Rise glorious at the judgment-day.

4 Oh, let my soul on thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close!
Sleep, which shall me more vigorous make,
To serve my God when I awake.

OVERBERG. L. M.

J. C. H. BINK.

1. Great God! to thee my evening song With humble gratitude I raise; Oh, let thy mercy tune my tongue, And fill my heart with lively praise.

114

Twilight.

A. STEELE.

GREAT God! to thee my evening song
With humble gratitude I raise;
Oh, let thy mercy tune my tongue,
And fill my heart with lively praise.

2 My days unclouded as they pass,
And every gentle, rolling hour,
Are monuments of wondrous grace,
And witness to thy love and power.

3 Seal my forgiveness in the blood
Of Jesus; his dear name alone
I plead for pardon, gracious God!
And kind acceptance at thy throne.

115

Benediction.

J. NEWTON.

THE peace which God alone reveals,
And by his word of grace imparts,
Which only the believer feels,
Direct, and keep, and cheer our hearts!

2 And may the holy Three in One,
The Father, Word, and Comforter,
Pour an abundant blessing down
On every soul assembled here!

3 Praise God, from whom all blessings flow:
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host!
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

HEBRON. L. M.

LOWELL MASON.

1. Thus far the Lord has led me on; Thus far his power prolongs my days; And every evening shall make known Some fresh memorial of his grace.

116

Evening.

L. WATTS.

THUS far the Lord has led me on;
Thus far his power prolongs my days;
And every evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of his grace.

2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home,
But he forgives my follies past,
And gives me strength for days to come.

3 I lay my body down to sleep;
Peace is the pillow for my head;
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.

4 Thus when the night of death shall come,
My flesh shall rest beneath the ground,
And wait thy voice to break my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.

117

Dismissal.

J. HART.

DISMISS us with thy blessing, Lord!
Help us to feed upon thy word;
All that has been amiss, forgive,
And let thy truth within us live.

2 Though we are guilty, thou art good;
Wash all our works in Jesus' blood;
Give every burdened soul release,
And bid us all depart in peace.

W. S. BRADBURY.

1. The swift declining day, How fast its moments fly! While evening's broad and gloomy shade Gains on the western sky.

118

Evening.

P. DODDRIDGE.

THE swift declining day,
How fast its moments fly!
While evening's broad and gloomy shade
Gains on the western sky.
2 Ye mortals, mark its pace,
And use the hours of light;
And know, its Maker can command
At once eternal night.
3 Give glory to the Lord,
Who rules the whirling sphere;
Submissive at his footstool bow,
And seek salvation there.
4 Then shall new lustre break
Through death's impending gloom,
And lead you to unchanging light,
In your celestial home.

119

"Abide with us."

J. M. NEALE.

THE day, O Lord, is spent;
Abide with us, and rest;
Our hearts' desires are fully bent
On making thee our guest.
2 We have not reached that land,
That happy land, as yet,
Where holy angels round thee stand,
Whose sun can never set.
3 Our sun is sinking now,
Our day is almost o'er;
O Sun of Righteousness, do thou
Shine on us evermore!

120

"Still with thee."

J. D. BURNS.

STILL, still with thee, my God,
I would desire to be:
By day, by night, at home, abroad,
I would be still with thee.
2 With thee when dawn comes in,
And calls me back to care,
Each day returning to begin
With thee my God in prayer.

3 With thee when day is done,
And evening calms the mind;
The setting, as the rising, sun
With thee my heart would find.

4 With thee, in thee, by faith
Abiding I would be;
By day, by night, in life, in death,
I would be still with thee.

121

Doxology.

I. WATTS.

To God the only wise,
Who keeps us by his word,
Be glory now and evermore,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.

2 Hosanna to the Word,
Who from the Father came;
Ascribe salvation to the Lord,
And ever bless his name.

3 The grace of Christ our Lord,
The Father's boundless love,
The Spirit's blest communion, too,
Be with us from above.

122

The final rest.

W. J. BLEW.

THE day is past and gone,
Great God, we bow to thee;
Again, as shades of night steal on,
Unto thy side we flee.

2 Oh, when shall that day come,
Ne'er sinking in the west,
That country and that happy home,
Where none shall break our rest;—

3 Where all things shall be peace,
And pleasure without end,
And golden harps, that never cease,
With joyous hymns shall blend;—

4 Where we, preserved beneath
The shelter of thy wing,
For evermore thy praise shall breathe,
And of thy mercy sing.

EVENING. S. M.

123

Home Hymn.

J. LELAND.

- THE day is past and gone,
The evening shades appear;
Oh, may we all remember well
The night of death draws near!
- 2 We lay our garments by,
Upon our beds to rest;
So death will soon disrobe us all
Of what we here possessed.
- 3 Lord, keep us safe this night,
Secure from all our fears;
May angels guard us while we sleep,
Till morning light appears.
- 4 And when we early rise,
And view the unwearied sun,
May we set out to win the prize,
And after glory run.
- 5 And when our days are past,
And we from time remove,
Oh, may we in thy bosom rest,
The bosom of thy love!

124

"Closing hour."

E. T. FITCH.

- LORD, at this closing hour,
Establish every heart
Upon thy word of truth and power,
To keep us when we part.
- 2 Peace to our brethren give;
Fill all our hearts with love;
In faith and patience may we live,
And seek our rest above.
- 3 Through changes, bright or drear,
We would thy will pursue;
And toil to spread thy kingdom here,
Till we its glory view.
- 4 To God, the only wise,
In every age adored,
Let glory from the church arise
Through Jesus Christ our Lord!

125

Sabbath ended.

A. STEELE.

- THE day of praise is done;
The evening shadows fall;
Yet pass not from us with the sun,
True Light that lightenest all!
- 2 Around thy throne on high,
Where night can never be,
The white-robed harpers of the sky
Bring ceaseless hymns to thee.
- 3 Too faint our anthems here;
Too soon of praise we tire;
But oh, the strains how full and clear
Of that eternal choir!
- 4 Yet, Lord! to thy dear will
'If thou attune the heart,
We in thine angels' music still
May bear our lower part.
- 5 Shine thou within us, then,
A day that knows no end,
Till songs of angels and of men
In perfect praise shall blend.

126

At Dismission.

J. HART.

- ONCE more, before we part,
Oh, bless the Saviour's name!
Let every tongue and every heart
Adore and praise the same.
- 2 Lord, in thy grace we came,
That blessing still impart;
We met in Jesus' sacred name,
In Jesus' name we part.
- 3 Still on thy holy word
Help us to feed, and grow,
Still to go on to know the Lord,
And practice what we know.
- 4 Now, Lord, before we part,
Help us to bless thy name:
Let every tongue and every heart
Adore and praise the same.

1. A-bide with me! Fast falls the ev - en - tide, The darkness deepens—Lord, with me a - bide!

When oth - er help - ers fail, and comforts flee, Help of the helpless, oh, a - bide with me!

127

"Abide with us."

H. F. LYTH.

ABIDE with me! Fast falls the eventide,
The darkness deepens—Lord, with me abide!
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me!

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away;
Change and decay in all around I see;
O thou, who changest not, abide with me!

3 I need thy presence every passing hour,
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's
power?

Who, like thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Thro' cloud and sunshine, oh, abide with me!

4 Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain
shadows flee!

In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me!

PAX DEL. 10a.

1. Saviour, a - gain to thy dear name we raise With one accord our parting hymn of praise;

We rise to bless thee ere our worship cease, And now, de - parting, wait thy word of peace.

128

"Go in peace."

J. HILLERTON.

SAVIOUR, again to thy dear name we raise
With one accord our parting hymn of praise;
We rise to bless thee ere our worship cease,
And now, departing, wait thy word of peace,

2 Grant us thy peace upon our homeward
way;
With thee began, with thee shall end the day;
Guard thou the lips from sin, the hearts
from shame,

That in this house have called upon thy name.

3 Grant us thy peace, Lord, through the coming night;

Turn thou for us its darkness into light;
From harm and danger keep thy children free,
For dark and 'light are both alike to thee.

4 Grant us thy peace throughout our earthly life,

Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife;
Then, when thy voice shall bid our conflict
cease,

Call us, O Lord, to thine eternal peace.

Evening.

G. W. DOANE.

SOFTLY now the light of day
Fades upon my sight away;
Free from care, from labor free,
Lord, I would commune with thee.

2 Thou, whose all-pervading eye
Naught escapes without, within,
Pardon each infirmity,
Open fault, and secret sin.

3 Soon, for me, the light of day
Shall for ever pass away;
Then, from sin and sorrow free,
Take me, Lord, to dwell with thee.

4 Thou who, sinless, yet hast known
All of man's infirmity;
Then from thine eternal throne,
Jesus, look with pitying eye.

130

"Foretastes."

J. MONTGOMERY.

For the mercies of the day,
For this rest upon our way,
Thanks to thee alone be given,
Lord of earth and King of heaven!

2 Cold our services have been,
Mingled every prayer with sin:
But thou canst and wilt forgive;
By thy grace alone we live.

3 While this thorny path we tread,
May thy love our footsteps lead;
When our journey here is past,
May we rest with thee at last.

4 Let these earthly Sabbaths prove
Foretastes of our joys above;
While their steps thy children bend
To the rest which knows no end.

NIGHTFALL. 11s, 6s.

J. BARNEY.

131

"Lord everlasting." C. WINKWORTH, tr.

132

Evening confession.

J. BOWRING.

Now God be with us, for the night is closing,
The light and darkness are of his disposing;
And 'neath his shadow here to rest we yield
us;
For he will shield us.

2 Let evil thoughts and spirits flee before us,
Till morning cometh, watch, O Father!
o'er us;
In soul and body thou from harm defend us,
Thine angels send us.

3 Let pious thoughts be ours when sleep
o'ertakes us;
Our earliest thoughts be thine when morning wakes us;
All sick and mourners, we to thee commend them,
Do thou befriend them.

4 We have no refuge, none on earth to aid us,
But thee, O Father! who thine own hast
made us;
Keep us in life; forgive our sins; deliver
Us now and ever.

5 Praise be to thee through Jesus our salvation,
God, three in one, the Ruler of creation,
High throned, o'er all thine eye of mercy casting,
Lord everlasting!

From the recesses of a lowly spirit,
Our humble prayer ascends; O Father!
hear it,
Upsoaring on the wings of awe and meekness!
Forgive its weakness!

2 We see thy hand; it leads us, it supports us!
We hear thy voice; it counsels and it courts
us:
And then we turn away; and still thy kindness
Forgives our blindness.

3 Oh, how long-suffering, Lord! but thou delightest
To win with love the wandering; thou invitest,
By smiles of mercy, not by frowns or terrors,
Man from his errors.

4 Father and Saviour! plant within each bosom
The seeds of holiness, and bid them blossom
In fragrance and in beauty bright and vernal,
And spring eternal.

5 Then place them in thine everlasting gardens,
Where angels walk, and seraphs are the wardens;
Where every flower escaped through death's dark portal,
Becomes immortal.

LAST BEAM. P. M.

T. V. WEISENTHAL.

1. Fading, still fading, the last beam is shining; Father in heaven, the day is de - clining;

Safe-ty and innocence fly with the light, Temptation and danger walk forth with the night; From the fall of the shade till the morning bells chime, Shield me from danger, save me from crime.

REFRAIN.

"The Last Beam."

HUNTINGTON.

FADING, still fading, the last beam is shining,
 Father in heaven, the day is declining;
 Safety and innocence fly with the light,
 Temptation and danger walk forth with the night:
 From the fall of the shade till the morning bells chime,
 Shield me from danger, save me from crime!—REF.

2 Father in heaven, oh, hear when we call!
 Hear, for Christ's sake, who is Saviour of all;
 Feeble and fainting, we trust in thy might;
 In doubting and darkness, thy love be our light;
 Let us sleep on thy breast while the night taper burns,
 Wake in thine arms when morning returns.—REF.

SEGUE. 8s, 7s, 4s.

J. P. HOLBROOK.

1. Guide me, O thou great Jeho-vah, Pilgrim through this barren land; I am weak, but thou art mighty;
Hold me with thy powerful hand; Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven, Feed me till I want no more.

134

Guidance.

W. WILLIAMS.

GUIDE me, O thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty;
Hold me with thy powerful hand;
Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more.

2 Open thou the crystal fountain
Whence the healing streams do flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through;
Strong Deliverer,
Be thou still my Strength and Shield.

3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death! and hell's Destruction!
Land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.

OLIPHANT. 8s, 7s, 4s.

1. Guide me, O thou great Je- ho-vah, Pilgrim through this barren land; I am weak, but thou art mighty, Hold me with thy powerful hand: Bread of heav-en, Bread of heaven, Feed me till I want no more, Feed me till I want no more.

"Lead us!"

J. EDMESTON.

LEAD us, heavenly Father, lead us
O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us,
For we have no help but thee;
Yet possessing Every blessing,
If our God our Father be.

2 Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us;
All our weakness thou dost know;
Thou didst tread this earth before us;
Thou didst feel its keenest woe;
Lone and dreary, Faint and weary,
Through the desert thou didst go.

3 Spirit of our God, descending,
Fill our hearts with heavenly joy;
Love with every passion blending,
Pleasure that can never cloy;
Thus provided, Pardoned, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy.

Dismissal.

W. SHIRLEY.

LORD, dismiss us with thy blessing,
 Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
 Let us each, thy love possessing,
 Triumph in redeeming grace;
 Oh, refresh us,
 Traveling through this wilderness.

2 Thanks we give, and adoration,
 For thy gospel's joyful sound,
 May the fruits of thy salvation
 In our hearts and lives abound;
 May thy presence
 With us evermore be found.

3 So, whene'er the signal's given,
 Us from earth to call away;
 Borne on angels' wings to heaven,
 Glad to leave our cumbrous clay,
 May we, ready,
 Rise and reign in endless day.

"Keep us safe."

T. KELLY.

GOD of our salvation! hear us;
 Bless, oh, bless us, ere we go;
 When we join the world, be near us,
 Lest we cold and careless grow.
 Saviour! keep us;
 Keep us safe from every foe.

2 As our steps are drawing nearer
 To our everlasting home,
 May our view of heaven grow clearer,
 Hope more bright of joys to come;

And, when dying,
 May thy presence cheer the gloom.

138

Benediction.

J. NEWTON.

MAY the grace of Christ our Saviour,
 And the Father's boundless love,
 With the Holy Spirit's favor,
 Rest upon us from above!

 With each other and the Lord;
 And possess in sweet communion,
 Joys which earth cannot afford.

139

Evening blessing.

J. EDMESTON.

SAVIOUR, breathe an evening blessing,
 Ere repose our spirits seal;
 Sin and want we come confessing;
 Thou canst save, and thou canst heal.

2 Though destruction walk around us,
 Though the arrow near us fly,
 Angel guards from thee surround us,
 We are safe if thou art nigh.

3 Though the night be dark and dreary,
 Darkness cannot hide from thee;
 Thou art he who, never weary,
 Watcheth where thy people be.

4 Should swift death this night o'ertake us,
 And our couch become our tomb,
 May the morn in heaven awake us,
 Clad in light and deathless bloom.

And thou hast taken count of all—

Sweet fear, and sober liberty,

And simple hearts without alloy

That only long to be like thee.—REF.

"By Galilee."

M. A. LATHEBURY.

BREAK thou the bread of life,
Dear Lord, to me,
As thou didst break the loaves
Beside the sea;
Beyond the sacred page
I seek thee, Lord;
My spirit pants for thee,
O living Word!

2 Bless thou the truth, dear Lord,
To me—to me—
As thou didst bless the bread

Then shall all bondage cease,
All fetters fall;
And I shall find my peace,
My All-in-All!

146 S. M. The Lord's Prayer. J. MONTGOMERY.

OUR Heavenly Father, hear
The prayer we offer now :—
"Thy name be hallowed far and near,
To thee all nations bow.

2 "Thy kingdom come; thy will
On earth be done in love,
As saints and seraphim fulfill
Thy perfect law above.

3 "Our daily bread supply,
While by thy word we live;
The guilt of our iniquity
Forgive, as we forgive.

4 "From dark temptation's power
Our feeble hearts defend;
Deliver in the evil hour,
And guide us to the end.

5 "Thine, then, for ever be
Glory and power divine;
The sceptre, throne, and majesty
Of heaven and earth are thine."

147 75. The Holy Spirit. C. WESLEY.

LIGHT of life, seraphic Fire,
Love divine, thyself impart;
Every fainting soul inspire;
Enter every drooping heart;—

2 Every mournful sinner cheer;
Scatter all our guilty gloom;
Father! in thy grace appear,
To thy human temples come.

3 Come, in this accepted hour,
Bring thy heavenly kingdom in;
Fill us with thy glorious power,
Set us free from all our sin.

4 Nothing more can we require,
We will covet nothing less;
Be thou all our heart's desire,
All our joy, and all our peace.

148 85, 75. Dismissal. E. SMYTH.

LORD, dismiss us with thy blessing;
Bid us now depart in peace;
Still on heavenly manna feeding,
Let our faith and love increase.

2 Fill each breast with consolation;
Up to thee our hearts we raise;
When we reach our blissful station,
Then we'll give thee nobler praise.

149 L. M. Sabbath Eve. J. EDMESTON.

SWEET is the light of Sabbath eve,
And soft the sunbeams lingering there;
For these blest hours the world I leave,
Wafted on wings of faith and prayer.

2 The time, how lovely and how still!
Peace shines and smiles on all below;
The plain, the stream, the wood, the hill,
All fair with evening's setting glow.

3 Season of rest! the tranquil soul
Feels the sweet calm, and melts to love;
And while these sacred moments roll,
Faith sees the smiling heaven above.

4 Nor will our days of toil be long;
Our pilgrimage will soon be trod;
And we shall join the ceaseless song,
The endless Sabbath of our God.

150 H. M. God's Word. F. DODDRIDGE.

THE promises I sing,
Which sovereign love hath spoke;
Nor will the Eternal King
His words of grace revoke;

They stand secure | Not Zion's hill
And steadfast still; | Abides so sure.

2 The mountains melt away
When once the Judge appears,
And sun and moon decay,
That measure mortal years;
But still the same, | The promise shines
In radiant lines | Through all the flame.

3 Their harmony shall sound
Through my attentive ears,
When thunders cleave the ground
And dissipate the spheres;
Midst all the shock | I stand serene,
Of that dread scene, | Thy word my rock.

151 C. M. "Hear and Know." I. WATTS.

BLEST are the souls that hear and know
The gospel's joyful sound;
Peace shall attend the path they go,
And light their steps surround.

2 Their joy shall bear their spirits up,
Through their Redeemer's name;
His righteousness exalts their hope,
Nor Satan dares condemn.

3 The Lord, our glory and defence,
Strength and salvation gives;
Israel! thy King for ever reigns,
Thy God for ever lives.

7s. Hymn at Parting.

ANON.

Thou, from whom we never part,
Thou, whose love is everywhere,
Thou, who seest every heart,
Listen to our evening prayer.

2 Father, fill our hearts with love,
Love unfailing, full and free;
Love that no alarm can move,
Love that ever rests on thee.

3 Heavenly Father! through the night
Keep us safe from every ill;
Cheerful as the morning light,
May we wake to do thy will.

153

8s, 7s, 4s. "Hear us!" D. C. COLESWORTHY.

WHILE we lowly bow before thee,
Wilt thou, gracious Saviour, hear?
We are poor and needy sinners,
Full of doubt and full of fear;
Gracious Saviour,
Make us humble and sincere.

2 Fill us with thy Holy Spirit;
Sanctify us by thy grace;
Oh, incline us more to love thee,
And in dust our souls abase.
Hear us, Saviour,
And unvail thy glorious face.

3 None in vain did ever ask thee
For the Spirit of thy love;
Hear us, then, dear Saviour, hear us;
Grant an answer from above;
Blesséd Saviour,
Hear and answer from above.

154

8s, 7s, 4s. Invocation.

J. PIERPONT.

God Almighty and All-seeing!
Holy One, in whom we all
Live, and move, and have our being,
Hear us when on thee we call;
Father, hear us,
As before thy throne we fall.

2 Of all good art thou the Giver;
Weak and wandering ones are we;
Then for ever, yea, for ever,
In thy presence would we be;
Oh, be near us,
That we wander not from thee.

155

7s. Separation.

J. NEWTON.

FOR a season called to part,
Let us now ourselves commend
To the gracious eye and heart
Of our ever present Friend.

2 Jesus! hear our humble prayer,
Tender Shepherd of thy sheep!
Let thy mercy and thy care
All our souls in safety keep.

3 Then if thou thy help afford,
Joyful songs to thee shall rise,
And our souls shall praise the Lord,
Who regards our humble cries.

156

S. M. "Bless the Lord!" J. MONTGOMERY.

STAND up, and bless the Lord,
Ye people of his choice;
Stand up and bless the Lord your God,
With heart and soul and voice.

2 Though high above all praise,
Above all blessing high,
Who would not fear his holy name,
And laud, and magnify!

3 Oh, for the living flame
From his own altar brought,
To touch our lips, our souls inspire,
And wing to heaven our thought!

4 God is our strength and song,
And his salvation ours:
Then be his love in Christ proclaimed,
With all our ransomed powers.

5 Stand up, and bless the Lord;
The Lord your God adore;
Stand up, and bless his glorious name,
Henceforth, for evermore.

157

8s, 7s, 4s. "Lord, keep us."

T. KELLY.

KEEP us, Lord, oh, keep us ever:
Vain our hope, if left by thee;
We are thine; oh, leave us never,
Till thy glorious face we see;
Then to praise thee
Through a bright eternity.

2 Precious is thy word of promise,
Precious to thy people here;
Never take thy presence from us,
Jesus, Saviour, still be near:
Living, dying,
May thy name our spirits cheer.

Psalms 19.

I. WATTS.

THE heavens declare thy glory, Lord!
 In every star thy wisdom shines;
 But, when our eyes behold thy word,
 We read thy name in fairer lines.

2 The rolling sun, the changing light,
 And nights and days thy power confess;
 But the blest volume thou hast writ
 Reveals thy justice and thy grace.

3 Sun, moon, and stars convey thy praise
 Round the whole earth, and never stand;
 So, when thy truth began its race,
 It touched and glanced on every land.

4 Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest,
 Till through the world thy truth has run,
 Till Christ has all the nations blessed,
 That see the light, or feel the sun.

5 Great Sun of righteousness! arise;
 Bless the dark world with heavenly light;
 Thy gospel makes the simple wise,
 Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right.

6 Thy noblest wonders here we view,
 In souls renewed, and sins forgiven:
 Lord! cleanse my sins, my soul renew,
 And make thy word my guide to heaven.

159

Inspiration.

I. WATTS.

'Twas by an order from the Lord
 The ancient prophets spoke his word!
 His Spirit did their tongues inspire,
 And warmed their hearts with heavenly fire.

2 The works and wonders which they wrought,
 Confirmed the messages they brought:
 The prophet's pen succeeds his breath,
 To save the holy words from death.

3 Great God, mine eyes with pleasure look
 On the dear volume of thy book;
 There my Redeemer's face I see,
 And read his name who died for me.

160

The Gospel Word.

B. BEDDOME.

GOD, in the gospel of his Son,
 Makes his eternal counsels known:
 Where love in all its glory shines,
 And truth is drawn in fairest lines.

2 Here sinners, of an humble frame,
 May taste his grace, and learn his name;
 May read, in characters of blood,
 The wisdom, power, and grace of God.

3 The prisoner here may break his chains;
 The weary rest from all his pains;
 The captive feel his bondage cease;
 The mourner find the way of peace.

4 Here faith reveals to mortal eyes
 A brighter world beyond the skies;
 Here shines the light which guides our way
 From earth to realms of endless day.

5 Oh, grant us grace, Almighty Lord,
 To read and mark thy holy word;

Psalms 19.

R. GRANT.

THE starry firmament on high,
 And all the glories of the sky,
 Yet shine not to thy praise, O Lord,
 So brightly as thy written word.

2 The hopes that holy word supplies,
 Its truths divine and precepts wise,
 In each a heavenly beam I see,
 And every beam conducts to thee.

3 Almighty Lord, the sun shall fail,
 The moon forget her nightly tale,
 And deepest silence hush on high
 The radiant chorus of the sky;—

4 But fixed for everlasting years,
 Unmoved, amid the wreck of spheres,
 Thy word shall shine in cloudless day,
 When heaven and earth have passed away.

Now LET my soul, eternal King,
To thee its grateful tribute bring;

My tongue perform its solemn vow.

2 All nature sings thy boundless love,
In worlds below and worlds above;
But in thy blessed word I trace
Diviner wonders of thy grace.

3 Here Jesus bids my sorrows cease,
And gives my laboring conscience peace;
Here lifts my grateful passions high,
And points to mansions in the sky.

Let distant climes thy name adore,

"And be glorified." J. BOWRING.

Upon the Gospel's sacred page
The gathered beams of ages shine;
And, as it hastens, every age
But makes its brightness more divine.

2 On mightier wing, in loftier flight,
From year to year does knowledge soar;
And, as it soars, the Gospel light
Becomes effulgent more and more.

3 More glorious still, as centuries roll,
New regions blest, new powers unfurled,
Expanding with the expanding soul,
Its radiance shall o'erflow the world,—

4 Flow to restore, but not destroy;
As when the cloudless lamp of day
Pours out its floods of light and joy,
And sweeps the lingering mist away.

My bleeding, dying Lord.

3 'Tis here, whene'er my comforts droop,
And sin and sorrow rise,
Thy love, with cheering beams of hope,
My fainting heart supplies.

4 But ah! too soon the pleasing scene
Is clouded o'er with pain;
My gloomy fears rise dark between,
And I again complain.

5 Jesus, my Lord, my life, my light!
Oh, come with blissful ray;
Break radiant through the shades of night,
And chase my fears away.

The wonders of thy love:

How PRECIOUS is the book divine,
By inspiration given!
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.

2 O'er all the strait and narrow way
Its radiant beams are cast;
A light whose never-weary ray
Grows brightest at the last.

3 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts,
In this dark vale of tears;
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.

4 This lamp, through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light

My soul lies cleaving to the dust;
Lord, give me life divine;
From vain desires and every lust,
Turn off these eyes of mine.

2 I need the influence of thy grace
To speed me in thy way,
Lest I should loiter in my race
Or turn my feet astray.

3 Are not thy mercies sovereign still,
And thou a faithful God?
Wilt thou not grant me warmer zeal
To run the heavenly road?

4 Does not my heart thy precepts love,
And long to see thy face?
And yet how slow my spirits move
Without enlivening grace!

L. WATTS.

LADEN with guilt, and full of fears,
I fly to thee, my Lord,
And not a glimpse of hope appears,
But in thy written word.

2 This is the field where hidden lies
The pearl of price unknown;
That merchant is divinely wise,
Who makes the pearl his own.

3 This is the judge that ends the strife,
Where wit and reason fail;
My guide to everlasting life,
Through all this gloomy vale.

4 Oh, may thy counsels, mighty God!
My roving feet command;
Nor I forsake the happy road,
That leads to thy right hand.

168

Psalm 119.

L. WATTS.

Oh, how I love thy holy law!
'Tis daily my delight;
And thence my meditations draw
Divine advice by night.

2 How doth thy word my heart engage!
How well employ my tongue!
And in my tiresome pilgrimage
Yields me a heavenly song.

3 Am I a stranger, or at home,
'Tis my perpetual feast:
Not honey dropping from the comb,
So much allures the taste.

4 No treasures so enrich the mind,
Nor shall thy word be sold
For loads of silver well-refined,
Nor heaps of choicest gold.

5 When nature sinks, and spirits droop,
Thy promises of grace
Are pillars to support my hope,
And there I write thy praise.

169

Psalm 119.

L. WATTS.

LORD! I have made thy word my choice,
My lasting heritage;
There shall my noblest powers rejoice,
My warmest thoughts engage.

2 I'll read the histories of thy love,
And keep thy laws in sight,
While through the promises I rove,
With ever-fresh delight.

3 'Tis a broad land of wealth unknown,
Where springs of life arise;
Seeds of immortal bliss are sown,
And hidden glory lies:—

How SHALL the young secure their hearts,
And guard their lives from sin?
Thy word the choicest rules imparts
To keep the conscience clean.

2 When once it enters to the mind,
It spreads such light abroad;
The meanest souls instruction find,
And raise their thoughts to God.

3 'Tis like the sun, a heavenly light,
That guides us all the day;
And, through the dangers of the night,
A lamp to lead our way.

4 Thy precepts make me truly wise;
I hate the sinner's road;
I hate my own vain thoughts that rise,
But love thy law, my God!

5 Thy word is everlasting truth;
How pure is every page!
That holy book shall guide our youth,
And well support our age.

Psalm 119.

I. WATTS.

Oh, that the Lord would guide my ways
To keep his statutes still:
Oh, that my God would grant me grace
To know and do his will.

2 Oh, send thy Spirit down, to write
Thy law upon my heart;
Nor let my tongue indulge deceit,
Or act the liar's part.

3 From vanity turn off my eyes;
Let no corrupt design,
Nor covetous desires, arise
Within this soul of mine.

4 Order my footsteps by thy word,
And make my heart sincere;
Let sin have no dominion, Lord!
But keep my conscience clear.

5 Make me to walk in thy commands—

Offend against my God.

It gives a light to every age;—
It gives, but borrows none.

3 The hand, that gave it, still supplies
The gracious light and heat;
Its truths upon the nations rise,—
They rise, but never set.

4 Let everlasting thanks be thine,

O word of God incarnate,
 O Wisdom from on high,

 O Light of our dark sky!
 We praise thee for the radiance
 That from the hallowed page,
 A lantern to our footsteps,

 Received the gift divine,
 And still that light she lifteth

 It is the golden casket
 Where gems of truth are stored,
 It is the heaven-drawn picture
 Of Christ the living Word.

3 Oh, make thy Church, dear Saviour,
 A lamp of burnished gold,
 To bear before the nations

Psalms 19.

J. CONDER.

THE heavens declare his glory,
 Their Maker's skill the skies;
 Each day repeats the story,
 And night to night replies.
 Their silent proclamation
 Throughout the earth is heard;
 The record of creation,
 The page of nature's word.

2 So pure, so soul-restoring,
 Is truth's diviner ray;
 A brighter radiance pouring
 Than all the pomp of day:
 The wanderer surely guiding,
 It makes the simple wise;
 And, evermore abiding,
 Unfailing joy supplies.

3 Thy word is richer treasure
 Than lurks within the mine;
 And daintiest fare less pleasure
 Yields than this food divine.
 How wise each kind monition!
 Led by thy counsels, Lord,
 How safe the saints' condition,
 How great is their reward!

Everlasting.—Ps. 90. H. BICKERSTETH.

O God, the Rock of Ages,
Who evermore hast been,
What time the tempest rages,
Our dwelling-place serene:
Before thy first creations,
O Lord, the same as now,
To endless generations,
The Everlasting thou!
2 Our years are like the shadows
On sunny hills that lie,
Or grasses in the meadows
That blossom but to die:
A sleep, a dream, a story,
By strangers quickly told,
An unremaining glory
Of things that soon are old.
3 O thou who canst not alumber,
Whose light grows never pale,
Teach us aright to number
Our years before they fail!
On us thy mercy lighten,
On us thy goodness rest,
And let thy Spirit brighten
The hearts thyself hast blessed!

With watchful eye abiding
Upon us with delight;
Our souls, in him confiding,
He keeps both day and night.

2 Above me and beside me,
My God is ever near,
To watch, protect, and guide me,
Whatever ills appear.
Though other friends may fail me;
In sorrow's dark abode,
Though death itself assail me,
I'm ever safe with God.

178

Sovereign Love.

J. CONDER.

'Tis not that I did choose thee,
For, Lord! that could not be;
This heart would still refuse thee;
But thou hast chosen me;—
Hast, from the sin that stained me,
Washed me and set me free,
And to this end ordained me,
That I should live to thee.

2 'Twas sovereign mercy called me,
And taught my opening mind;
The world had else enthralled me,
To heavenly glories blind.
My heart owns none above thee;
For thy rich grace I thirst;
This knowing,—if I love thee,
Thou must have loved me first.

Nor men, nor angels can explore

Long-Suffering.

God of my life, to thee belong
The grateful heart, the joyful song;
Touched by thy love, each tuneful chord
Resounds the goodness of the Lord.

2 Yet why, dear Lord, this tender care?
Why doth thy hand so kindly rear
A useless cumberer of the ground,
On which so little fruit is found?

3 Still let the barren fig-tree stand
Upheld and fostered by thy hand;
And let its fruit and verdure be
A grateful tribute, Lord, to thee.

Mystery.

R. BEDDOME.

WAIT, O my soul! thy Maker's will;
Tumultuous passions, all be still!
Nor let a murmuring thought arise;
His ways are just, his counsels wise.

2 He in the thickest darkness dwells,
Performs his work, the cause conceals;
But, though his methods are unknown,
Judgment and truth support his throne.

3 In heaven, and earth, and air, and seas,
He executes his firm decrees;
And by his saints it stands confessed,
That what he does is ever best.

4 Wait, then, my soul! submissive wait,
Prostrate before his awful seat;
And, 'mid the terrors of his rod,
Trust in a wise and gracious God.

Their great Original proclaim:
The unwearied sun, from day to day,
Does his Creator's power display;
And publishes to every land
The work of an almighty hand.

2 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wondrous tale;
And nightly, to the listening earth,
Repeats the story of her birth;
While all the stars that round her burn,
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

3 What though in solemn silence, all
Move round the dark terrestrial ball,—
What though no real voice nor sound
Amid their radiant orbs be found,—
In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice,
For ever singing as they shine,—
"The hand that made us is divine."

ETERNAL Source of every joy,
Well may thy praise our lips employ,
While in thy temple we appear,
To hail thee, sovereign of the year!
Wide as the wheels of nature roll,
Thy hand supports and guides the whole,
The sun is taught by thee to rise,
And darkness when to veil the skies.

2 The flowery spring at thy command,
Perfumes the air, adorns the land;
The summer rays with vigor shine,
To raise the corn, to cheer the vine.
Thy hand, in autumn, richly pours,
Through all our coasts redundant stores:
And winters, softened by thy care,
No more the face of horror wear.

3 Seasons and months, and weeks and days,
Demand successive songs of praise;
And be the grateful homage paid,
With morning light and evening shade.
Here in thy house let incense rise,
And circling Sabbaths bless our eyes,
Till to those lofty heights we soar,
Where days and years revolve no more.

Sheds on our path the glow of day;
Star of our hope, thy softened light
Cheers the long watches of the night.

3 Our midnight is thy smile withdrawn;
Our noontide is thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow arch thy mercy's sign;
All, save the clouds of sin, are thine!

4 Lord of all life, below, above,
Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Before thy ever-blazing throne
We ask no lustre of our own.

5 Grant us thy truth to make us free,
And kindling hearts that burn for thee,
Till all thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heavenly flame!

Providence.

A. STEELE.

LORD, how mysterious are thy ways!
How blind are we, how mean our praise!
Thy steps no mortal eyes explore;
'Tis ours to wonder and adore.

2 Great God! I do not ask to see
What in futurity shall be;
Let light and bliss attend my days,
And then my future hours be praise.

3 Are darkness and distress my share?
Give me to trust thy guardian care;
Enough for me, if love divine
At length through every cloud shall shine.

4 Yet this my soul desires to know,
Be this my only wish below;
That Christ is mine!—this great request,
Grant, bounteous God, and I am blest.

193

Sovereignty.

RAY PALMER.

LORD, my weak thought in vain would climb
To search the starry vault profound;
In vain would wing her flight sublime,
To find creation's outmost bound.

2 But weaker yet that thought must prove
To search thy great eternal plan,—
Thy sovereign counsels, born of love
Long ages ere the world began.

3 When my dim reason would demand
Why that, or this, thou dost ordain,
By some vast deep I seem to stand,
Whose secrets I must ask in vain.

4 When doubts disturb my troubled breast,
And all is dark as night to me,
Here, as on solid rock, I rest;
That so it seemeth good to thee.

5 Be this my joy, that evermore
Thou rulest all things at thy will:
Thy sovereign wisdom I adore,
And calmly, sweetly, trust thee still.

Power.

H. K. WHITE.

The Lord, our God, is full of might,
The winds obey his will;
He speaks,—and, in his heavenly height,
The rolling sun stands still.

2 Rebel, ye waves, and o'er the land
With threatening aspect roar;
The Lord uplifts his awful hand,
And chains you to the shore.

3 Howl, winds of night, your force combine;
Without his high behest,
Ye shall not, in the mountain pine,
Disturb the sparrow's nest.

4 His voice sublime is heard afar,
In distant peals it dies;
He yokes the whirlwind to his car,
And sweeps the howling skies.

5 Ye nations, bend—in reverence bend;
Ye monarchs, wait his nod,
And bid the choral song ascend
To celebrate your God.

195

Providence.

I. WATTS.

KEEP silence, all created things!
And wait your Maker's nod;
My soul stands trembling, while she sings
The honors of her God.

2 Life, death, and hell, and worlds unknown,
Hang on his firm decree;
He sits on no precarious throne,
Nor borrows leave to be.

3 His providence unfolds the book,
And makes his counsels shine;
Each opening leaf, and every stroke,
Fulfills some deep design.

4 My God! I would not long to see
My fate, with curious eyes—
What gloomy lines are writ for me,
Or what bright scenes may rise.

5 In thy fair book of life and grace,
Oh, may I find my name
Recorded in some humble place,
Beneath my Lord, the Lamb.

L. WATTS.

FATHER! how wide thy glory shines!

How high thy wonders rise!

Known through the earth by thousand signs,
By thousand through the skies.2 Those mighty orbs proclaim thy power,
Their motions speak thy skill;
And on the wings of every hour,
We read thy patience still.3 But, when we view thy strange design
To save rebellious worms,
Where vengeance and compassion join
In their divinest forms,—4 Here the whole Deity is known;
Nor dares a creature guess
Which of the glories brightest shone,
The justice, or the grace.5 Now the full glories of the Lamb
Adorn the heavenly plains;
Bright seraphs learn Immanuel's name,
And try their choicest strains.6 Oh, may I bear some humble part,
In that immortal song;
Wonder and joy shall tune my heart,
And love command my tongue.

Goodness.—Ps. 145.

L. WATTS.

SWEET is the memory of thy grace,
My God, my heavenly King;
Let age to age thy righteousness
In sounds of glory sing.2 God reigns on high; but ne'er confines
His goodness to the skies:
Through the whole earth his bounty shines
And every want supplies.3 With longing eyes thy creatures wait
On thee for daily food;
Thy liberal hand provides their meat,
And fills their mouth with good.4 How kind are thy compassions, Lord!
How slow thine anger moves!
But soon he sends his pardoning word
To cheer the souls he loves.

LORD, when my raptured thought surveys
Creation's beauties o'er,
All nature joins to teach thy praise,
And bid my soul adore.2 Where'er I turn my gazing eyes,
Thy radiant footsteps shine;
Ten thousand pleasing wonders rise,
And speak their source divine.3 On me thy providence has shone
With gentle smiling rays;
Oh, let my lips and life make known
Thy goodness and thy praise.4 All-bounteous Lord, thy grace impart!

COME, ye that know and fear the Lord,
And raise your thoughts above:

And all his mercies prove;

With those who from him rove;
Till mighty grace their hearts subdues,
To teach them—"God is love."

4 Oh, may we all, while here below,
This best of blessings prove;
Till warmer hearts, in brighter worlds,
Proclaim that "God is love."

Omnipresence.—Ps. 139. I. WATTS.

IN all my vast concerns with thee,
In vain my soul would try
To shun thy presence, Lord! or flee
The notice of thine eye.

2 Thine all-surrounding sight surveys
My rising and my rest,
My public walks, my private ways,
And secrets of my breast.

3 My thoughts lie open to the Lord,
Before they're formed within;
And, ere my lips pronounce the word,
He knows the sense I mean.

4 Oh, wondrous knowledge, deep and high,
Where can a creature hide?
Within thy circling arms I lie,
Enclosed on every side.

5 So let thy grace surround me still,
And like a bulwark prove,
To guard my soul from every ill,
Secured by sovereign love.

In Nature.

J. KERLE.

THERE is a book that all may read,
Which heavenly truth imparts,
And all the lore its scholars need,
Pure eyes and Christian hearts.

2 The works of God above, below,
Within us and around,
Are pages in that book, to show
How God himself is found.

3 The glorious sky, embracing all,
Is like the Maker's love,
Wherewith encompassed, great and small
In peace and order move.

4 The dew of heaven is like thy grace,
It steals in silence down;
But where it lights, the favored place
By richest fruits is known.

5 Thou, who hast given me eyes to see,
And love this sight so fair,
Give me a heart to find out thee,
And read thee everywhere.

Omniscience.—Ps. 139.

I. WATTS.

LORD! where shall guilty souls retire,
Forgotten and unknown?
In hell they meet thy dreadful fire—
In heaven thy glorious throne.

2 If, winged with beams of morning light,
I fly beyond the west,
Thy hand, which must support my flight,
Would soon betray my rest.

3 If, o'er my sins, I think to draw
The curtains of the night,
Those flaming eyes, that guard thy law,
Would turn the shades to light.

4 The beams of noon, the midnight hour,
Are both alike to thee:
Oh, may I ne'er provoke that power,
From which I cannot flee.

Perfections.

L. WATTS.

I SING the almighty power of God,
That made the mountains rise,
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And built the lofty skies.
I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at his command,
And all the stars obey.

2 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
That filled the earth with food;
He formed the creatures with his word,
And then pronounced them good.
Lord! how thy wonders are displayed
Where'er I turn mine eye!
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky!

3 There's not a plant or flower below
But makes thy glories known;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow
By order from thy throne.
Creatures that borrow life from thee
Are subject to thy care;
There's not a place where we can flee,
But God is present there.

Mystery.

J. FAWCETT.

THY way, O Lord, is in the sea;
Thy paths I cannot trace,
Nor comprehend the mystery
Of thine unbounded grace.

As, through a glass, I dimly see
The wonders of thy love;
How little do I know of thee,
Or of the joys above!

2 'Tis but in part I know thy will;
I bless thee for the sight:
When will thy love the rest reveal,
In glory's clearer light?
With rapture shall I then survey
Thy providence and grace;
And spend an everlasting day
In wonder, love, and praise.

Omniscience.—Ps. 139. J. THOMPSON.

JEHOVAH God! thy gracious power
On every hand we see;
Oh, may the blessings of each hour
Lead all our thoughts to thee.
Thy power is in the ocean deeps,
And reaches to the skies;
Thine eye of mercy never sleeps,
Thy goodness never dies.

2 From morn till noon, till latest eve,
The hand of God we see;
And all the blessings we receive,
Ceaseless proceed from thee.
In all the varying scenes of time,
On thee our hopes depend;
In every age, in every clime,
Our Father and our Friend.

Faithfulness.

L. WATTS.

BEGIN, my tongue, some heavenly theme,
And speak some boundless thing;
The mighty works or mightier name
Of our eternal King.

2 Tell of his wondrous faithfulness,
And sound his power abroad;
Sing the sweet promise of his grace,
And the performing God.

3 His very word of grace is strong,
As that which built the skies;
The voice that rolls the stars along,
Speaks all the promises.

4 Oh, might I hear thy heavenly tongue
But whisper, "Thou art mine!"
Those gentle words should raise my song
To notes almost divine.

4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

And works his sovereign will.

HOLY and reverend is the name
Of our eternal King,
Thrice holy Lord! the angels cry;
Thrice holy! let us sing.

2 The deepest reverence of the mind,
Pay, O my soul! to God;
Lift with thy hands a holy heart
To his sublime abode.

3 With sacred awe pronounce his name,
Whom words nor thoughts can reach;
A broken heart shall please him more
Than the best forms of speech.

4 Thou holy God! preserve our souls

The pure in heart are thy delight,
And they thy face shall see.

Thus unite we to adore him,
Bid we thus our anthem flow.

Grace.

F. S. KEY.

LORD, with glowing heart I'd praise thee
For the bliss thy love bestows;
For the pardoning grace that saves me,
And the peace that from it flows:
Help, O God, my weak endeavor;
This dull soul to rapture raise;
Thou must light the flame, or never
Can my soul be warmed to praise.

2 Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
Wretched wanderer, far astray;
Found thee lost, and kindly brought thee
From the paths of death away;
Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
Him who saw thy guilt-born fear,
And, the light of hope revealing,
Bade the blood-stained cross appear.

3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
Vainly would my lips express:
Low before thy footstool kneeling,
Deign thy suppliant's prayer to bless;
Let thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
Love's pure flame within me raise;
And, since words can never measure,
Let my life show forth thy praise.

Mercy.

F. W. FABER.

THERE'S a wideness in God's mercy,
 Like the wideness of the sea:
 There's a kindness in his justice,
 Which is more than liberty.
 2 There is welcome for the sinner,
 And more graces for the good;
 There is mercy with the Saviour;
 There is healing in his blood.
 3 For the love of God is broader
 Than the measure of man's mind;
 And the heart of the Eternal
 Is most wonderfully kind.
 4 If our love were but more simple,
 We should take him at his word;
 And our lives would be all sunshine
 In the sweetness of our Lord.

215

"A Mighty Fortress." F. H. HEDGE, tr.

A MIGHTY fortress is our God,
A bulwark never failing;
Our Helper he, amid the flood
Of mortal ills prevailing.
For still our ancient foe
Doth seek to work his woe;
His craft and power are great,
And armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.

2 Did we in our own strength confide,
Our striving would be losing;
Were not the right man on our side,
The man of God's own choosing.
Dost ask who that may be?
Christ Jesus, it is he;
Lord Sabaoth is his name,
From age to age the same,
And he must win the battle.

3 And though this world, with devils filled,
Should threaten to undo us;
We will not fear, for God hath willed
His truth to triumph through us.
The prince of darkness grim,—
We tremble not for him;
His rage we can endure,
For lo! his doom is sure,—
One little word shall fell him!

4 That word above all earthly powers—
No thanks to them—abideth;
The Spirit and the gifts are ours
Through him who with us sideth.
Let goods and kindred go,
This mortal life also:
The body they may kill:
God's truth abideth still,
His kingdom is for ever.

"God alone."

H. W. BAKER.

REJOICE to-day with one accord,
Sing out with exultation;
Rejoice and praise our mighty Lord,
Whose arm hath brought salvation;
His works of love proclaim
The greatness of his name;
For he is God alone,
Who hath his mercy shown;
Let all his saints adore him.

2 When in distress to him we cried,
He heard our sad complaining;
Oh, trust in him, whate'er betide,
His love is all sustaining;
Triumphant songs of praise
To him our hearts shall raise;
Now every voice shall say,
"Oh, praise our God alway;"
Let all his saints adore him.

 To this my longing heart.

2 Come, self-existent Word,
 And speak thou in my spirit;

Beneficence.

A. T. PIERSON.

TO THEE, O God, we raise
 Our voice in choral singing;
 We come with prayer and praise,
 Our hearts' oblations bringing;
 Thou art our fathers' God,
 And ever shalt be ours;
 Our lips and lives shall laud
 Thy name, with all our powers.

2 Thy goodness, like the dew
 On Hermon's hill descending,
 Is every morning new,
 And tells of love unending.
 We bless thy tender care
 That led our wayward feet,
 Past every fatal snare,
 To streams and pastures sweet.

3 We bless thy Son, who bore
 The cross, for sinners dying;
 Thy Spirit we adore,
 The precious blood applying.
 Let work and worship send
 Their incense unto thee;
 Till song and service blend,
 Beside the crystal sea.

"Holy, holy, holy." J. MONTGOMERY.

HOLY, holy, holy Lord
God of Hosts! when heaven and earth,
Out of darkness, at thy word
Issued into glorious birth,
All thy works before thee stood,
And thine eye beheld them good,
While they sung with sweet accord,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!

2 Holy, holy, holy! thee,
One Jehovah evermore,
Father, Son, and Spirit! we,
Dust and ashes, would adore:

Lightly by the world esteemed,
From that world by thee redeemed,
Sing we here with glad accord,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!

3 Holy, holy, holy! all
Heaven's triumphant choir shall sing,
While the ransomed nations fall
At the footstool of their King:
Then shall saints and seraphim,
Harps and voices, swell one hymn,
Blending in sublime accord,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!

Divine Presence.

R. GRANT.

LORD of earth! thy forming hand
Well this beauteous frame hath planned;
Woods that wave, and hills that tower,
Ocean rolling in his power:
Yet, amid this scene so fair,
Should I cease thy smile to share,
What were all its joys to me?
Whom have I on earth but thee?

2 Lord of heaven! beyond our sight
Shines a world of purer light;
There in love's unclouded reign
Parted hands shall meet again:
Oh, that world is passing fair!
Yet, if thou wert absent there,
What were all its joys to me?
Whom have I in heaven but thee?

"One in Three.

C. WESLEY.

COME, thou almighty King,
Help us thy name to sing,
Help us to praise:
Father! all-glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come, and reign over us,
Ancient of Days!

2 Come, thou incarnate Word,
Gird on thy mighty sword;
Our prayer attend;
Come, and thy people bless,
And give thy word success—
Spirit of holiness!
On us descend.

3 Come, holy Comforter!
Thy sacred witness bear,
In this glad hour:
Thou, who almighty art,
Now rule in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power!

4 To the great One in Three,
The highest praises be,
Hence evermore!
His sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And to eternity
Love and adore.

ANON.

O God, to us show mercy,
And bless us in thy grace;

That so throughout all nations

225 8s, 7s. Wisdom and Love. J. BOWRING.

GOD is love; his mercy brightens
All the path in which we rove;
Bliss he wakes and woe he lightens;
God is wisdom, God is love.

2 Chance and change are busy ever;
Man decays, and ages move;
But his mercy waneth never;
God is wisdom, God is love.

3 Ev'n the hour that darkest seemeth,
Will his changeless goodness prove;
From the gloom his brightness streameth;
God is wisdom, God is love.

4 He with earthly cares entwineth
Hope and comfort from above;
Everywhere his glory shineth;
God is wisdom, God is love.

BLEST Trinity! from mortal sight
Vailed in thine own eternal light!
We thee confess, in thee believe;
To thee with loving hearts we cleave.

2 O Father! thou Most Holy One!
O God of God! Eternal Son!
O Holy Ghost! thou Love Divine!
To join them both is ever thine.

3 The Father is in God the Son,
And with the Father he is one;
In both the Spirit doth abide,
And with them both is glorified.

4 Eternal Father! thee we praise;
To thee, O Son! our hymns we raise;
O Holy Ghost! we thee adore!
One mighty God for evermore.

227 C. M. 6l. Omnipresence. J. CONDER.

BEYOND, beyond the boundless sea,
Above that dome of sky,
Further than thought itself can flee,
Thy dwelling is on high:
Yet dear the awful thought to me,
That thou, my God! art nigh:—

2 Art nigh, and yet my laboring mind
Feels after thee in vain—
Thee in these works of power to find,
Or to thy seat attain;
Thy messenger—the stormy wind;
Thy path—the trackless main.

3 These speak of thee with loud acclaim;
They thunder forth thy praise—
The glorious honor of thy name,
The wonders of thy ways;
But thou art not in tempest-flame,
Nor in the noon-day blaze.

4 We hear thy voice, when thunders roll
Through the wide fields of air:
The waves obey thy dread control;
Yet still thou art not there:
Where shall I find him, O my soul!
Who yet is everywhere?

5 Oh, not in circling depth or height,
But in the conscious breast,
Present to faith, though veiled from sight,
There doth his Spirit rest:
Oh, come, thou Presence infinite!
And make thy creature blest.

228 L. M. Goodness. F. DODDRIDGE.

TRIUMPHANT Lord, thy goodness reigns
Through all the wide celestial plains;
And its full streams unceasing flow
Down to the abodes of men below.

2 Through nature's work its glories shine;
The cares of providence are thine;
And grace erects our ruined frame
A fairer temple to thy name.

3 Oh, give to every human heart
To taste, and feel how good thou art;
With grateful love and reverent fear,
To know how blest thy children are.

229 L. M. Glory. T. BLACKLOCK.

COME, O my soul! in sacred lays
Attempt thy great Creator's praise:
But, oh, what tongue can speak his fame?
What mortal verse can reach the theme?

2 Enthroned amid the radiant spheres,
He glory like a garment wears;
To form a robe of light divine,
Ten thousand suns around him shine.

3 In all our Maker's grand designs,
Almighty power with wisdom shines;
His works thro' all this wondrous frame,
Declare the glory of his name.

4 Raised on devotion's lofty wing,
Do thou, my soul, his glories sing;
And let his praise employ thy tongue,
Till listening worlds shall join the song!

230H. M. The Trinity

WE give immortal praise
For God the Father's love,
For all our comforts here,
And better hopes above:
He sent his own eternal Son
To die for sins that we had done.

2 To God the Son belongs
Immortal glory too,
Who bought us with his blood
From everlasting woe:
And now he lives, and now he reigns,
And sees the fruit of all his pains.

3 To God the Spirit's name
Immortal worship give,
Whose new-creating power
Makes the dead sinner live:
His work completes the great design,
And fills the soul with joy divine.

4 Almighty God! to thee
Be endless honors done,
The undivided Three,
The great and glorious One:
Where reason fails, with all her powers,
There faith prevails, and love adores.

231C. M. Majesty.—Ps. 18. T. STERNHOLD.

THE Lord descended from above,
And bowed the heavens most high:
And underneath his feet he cast
The darkness of the sky.

2 On cherub and on cherubim,
Full royally he rode;
And on the wings of mighty winds
Came flying all abroad.

3 He sat serene upon the floods,
Their fury to restrain;
And he, as sovereign Lord and King,
For evermore shall reign.

4 The Lord will give his people strength,
Whereby they shall increase;
And he will bless his chosen flock
With everlasting peace.

5 Give glory to his awful name,
And honor him alone;
Give worship to his majesty,
Upon his holy throne.

232L. WATTS. H. M. Love.

J. YOUNG.

OH, for a shout of joy,
Worthy the theme we sing;
To this divine employ
Our hearts and voices bring;
Sound, sound, thro' all the earth abroad,
The love, the eternal love of God.

2 Unnumbered myriads stand,
Of seraphs bright and fair,
Or bow at thy right hand,
And pay their homage there;
But strive in vain with loudest chord,
To sound thy wondrous love, O Lord.

3 Yet sinners saved by grace,
In songs of lower key,
In every age and place,
Have sung the mystery,—
Have told in strains of sweet accord,
Thy love, thy sovereign love, O Lord.

4 Though earth and hell assail,
And doubts and fears arise,
The weakest shall prevail,
And grasp the heavenly prize,
And through an endless age record
Thy love, thy changeless love, O Lord.

233L. M. Grace.—Ps. 138. I. WATTS.

WITH all my powers of heart and tongue
I'll praise my Maker in my song:
Angels shall hear the notes I raise,
Approve the song, and join the praise.

2 I'll sing thy truth and mercy, Lord;
I'll sing the wonders of thy word;
Not all the works and names below,
So much thy power and glory show.

3 To God I cried when troubles rose;
He heard me, and subdued my foes;
He did my rising fears control,
And strength diffused thro' all my soul.

4 Amidst a thousand snares I stand,
Upheld and guarded by thy hand;
Thy words my fainting soul revive,
And keep my dying faith alive.

5 Grace will complete what grace begins,
To save from sorrows and from sins;
The work that wisdom undertakes,
Eternal mercy ne'er forsakes.

WHEN, marshaled on the nightly plain,
The glittering host bestud the sky,
One star alone, of all the train,
Can fix the sinner's wandering eye.
Hark! hark! to God the chorus breaks
From every host, from every gem;
But one alone the Saviour speaks,—
It is the Star of Bethlehem.

2 Once on the raging seas I rode,
The storm was loud, the night was dark,
The ocean yawned, and rudely blowed
The wind that tossed my foundering bark.
Deep horror then my vitals froze;
Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem;
When suddenly a star arose,
It was the Star of Bethlehem!

3 It was my guide, my light, my all;
It bade my dark forebodings cease,
And through the storm and danger's thrall
It led me to the port of peace.
Now safely moored, my perils o'er,
I'll sing, first in night's diadem,
For ever and for evermore,
The Star, the Star of Bethlehem!

WHEN Jordan hushed his waters still,
And silence slept on Zion's hill;
When Salem's shepherds thro' the night
Watched o'er their flocks by starry light;
2 Hark! from the midnight hills around,
A voice of more than mortal sound
In distant hallelujahs stole,
Wild murmuring o'er the raptured soul.

3 On wheels of light, on wings of flame,
The glorious hosts to Zion came;
High heaven with songs of triumph rung,
While thus they struck their harps and sung:

4 "O Zion! lift thy raptured eye;
The long expected hour is nigh:
The joys of nature rise again,
The Prince of Salem comes to reign.

5 "He comes to cheer the trembling heart,
Bids Satan and his host depart;
Again the Daystar gilds the gloom,
Again the bowers of Eden bloom."

6 O Zion! lift thy raptured eye;
The long-expected hour is nigh;
The joys of nature rise again:
The Prince of Salem comes to reign.

The child Christ.

M. LUTHER.

ALL praise to thee, eternal Lord,
Clothed in a garb of flesh and blood;
Choosing a manger for thy throne,
While worlds on worlds are thine alone!

2 Once did the skies before thee bow;
A virgin's arms contain thee now;
Angels, who did in thee rejoice,
Now listen for thine infant voice.

3 A little child, thou art our guest,
That weary ones in thee may rest;
Forlorn and lowly is thy birth,
That we may rise to heaven from earth.

4 Thou comest in the darksome night
To make us children of the light;
To make us, in the realms divine,
Like thine own angels round thee shine.

5 All this for us thy love hath done;
By this to thee our love is won;
For this we tune our cheerful lays,
And shout our thanks in ceaseless praise.

He led the host of morning stars:
His generation who can tell,
Or count the number of his years?

3 But lo, he leaves those heavenly forms:
The Word descends and dwells in clay,
That he may converse hold with worms,
Dressed in such feeble flesh as they.

4 Mortals with joy behold his face,
The eternal Father's only Son:
How full of truth, how full of grace,
When in his eyes the Godhead shone!

248 C. M. D. "The Age of Gold." E. H. SEARS.

It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold ;
"Peace to the earth, good-will to man,
From heaven's all-gracious King :"
The earth in solemn stillness lay,
To hear the angels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they
With peaceful wings unfurled ; [come,
And still celestial music floats
O'er all the weary world ;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on heavenly wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds,
The blessed angels sing.

3 O ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way,
With painful steps and slow ;—
Look up ! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing ;
Oh, rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing !

4 For lo ! the days are hastening on,
By prophet-bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold !
When peace shall over all the earth
Its final splendors fling,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing !

249 7s, D. "All hail the morn !" GERMAN.

HAIL the night, all hail the morn,
When the Prince of Peace was born !
When, amid the wakeful fold,
Tidings good the angels told.
Now our solemn chant we raise
Duly to the Saviour's praise
Now with carol hymns we bless
Christ the Lord, our righteousness.

2 While resounds the joyful cry,
"Glory be to God on high,
Peace on earth, good-will to men !"
Gladly we respond, "Amen !"
Thus we greet this holy day,
Pouring forth our festive lay ;
Thus we tell, with saintly mirth,
Of Immanuel's wondrous birth.

250 11s, 10s. "Star of the East." R. HEBER.

BRIGHTEST and best of the sons of the
morning !

Dawn on our darkness and lend us
thine aid ;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining ;
Low lies his head with the beasts of
the stall :

Angels adore him, in slumber reclining,
Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all !

3 Say shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom, and offerings divine ?
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine ?

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gold would his favor secure :
Richer, by far, is the heart's adoration ;
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

5 Brightest and best of the sons of the
morning !

Dawn on our darkness and lend us
thine aid ;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

251 7s. Immanuel. S. SLINN.

God with us ! oh, glorious name !
Let it shine in endless fame ;
God and man in Christ unite ;
Oh, mysterious depth and height !

2 God with us ! the eternal Son
Took our soul, our flesh, and bone ;
Now, ye saints, his grace admire,
Swell the song with holy fire.

3 God with us ! but tainted not
With the first transgressor's blot ;
Yet did he our sins sustain,
Bear the guilt, the curse, the pain.

4 God with us ! oh, wondrous grace !
Let us see him face to face ;
That we may Immanuel sing,
As we ought, our God and King !

252 C. M. Incarnation. A. STEELE.

AWAKE, awake the sacred song
To our incarnate Lord!
Let every heart and every tongue
Adore the eternal Word.
2 That awful Word, that sovereign
Power,
By whom the worlds were made—
Oh, happy morn! illustrious hour!—
Was once in flesh arrayed!
3 Then shone almighty power and love,
In all their glorious forms,
When Jesus left his throne above,
To dwell with sinful worms.
4 Adoring angels tuned their songs
To hail the joyful day;
With rapture then let mortal tongues
Their grateful worship pay.

253 C. M. The Promised Lord. P. DODDRIDGE.

HARK, the glad sound! the Saviour
The Saviour promised long; [comes,
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song.
2 He comes, the prisoner to release,
In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before him burst,
The iron fetters yield.
3 He comes, from thickest films of vice
To clear the mental ray,
And, on the eyes long closed in night,
To pour celestial day.
4 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And, with the treasures of his grace,
Enrich the humble poor.
5 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
Thy welcome shall proclaim,
And heaven's eternal arches ring
With thy beloved name.

254 C. M. The Gospel Song. S. MEDLEY.

MORTALS, awake, with angels join
And chant the solemn lay;
Joy, love, and gratitude combine
To hail the auspicious day.
2 In heaven the rapturous song began,
And sweet seraphic fire
Through all the shining legions ran,
And strung and tuned the lyre.

3 Swift through the vast expanse it flew,
And loud the echo rolled;
The theme, the song, the joy, was new,
'T was more than heaven could hold.

4 Down through the portals of the sky
The impetuous torrent ran;
And angels flew, with eager joy,
To bear the news to man.

5 Hark! the cherubic armies shout,
And glory leads the song;
"Good-will and peace" are heard thro'-
Th' harmonious angel-throng. [out

6 With joy the chorus we'll repeat,—
"Glory to God on high!
Good-will and peace are now complete;
Jesus was born to die!"

255 L. M. Jesus' Birth. ANON.

WAKE, O my soul, and hail the morn,
For unto us a Saviour's born;
See! how the angels wing their way,
To usher in the glorious day!

2 Hark! what sweet music, what a song,
Sounds from the bright, celestial throng!
Sweet song, whose melting sounds impart
Joy to each raptured, listening heart.

3 Come, join the angels in the sky,
Glory to God, who reigns on high;
Let peace and love on earth abound,
While time revolves and years roll round.

256 H. M. "The notes of joy." A. REED.

HARK! hark!—the notes of joy
Roll o'er the heavenly plains,
And seraphs find employ
For their sublimest strains;
Some new delight in heaven is known;
Loud sound the harps around the throne.

2 Hark! hark!—the sounds draw nigh,
The joyful hosts descend;
Jesus forsakes the sky,
To earth his footsteps bend;
He comes to bless our fallen race;
He comes with messages of grace.

3 Bear—bear the tidings round;
Let every mortal know
What love in God is found,
What pity he can show;
Ye winds that blow! ye waves that roll!
Bear the glad news from pole to pole.

1. How sweetly flowed the gospel sound From lips of gen-tle-ness and grace, When listening thousands

The Great Teacher.

J. BOWRING.

How SWEETLY flowed the gospel sound
From lips of gentleness and grace,
When listening thousands gathered round,
And joy and gladness filled the place!

2 From heaven he came, of heaven he spoke,
To heaven he led his followers' way;
Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke,
Unveiling an immortal day.

3 "Come, wanderers, to my Father's home,
Come, all ye weary ones, and rest:"
Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come,
Obey thee, love thee, and be blest!

4 Decay then, tenements of dust;
Pillars of earthly pride, decay:
A nobler mansion waits the just,
And Jesus has prepared the way.

258

"Holy, harmless."

A. C. COKE.

How BEAUTEous were the marks divine,
That in thy meekness used to shine,
That lit thy lonely pathway, trod
In wondrous love, O Son of God!

2 Oh, who like thee, so calm, so bright,
So pure, so made to live in light?
Oh, who like thee did ever go
So patient through a world of woe?

3 Oh, who like thee so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men, before?
So meek, forgiving, godlike, high,
So glorious in humility?

4 Even death, which sets the prisoner free,
Was pang, and scoff, and scorn to thee;
Yet love through all thy torture glowed,
And mercy with thy life-blood flowed.

5 Oh, in thy light be mine to go,
Illuming all my way of woe!
And give me ever on the road
To trace thy footsteps, Son of God.

259

"He healed them."

J. MONTGOMERY.

WHEN, like a stranger on our sphere,
The lowly Jesus wandered here,
Where'er he went, affliction fled,
And sickness reared her fainting head.

2 The eye that rolled in irksome night,
Beheld his face—for God is light;
The opening ear, the loosened tongue,
His precepts heard, his praises sung.

3 With bounding steps the halt and lame,
To hail their great Deliverer came;
O'er the cold grave he bowed his head,
He spake the word, and raised the dead.

4 Despairing madness, dark and wild,
In his inspiring presence smiled;
The storm of horror ceased to roll,
And reason lightened through the soul.

5 Through paths of loving-kindness led,
Where Jesus triumphed we would tread;
To all, with willing hands dispense
The gifts of our benevolence.

The Divine Pattern.

L. WATTS.

My dear Redeemer, and my Lord,
I read my duty in thy word;
But in thy life the law appears,
Drawn out in living characters.

2 Such was thy truth and such thy zeal,
Such deference to thy Father's will,
Such love, and meekness so divine,
I would transcribe and make them mine.

3 Cold mountains and the midnight air
Witnessed the fervor of thy prayer;
The desert thy temptations knew,
Thy conflict and thy victory too.

4 Be thou my pattern; make me bear
More of thy gracious image here;
Then God, the Judge, shall own my name
Among the followers of the Lamb.

"How shall I copy?"

J. CONDER.

How SHALL I follow him I serve?

How shall I copy him I love?

Nor from those blessed footsteps swerve,
Which lead me to his seat above?

2 Lord, should my path through suffering lie,
Forbid it I should e'er repine;

Still let me turn to Calvary,

Nor heed my griefs, remembering thine.

3 Oh, let me think how thou didst leave
Untasted every pure delight,
To fast, to faint, to watch, to grieve,
The toilsome day, the homeless night:—

4 To faint, to grieve, to die for me!
Thou camest not thyself to please:

And, dear as earthly comforts be,

Shall I not love thee more than these?

"All in Jesus."

WM. ENFIELD.

BEHOLD, where, in a mortal form,
Appears each grace divine!
The virtues, all in Jesus met,
With mildest radiance shine.

2 To spread the rays of heavenly light,
To give the mourner joy,
To preach glad tidings to the poor,
Was his divine employ.

3 'Mid keen reproach and cruel scorn,
He meek and patient stood;
His foes, ungrateful, sought his life,
Who labored for their good.

4 In the last hour of deep distress,
Before his Father's throne,
With soul resigned he bowed and said,—
"Thy will, not mine, be done!"

5 Be Christ our pattern, and our guide,
His image may we bear;
Oh, may we tread his holy steps,—
His joy and glory share.

263

A lonely life.

E. DENNY.

A PILGRIM through this lonely world,
The blessed Saviour passed;
A mourner all his life was he,
A dying Lamb at last.

2 That tender heart that felt for all,
For all its life-blood gave;
It found on earth no resting-place,
Save only in the grave.

3 Such was our Lord; and shall we fear
The cross, with all its scorn?
Or love a faithless evil world,
That wreathed his brow with thorn?

4 No! facing all its frowns or smiles,
Like him, obedient still,
We homeward press through storm or calm,
To Zion's blessed hill.

264

For our example.

E. DENNY.

WHAT grace, O Lord, and beauty shone
Around thy steps below;
What patient love was seen in all
Thy life and death of woe.

2 For, ever on thy burdened heart
A weight of sorrow hung;
Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
Escaped thy silent tongue.

3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
Thy friends unfaithful prove;
Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.

4 Oh, give us hearts to love like thee!
Like thee, O Lord, to grieve
Far more for others' sins, than all
The wrongs that we receive.

5 One with thyself, may every eye,
In us, thy brethren, see
The gentleness and grace that spring
From union, Lord! with thee.

And he who would the Father seek,

2 Thou art the Truth: thy word alone
True wisdom can impart;
Thou only canst inform the mind,
And purify the heart.

3 Thou art the Life: the rending tomb
Proclaims thy conquering arm;
And those who put their trust in thee
Nor death nor hell shall harm.

266 Pattern of Forgiveness. J. H. GURNEY.

LORD, as to thy dear cross we flee,
And pray to be forgiven,
So let thy life our pattern be,
And form our souls for heaven.

2 Help us, through good report and ill,
Our daily cross to bear;
Like thee, to do our Father's will,
Our brother's griefs to share.

3 Let grace our selfishness expel,
Our earthliness refine;
And kindness in our bosoms dwell
As free and true as thine.

4 If joy shall at thy bidding fly,
And grief's dark day come on,
We, in our turn, would meekly cry,
"Father, thy will be done!"

5 Kept peaceful in the midst of strife,
Forgiving and forgiven,
Oh, may we lead the pilgrim's life,
And follow thee to heaven!

"Shall we forget." W. MITCHELL.

JESUS! thy love shall we forget,
And never bring to mind
The grace that paid our hopeless debt,
And bade us pardon find?

2 Shall we thy life of grief forget,
Thy fasting and thy prayer;
Thy locks with mountain vapors wet,
To save us from despair?

3 Gethsemane can we forget—
Thy struggling agony
When night lay dark on Olivet,
And none to watch with thee?

4 Our sorrows and our sins were laid
On thee, alone on thee;
Thy precious blood our ransom paid—
Thine all the glory be!

5 Life's brightest joys we may forget—
Our kindred cease to love;
But he who paid our hopeless debt,
Our constancy shall prove.

"Altogether Lovely."

S. STENNETT.

MAJESTIC sweetness sits enthroned
Upon the Saviour's brow;
His head with radiant glories crowned,
His lips with grace o'erflow.

2 No mortal can with him compare,
Among the sons of men;
Fairer is he than all the fair
That fill the heavenly train.

3 He saw me plunged in deep distress,
He flew to my relief;
For me he bore the shameful cross,
And carried all my grief.

4 To him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death,
He saves me from the grave.

5 To heaven, the place of his abode,
He brings my weary feet;
Shows me the glories of my God,
And makes my joy complete.

6 Since from his bounty I receive
Such proofs of love divine,
Had I a thousand hearts to give,
Lord! they should all be thine.

2 His sacred name a common word
On earth he loves to hear;
There is no majesty in him
Which love may not come near.

3 The light of love is round his feet,
His paths are never dim;
And he comes nigh to us when we
Dare not come nigh to him.

4 Let us be simple with him then,
Not backward, stiff, nor cold,
As though our Bethlehem could be
What Sinai was of old.

We may not climb the heavenly steeps
To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For him no depths can drown.
2 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is he;
And faith has yet its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.
3 The healing of the seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;

We touch him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.

4 Through him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame;
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with his name.

We test our lives by thine!

JESUS wept! those tears are over,
But his heart is still the same;
Kinsman, Friend, and elder Brother,

Saviour, who can love like thee,
Gracious One of Bethany?

When the waves of sorrow roll,
I will lay my head on Jesus,
Pillow of the troubled soul.
Surely, none can feel like thee,
Weeping One of Bethany!

3 Jesus wept! and still in glory,
He can mark each mourner's tear;
Living to retrace the story
Of the hearts he solaced here.
Lord, when I am called to die,
Let me think of Bethany.

4 Jesus wept! that tear of sorrow
Is a legacy of love;

Thou art all in all to me,
Living One of Bethany!

'Tis midnight; and on Olive's brow
The star is dimmed that lately shone:
'Tis midnight; in the garden, now
The suffering Saviour prays alone.

2 'Tis midnight; and from all removed,
The Saviour wrestles lone with fears;
Ev'n that disciple whom he loved
Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.

3 'Tis midnight; and for others' guilt
The Man of Sorrows weeps in blood;
Yet he that hath in anguish knelt
Is not forsaken by his God.

4 'Tis midnight; and from ether-plains
Is borne the song that angels know;
Unheard by mortals are the strains
That sweetly soothe the Saviour's woe.

"'Tis finished!'"

S. STERNETT.

"'Tis finished!"—so the Saviour cried,
And meekly bowed his head and died:
"'Tis finished!"—yes, the race is run,
The battle fought, the victory won.

2 'Tis finished!—all that heaven foretold
By prophets in the days of old;
And truths are opened to our view
That kings and prophets never knew.

3 'Tis finished!—Son of God, thy power
Hath triumphed in this awful hour;
And yet our eyes with sorrow see
That life to us was death to thee.

4 'Tis finished!—let the joyful sound
Be heard through all the nations round:
'Tis finished!—let the triumph rise,
And swell the chorus of the skies.

"The wondrous Cross." I. WATTS.

- WHEN I survey the wondrous cross,
On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
And pour contempt on all my pride.
- 2 Forbid it, Lord! that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God;
All the vain things that charm me most
I sacrifice them to his blood.
- 3 See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?
- 4 His dying crimson, like a robe,
Spreads o'er his body on the tree;
Then I am dead to all the globe,
And all the globe is dead to me.
- 5 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

276

"For me." H. BONAR.

- JESUS, whom angel hosts adore,
Became a man of griefs for me;
In love, though rich, becoming poor,
That I through him enriched might be.
- 2 Though Lord of all, above, below;
He went to Olivet for me:
There drank my cup of wrath and woe,
When bleeding in Gethsemane.
- 3 The ever-blesséd Son of God
Went up to Calvary for me;
There paid my debt, there bore my load,
In his own body on the tree.
- 4 Jesus, whose dwelling is the skies,
Went down into the grave for me;
There overcame my enemies,
There won the glorious victory.
- 5 'Tis finished all: the vail is rent,
The welcome sure, the access free:—
Now then, we leave our banishment,
O Father, to return to thee!

"Grace unknown."

L. WATTS.

- ALAS! and did my Saviour bleed,
And did my Sovereign die?
Would he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?
- 2 Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?
Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!
- 3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When Christ, the great Creator, died
For man, the creature's sin.
- 4 Thus might I hide my blushing face
While his dear cross appears;
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt my eyes to tears.
- 5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.

278

Suffered for sin.

L. WATTS

- OH, if my soul were formed for woe,
How would I vent my sighs!
Repentance should like rivers flow
From both my streaming eyes.
- 2 'Twas for my sins my dearest Lord
Hung on the curséd tree,
And groaned away a dying life
For thee, my soul! for thee.
- 3 Oh, how I hate these lusts of mine
That crucified my Lord;
Those sins that pierced and nailed his flesh
Fast to the fatal wood!
- 4 Yes, my Redeemer—they shall die;
My heart has so decreed;
Nor will I spare the guilty things
That made my Saviour bleed.
- 5 While with a melting, broken heart,
My murdered Lord I view,
I'll raise revenge against my sins,
And slay the murderers too.

The two Looks.

J. NEWTON.

- I saw One hanging on a tree,
In agony and blood;
Who fixed his languid eyes on me,
As near the cross I stood.
- 2 Sure, never, till my latest breath,
Can I forget that look:
It seemed to charge me with his death,
Though not a word he spoke.
- 3 Alas! I knew not what I did,—
But now my tears are vain;
Where shall my trembling soul be hid,
For I the Lord have slain!
- 4 A second look he gave, that said,
"I freely all forgive:
This blood is for thy ransom paid;
I die that thou may'st live."
- 5 Thus while his death my sin displays
In all its blackest hue,
Such is the mystery of grace,
It seals my pardon too!

"He remembers Calvary."

I. WATTS.

- HOW CONDESCENDING and how kind
Was God's eternal Son!
Our misery reached his heavenly mind,
And pity brought him down.
- 2 He sunk beneath our heavy woes,
To raise us to his throne;
There's ne'er a gift his hand bestows,
But cost his heart a groan.
- 3 This was compassion, like a God,
That when the Saviour knew
The price of pardon was his blood,
His pity ne'er withdrew.
- 4 Now, though he reigns exalted high,
His love is still as great;
Well he remembers Calvary,
Nor let his saints forget.
- 521
- "O Christ of God!" RAY PALMER.
- O JESUS, sweet the tears I shed,
While at thy cross I kneel,
Gaze on thy wounded, fainting head,
And all thy sorrows feel.
- 2 My heart dissolves to see thee bleed,
This heart so hard before;
I hear thee for the guilty plead,
And grief o'erflows the more.
- 3 I know this cleansing blood of thine
Was shed, dear Lord, for me:
For me, for all,—oh, grace divine!—
Who look by faith on thee.
- 4 O Christ of God, O spotless Lamb,
By love my soul is drawn;
Henceforth, for ever, thine I am;
Here life and peace are born.
- 5 In patient hope, the cross I'll bear,
Thine arm shall be my stay;
And thou, enthroned, my soul shalt spare,
On thy great judgment-day.

HYMN OF JOY. 8s, 7s. D.

LUDWIG VON BEETHOVEN.

1. { Hail, thou once despised Je-sus! Crowned in mockery a king! }
 { Thou didst suffer to release us; Thou didst free sal- (Omit) ..... } va-tion bring. Hail, thou ag-o-nix-ing Saviour, Bearer of our sin and shame! By thy merits we find favor; Life is given thro' thy name.

282

Mocked.

J. BAKEWELL.

HAIL, thou once despised Jesus!
 Crowned in mockery a king!
 Thou didst suffer to release us;
 Thou didst free salvation bring.
 Hail, thou agonizing Saviour,
 Bearer of our sin and shame!
 By thy merits we find favor;
 Life is given through thy name.

2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
 All our sins on thee were laid;
 By Almighty Love anointed,
 Thou hast full atonement made:
 All thy people are forgiven
 Through the virtue of thy blood;
 Opened is the gate of heaven,
 Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

Now the gracious Mediator
 Risen to the courts of bliss,
 Claims from me, a sinful creature,
 Pardon, righteousness, and peace!

3 Sure such infinite affection
 Lays the highest claims to mine;
 All my powers, without exception,
 Should in fervent praises join.
 Jesus, fit me for thy service;
 Form me for thyself alone;
 I am thy most costly purchase,—
 Take possession of thine own.

284

Reproached.

MORAVIAN.

Cross, reproach, and tribulation!
 Ye to me are welcome guests,
 When I have this consolation,
 That my soul in Jesus rests.
 The reproach of Christ is glorious!
 Those who here his burden bear,
 In the end shall prove victorious,
 And eternal gladness share.

2 Bonds and stripes, and evil story,
 Are our honorable crowns;
 Pain is peace, and shame is glory,
 Gloomy dungeons are as thrones.
 Bear, then, the reproach of Jesus,
 Ye who live a life of faith!
 Lift triumphant songs and praises
 Ev'n in martyrdom and death.

283

On the cross.

R. LEE.

WHEN I view my Saviour bleeding,
 For my sins, upon the tree;
 Oh, how wondrous!—how exceeding
 Great his love appears to me!
 Floods of deep distress and anguish,
 To impede his labors, came;
 Yet they all could not extinguish
 Love's eternal, burning flame.

2 Now redemption is completed,
 Full salvation is procured;
 Death and Satan are defeated,
 By the sufferings he endured.

STABAT MATER. P. M.

ANON.

285 "Near the Cross." J. W. ALEXANDER, tr.

NEAR the cross was Mary weeping,
 There her mournful station keeping,
 Gazing on her dying Son:
 There in speechless anguish groaning,
 Yearning, trembling, sighing, moaning,
 Through her soul the sword had gone!

2 But we have no need to borrow
 Motives from the mother's sorrow,
 At our Saviour's cross to mourn:
 'Twas our sins brought him from heaven,
 These the cruel nails had driven:
 All his griefs for us were borne.

3 When no eye its pity gave us,
 When there was no arm to save us,
 He his love and power displayed:
 By his stripes he wrought our healing,
 By his death, our life revealing,
 He for us the ransom paid.

4 Jesus, may thy love constrain us,
 That from sin we may refrain us,
 In thy griefs may deeply grieve:
 Thee our best affections giving,
 To thy glory ever living,
 May we in thy glory live.

286 "It is finished." H. BONAR.

FROM the cross the blood is falling,
 And to us a voice is calling

Like a trumpet silver-clear:
 'Tis the voice announcing pardon—
It is finished, is its burden,
 Pardon to the far and near.

2 Peace that glorious blood is sealing,
 All our wounds for ever healing,
 And removing every load;
 Words of peace that voice has spoken,
 Peace that shall no more be broken,
 Peace between the soul and God.

287 "Day of darkness." F. H. HEDGE, tr.

'Twas the day when God's Anointed
 Died for us the death appointed,
 Bleeding on the dreadful cross;
 Day of darkness, day of terror,
 Deadly fruit of ancient error,
 Nature's fall, and Eden's loss!

2 Haste, prepare the bitter chalice!
 Gentile hate and Jewish malice
 Lift the royal Victim high;
 Like the serpent, wonder-gifted,
 Which the prophet once uplifted,
 For a sinful world to die.

3 Conscious of the deed unholy,
 Nature's pulses beat more slowly,
 And the sun his light denied;
 Darkness wrapped the sacred city,
 And the earth with fear and pity
 Trembled, when the Just One died

4 Not in vain for us uplifted,
 Man of sorrows, wonder-gifted,
 May that sacred symbol be;
 Eminent amid the ages,
 Guide of heroes and of sages,
 May it guide us still to thee.

"Upon the cross."

J. WESLEY.

- O Jesus, we adore thee,
Upon the cross, our King:
We bow our hearts before thee;
Thy gracious Name we sing:
That Name hath brought salvation,
That Name, in life our stay;
Our peace, our consolation
When life shall fade away.
- 2 Yet doth the world disdain thee,
Still pressing by thy cross:
Lord, may our hearts retain thee;
All else we count but loss.
The grief thy soul endured,
Who can that grief declare?
Thy pains have thus assured
That thou thy foes wilt spare.
- 3 Ah, Lord, our sins arraigned thee,
And nailed thee to the tree:
Our pride, O Lord, disdained thee;—
Yet deign our hope to be.
O glorious King, we bless thee,
No longer pass thee by;
O Jesus, we confess thee
Our Lord enthroned on high.

289

The Lamb of God.

J. G. DECK.

- O LAMB of God! still keep me
Near to thy wounded side;
'Tis only there in safety
And peace I can abide!
What foes and snares surround me,
What doubts and fears within!
The grace that sought and found me,
Alone can keep me clean.
- 2 'Tis only in thee hiding
I know my life secure—
Only in thee abiding,
The conflict can endure:
Thine arm the victory gaineth
O'er every hateful foe;
Thy love my heart sustaineth
In all its care and woe.
- 3 Soon shall my eyes behold thee,
With rapture, face to face;
One half hath not been told me
Of all thy power and grace:
Thy beauty, Lord, and glory,
The wonders of thy love,
Shall be the endless story
Of all the saints above

At the Cross.

J. W. ALEXANDER, Jr.

O SACRED Head, now wounded,
With grief and shame weighed down,
Now scornfully surrounded
With thorns, thine only crown;
O sacred Head, what glory,
What bliss, till now was thine!
Yet, though despised and gory,
I joy to call thee mine.

2 What thou, my Lord, hast suffered
Was all for sinners' gain:
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But thine the deadly pain;
Lo, here I fall, my Saviour!
'Tis I deserved thy place;
Look on me with thy favor,
Vouchsafe to me thy grace.

3 What language shall I borrow,
To thank thee, dearest Friend,
For this, thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?
Lord, make me thine for ever,
Nor let me faithless prove:
Oh, let me never, never,
Abuse such dying love.

4 Be near when I am dying,
Oh, show thy cross to me!
And for my succor flying,
Come, Lord, and set me free!
These eyes, new faith receiving,
From Jesus shall not move;
For he who dies believing,
Dies safely—through thy love.

Gethsemane.

F. D. HEMANS.

HE knelt, the Saviour knelt and prayed,
When but his Father's eye
Looked through the lonely garden's shade,
On that dread agony;
The Lord of all above, beneath,
Was bowed with sorrow unto death.

2 The sun set in a fearful hour,
The skies might well grow dim,
When this mortality had power
So to o'ershadow him!

That he who gave man's breath, might
The very depths of human woe. [know

3 He knew them all; the doubt, the
The faint, perplexing dread; [strife,
The mists that hang o'er parting life,
All darkened round his head;
And the Deliverer knelt to pray;
Yet passed it not, that cup, away.

4 It passed not, though the stormy wave
Had sunk beneath his tread;
It passed not, though to him the grave
Had yielded up its dead.

But there was sent him from on high,
A gift of strength for man to die.

5 And was his mortal hour beset
With anguish and dismay?
How may we meet our conflict yet,
In the dark, narrow way?
How but through him, that path who
Save or we perish, Son of God! [trod?

Christ in the Desert.

J. F. THURPP.

AWHILE in spirit, Lord, to thee
Into the desert would we flee;
Awhile upon the barren steep
Thy fast with thee in spirit keep;—

2 Awhile from thy temptation learn
The daily snares of sin to spurn,
And in our hearts to feel and own
Man liveth not by bread alone.

3 And while at thy command we pray,
Give us our bread from day to day,
May we with thee, O Christ, be fed,
Thou Word of God, thou Living Bread.

4 Incarnate Lord, we come to thee,
Thou knowest our infirmity;
Be thou our Helper in the strife,
Be thou our true, our inward Life.

"Jesus, Saviour."

J. D. BURNS.

THOU who didst on Calvary bleed,
Thou who dost for sinners plead,
Help me in my time of need,
Jesus, Saviour, hear my cry!

2 In my darkness and my grief,
With my heart of unbelief,
I, who am of sinners chief,
Jesus, lift to thee mine eye!

3 Foes without and fears within,
With no plea thy grace to win,
But that thou canst save from sin,
Jesus, to thy cross I fly!

4 There on thee I cast my care,
There to thee I raise my prayer,
Jesus, save me from despair,
Save me, save me, or I die!

5 When the storms of trial lower,
When I feel temptation's power,
In the last and darkest hour,
Jesus, Saviour, be thou nigh!

"Lamb of God."

RAY PALMER.

JESUS, Lamb of God, for me
Thou, the Lord of life, didst die;
Whither—whither, but to thee,
Can a trembling sinner fly!
Death's dark waters o'er me roll,
Save, oh, save my sinking soul!

2 Never bowed a martyr's head
Weighed with equal sorrow down;
Never blood so rich was shed,
Never king wore such a crown;
To thy cross and sacrifice
Faith now lifts her tearful eyes.

3 All my soul, by love subdued,
Melts in deep contrition there;
By thy mighty grace renewed,
New-born hope forbids despair:
Lord! thou canst my guilt forgive,
Thou hast bid me look and live.

4 While with broken heart I kneel,
Sinks the inward storm to rest;
Life—immortal life—I feel
Kindled in my throbbing breast;
Thine—for ever thine—I am!
Glory to thee, bleeding Lamb!

295 L. M. "He lives again." I. WATTS.

HE dies!—the friend of sinners dies;
Lo! Salem's daughters weep around;
A solemn darkness veils the skies;
A sudden trembling shakes the ground.

2 Here's love and grief beyond degree:
The Lord of glory dies for men;
But lo! what sudden joys we see,
Jesus, the dead, revives again.

3 The rising God forsakes the tomb;
Up to his Father's court he flies;
Cherubic legions guard him home,
And shout him welcome to the skies.

4 Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell
How high our great Deliverer reigns;
Sing how he spoiled the hosts of hell,
And led the tyrant Death in chains.

5 Say—live for ever, glorious King,
Born to redeem, and strong to save!
Where now, O Death, where is thy sting?
And where thy victory, boasting Grave?

296 C. M. "Died for me." A. STEELE.

To our Redeemer's glorious name,
Awake the sacred song!
Oh, may his love—immortal flame—
Tune every heart and tongue!

2 His love, what mortal thought can
What mortal tongue display? [reach!
Imagination's utmost stretch,
In wonder, dies away.

3 Dear Lord! while we adoring pay
Our humble thanks to thee,
May every heart with rapture say,—
"The Saviour died for me!"

4 Oh, may the sweet, the blissful theme,
Fill every heart and tongue,
Till strangers love thy charming name,
And join the sacred song.

297 75. The Resurrection. T. SCOTT.

ANGELS! roll the rock away;
Death! yield up thy mighty prey;
See! the Saviour leaves the tomb,
Glowing with immortal bloom.

2 Hark! the wondering angels raise
Louder notes of joyful praise;
Let the earth's remotest bound
Echo with the blissful sound.

3 Saints on earth, lift up your eyes,—
Now to glory see him rise
In long triumph through the sky,
Up to waiting worlds on high.

4 Heaven unfolds its portals wide!
Mighty Conqueror! through them ride;
King of glory! mount thy throne,
Boundless empire is thine own.

298 6s, 4s. "Worthy the Lamb!" J. ALLEN.

GLORY to God on high!
Let heaven and earth reply,
"Praise ye his name!"

His love and grace adore,
Who all our sorrows bore;
Sing loud for evermore,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

2 While they around the throne
Cheerfully join in one,
Praising his name,—
Ye who have felt his blood
Sealing your peace with God,
Sound his dear name abroad,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

3 Join, all ye ransomed race,
Our Lord and God to bless;
Praise ye his name!
In him we will rejoice,
And make a joyful noise,
Shouting with heart and voice,
"Worthy the Lamb!"

299 H. M. "Rejoice!" C. WFFLEY.

REJOICE! the Lord is King;
Your Lord and King adore:
Mortals, give thanks and sing,
And triumph evermore!
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice!—again I say, rejoice!

2 Jesus, the Saviour, reigns,
The God of truth and love;
When he had purged our stains,
He took his seat above:
Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
Rejoice!—again I say, rejoice!

3 Rejoice in glorious hope:
Jesus, the Judge, shall come,
And take his servants up
To their eternal home:
We soon shall hear the archangel's voice;
The trump of God shall sound, Rejoice!

Glorying in the Cross. J. BOWRING.

In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

2 When the woes of life o'ertake me,
Hopes deceive, and fears annoy,

Never shall the cross forsake me:
Lo! it glows with peace and joy.

3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance, streaming,
Adds more lustre to the day.

4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there, that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

5 In the cross of Christ I glory,

There for sinners thou art pleading;
There thou dost our place prepare;

FATHER, hear the blood of Jesus,
Speaking in thine ears above:

Manifest thy pardoning love.
Oh, receive us to thy favor,—
For his only sake receive;
Give us to the bleeding Saviour,
Let us by his dying live.

2 "To thy pardoning grace receive them,"
Once he prayed upon the tree;
Still his blood cries out "Forgive them;
All their sins were laid on me."

Prays the prayer on earth begun,—
"Father, show their sins forgiven;
Father, glorify thy Son!"

Strike their harps, and loudly sing
To the praise of Jesus' merits,
To the glory of their King.

2 When we pass o'er death's dark river,
"We shall see him as he is,"
Resting in his love and favor,
Owning all the glory his.
There to cast our crowns before him,

C. WESLEY.

CHRIST, the Lord, is risen to-day,
Sons of men, and angels, say;
Raise your joys and triumphs high!
Sing, ye heavens! and earth, reply!

2 Love's redeeming work is done,
Fought the fight, the battle won;
Lo, our Sun's eclipse is o'er;
Lo, he sets in blood no more.

3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal;
Christ hath burst the gates of hell;
Death in vain forbids his rise;
Christ hath opened Paradise.

4 Lives again our glorious King;
"Where, O Death, is now thy sting?"
Once he died our souls to save;
"Where's thy victory, boasting Grave?"

5 Soar we now where Christ has led,
Following our exalted Head;
Made like him, like him we rise;
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies!

JOYFUL be the hours to-day;
Joyful let the seasons be;
Let us sing, for well we may:

2 Should thy people silent be,
Then the very stones would sing:
What a debt we owe to thee,
Thee our Saviour, thee our King!

3 Joyful are we now to own,
Rapture thrills us as we trace
All the deeds thy love hath done,
All the riches of thy grace.

4 'Tis thy grace alone can save;
Every blessing comes from thee—
All we have, and hope to have,
All we are, and hope to be.

5 Thine the Name to sinners dear!
Thine the Name all names before!
Blesséd here and everywhere;
Blesséd now and evermore!

Glorious, to his native skies!

Lift your heads, eternal gates!

Take the King of glory in.
3 See, the heaven its Lord receives!
Yet he loves the earth he leaves:

Though returning to his throne,
Still he calls mankind his own.

4 Still for us he intercedes,
His prevailing death he pleads;
Near himself prepares a place,
Great Forerunner of our race.

5 What, though parted from our sight,
Far above yon starry height;
Thither our affections rise,
Following him beyond the skies.

Now through Christendom it rings

Hasten, ye saints! your tribute bring,

Crown him, everlasting King.

2 Yonder throne for him erected,

Now becomes the Victor's seat;

Lo, the Man on earth rejected!

Angels worship at his feet:

Hasten, ye saints! your tribute bring,

Crown him, everlasting King.

3 Day and night they cry before him,—

"Holy, holy, holy Lord!"

All the powers of heaven adore him,

All obey his sovereign word;

Hasten, ye saints! your tribute bring,

Crown him, everlasting King.

Isaiah 63: 1.

T. KELLY.

Who is this that comes from Edom,

All his raiment stained with blood;

To the slave proclaiming freedom;

Bringing and bestowing good:

Glorious in the garb he wears,

Glorious in the spoils he bears?

2 'Tis the Saviour, now victorious,

Travelling onward in his might;

'Tis the Saviour, oh, how glorious

To his people is the sight!

Jesus now is strong to save;

Mighty to redeem the slave.

3 Why that blood his raiment staining?

'Tis the blood of many slain;

Of his foes there's none remaining,

None the contest to maintain:

Fallen they, no more to rise,

All their glory prostrate lies.

4 Mighty Victor, reign for ever;

Wear the crown so dearly won;

Never shall thy people, never

Cease to sing what thou hast done;

Thou hast fought thy people's foes;

Thou hast healed thy people's woes.

311

All glory to Christ.

T. KELLY.

GLORY, glory to our King!

Crown unfading wreath his head;

Jesus is the name we sing,—

Jesus, risen from the dead;

Jesus, Conqueror o'er the grave;

Jesus, mighty now to save.

2 Jesus is gone up on high:

Angels come to meet their King;

Shouts triumphant rend the sky,

While the Victor's praise they sing:

"Open now, ye heavenly gates!

'Tis the King of glory waits."

3 Now behold him high enthroned,

Glory beaming from his face,

By adoring angels owned,

God of holiness and grace!

Oh, for hearts and tongues to sing—

"Glory, glory to our King!"

"Jesus reigns."

T. KELLY.

HARK! ten thousand harps and voices
Sound the note of praise above;
Jesus reigns, and heaven rejoices;
Jesus reigns, the God of love:
See, he sits on yonder throne;
Jesus rules the world alone.

- 2 King of glory! reign for ever—
Thine an everlasting crown;
Nothing, from thy love, shall sever
Those whom thou hast made thine own;—
Happy objects of thy grace,
Destined to behold thy face.
- 3 Saviour! hasten thine appearing;
Bring, oh, bring the glorious day,
When, the awful summons hearing,
Heaven and earth shall pass away;—
Then, with golden harps, we'll sing,—
"Glory, glory to our King!"

313

We live in Him. C. WORDSWORTH.

SEE, the Conqueror mounts in triumph!
See the King in royal state,
Riding on the clouds, his chariot,
To his heavenly palace gate!
Hark! the choirs of angel voices
Joyful hallelujahs sing,
And the portals high are lifted
To receive their heavenly King.

2 Who is this that comes in glory,
With the trump of jubilee?

Lord of battles, God of armies,
He has gained the victory;
He, who on the cross did suffer,
He, who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan,
He by death has spoiled his foes.

- 3 Thou hast raised our human nature,
On the clouds to God's right hand;
There we sit in heavenly places,
There with thee in glory stand;
Jesus reigns, adored by angels;
Man with God is on the throne;
Mighty Lord! in thine ascension,
We by faith behold our own.
- 4 Lift us up from earth to heaven,
Give us wings of faith and love,
Gales of holy aspirations,
Wafting us to realms above;
That, with hearts and minds uplifted,
We with Christ our Lord may dwell,
Where he sits enthroned in glory,
In the heavenly citadel.

- 5 So at last, when he appeareth,
We from out our graves may spring,
With our youth renewed like eagles',
Flocking round our heavenly King,
Caught up on the clouds of heaven,
And may meet him in the air—
Rise to realms where he is reigning,
And may reign for ever there.

2 Crown the Saviour, angels, crown him!
Rich the trophies Jesus brings;
In the seat of power enthrone him,
While the vault of heaven rings:
Crown him! crown him!
Crown the Saviour King of kings!

3 Hark, those bursts of acclamation!
Hark, those loud, triumphant chords!

"It is finished!"

J. EVANS.

HARK! the voice of love and mercy
Sounds aloud from Calvary;
See! it rends the rocks asunder,
Shakes the earth, and vails the sky:
"It is finished!"

Hear the dying Saviour cry.
2 "It is finished!" oh, what pleasure
Do these charming words afford!
Heavenly blessings, without measure,
Flow to us from Christ, the Lord:
"It is finished!"

Saints, the dying words record.
3 Tune your harps anew, ye seraphs;
Join to sing the pleasing theme:
All on earth and all in heaven,
Join to praise Immanuel's name:
Hallelujah!
Glory to the bleeding Lamb!

SPANISH; FROM MARECHIO.

1. Mighty God! while angels bless thee, May a mortal lip thy name? Lord of men, as well as an-gels!

Christ is God.

R. ROBINSON.

MIGHTY God! while angels bless thee,
May a mortal lip thy name?
Lord of men, as well as angels!
Thou art every creature's theme:
Lord of every land and nation!
Ancient of eternal days!
Sounded through the wide creation—
Be thy just and awful praise.

2 For the grandeur of thy nature,—
Grand, beyond a seraph's thought;
For the wonders of creation,
Works with skill and kindness wrought;
For thy providence, that governs
Through thine empire's wide domain,
Wings an angel, guides a sparrow;—
Blesséd be thy gentle reign.

3 For thy rich, thy free redemption,
Bright, though veiled in darkness long,
Thought is poor, and poor expression;
Who can sing that wondrous song?
Brightness of the Father's glory!
Shall thy praise unuttered lie?
Break, my tongue! such guilty silence,
Sing the Lord who came to die:—

4 From the highest throne of glory,
To the cross of deepest woe,
Came to ransom guilty captives!—
Flow, my praise! for ever flow:

Re-ascend, immortal Saviour!

Leave thy footstool, take thy throne;
Thence return and reign for ever;—
Be the kingdom all thine own!

317

"Lo, Jehovah!"

W. GOODR.

CROWN his head with endless blessing,
Who, in God the Father's name,
With compassions never ceasing,
Comes salvation to proclaim.
Hail, ye saints, who know his favor,
Who within his gates are found;
Hail, ye saints, the exalted Saviour,
Let his courts with praise resound.

2 Lo, Jehovah, we adore thee;
Thee our Saviour! thee our God!
From his throne his beams of glory
Shine through all the world abroad.
In his word his light arises,
Brightest beams of truth and grace;
Bind, oh, bind your sacrifices,
In his courts your offerings place.

3 Jesus, thee our Saviour hailing,
Thee our God in praise we own;
Highest honors, never failing,
Rise eternal round thy throne;
Now, ye saints, his power confessing,
In your grateful strains adore;
For his mercy, never ceasing,
Flows, and flows for evermore.

BENJAMIN. S. M. D.

FROM F. J. HAYDN.

1. "The Lord is ris'n in - deed!" And are the ti - dings true? Yes, they beheld the Saviour bleed, And saw him living too. "The Lord is ris'n indeed!" Then justice asks no more;

"Risen indeed."

T. KELLY.

"THE Lord is risen indeed!"
And are the tidings true?
Yes, they beheld the Saviour bleed,
And saw him living too.
"The Lord is risen indeed!"
Then justice asks no more;
Mercy and truth are now agreed,
Who stood opposed before.

2 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
Then is his work performed;
The mighty Captive now is freed,
And death, our foe, disarmed.
"The Lord is risen indeed!"
He lives to die no more;
He lives, the sinner's cause to plead,
Whose curse and shame he bore.

3 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
Attending angels! hear;
Up to the courts of heaven, with speed
The joyful tidings bear.
Then wake your golden lyres,
And strike each cheerful chord;
Join, all ye bright, celestial choirs!
To sing our risen Lord.

319

"Lead us to thee!"

E. TOKE.

Thou art gone up on high
To mansions in the skies,
And round thy throne unceasingly
The songs of praise arise.
But we are lingering here
With sin and care oppressed:
Lord! send thy promised Comforter,
And lead us to thy rest!

2 Thou art gone up on high:
But thou didst first come down,
Through earth's most bitter misery
To pass unto thy crown.
And girt with griefs and fears
Our onward course must be;
But only let that path of tears
Lead us at last to thee!

3 Thou art gone up on high:
But thou shalt come again
With all the bright ones of the sky
Attendant in thy train.
Oh, by thy saving power
So make us live and die,
That we may stand in that dread hour
At thy right hand on high!

"Many Crowns."

M. BRIDGES.

Crown him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon his throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own!
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of him who died for thee;
And hail him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity.

2 Crown him the Lord of love!
Behold his hands and side,—
Those wounds, yet visible above,
In beauty glorified:
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his wondering eye
At mysteries so bright.

3 Crown him the Lord of heaven!
One with the Father known,—
And the blest Spirit through him given
From yonder Triune throne!
All hail, Redeemer, hail!
For thou hast died for me:
Thy praise and glory shall not fail
Throughout eternity.

"The work is done."

J. FANCH, alt.

BEYOND the starry skies,
Far as the eternal hills,
There in the boundless world of light
Our great Redeemer dwells.
Around him angels fair
In countless armies shine;
And ever, in exalted lays,
They offer songs divine.

2 "Hail, Prince of life!" they cry,
"Whose unexampled love,
Moved thee to quit these glorious realms
And royalties above."
And when he stooped to earth,
And suffered rude disdain,
They cast their honors at his feet,
And waited in his train.

3 They saw him on the cross,
While darkness veiled the skies,
And when he burst the gates of death,
They saw the conqueror rise.
They thronged his chariot wheels,
And bore him to his throne;
Then swept their golden harps and sung,—
"The glorious work is done."

Rise, glorious Conqueror, rise

And where in many a fold

Pass through those gates of gold,

2 Victor o'er death and hell!
Cherubic legions swell
Thy radiant train:
Praises all heaven inspire;
Each angel sweeps his lyre,
And waves his wings of fire,—
Thou Lamb once slain!

3 Enter, incarnate God!—
No feet but thine, have trod
The serpent down;

Blow the full trumpets, blow!
Wider yon portals throw!
Saviour triumphant—go,
And take thy crown!

4 Lion of Judah—Hail!
And let thy name prevail
From age to age;
Lord of the rolling years!
Claim for thine own the spheres,
For thou has bought with tears
Thy heritage.

5 And then was heard afar
Star answering to star—
"Lo! these have come,
Followers of him who gave
His life their lives to save;
And now their palms they wave,
Brought safely home."

Job 19 : 25.

C. WESLEY.

I know that my Redeemer lives,
And ever prays for me:
A token of his love he gives,
A pledge of liberty.
2 I find him lifting up my head;
He brings salvation near:
His presence makes me free indeed,
And he will soon appear.

3 He wills that I should holy be:
What can withstand his will?
The counsel of his grace in me,
He surely shall fulfill.

4 Jesus, I hang upon thy word:

Thou wilt return, and claim me, Lord,

Christ's return. C. F. ALEXANDER, alt.

The golden gates are lifted up,
The doors are opened wide,
The King of glory is gone in Unto his Father's side.
2 Thou art gone up before us, Lord,
To make for us a place,

That we may be where now thou art,
And look upon God's face.

3 And ever on thine earthly path
A gleam of glory lies;
A light still breaks behind the cloud
That veiled thee from our eyes.

4 Lift up our hearts, lift up our minds,
Let thy dear grace be given,
That while we tarry here below,
Our treasure be in heaven!

5 That where thou art, at God's right hand,
Our hope, our love may be;
Dwell thou in us, that we may dwell
For evermore in thee!

"Worthy the Lamb!"

L. WATTS.

COME, let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.

2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
"To be exalted thus!"
"Worthy the Lamb!" our lips reply,
"For he was slain for us."

3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;
And blessings, more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever thine!

4 Let all that dwell above the sky,
And air, and earth, and seas,
Conspire to lift thy glories high,
And speak thine endless praise.

5 The whole creation join in one,
To bless the sacred name
Of him who sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb!

326

Reconciliation.

L. WATTS.

COME, let us lift our joyful eyes,
Up to the courts above,
And smile to see our Father there,
Upon a throne of love.

2 Now we may bow before his feet,
And venture near the Lord:
No fiery cherub guards his seat,
Nor double flaming sword.

3 The peaceful gates of heavenly bliss
Are opened by the Son;
High let us raise our notes of praise,
And reach the almighty throne.

4 To thee ten thousand thanks we bring,
Great Advocate on high,
And glory to the eternal King,
Who lays his anger by.

327

Christ, our Priest.

A. FIRTH.

COME, let us join our songs of praise
To our ascended Priest;
He entered heaven with all our names
Engraven on his breast.

2 Below he washed our guilt away,
By his atoning blood;
Now he appears before the throne,
And pleads our cause with God.

3 Clothed with our nature still, he knows
The weakness of our frame,
And how to shield us from the foes
Which he himself o'ercame.

4 Nor time, nor distance, e'er shall quench
The fervor of his love;
For us he died in kindness here,
For us he lives above.

5 Oh! may we ne'er forget his grace,
Nor blush to bear his name;
Still may our hearts hold fast his faith—
Our lips his praise proclaim.

"Crowned with honor."

THE head that once was crowned with thorns,
Is crowned with glory now;
A royal diadem adorns
The mighty Victor's brow.

2 The highest place that heaven affords,
Is his by sovereign right;
The King of kings, and Lord of lords,
He reigns in glory bright;—

3 The joy of all who dwell above,
The joy of all below,
To whom he manifests his love,
And grants his name to know.

4 To them the cross with all its shame,
With all its grace, is given;
Their name—an everlasting name,
Their joy—the joy of heaven.

"Lord of all."

E. PERRONET.

ALL hail the power of Jesus' name!

Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

2 Crown him, ye martyrs of our God,
Who from his altar call;
Extol the stem of Jesse's rod,
And crown him Lord of all.

3 Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
Ye ransomed from the fall;
Hail him, who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all.

4 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall;
Go, spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.

5 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,

"Lord of heaven."

RAY PALMER.

O CHRIST, the Lord of heaven! to thee,
 Clothed with all majesty divine,
 Eternal power and glory be!
 Eternal praise, of right, is thine.

2 Reign, Prince of life! that once thy brow
 Didst yield to wear the wounding thorn;
 Reign, throned beside the Father now,
 Adored the Son of God first-born.

3 From angel hosts that round thee stand,
 With forms more pure than spotless snow,
 From the bright burning seraph band,
 Let praise in loftiest numbers flow.

4 To thee, the Lamb, our mortal songs,
 Born of deep fervent love, shall rise;
 All honor to thy name belongs,
 Our lips would sound it to the skies.

5 "Jesus!"—all earth shall speak the word;
 "Jesus!"—all heaven resound it still;
 Immanuel, Saviour, Conqueror, Lord!
 Thy praise the universe shall fill.

Psalm 45.

I. WATTS.

NOW BE my heart inspired to sing
 The glories of my Saviour King,—
 Jesus the Lord; how heavenly fair
 His form! how bright his beauties are!

2 O'er all the sons of human race,
 He shines with a superior grace:
 Love from his lips divinely flows,
 And blessings all his state compose.

3 Thy throne, O God, for ever stands;
 Grace is the sceptre in thy hands;
 Thy laws and works are just and right;
 Justice and grace are thy delight.

4 God, thine own God, has richly shed
 His oil of gladness on thy head;
 And with his Sacred Spirit blessed
 His first-born Son above the rest.

332

"King, Creator, Lord."

RAY PALMER, &amp;c

O CHRIST! our King, Creator, Lord!
 Saviour of all who trust thy word!
 To them who seek thee ever near,
 Now to our praises bend thine ear.

2 In thy dear cross a grace is found,—
 It flows from every streaming wound,—
 Whose power our inbred sin controls,
 Breaks the firm bond, and frees our souls

3 Thou didst create the stars of night;
 Yet thou hast veiled in flesh thy light,
 Hast deigned a mortal form to wear
 A mortal's painful lot to bear.

4 When thou didst hang upon the tree,
 The quaking earth acknowledged thee;
 When thou didst there yield up thy breath,
 The world grew dark as shades of death.

5 Now in the Father's glory high,
 Great Conqueror! never more to die,
 Us by thy mighty power defend,
 And reign through ages without end.

BOTHWELL. L. M.

Christ, our Advocate. A. STEELE.

HE lives! the great Redeemer lives!
What joy the blest assurance gives!
And now, before his Father, God,
Pleads the full merits of his blood.

2 Repeated crimes awake our fears,
And justice armed with frowns appears;
But in the Saviour's lovely face
Sweet mercy smiles, and all is peace.

3 In every dark, distressful hour,
When sin and Satan join their power,
Let this dear hope repel the dart,
That Jesus bears us on his heart.

4 Great Advocate, almighty Friend!
On him our humble hopes depend;
Our cause can never, never fail,
For Jesus pleads, and must prevail.

334

"Behold the Way!" J. CENNICK.

JESUS, my All, to heaven is gone,
He whom I fix my hopes upon;
His track I see, and I'll pursue
The narrow way till him I view.

2 The way the holy prophets went,
The road that leads from banishment,
The King's highway of holiness,
I'll go for all his paths are peace.

3 This is the way I long had sought,
And mourned because I found it not;
My grief, my burden, long had been
Because I could not cease from sin.

4 The more I strove against its power,
I sinned and stumbled but the more;
Till late I heard my Saviour say,
"Come hither, soul, I am the Way!"

5 Lo! glad I come; and thou, dear Lamb,
Shalt take me to thee as I am,
Nothing but sin I thee can give;
Nothing but love shall I receive.

6 Then will I tell, to sinners round,
What a dear Saviour I have found;
I'll point to thy redeeming blood,
And say, "Behold the way to God!"

335

Atonement made. I. WATTS.

NOW to the power of God supreme
Be everlasting honors given;
He saves from hell,—we bless his name,—
He guides our wandering feet to heaven.

2 'Twas his own purpose that began
To rescue rebels doomed to die:
He gave us grace in Christ, his Son,
Before he spread the starry sky.

3 Jesus, the Lord, appears at last,
And makes his Father's counsels known;
Declares the great transactions past,
And brings immortal blessings down.

4 He dies; and in that dreadful night
Doth all the powers of hell destroy;
Rising, he brings our heaven to light,
And takes possession of the joy.

1. Come, let us sing the song of songs, The saints in heaven began the strain, The homage which to God belongs:

2 Slain to redeem us by his blood,
To cleanse from every sinful stain,
And make us kings and priests to God—
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

3 To him, enthroned by filial right,
All power in heaven and earth proclaim,
Honor, and majesty, and might:
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

336

"The Song of Songs." J. MONTGOMERY.

Come, let us sing the song of songs,—
The saints in heaven began the strain—
The homage which to Christ belongs:
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

4 Long as we live, and when we die,
And while in heaven with him we reign:
This song, our song of songs shall be:
Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

ALL SAINTS. L. M.

1. Now to the Lord, who makes us know The won-ders of his dy-ing love,

Be hum-ble hon-ors paid be-low, And strains of no-bler praise a-bove.

337

The atoning Priest.

I. WATTS.

Now to the Lord, who makes us know
The wonders of his dying love,
Be humble honors paid below,
And strains of nobler praise above.
'Twas he who cleansed our foulest sins,
And washed us in his precious blood;
'Tis he who makes us priests and kings,
And brings us rebels near to God.
3 To Jesus, our atoning Priest,
To Jesus, our eternal King,

Be everlasting power confessed!
Let every tongue his glory sing.

4 Behold! on flying clouds he comes,
And every eye shall see him move;
Though with our sins we pierced him once,
He now displays his pardoning love.

5 The unbelieving world shall wail,
While we rejoice to see the day;
Come, Lord! nor let thy promise fail,
Nor let thy chariot long delay.

338

Christ is God.

I. WATTS.

WHAT equal honors shall we bring
To thee, O Lord our God, the Lamb,
When all the notes that angels sing,
Are far inferior to thy name?

2 Worthy is he that once was slain,
The Prince of Peace that groaned and died,
Worthy to rise, and live, and reign
At his almighty Father's side.

3 All riches are his native right,
Yet he sustained amazing loss;

To him ascribe eternal might,
Who left his weakness on the cross.

4 Honor immortal must be paid,
Instead of scandal and of scorn;
While glory shines around his head,
And a bright crown without a thorn.

5 Blessings for ever on the Lamb,
Who bore the curse for wretched men;
Let angels sound his sacred name,
And every creature say, Amen.

Psalms 24.

C. WESLEY.

OUR Lord is risen from the dead,
Our Jesus is gone up on high;
The powers of hell are captive led,
Dragged to the portals of the sky.
There his triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay:
"Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates!
Ye everlasting doors! give way."
2 Loose all your bars of massy light,
And wide unfold the ethereal scene:
He claims these mansions as his right;
Receive the King of glory in.

Who is this King of glory—who?
The Lord who all our foes o'ercame;
Who sin, and death, and hell o'erthrew;
And Jesus is the conqueror's name.

3 Lo! his triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay:—
"Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates!
Ye everlasting doors! give way."

Who is this King of glory—who?
The Lord of boundless power possessed;
The King of saints and angels, too,
God over all, for ever blessed.

75, 68, D. The Lord's Day. J. M. NEALE, tr.

THE day of resurrection,
Earth, tell it out abroad :
The Passover of gladness,
The Passover of God.
From death to life eternal,
From earth unto the sky,
Our Christ hath brought us over,
With hymns of victory.

2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
Of resurrection-light ;
And, listening to his accents,
May hear, so calm and plain,
His own " All hail ! " and, hearing,
May raise the victor-strain.

341

C. M. Psalms 45. I. WATTS.

I 'LL speak the honors of my King,—

His form divinely fair ;
None of the sons of mortal race
May with the Lord compare.

2 Sweet is thy speech, and heavenly
Upon thy lips is shed ; [grace
Thy God, with blessings infinite,
Hath crowned thy sacred head.

3 Gird on thy sword, victorious Prince !
Ride with majestic sway ;
Thy terrors shall strike through thy foes,
And make the world obey.

4 Thy throne, O God ! for ever stands ;
Thy word of grace shall prove
A peaceful sceptre in thy hands,
To rule the saints by love.

5 Justice and truth attend thee still,
But mercy is thy choice ;
And God, thy God, thy soul shall fill
With most peculiar joys.

342

L. M. " Full Equality." I. WATTS.

BRIGHT King of glory, dreadful God !
Our spirits bow before thy feet :

To thee we lift an humble thought,
And worship at thine awful seat.

2 A thousand seraphs strong and bright
Stand round the glorious Deity ;
But who, among those sons of light,
Pretends comparison with thee ?

3 Yet there is One of human frame,
Jesus, arrayed in flesh and blood,
Thinks it no robbery to claim
A full equality with God.

4 Then let the name of Christ our King
With equal honors be adored ;
His praise let every angel sing,
And all the nations own their Lord.

343

75. The Risen Redeemer. ANON.

CHRIST, the Lord, is risen to-day,
Our triumphant holy-day :
He endured the cross and grave,
Sinners to redeem and save.

2 Lo ! he rises, mighty King !
Where, O Death ! is now thy sting ?
Lo ! he claims his native sky !
Grave ! where is thy victory ?

3 Sinners, see your ransom paid,
Peace with God for ever made :
With your risen Saviour rise ;
Claim with him the purchased skies.

4 Christ, the Lord, is risen to-day,
Our triumphant holy-day ;
Loud the song of victory raise ;
Shout the great Redeemer's praise.

H. M. " The Debt of Love." S. STENNETT.

COME, every pious heart,
That loves the Saviour's name,
Your noblest powers exert
To celebrate his fame ;
Tell all above, and all below,
The debt of love to him you owe.

2 He left his starry crown,
And laid his robes aside,
On wings of love came down,
And wept, and bled, and died ;
What he endured, oh, who can tell,
To save our souls from death and hell ?

3 From the dark grave he rose,
The mansion of the dead,
And thence his mighty foes
In glorious triumph led ;
Up through the sky the Conqueror rode,
And reigns on high, the Saviour God.

THE King of saints,—how fair his face!
Adorned with majesty and grace,
He comes, with blessings from above,
And wins the nations to his love.

2 At his right hand, our eyes behold
The queen, arrayed in purest gold;
The world admires her heavenly dress,
Her robe of joy and righteousness.

3 Oh, happy hour, when thou shalt rise
To his fair palace in the skies;
And all thy sons, a numerous train,
Each, like a prince, in glory reign.

4 Let endless honors crown his head;
Let every age his praises spread;
While we, with cheerful songs, approve
The condescension of his love.

C. M. D. "The Fairest Face."

P. STEYKER.

I HEARD a voice, the sweetest voice
That mortal ever heard;
Oh! how it made my heart rejoice,
And every feeling stirred!
'T was Jesus spoke to me so mild;
He called me to his side,
And said, although with heart defiled,
I might in him confide.

2 I saw his face, the fairest face
That mortal ever saw;
I longed the Saviour to embrace,
From him new life to draw.
"Come unto me," he kindly said,
"And I will give thee rest;
The ransom-price I fully paid—
Repent! believe! be blest!"

3 I felt his love, the strongest love
That mortal ever felt;
Oh! how it drew my soul above,
And made my hard heart melt!
My burden at his feet I laid,
And knew the joy of heaven,
As in my willing ear he said
The blessed word, "Forgiven!"

Of the celestial road;
And march, with courage, in thy strength,
To see my Father God.

Our High-Priest.

P. DODDRIDGE.

NOW let our cheerful eyes survey
Our great High-Priest above,
And celebrate his constant care,
And sympathetic love.

2 Though raised to a superior throne,
Where angels bow around,
And high o'er all the shining train,
With matchless honors crowned;—

3 The names of all his saints he bears
Engraven on his heart;
Nor shall a name once treasured there
E'er from his care depart.

May thy dear name be worn,
A sacred ornament and guard,
To endless ages borne.

"Inward Teachings."

I. WATTS.

ETERNAL Spirit, we confess
And sing the wonders of thy grace:
Thy power conveys our blessings down
From God the Father and the Son.

2 Enlightened by thy heavenly ray,
Our shades and darkness turn to day;
Thine inward teachings make us know
Our danger and our refuge too.

3 Thy power and glory work within,
And break the chains of reigning sin;
All our imperious lusts subdue,
And form our wretched hearts anew.

351

"Veni, Creator!"

E. CASWALL, Jr.

COME, O Creator Spirit blest!
And in our souls take up thy rest;
Come, with thy grace, and heavenly aid,
To fill the hearts which thou hast made.

2 Great Comforter! to thee we cry;
O highest gift of God most high!
O fount of life! O fire of love!
Send sweet anointing from above!

3 Kindle our senses from above,
And make our hearts o'erflow with love;
With patience firm, and virtue high,
The weakness of our flesh supply.

4 Far from us drive the foe we dread,
And grant us thy true peace instead;
So shall we not, with thee for guide,
Turn from the path of life aside.

"The book unfold."

B. BEDDOME.

COME, blessed Spirit! source of light!
Whose power and grace are unconfined,
Dispel the gloomy shades of night—
The thicker darkness of the mind.

2 To mine illumined eyes, display
The glorious truths thy word reveals;
Cause me to run the heavenly way,
Thy book unfold, and loose the seals.

3 Thine inward teachings make me know
The mysteries of redeeming love,
The vanity of things below,
And excellence of things above.

4 While through this dubious maze I stray,
Spread, like the sun, thy beams abroad,
To show the dangers of the way,
And guide my feeble steps to God.

Spirit of grace.

F. DODDRIDGE.

COME, sacred Spirit, from above,
And fill the coldest heart with love:
Oh, turn to flesh the flinty stone,
And let thy sovereign power be known.

Shall floods of contrite sorrow rise;
While all their glowing souls are borne
To seek that grace which now they scorn.

3 Oh, let a holy flock await
In crowds around thy temple-gate!
Each pressing on with zeal to be
A living sacrifice to thee.

That we must take to dwell with God;
Lead us to Christ, the living way,
Nor let us from his precepts stray.

4 Lead us to God, our final rest,

That brings this dawn of sacred peace?

COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove!

With all thy quickening powers,

Kindle a flame of sacred love

In these cold hearts of ours.

Fond of these trifling toys!

To reach eternal joys.

In vain we strive to rise;

Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
And thine to us so great?

"Let there be light." J. MARRIOTT.

Thou! whose almighty word
Chaos and darkness heard,
And took their flight,
Hear us, we humbly pray,
And, where the gospel's day
Sheds not its glorious ray,
"Let there be light!"

2 Thou! who didst come to bring,
On thy redeeming wing,
Healing and sight,
Health to the sick in mind,
Sight to the inly blind,—
Oh, now to all mankind,
"Let there be light!"

3 Spirit of truth and love,
Life-giving holy Dove!
Speed forth thy flight:
Move o'er the waters' face,
Bearing the lamp of grace,
And in earth's darkest place,
"Let there be light!"

4 Blesséd and holy Three,
All-glorious Trinity,— Wisdom, Love, Might!
Boundless as ocean's tide
Rolling in fullest pride,
Through the world, far and wide,—
"Let there be light!"

J. KEBLE.

WHEN God, of old, came down from heaven,

In power and wrath he came;
Before his feet the clouds were riven,
Half darkness and half flame.

2 But when he came the second time,
He came in power and love;
Softer than gales at morning prime,
Hovered his holy Dove.

3 The fires that rushed on Sinai down
In sudden torrents dread,
Now gently light a glorious crown
On every sainted head.

4 Like arrows went those lightnings forth,
Winged with the sinner's doom;
But these, like tongues, o'er all the earth
Proclaiming life to come.

HOLY Spirit! gently come,
Raise us from our fallen state;
Fix thy everlasting home
In the hearts thou didst create.

2 Now thy quickening influence bring,
On our spirits sweetly move;
Open every mouth to sing
Jesus' everlasting love.

3 Take the things of Christ, and show
What our Lord for us hath done;
May we God the Father know
Through his well-belovèd Son.

The Witness.

A. M. TOPLADY.

BLESSED Comforter, come down,
And live and move in me;
Make my every deed thy own,
In all things led by thee;
Bid my every lust depart,
And now with me, vouchsafe to dwell;
Faithful Witness, in my heart
Thy perfect love reveal.

2 Let me in thy love rejoice,
Thy shrine, thy pure abode;
Tell me, by thine inward voice,
I am a child of God:
Lord, I choose the better part;
Jesus, I wait thy peace to feel;
Send the witness, in my heart
The Holy Ghost reveal.

The Promise.

H. AUBER.

OUR blest Redeemer, ere he breathed
His tender, last farewell,
A Guide, a Comforter bequeathed,
With us on earth to dwell.

2 He came in tongues of living flame,
To teach, convince, subdue;
All powerful as the wind he came,
And all as viewless, too.

3 He came, sweet influence to impart,
A gracious, willing Guest,
While he can find one humble heart
Wherein to fix his rest.

4 And every virtue we possess,
And every victory won,
And every thought of holiness,
Is his and his alone.

5 Spirit of purity and grace!
Our weakness pitying see;
Oh, make our hearts thy dwelling-place,
Purer and worthier thee!

"Comforter Divine!"

G. RAWSON.

HOLY Ghost, the Infinite!
Shine upon our nature's night
With thy blessed inward light,
Comforter Divine!

2 We are sinful: cleanse us, Lord;
We are faint: thy strength afford;
Lost,—until by thee restored,
Comforter Divine!

3 Like the dew, thy peace distill;
Guide, subdue our wayward will,
Things of Christ unfolding still,
Comforter Divine!

4 In us, for us, intercede,
And, with voiceless groanings, plead
Our unutterable need,
Comforter Divine!

5 In us "Abba, Father," cry,—
Earnest of our bliss on high,
Seal of immortality,—
Comforter Divine!

6 Search for us the depths of God;
Bear us up the starry road,
To the height of thine abode,
Comforter Divine!

375 S. M.The Light.

W. H. BATHURST.

LORD, bid thy light arise
On all thy people here,
And when we raise our longing eyes,
Oh, may we find thee near!

2 Thy Holy Spirit send,
To quicken every soul;
And hearts, the most rebellious, bend
To thy divine control.

3 Let all that own thy name
Thy sacred image bear;
And light in every heart the flame
Of watchfulness and prayer.

4 Since in thy love we see
Our only sure relief,
Oh, raise our earthly minds to thee,
And help our unbelief.

As when in silence vernal showers
Descend and cheer the fainting flowers,
So, in the secrecy of love,
Falls the sweet influence from above.

2 That heavenly influence let me find
In holy silence of the mind,
While every grace maintains its bloom,
Diffusing wide its rich perfume.

3 Nor let these blessings be confined
To me, but poured on all mankind,
Till earth's wild wastes in verdure rise,
And a young Eden bless our eyes.

377 L. M.*Veni, Creator.*J. DRYDEN, tr.

CREATOR Spirit, by whose aid
The world's foundations first were laid,
Come, visit every waiting mind;
Come, pour thy joys on human-kind.

2 Thrice holy Fount, thrice holy Fire,
Our hearts with heavenly love inspire;
Come, and thy sacred unction bring
To sanctify us, while we sing.

3 O Source of uncreated light,
The Father's promised Paraclete,—
From sin and sorrow set us free,
And make us temples worthy thee!

4 Make us eternal truths receive,
And practise all that we believe;
Give us thyself, that we may see
The Father and the Son, by thee.

378 C. M.Invocation.

COME, Holy Ghost! our hearts inspire,
Let us thine influence prove;
Source of the old prophetic fire!
Fountain of life and love!

2 Water with heavenly dew thy word,
In this appointed hour;
Attend it with thy presence, Lord,
And bid it come with power.

3 Open the hearts of them that hear,
To make the Saviour room;
Now let us find redemption near;
Let faith by hearing come.

379 H. M.Luke 11: 13.

O THOU that hearest prayer!
Attend our humble cry;
And let thy servants share
Thy blessing from on high:
We plead the promise of thy word,
Grant us thy Holy Spirit, Lord!

2 If earthly parents hear
Their children when they cry;
If they, with love sincere,
Their children's wants supply;
Much more wilt thou thy love display,
And answer when thy children pray.

3 Our heavenly Father, thou,—
We—children of thy grace,—
Oh, let thy Spirit now
Descend and fill the place;
That all may feel the heavenly flame
And all unite to praise thy name.

O SPIRIT of the living God,
In all thy plenitude of grace,
Where'er the foot of man hath trod,
Descend on our apostate race.

2 Give tongues of fire and hearts of love,
To preach the reconciling word;
Give power and unction from above,
Where'er the joyful sound is heard.

3 Be darkness, at thy coming, light;
Confusion, order, in thy path;
Souls without strength inspire with
might;

Bid mercy triumph over wrath.

4 Baptize the nations! far and nigh,

The name of Jesus glorify,
Till every people call him Lord.

Deut. 30 : 19. J. MONTGOMERY.

Oh, where shall rest be found—
Rest for the weary soul?

'T were vain the ocean depths to sound,
Or pierce to either pole.

2 The world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh:

'T is not the whole of life to live,
Nor all of death to die.

3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,

Unmeasured by the flight of years;
And all that life is love.

4 There is a death whose pang
Outlasts the fleeting breath:
Oh, what eternal horrors hang
Around the second death!

5 Lord God of truth and grace!
Teach us that death to shun;
Lest we be banished from thy face,
And evermore undone.

"None other name."

I. WATTS.

Nor all the blood of beasts
On Jewish altars slain,
Could give the guilty conscience peace,
Or wash away the stain.

1 But Christ the heavenly Lamb
Takes all our sins away,

A sacrifice of nobler name
And richer blood than they.

3 My faith would lay her hand
On that dear head of thine,

While like a penitent I stand,
And there confess my sin.

4 My soul looks back to see
The burdens thou didst bear,
When hanging on the curséd tree,
And hopes her guilt was there.

5 Believing, we rejoice
To see the curse remove;
We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
And sing his dying love.

AWAKED by Sinai's awful sound,
My soul in bonds of guilt I found,
And knew not where to go;
One solemn truth increased my pain,
"The sinner must be born again,"
Or sink to endless woe.

2 I heard the law its thunders roll,
While guilt lay heavy on my soul—
A vast oppressive load;
All creature-aid I saw was vain;
"The sinner must be born again,"
Or drink the wrath of God.

3 But while I thus in anguish lay,
The bleeding Saviour passed that way,
My bondage to remove.
The sinner, once by justice slain,
Now by his grace is born again,
And sings redeeming love.

2 O God! my inmost soul convert,

Give me to feel their solemn weight,
And save me ere it be too late;
Wake me to righteousness.

How HELPLESS guilty nature lies,
Unconscious of its load!

The heart, unchanged, can never rise

2 Can aught, beneath a power divine,
The stubborn will subdue?
'Tis thine, almighty Spirit! thine,
To form the heart anew.

3 'Tis thine, the passions to recall,
And upward bid them rise;
To make the scales of error fall
From reason's darkened eyes;—

4 To chase the shades of death away,
And bid the sinner live;
A beam of heaven, a vital ray,
'Tis thine alone to give.

In vain we seek for peace with God
By methods of our own:
Nothing, O Saviour! but thy blood

If God his sword of vengeance draw,
It strikes the spirit dead.

3 But thine illustrious sacrifice
Hath answered these demands;
And peace and pardon from the skies
Are offered by thy hands.

"Sin revived: I died."

I. WATTS.

LORD, how secure my conscience was,
And felt no inward dread!
I was alive without the law,
And thought my sins were dead.

2 My hopes of heaven were firm and bright;
But since the precept came
With a convincing power and light,
I find how vile I am.

3 My guilt appeared but small before,
Till terribly I saw
How perfect, holy, just, and pure,
Was thine eternal law.

4 Then felt my soul the heavy load;
My sins revived again:
I had provoked a dreadful God,
And all my hopes were slain.

Born in the image of his Son,

"To save the lost." E. C. CLEPHANE.

THERE were ninety and nine that safely lay
In the shelter of the fold,
But one was out on the hills away,
Far off from the gates of gold—
Away on the mountains wild and bare,
Away from the tender Shepherd's care.

2 "Lord, thou hast here thy ninety and nine:
Are they not enough for thee?"
But the Shepherd made answer: "This of
Has wandered away from me: [mine
And although the road be rough and steep
I go to the desert to find my sheep."

3 But none of the ransomed ever knew
How deep were the waters crossed;
Nor how dark was the night that the Lord passed through
Ere he found his sheep that was lost;
Out in the desert he heard its cry—
'Twas helpless and sick, and ready to die.

4 But all through the mountains, thunder-
And up from the rocky steep, [riven,
There rose a cry to the gate of heaven,
"Rejoice! I have found my sheep!"
And the angels echoed around the throne,
"Rejoice, for the Lord brings back his own!"

L. M. Loving-kindness.

S. MEDLEY.

AWAKE, my soul, to joyful lays,
And sing thy great Redeemer's praise;
He justly claims a song from me:
His loving-kindness, oh, how free!

2 He saw me ruined in the fall,
Yet loved me, notwithstanding all;
He saved me from my lost estate:
His loving-kindness, oh, how great!

3 Though numerous hosts of mighty foes,
Though earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along:
His loving-kindness, oh, how strong!

4 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gathered thick and thundered loud,
He near my soul has always stood:
His loving-kindness, oh, how good!

LENOX. H. M.

L. EDSON.

1. Arise, my soul, arise: Shake off thy guilty fears; The bleeding Sacrifice In my behalf appears;
Before the throne my Surety stands:
Before the throne my Surety stands: My name is written on his hands.
for the throne my Surety stands: Before the throne my Surety stands: My name is written on his hands.

405

Our Surety.

C. WESLEY.

ARISE, my soul, arise!
Shake off thy guilty fears;
The bleeding Sacrifice
In my behalf appears;
Before the throne my Surety stands:
My name is written on his hands.
2 He ever lives above,
For me to intercede,
His all-redeeming love,
His precious blood to plead;
His blood atoned for all our race,
And sprinkles now the throne of grace.
3 My God is reconciled;
His pardoning voice I hear;
He owns me for his child;
I can no longer fear;
With confidence I now draw nigh,
And Father, Abba, Father, cry.

406

Year of Jubilee.

C. WESLEY.

Blow ye the trumpet, blow;—
The gladly solemn sound;—
Let all the nations know,
To earth's remotest bound,
The year of jubilee is come:
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.
2 Jesus, our great High-Priest,
Hath full atonement made;
Ye weary spirits, rest;
Ye mournful souls, be glad:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.
3 Extol the Lamb of God,
The all-atoning Lamb;
Redemption in his blood
Throughout the world proclaim:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

"The Seamless Robe."

I. WATTS.

AWAKE, my heart, arise, my tongue,
Prepare a tuneful voice;

In God, the life of all my joys,
Aloud will I rejoice.

'Tis he adorned my naked soul,
And made salvation mine;
Upon a poor, polluted worm,
He makes his graces shine.

2 And lest the shadow of a spot
Should on my soul be found,
He took the robe the Saviour wrought,
And cast it all around.

How far the heavenly robe exceeds
What earthly princes wear!
These ornaments, how bright they shine!
How white the garments are!

3 The Spirit wrought my faith and love,
And hope and every grace;
But Jesus spent his life to work
The robe of righteousness.
Strangely, my soul, art thou arrayed,
By the great sacred Three;
In sweetest harmony of praise,
Let all thy powers agree.

408

"Jesus died for me"

W. H. BATHURST.

GREAT God, when I approach thy throne,
And all thy glory see;
This is my stay, and this alone,
That Jesus died for me.

2 How can a soul condemned to die,
Escape the just decree?
Helpless, and full of sin am I,
But Jesus died for me.

3 Burdened with sin's oppressive chain,
Oh, how can I get free?
No peace can all my efforts gain,
But Jesus died for me.

4 And Lord, when I behold thy face,
This must be all my plea;
Save me by thy almighty grace,
For Jesus died for me.

409

Divine compassion.

A. STEELE.

JESUS,—and didst thou leave the sky,
To bear our griefs and woes?
And didst thou bleed, and groan and die,
For thy rebellious foes?

2 Well might the heavens with wonder view
A love so strange as thine!
No thought of angels ever knew
Compassion so divine!

3 Is there a heart that will not bend
To thy divine control?
Descend, O sovereign love, descend,
And melt that stubborn soul.

4 Oh! may our willing hearts confess
Thy sweet, thy gentle sway;
Glad captives of thy matchless grace,
Thy righteous rule obey.

ALL TO CHRIST. P. M.

J. T. GRAPE.

The debt paid.

E. M. HALL.

I HEAR the Saviour say,
Thy strength indeed is small;
Child of weakness, watch and pray,
Find in me thine all in all.
CHO.—Jesus paid it all,
All to him I owe;
Sin had left a crimson stain;
He washed it white as snow.

2 Lord, now indeed I find
Thy power, and thine alone,
Can change the leper's spots,
And melt the heart of stone.—CHO.

3 For nothing good have I
Whereby thy grace to claim—
I'll wash my garment white
In the blood of Calvary's Lamb.—CHO.

4 When from my dying bed
My ransomed soul shall rise,
Then "Jesus paid it all"
Shall rend the vaulted skies.—CHO.

5 And when before the throne
I stand in him complete,
I'll lay my trophies down,
All down at Jesus' feet.—CHO.

"Atoning blood." L. HARTSOUGH.

I HEAR thy welcome voice,
That calls me, Lord, to thee,
For cleansing in thy precious blood,
That flowed on Calvary.

CHO.—I am coming, Lord!

Coming now to thee;

Wash me, cleanse me, in the blood
That flowed on Calvary!

2 Though coming weak and vile,
Thou dost my strength assure;

Thou dost my vileness fully cleanse,
Till spotless all, and pure.—CHO.

3 'Tis Jesus calls me on
To perfect faith and love,
To perfect hope, and peace, and trust,
For earth and heaven above.—CHO.

4 All hail! atoning blood!
All hail! redeeming grace!
All hail! the gift of Christ, our Lord,
Our Strength and Righteousness.—CHO

412

78, 61. "Come and welcome." T. HAWKES.

FROM the cross uplifted high,
Where the Saviour deigns to die,
What melodious sounds we hear,
Bursting on the ravished ear!—
"Love's redeeming work is done—
Come and welcome, sinner, come!

2 "Sprinkled now with blood the throne—
Why beneath thy burdens groan?
On my pierced body laid,
Justice owns the ransom paid—
Bow the knee, and kiss the Son—
Come and welcome, sinner, come!

3 "Spread for thee, the festal board
See with richest bounty stored;
To thy Father's bosom pressed,
Thou shalt be a child confessed,
Never from his house to roam;
Come and welcome, sinner, come!

4 "Soon the days of life shall end—
Lo, I come—your Saviour, Friend!
Safe your spirit to convey
To the realms of endless day,
Up to my eternal home—
Come and welcome, sinner, come!"

OLD, OLD STORY. 7s, 6s. D.

W. H. DOANE.

1. Tell me the old, old sto - ry, Of unseen things a - bove, Of Je - sus and his glo - ry,
Of Je - sus and his love. Tell me the sto - ry sim - ply, As to a lit - tle child,
CHORUS.

Tell me the old, old sto - ry, Tell me the old, old sto - ry, Of Je - sus and his love.

413

The story of the Cross.

K. HANKEY.

TELL me the old, old story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and his glory,
Of Jesus and his love.
Tell me the story simply,
As to a little child,
For I am weak and weary,
And helpless and defiled.—CHO.
2 Tell me the story slowly,
That I may take it in—
That wonderful Redemption,
God's remedy for sin!
Tell me the story often,
For I forget so soon!
The "early dew" of morning
Has passed away at noon!—CHO.

3 Tell me the story softly,
With earnest tones and grave;
Remember! I'm the sinner
Whom Jesus came to save.
Tell me that story always,
If you would really be,
In any time of trouble,
A comforter to me.—CHO.
4 Tell me the same old story,
When you have cause to fear
That this world's empty glory
Is costing me too dear.
Yes, and when that world's glory
Is drawing on my soul,
Tell me the old, old story:
"Christ Jesus makes thee whole."—CHO.

TELL THE STORY. 7s, 6s. D.

W. G. FISCHER.

1. I love to tell the sto-ry Of unseen things above, Of Je-sus and his glory, Of Jesus and his love.

I love to tell the story, Because I know 'tis true; It satisfies my longings As nothing else can do.

CHORUS.

I love to tell the story, 'Twill be my theme in glory, To tell the old, old story Of Jesus and his love.

414

The old, old story.

K. HANKEY.

I LOVE to tell the story
Of unseen things above,
Of Jesus and his glory,
Of Jesus and his love.
I love to tell the story,
Because I know 'tis true;
It satisfies my longings
As nothing else can do.—CHO.

2 I love to tell the story:
'Tis pleasant to repeat
What seems each time I tell it,
More wonderfully sweet.
I love to tell the story:
For some have never heard
The message of salvation,
From God's own holy word.—CHO.

3 I love to tell the story;
For those who know it best
Seem hungering and thirsting
To hear it like the rest.
And when, in scenes of glory,
I sing the NEW, NEW SONG,
'Twill be the OLD, OLD STORY
That I have loved so long.—CHO

415

Jesus' Cross.

ANON.

I SAW the cross of Jesus,
When burdened with my sin;
I sought the cross of Jesus,
To give me peace within;
I brought my soul to Jesus,
He cleansed it in his blood;
And in the cross of Jesus
I found my peace with God.

CHO.—No righteousness, no merit,
No beauty can I plead;
Yet in the cross I glory,
My title there I read.

2 Sweet is the cross of Jesus!
There let my weary heart
Still rest in peace unshaken,
Till with him, ne'er to part;
And then in strains of glory
I'll sing his wondrous power,
Where sin can never enter,
And death is known no more.

CHO.—I love the cross of Jesus,
It tells me what I am;
A vile and guilty creature,
Saved only through the Lamb

OWEN. S. M.

416

Weeping for sinners.

B. BEDDOME.

Did Christ o'er sinners weep,
And shall our cheeks be dry?
Let floods of penitential grief
Burst forth from every eye

2 The Son of God in tears
Angels with wonder see;
Be thou astonished, O my soul!
He shed those tears for thee.

3 He wept that we might weep;
Each sin demands a tear:
In heaven alone no sin is found,
And there's no weeping there.

417

The call of love.

A. B. HYDE.

AND canst thou, sinner! slight
The call of love divine?
Shall God, with tenderness, invite,
And gain no thought of thine?

2 Wilt thou not cease to grieve
The Spirit from thy breast,
Till he thy wretched soul shall leave
With all thy sins oppressed?

3 To-day, a pardoning God
Will hear the suppliant pray;
To-day, a Saviour's cleansing blood
Will wash thy guilt away.

The accepted time.

J. DOBELL.

Now is the accepted time,
Now is the day of grace;
O sinners! come, without delay,
And seek the Saviour's face.

2 Now is the accepted time,
The Saviour calls to-day;
To-morrow it may be too late;—
Then why should you delay?

3 Now is the accepted time,
The gospel bids you come;
And every promise in his word
Declares there yet is room.

4 Lord, draw reluctant souls,
And feast them with thy love;
Then will the angels spread their wings
And bear the news above.

RETURN, O wanderer, to thy home,
Thy Father calls for thee:
No longer now an exile roam
In guilt and misery.

2 Return, O wanderer, to thy home,
Thy Saviour calls for thee:

"The Spirit and the Bride say, Come;"
Oh, now for refuge flee!

3 Return, O wanderer, to thy home,
'Tis madness to delay:
There are no pardons in the tomb;
And brief is mercy's day!

Esther 4: 16.

E. JONES.

COME, trembling sinner, in whose breast
A thousand thoughts revolve;
Come, with your guilt and fear oppressed,
And make this last resolve;—

2 "I'll go to Jesus, though my sins
Like mountains round me close;
I know his courts, I'll enter in,
Whatever may oppose.

3 "Prostrate I'll lie before his throne,
And there my guilt confess;

I'll tell him I'm a wretch undone,
Without his sovereign grace.

4 "Perhaps he will admit my plea,
Perhaps will hear my prayer;
But if I perish, I will pray,
And perish only there.

5 "I can but perish if I go;
I am resolved to try;
For if I stay away, I know
I must for ever die."

"At the door."

J. GRIGG.

BEHOLD a Stranger at the door!
He gently knocks, has knocked before,
Has waited long, is waiting still;
You treat no other friend so ill.

2 Oh, lovely attitude! he stands
With melting heart and laden hands;
Oh, matchless kindness! and he shows
This matchless kindness to his foes.

3 But will he prove a friend indeed?
He will, the very friend you need—
The Friend of sinners; yes, 't is he,
With garments dyed on Calvary.

4 Rise, touched with gratitude divine,
Turn out his enemy and thine,
That soul-destroying monster sin,
And let the heavenly Stranger in.

God calling yet! shall I not hear?
Earth's pleasures shall I still hold dear?
Shall life's swift passing years all fly,
And still my soul in slumber lie?

2 God calling yet! shall I not rise?
Can I his loving voice despise,
And basely his kind care repay?
He calls me still; can I delay?

3 God calling yet! and shall I give
No heed, but still in bondage live?
I wait, but he does not forsake;
He calls me still; my heart, awake!

4 God calling yet! I cannot stay;
My heart I yield without delay;
Vain world, farewell! from thee I part;
The voice of God hath reached my heart.

One Thing needful. F. DODDRIDGE.

WHY will ye waste on trifling cares
That life which God's compassion spares?
While, in the various range of thought,
The one thing needful is forgot?

2 Shall God invite you from above?
Shall Jesus urge his dying love?
Shall troubled conscience give you pain?
And all these pleas unite in vain?

3 Not so your eyes will always view
Those objects which you now pursue;
Not so will heaven and hell appear,
When death's decisive hour is near.

4 Almighty God! thy grace impart;
Fix deep conviction on each heart:
Nor let us waste on trifling cares

"Why not to-night?"

H. BONAR.

Oh, do not let the word depart,
And close thine eyes against the light;
Poor sinner, harden not thy heart:
Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?

2 To-morrow's sun may never rise
To bless thy long-deluded sight;
This is the time; oh, then be wise!
Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?

3 Our God in pity lingers still;
And wilt thou thus his love requite?
Renounce at length thy stubborn will;
Thou wouldst be saved; why not to-night?

SINNERS, turn, why will ye die?
 God, your Maker, asks you—Why?
 God, who did your being give,
 Made you with himself to live;
 He the fatal cause demands,
 Asks the work of his own hands,—
 Why, ye thankless creatures, why
 Will ye cross his love, and die?

2 Sinners, turn, why will ye die?
 God, your Saviour, asks you—Why?
 He who did your souls retrieve,
 Died himself that ye might live.

Will ye let him die in vain?
 Crucify your Lord again?
 Why, ye ransomed sinners, why
 Will ye slight his grace, and die?

3 Sinners, turn, why will ye die?
 God, the Spirit, asks you—Why?
 He, who all your lives hath strove,

 Will ye still refuse to live?
 Why, ye long-sought sinners! why,

"Whoever will."

A. L. BARBAULD.

COME, said Jesus' sacred voice,
 Come, and make my paths your choice;
 I will guide you to your home,
 Weary pilgrim, hither come!

2 Thou who, houseless, sole, forlorn,
 Long hast borne the proud world's scorn,
 Long hast roamed the barren waste,
 Weary pilgrim, hither haste.

3 Ye who, tossed on beds of pain,
 Seek for ease, but seek in vain;
 Ye, by fiercer anguish torn,
 In remorse for guilt who mourn;—

4 Hither come! for here is found
 Balm that flows for every wound,
 Peace that ever shall endure,
 Rest eternal, sacred, sure.

EXPOSTULATION. 11a.

J. HOPKINS.

427

"Why will ye die?" J. HOPKINS.

Oh, turn ye, oh, turn ye, for why will ye die,
When God in great mercy is coming so nigh?
Now Jesus invites you, the Spirit says, Come,
And angels are waiting to welcome you home.

2 In riches, in pleasures, what can you obtain,
To soothe your affliction, or banish your pain?
To bear up your spirit when summoned to die,
Or waft you to mansions of glory on high?

3 And now Christ is ready your souls to receive,
Oh, how can you question, if you will believe?
If sin is your burden, why will you not come?
'Tis you he bids welcome; he bids you come home.

Her voice is not heard in the vale of the tomb;

Her message unheeded will soon pass away.

3 Delay not, delay not, the Spirit of grace,
Long grieved and resisted, may take his sad flight,

And leave thee in darkness to finish thy race,

To sink in the gloom of eternity's night.

4 Delay not, delay not, the hour is at hand,
The earth shall dissolve and the heavens shall fade,

The dead, small and great, in the judgment shall stand;

What power then, O sinner, will lend thee its aid!

429

"Acquaint thyself."

KNOX.

ACQUAINT thyself quickly, O sinner, with God,
And joy, like the sunshine, shall beam on thy road,

And peace, like the dewdrop, shall fall on thy head,

And sleep, like an angel, shall visit thy bed.

2 Acquaint thyself quickly, O sinner, with God,

And he shall be with thee when fears are abroad;

Thy Safeguard in danger that threatens thy path;

Thy Joy in the valley and shadow of death.

428

"I made haste." T. HASTINGS.

DELAY not, delay not, O sinner, draw near,
The waters of life are now flowing for thee;

No price is demanded, the Saviour is here;
Redemption is purchased, salvation is free.

2 Delay not, delay not, O sinner, to come,
For Mercy still lingers and calls thee to-day:

Waiting will not save me.—CHO.

To his arms, Lord, help me run—
Faith in Christ will save me.—CHO.

COME, YE DISCONSOLATE. 11s, 10s.

S. WEBBE.

CHORUS.

1. Come, ye dis-con-so-late, where'er ye lan-guish; Come to the mercy-seat, fer-vent-ly kneel;

CONGREGATION.

Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish, Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

431

"Here speaks the Comforter." T. MOORE.

COME, ye disconsolate, where'er ye languish:
Come to the mercy-seat, fervently kneel;
Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish;

Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

2 Joy of the comfortless, light of the stray-
ing,
Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure;

Here speaks the Comforter tenderly saying—

Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot cure.

3 Here see the Bread of Life; see waters flowing
Forth from the throne of God, pure from above;

Come to the feast of love: come, ever knowing
Earth has no sorrow but heaven can remove.

432

"Ho, ye needy!"

J. HART.

COME, ye sinners, poor and wretched,
Weak and wounded, sick and sore,
Jesus ready stands to save you,
Full of pity, love and power.
He is able,
He is willing, doubt no more.

2 Ho, ye needy; come, and welcome;
God's free bounty glorify!
True belief and true repentance,
Every grace that brings us nigh,
Without money,
Come to Jesus Christ, and buy.

3 Let not conscience make you linger,
Nor of fitness fondly dream;
All the fitness he requireth
Is to feel your need of him;
This he gives you;
'Tis the Spirit's rising beam.

433

"Mercy's Call."

J. ALLEN.

SINNERS, will you scorn the message,
Coming from the courts above?
Mercy beams in every passage;
Every line is full of love;
Oh! believe it,
Every line is full of love.

2 Now the heralds of salvation
Joyful news from heaven proclaim!
Sinners freed from condemnation,
Through the all-atoning Lamb!
Life receiving
Through the all-atoning Lamb!

3 O ye angels, hovering round us,
Waiting spirits, speed your way;
Haste ye to the court of heaven,
Tidings bear without delay:
Rebel sinners
Glad the message will obey.

434 C. M. "Oh, amazing Love!" I. WATTS.

PLUNGED in a gulf of dark despair,
We wretched sinners lay,
Without one cheerful beam of hope,
Or spark of glimmering day.

2 With pitying eyes the Prince of grace
Beheld our helpless grief;
He saw, and—oh, amazing love!—
He ran to our relief.

3 Down from the shining seats above,
With joyful haste he fled,
Entered the grave in mortal flesh,
And dwelt among the dead.

4 Oh, for this love let rocks and hills
Their lasting silence break;
And all harmonious human tongues
The Saviour's praises speak.

5 Angels! assist our mighty joys;
Strike all your harps of gold;
But, when you raise your highest notes,
His love can ne'er be told.

435 L. M. Psalm 136. I. WATTS.

GIVE to our God immortal praise;
Mercy and truth are all his ways;
Wonders of grace to God belong;
Repeat his mercies in your song.

2 He sent his Son, with power to save
From guilt, and darkness, and the grave:
Wonders of grace to God belong;—
Repeat his mercies in your song.

3 Through this vain world he guides our feet,
And leads us to his heavenly seat;
His mercies ever shall endure,
When this vain world shall be no more.

436 C. M. "Ho! Every One." I. WATTS.

LET every mortal ear attend,
And every heart rejoice;
The trumpet of the gospel sounds,
With an inviting voice.

2 Ho! all ye hungry, starving souls,
That feed upon the wind,
And vainly strive with earthly toys
To fill the immortal mind,—

3 Eternal wisdom has prepared
A soul-reviving feast,
And bids your longing appetites
The rich provision taste.

437 C. M. "Not to Condemn, but Save." I. WATTS.

COME, happy souls, approach your God
With new, melodious songs;
Come, render to almighty grace
The tribute of your tongues.

2 So strange, so boundless was the love
That pitied dying men,
The Father sent his equal Son
To give them life again.

3 Thy hands, dear Jesus, were not armed
With an avenging rod,
No hard commission to perform
The vengeance of a God.

4 But all was merciful and mild,
And wrath forsook the throne,
When Christ on the kind errand came,
And brought salvation down.

5 See, dearest Lord, our willing souls
Accept thine offered grace;
We bless the great Redeemer's love,
And give the Father praise.

438 L. M. "To Save Sinners." I. WATTS.

NOR to condemn the sons of men,
Did Christ, the Son of God, appear;
No weapons in his hands are seen,
No flaming sword nor thunder there.

2 Such was the pity of our God,
He loved the race of man so well,
He sent his Son to bear our load
Of sins, and save our souls from hell.

3 Sinners, believe the Saviour's word;
Trust in his mighty name, and live:
A thousand joys his lips afford,
His hands a thousand blessings give.

439 S. M. The Bride says, Come. J. MONTGOMERY.

COME to the land of peace;
From shadows come away;
Where all the sounds of weeping cease,
And storms no more have sway.

2 Fear hath no dwelling here;
But pure repose and love
Breathe through the bright, celestial air
The spirit of the dove.

3 Come to the bright and blest,
Gathered from every land;
For here thy soul shall find its rest,
Amid the shining band.

Jesus calls.

T. HASTINGS.

DROOPING souls, no longer mourn,
 Jesus still is precious;
 If to him you now return,
 Heaven will be propitious;
 Jesus now is passing by,
 Calling wanderers near him;
 Drooping souls, you need not die,
 Go to him and hear him!

2 He has pardons, full and free,
 Drooping souls to gladden;
 Still he cries—"Come unto me,
 Weary, heavy-laden!"
 Though your sins, like mountains high,
 Rise, and reach to heaven,
 Soon as you on him rely,
 All shall be forgiven.

3 Precious is the Saviour's name,
 Dear to all that love him;
 He to save the dying came;—
 Go to him and prove him!
 Wandering sinners, now return;
 Contrite souls, believe him!
 Jesus calls you, cease to mourn:
 Worship him; receive him.

Spirit and Bride.

H. U. ONDERDONK.

THE Spirit, in our hearts,
 Is whispering, "Sinner, come;"
 The bride, the Church of Christ, pro-
 To all his children, "Come!" [claims,

2 Let him that heareth, say
 To all about him, "Come!"
 Let him that thirsts for righteousness,
 To Christ, the fountain, come!

3 Yes, whosoever will,
 Oh, let him freely come,
 And freely drink the stream of life;
 'Tis Jesus bids him come.

4 Lo! Jesus, who invites,
 Declares, "I quickly come;"
 Lord, even so; we wait thine hour;
 O blest Redeemer, come!

Flee for Life.

W. B. COLLIER.

HASTE, traveler, haste! the night comes
 And many a shining hour is gone; [on,
 The storm is gathering in the west,
 And thou far off from home and rest.

2 The rising tempest sweeps the sky;
 The rains descend, the winds are high;
 The waters swell, and death and fear
 Beset thy path, nor refuge near.

3 Oh, yet a shelter you may gain,
 A covert from the wind and rain;
 A hiding-place, a rest, a home,
 A refuge from the wrath to come!

4 Then linger not in all the plain;
 Flee for thy life; the mountain gain;
 Look not behind; make no delay;
 Oh, speed thee, speed thee on thy way!

Winning Souls.

W. HAMMOND

WOULD you win a soul to God?
 Tell him of a Saviour's blood,
 Once for dying sinners spilt,
 To atone for all their guilt.

2 Tell him—it was sovereign grace
 Led thee first to seek His face;
 Made thee choose the better part,
 Wrought salvation in thy heart.

3 Tell him of that liberty,
 Wherewith Jesus makes thee free!
 Sweetly speak of sins forgiven,
 Earnest of the joys of heaven.

"Only Knock."

J. B. WATERBURY.

INFINITE Love! what precious stores
 Thy mercy has prepared for us!
 The costliest gems, the richest ores
 Could never have endowed us thus.

2 But thy soft hand, O gracious Lord!
 Can draw from suffering souls the sting;
 And thy rich bounty to our board
 Can bread for hungering sinners bring.

3 How rich the grace! the gift how free!
 'T is only ask—it shall be given;
 'T is only knock, and thou shalt see
 The opening door that leads to heaven.

4 Oh! then arise and take the good,
 So full and freely proffered thee,
 Remembering that it cost the blood
 Of him who died on Calvary.

COME to Calvary's holy mountain,
 Sinners, ruined by the fall!
 Here a pure and healing fountain
 Flows to you, to me, to all,—
 In a full, perpetual tide,
 Opened when our Saviour died.
 2 Come, in sorrow and contrition,
 Wounded, impotent, and blind!
 Here the guilty, free remission,

Here the troubled, peace may find;
 Health this fountain will restore,
 He that drinks shall thirst no more—

 'Tis a soul-renewing flood:
 God is faithful; God will never
 Break his covenant in blood,
 Signed when our Redeemer died,
 Sealed when he was glorified.

JESUS, Sun of Righteousness,
 Brightest beam of love divine,
 With the early morning rays
 Do thou on our darkness shine,

And dispel with purest light
 All our night,—all our night.

 May thy love, with tender glow,
 All our coldness melt away,
 Warm and cheer us forth to go;
 Gladly serve thee and obey,
 All the day,—all the day.
 3 Thou, our only Life and Guide,
 Never leave us nor forsake;
 In thy light may we abide

"Jesus, my all." F. C. VAN ALSTYNE.

LORD, at thy mercy-seat,
 Humbly I fall;
 Pleading thy promise sweet,
 Lord, hear my call;
 Now let thy work begin,
 Oh, make me pure within,
 Cleanse me from every sin,
 Jesus, my all.

2 Hark! how the words of love
 Tenderly fall,
 Ere to the realms above,
 Heard is my call;
 Now every doubt has flown,
 Broken my heart of stone,
 Lord, I am thine alone,
 Jesus, my all.
 3 Still at thy mercy-seat
 Humbly I fall;
 Pleading thy promise sweet,
 Heard is my call.
 Faith wings my soul to thee;
 This all my hope shall be,
 Jesus has died for me,
 Jesus, my all.

✓ REDHEAD. 7s. 6l.

RICHARD REDHEAD.

1. O thou God who hear-est prayer Ev-ery hour and every-where! For his sake, whose blood I plead,

Hear me in my hour of need: On-ly hide not now thy face, God of all-suf-fi-cient grace!

451

"Hearer of prayer."

J. CONDER.

O THOU God who hearest prayer
Every hour and everywhere!
For his sake, whose blood I plead,
Hear me in my hour of need:
Only hide not now thy face,
God of all-sufficient grace!

2 Leave me not, my strength, my trust;
Oh, remember I am dust:
Leave me not again to stray;
Leave me not the tempter's prey:
Fix my heart on things above;
Make me happy in thy love.

3 Hear and save me, gracious Lord!
For my trust is in thy word;
Wash me from the stain of sin,
That thy peace may rule within:
May I know myself thy child,
Ransomed, pardoned, reconciled.

There the incarnate Deity
Numbered with transgressors see;
There his Father's absence mourns,
Nailed, and bruised, and crowned with thorns.

3 Cast thy guilty soul on him,
Find him mighty to redeem;
At his feet thy burden lay,
Look thy doubts and cares away;
Now by faith the Son embrace,
Plead his promise, trust his grace.

453

"Chief of sinners."

MC COMB

CHIEF of sinners though I be,
Jesus shed his blood for me;
Died that I might live on high,
Died that I might never die;
As the branch is to the vine,
I am his and he is mine.

2 Oh, the height of Jesus' love!
Higher than the heavens above,
Deeper than the depths of sea,
Lasting as eternity;
Love that found me,—wondrous thought!—
Found me when I sought him not!

3 Chief of sinners though I be,
Christ is all in all to me;
All my wants to him are known,
All my sorrows are his own;
Safe with him from earthly strife,
He sustains my hidden life.

A. M. TOPLADY.

SURELY Christ thy griefs hath borne,
Weeping soul, no longer mourn;
View him bleeding on the tree,
Pouring out his life for thee:

Weeping soul, lament no more.

2 Weary sinner, keep thine eyes
On the atoning sacrifice:

Hast thou not bid me seek thy face?
Hast thou not said—"Return?"

With deep and conscious guilt oppressed;
Christ and his cross my only plea:

Can for a single sin atone;
To Calvary alone I flee:
O God, be merciful to me!

Fightings within, and fears without,

Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because thy promise I believe,

 Even night is only darker day;
 Oh! I am blind,
 Dear Saviour, I am blind!

 My heart would turn to thy dear voice,
 The voice thy sheep alone will hear;
 Oh! I am deaf,

Oh, shame, thrice shame upon us!
To keep him standing there.

2 O Jesus, thou art knocking:
And lo! that hand is scarred,
And thorns thy brow encircle,
And tears thy face have marred:
Oh, love that passeth knowledge,
So patiently to wait!
Oh, sin that hath no equal,
So fast to bar the gate!

3 O Jesus, thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,—
"I died for you, my children,
And will ye treat me so?"
O Lord, with shame and sorrow
We open now the door:
Dear Saviour, enter, enter,
And leave us nevermore!

"Give us pardon."

RAY PALMER.

We stand in deep repentance,
Before thy throne of love;
O God of grace, forgive us;
The stain of guilt remove;
Behold us while with weeping
We lift our eyes to thee;
And all our sins subduing,
Our Father, set us free!

2 Oh, shouldst thou from us fallen
Withhold thy grace to guide,
For ever we should wander,
From thee, and peace, aside;
But thou to spirits contrite
Dost light and life impart,
That man may learn to serve thee
With thankful, joyous heart.

3 Our souls—on thee we cast them,
Our only refuge thou!
Thy cheering words revive us,
When pressed with grief we bow:
Thou bearest the trusting spirit
Upon thy loving breast,
And givest all thy ransomed
A sweet, unending rest.

And can my soul from thee de - part, On whom a - lone my hopes de - pend!

466"To whom shall we go?"* A. STEELE.

Thou only Sovereign of my heart,
My Refuge, my almighty Friend—
And can my soul from thee depart,
On whom alone my hopes depend!

2 Whither, ah! whither shall I go,
A wretched wanderer from my Lord?
Can this dark world of sin and woe
One glimpse of happiness afford?

3 Eternal life thy words impart;
On these my fainting spirit lives;
Here sweeter comforts cheer my heart,
Than all the round of nature gives.

4 Thy name my inmost powers adore;
Thou art my life, my joy, my care;
Depart from thee—'tis death, 'tis more;
'Tis endless ruin, deep despair!

5 Low at thy feet my soul would lie;
Here safety dwells, and peace divine;
Still let me live beneath thine eye,
For life, eternal life, is thine.

467"Thou hast died."* C. WESLEY.

Jesus, the sinner's Friend, to thee
Lost and undone, for aid I flee;
Weary of earth, myself, and sin,
Open thine arms and take me in.

2 Pity and save my ruined soul;
'Tis thou alone canst make me whole;
Dark, till in me thine image shine,
And lost I am, till thou art mine.

3 At last I own it cannot be
That I should fit myself for thee:
Here, then, to thee I all resign;
Thine is the work, and only thine.

4 What can I say thy grace to move?
Lord, I am sin,—but thou art love:
I give up every plea beside,
Lord, I am lost,—but thou hast died!

468Psalms 51.* L. WATTS.

Show pity, Lord! O Lord! forgive;
Let a repenting rebel live;
Are not thy mercies large and free?
May not a sinner trust in thee?

2 Oh, wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean;
Here on my heart the burden lies,
And past offences pain mine eyes.

3 My lips with shame my sins confess,
Against thy law, against thy grace:
Lord! should thy judgments grow severe,
I am condemned, but thou art clear.

4 Should sudden vengeance seize my breath,
I must pronounce thee just in death;
And, if my soul were sent to hell,
Thy righteous law approves it well.

5 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord!
Whose hope, still hovering round thy word,
Would light on some sweet promise there,
Some sure support against despair.

NO MORE, my God! I boast no more,
Of all the duties I have done;
I quit the hopes I held before,
To trust the merits of thy Son.
2 Now for the love I bear his name,
What was my gain, I count but loss;
My former pride I call my shame,
And nail my glory to his cross.
3 Yes,—and I must, and will esteem
All things but loss for Jesus' sake;
Oh, may my soul be found in him,
And of his righteousness partake.
4 The best obedience of my hands
Dares not appear before thy throne;
But faith can answer thy demands,
By pleading what my Lord has done.

"Look unto me!"

S. MEDLEY.

SEE a poor sinner, dearest Lord,
Whose soul, encouraged by thy word,
At mercy's footstool would remain,
And then would look,—and look again.
2 Ah! bring a wretched wanderer home,
Now to thy footstool let me come,
And tell thee all my grief and pain,
And wait and look,—and look again!
3 Take courage, then, my trembling soul;
One look from Christ will make thee whole;
Trust thou in him, 't is not in vain,
But wait and look,—and look again!
4 Ere long that happy day will come,
When I shall reach my blissful home;
And when to glory I attain,
Oh, then I'll look and look again!

And upwards, to thy mercy-seat,
Presumes to lift his eyes.

2 Let not thy justice frown me hence ;
Oh, stay the vengeful storm ;
Forbid it, that Omnipotence
Should crush a feeble worm.

3 If tears of sorrow could suffice
To pay the debt I owe,
Tears should, from both my weeping eyes,
In ceaseless currents flow.

4 But no such sacrifice I plead
To expiate my guilt ; [shed,—
No tears, but those which thou hast
No blood, but thou hast spilt.

5 Think of thy sorrows, dearest Lord !

Then justice will approve the word,
That bids the sinner live.

2 Forgive thou us, as we forgive
The ills we suffer from our foes ;
Restore us, Lord ! and bid us live ;
Oh ! let us in thine arms repose.

3 Forgive us, for our guilt is great !
Our wretched souls no merit claim ;
For sovereign mercy still we wait,
And ask but in the Saviour's name.

4 Forgive us,—O thou bleeding Lamb !

My thirsty soul doth pine ;
Oh, when shall I behold thy face,
'Thou Majesty divine !

3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul ?
Trust God ; who will employ
His aid for thee, and change these sighs
To thankful hymns of joy.

4 I sigh to think of happier days,
When thou, O Lord ! wast nigh ;
When every heart was tuned to praise,
And none more blest than I.

5 Why restless, why cast down, my soul ?

Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye,
And save the soul condemned to die.

3 Then will I teach the world thy ways ;
Sinners shall learn thy sovereign grace ;
I'll lead them to my Saviour's blood,

By thy sorer griefs to cheer me,
By thy more than mortal pain.
2 Call to mind that unknown anguish,
In thy days of flesh below ;
When thy troubled soul did languish
Under a whole world of woe ;
When thou didst our curse inherit,
Groan beneath our guilty load,
Burdened with a wounded spirit,
Bruiséd by the wrath of God.
3 By thy most severe temptation,
In that dark, satanic hour ;
By thy last mysterious passion,

New tides of hope tumultuous roll—

Seraphic transport wings the sound.
3 Earth has a joy unknown in heaven,
The new-born peace of sin forgiven !
Tears of such pure and deep delight,
Ye angels ! never dimmed your sight.
4 Ye saw of old, on chaos rise
The beauteous pillars of the skies :
Ye know where morn exulting springs,
And evening folds her drooping wings.
5 Bright heralds of the eternal Will,
Abroad his errands ye fulfill ;
Or, throned in floods of beamy day,
Symphonious, in his presence play.
6 But I amid your choirs shall shine,
And all your knowledge will be mine :

A secret chord that mine will bear.

Firmly fixed no more to move;
Then my Saviour was my song,
Then my soul was filled with love;

Sweetly spent in prayer and praise.

2 Little then myself I knew,
Little thought of Satan's power;
Now I feel my sins anew;
Now I feel the stormy hour!
Sin has put my joys to flight;
Sin has turned my day to night.

3 Saviour, shine and cheer my soul,

Let me live alone to thee.

Help me, Lord, again to flee
To the light that breaks from thee.

Fixing thought in narrow bound

- OH, for a heart to praise my God,
A heart from sin set free;
A heart that always feels thy blood
So freely shed for me!

My dear Redeemer's throne;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone!
- 3 Oh, for a lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean!
Which neither life nor death can part
From him that dwells within.
- 4 A heart in every thought renewed,
And filled with love divine;
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good;
An image, Lord! of thine.
- 5 Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart;
Come quickly from above;
Write thy new name upon my heart,—

Assist me to proclaim,
To spread, through all the earth abroad,
The honors of thy name.
- 3 Jesus—the name that calms my fears,
That bids my sorrows cease;
'Tis music to my ravished ears;
'Tis life, and health, and peace.
- 4 He breaks the power of canceled sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean;
His blood availed for me.

Oh, not to fill the mouth of fame

My longing soul is stirred:

Oh, give me a diviner name!

Call me thy servant, Lord!

2 No longer would my soul be known
As uncontrolled and free;

Oh, not mine own, oh, not mine own!
Lord, I belong to thee!

3 Thy servant,—me thy servant choose;
Naught of thy claim abate!
The glorious name I would not lose,
Nor change the sweet estate.

4 In life, in death, on earth, in heaven,
This is the name for me!
The same sweet style and title given
Through all eternity.

Oh, for that tenderness of heart,

That bows before the Lord;

That owns how just and good thou art,
And trembles at thy word.

Which from repentance flow;
That sense of guilt which, trembling, fears
The long-suspended blow!

3 Saviour! to me, in pity give,
For sin, the deep distress;
The pledge thou wilt, at last, receive,

The closer walk.

* W. COWPER.

Oh, for a closer walk with God,
A calm and heavenly frame,—
A light to shine upon the road
That leads me to the Lamb!

2 Where is the blessedness I knew
When first I saw the Lord?
Where is the soul-refreshing view
Of Jesus and his word?

3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

4 Return, O holy Dove, return,
Sweet messenger of rest!
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

5 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

6 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

2 How oft my mournful thoughts complain,
And melt in flowing tears!
My weak resistance, ah, how vain!
How strong my foes and fears!

3 O gracious God! in whom I live,
My feeble efforts aid;
Help me to watch, and pray, and strive,
Though trembling and afraid.

4 Increase my faith, increase my hope,
When foes and fears prevail;
And bear my fainting spirit up,
Or soon my strength will fail.

5 Oh, keep me in thy heavenly way,
And bid the tempter flee!
And let me never, never stray
From happiness and thee.

495

"Search me, O God."

G. F. MORRIS.

SEARCHER of hearts! from mine erase
All thoughts that should not be,
And in its deep recesses trace
My gratitude to thee!

2 Hearer of prayer! oh, guide aright
Each word and deed of mine;
Life's battle teach me how to fight,
And be the victory thine.

3 Father, and Son, and Holy Ghost!
Thou glorious Three in One!
Thou knowest best what I need most,
And let thy will be done.

494

"What hourly dangers!" A. STEELE.

ALAS! what hourly dangers rise!
What snares beset my way!
To heaven, oh, let me lift mine eyes,
And hourly watch and pray.

496

"Where is the blessedness?" J. NEWTON.

SWEET was the time when first I felt
The Saviour's pardoning blood
Applied to cleanse my soul from guilt,
And bring me home to God.

- 2 Soon as the morn the light revealed,
His praises tuned my tongue;
And, when the evening shade prevailed,
His love was all my song.
- 3 In prayer, my soul drew near the Lord,
And saw his glory shine;
And when I read his holy word,
I called each promise mine.
- 4 Now, when the evening shade prevails,
My soul in darkness mourns;
And when the morn the light reveals,
No light to me returns
- 5 Rise, Saviour! help me to prevail,
And make my soul thy care;

I know thy mercy cannot fail,
Let me that mercy share.

"Nearer to thee." B. CLEVELAND.

Oh, could I find, from day to day,
A nearness to my God,
Then would my hours glide sweet away
While leaning on his word.

- 2 Lord, I desire with thee to live
Anew from day to day,
In joys the world can never give,
Nor ever take away.
- 3 Blest Jesus, come and rule my heart,
And make me wholly thine,
That I may never more depart,
Nor grieve thy love divine.
- 4 Thus, till my last, expiring breath,
Thy goodness I'll adore;
And when my frame dissolves in death,
My soul shall love thee more.

499 "Lovest thou Me." J. NEWTON.

'Tis a point I long to know,
 Oft it causes anxious thought;
 Do I love the Lord, or no?
 Am I his, or am I not?

2 Could my heart so hard remain,
 Prayer a task and burden prove,
 Every trifle give me pain,
 If I knew a Saviour's love?

3 Yet I mourn my stubborn will,
 Find my sin a grief and thrall;
 Should I grieve for what I feel,
 If I did not love at all?

4 Could I joy with saints to meet,
 Choose the ways I once abhorred,
 Find at times the promise sweet,
 If I did not love the Lord?

5 Lord, decide the doubtful case,
 Thou who art thy people's Sun;
 Shine upon thy work of grace,
 If it be indeed begun.

DEPTH of mercy!—can there be
 Mercy still reserved for me?
 Can my God his wrath forbear?
 Me, the chief of sinners, spare?

2 I have long withstood his grace;
 Long provoked him to his face;
 Would not hearken to his calls;
 Grieved him by a thousand falls.

3 Kindled his relentings are;
 Me he now delights to spare;
 Cries, How shall I give thee up?—
 Lets the lifted thunder drop.

4 There for me the Saviour stands;
 Shows his wounds and spreads his hands!
 God is love! I know, I feel:
 Jesus weeps, and loves me still.

The Ancient Litany.

R. GRANT.

SAVIOUR, when, in dust, to thee
Low we bend the adoring knee;
When, repentant, to the skies
Scarce we lift our weeping eyes;
Oh, by all thy pains and woe
Suffered once for man below,
Bending from thy throne on high,
Hear our solemn Litany!

2 By thy helpless infant years,
By thy life of want and tears,
By thy days of sore distress
In the savage wilderness;
By the dread mysterious hour
Of the insulting tempter's power,—
Turn, oh, turn a favoring eye;
Hear our solemn Litany!

3 By thine hour of dire despair;
By thine agony of prayer;
By the cross, the nail, the thorn,
Piercing spear, and torturing scorn;
By the gloom that veiled the skies
O'er the dreadful sacrifice;—
Listen to our humble cry,
Hear our solemn Litany!

4 By thy deep expiring groan;
By the sad sepulchral stone;
By the vault whose dark abode
Held in vain the rising God;—

Oh, from earth to heaven restored,
Mighty re-ascended Lord!
Listen, listen to the cry
Of our solemn Litany!

A hard heart.

H. BONAR.

OH, this soul, how dark and blind!
Oh, this foolish, earthly mind!
Oh, this froward, selfish will,
Which refuses to be still!
Oh, these ever-roaming eyes,
Upward that refuse to rise!
Oh, these wayward feet of mine,
Found in every path but thine!

2 Oh, this stubborn, prayerless knee,
Hands so seldom clasped to thee,
Longings of the soul, that go
Like the wild wind, to and fro!
To and fro, without an aim,
Turning idly whence they came,
Bringing in no joy, no bliss,
Only adding weariness!

3 Giver of the heavenly peace!
Bid, oh, bid these tumults cease;
Minister thy holy balm;
Fill me with thy Spirit's calm:
Thou, the Life, the Truth, the Way,
Leave me not in sin to stay;
Bearer of the sinner's guilt,
Lead me, lead me, as thou wilt.

C. WESLEY.

Jesus! lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly
While the billows near me roll,
While the tempest still is high;
Hide me, O my Saviour! hide,
Till the storm of life is past;
Safe into the haven guide;
Oh, receive my soul at last!
2 Other refuge have I none;
Hangs my helpless soul on thee;
Leave, ah! leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me.
All my trust on thee is stayed;
All my help from thee I bring;
Cover my defenceless head
With the shadow of thy wing.

3 Thou, O Christ! art all I want;
More than all in thee I find;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.
Just and holy is thy name,
I am all unrighteousness;
Vile and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.
4 Plenteous grace with thee is found,—
Grace to pardon all my sin;
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and keep me pure within;
Thou of life the fountain art,
Freely let me take of thee;
Spring thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

It tells me where my soul may flee:

How sweet the bidding, "Come to me!"

Earth is no resting-place for thee;

Why should I cleave to things below,

2 Careful without care I am,
 Nor feel my happy toil!
 Kept in peace by Jesus' name,
 Supported by his smile.
 Joyful thus my faith to show,
 I find his service my reward;
 Every work I do below,
 I do it to the Lord.

3 To the desert or the cell,
 Let others blindly fly,
 In this evil world I dwell,
 Unhurt, unspotted, I.
 Here I find a house of prayer,
 To which I inwardly retire;
 Walking unconcerned in care,
 And unconsumed in fire.

The crown coming.

H. F. LYTE.

SOUL, then know thy full salvation,
Rise o'er sin, and fear, and care;
Joy, to find in every station
Something still to do or bear.

2 Think what Spirit dwells within thee;
Think what Father's smiles are thine;
Think that Jesus died to win thee!
Child of heaven, canst thou repine?

3 Haste thee on from grace to glory,
Armed by faith and winged by prayer!
Heaven's eternal day's before thee,
God's own hand shall guide thee there:

4 Soon shall close thy earthly mission,
Soon shall pass thy pilgrim days,
Hope shall change to glad fruition,
Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

CALL Jehovah thy salvation,
Rest beneath the Almighty's shade;
In his secret habitation
Dwell, and never be dismayed:
There no tumult can alarm thee,
Thou shalt dread no hidden snare;
Guile nor violence can harm thee,

2 From the sword, at noon-day wasting,
From the noisome pestilence,
In the depth of midnight, blasting,
God shall be thy sure defence:

Fear not thou the deadly quiver,
When a thousand feel the blow;
Mercy shall thy soul deliver,
Though ten thousand be laid low.

3 Since, with pure and firm affection,
Thou on God hast set thy love,
With the wings of his protection,
He will shield thee from above;
Thou shalt call on him in trouble,
He will hearken, he will save;
Here, for grief reward thee double,
Crown with life beyond the grave.

STAND up, my soul, shake off thy fears,
And gird the gospel armor on;
March to the gates of endless joy,
Where Jesus, thy great Captain's gone.

2 Hell and thy sins resist thy course,
But hell and sin are vanquished foes;
Thy Saviour nailed them to the cross,
And sung the triumph when he rose.

3 Then let my soul march boldly on,—
Press forward to the heavenly gate;
There peace and joy eternal reign,
And glittering robes for conquerors wait.

4 There shall I wear a starry crown,
And triumph in almighty grace,
While all the armies of the skies
Join in my glorious Leader's praise.

Isaiah 40 : 28-31.

I. WATTS.

AWAKE, our souls! away, our fears!
Let every trembling thought be gone;
Awake, and run the heavenly race,
And put a cheerful courage on!

2 True, 'tis a strait and thorny road,
And mortal spirits tire and faint;
But they forget the mighty God,
Who feeds the strength of every saint—

3 The mighty God, whose matchless power
Is ever new and ever young,

And firm endures, while endless years
Their everlasting circles run.

4 From thee, the overflowing spring,
Our souls shall drink a fresh supply;
While such as trust their native strength
Shall melt away, and droop, and die.

5 Swift as an eagle cuts the air,
We'll mount aloft to thine abode;
On wings of love our souls shall fly,
Nor tire amid the heavenly road!

"My springs in thee." J. EDMESTON.

FOUNTAIN of grace, rich, full, and free,
What need I, that is not in thee?
Full pardon, strength to meet the day,
And peace which none can take away.

2 Doth sickness fill my heart with fear,
'Tis sweet to know that thou art near;
Am I with dread of justice tried,
'Tis sweet to know that Christ hath died.

3 In life, thy promises of aid
Forbid my heart to be afraid;
In death, peace gently vails the eyes,—
Christ rose, and I shall surely rise.

527

Jesus is forever mine. A. STEELE.

WHEN sins and fears, prevailing, rise,
And fainting hope almost expires,
To thee, O Lord, I lift my eyes;
To thee I breathe my soul's desires.

2 Art thou not mine, my living Lord?
And can my hope, my comfort die?
'Tis fixed on thine almighty word—
That word which built the earth and sky.

3 If my immortal Saviour lives,
Then my immortal life is sure;
His word a firm foundation gives;
Here may I build and rest secure.

4 Here, O my soul, thy trust repose;
If Jesus is for ever mine,
Not death itself—that last of foes—
Shall break a union so divine.

528

"Complete in Him." G. W. HINSDALE.

MY soul complete in Jesus stands!
It fears no more the law's demands;
The smile of God is sweet within,
Where all before was guilt and sin.

2 My soul at rest in Jesus lives;
Accepts the peace his pardon gives;
Receives the grace his death secured,
And pleads the anguish he endured.

3 My soul its every foe defies,
And cries—"Tis God that justifies!
Who charges God's elect with sin?
Shall Christ, who died their peace to win?

4 A song of praise my soul shall sing,
To our eternal, glorious King!
Shall worship humbly at his feet,
In whom alone it stands complete.

529

2 Cor. 12: 9.

I. WATTS.

LET me but hear my Saviour say,
"Strength shall be equal to thy day;"
Then I rejoice in deep distress,
Leaning on all-sufficient grace.

2 I can do all things—or can bear
All suffering, if my Lord be there;
Sweet pleasures mingle with the pains,
While he my sinking head sustains.

3 I glory in infirmity,
That Christ's own power may rest on me;
When I am weak, then am I strong;
Grace is my shield, and Christ my song.

"Come home."

J. SWAIN.

BRETHREN, while we sojourn here,
Fight we must, but should not fear;
Foes we have, but we've a Friend,
One that loves us to the end:
Forward, then, with courage go;
Long we shall not dwell below;
Soon the joyful news will come,
"Child, your Father calls—come home!"

2 In the way a thousand snares
Lie, to take us unawares;
Satan, with malicious art,
Watches each unguarded part:

But, from Satan's malice free,
Saints shall soon victorious be;
Soon the joyful news will come,
"Child, your Father calls—come home!"

3 But of all the foes we meet,
None so oft mislead our feet,
None betray us into sin,
Like the foes that dwell within;
Yet let nothing spoil our peace,
Christ shall also conquer these;
Soon the joyful news will come,
"Child, your Father calls—come home!"

EVERLASTING arms of love
Are beneath, around, above;
He who left his throne of light,
And unnumbered angels bright;—

2 He who on the accursed tree
Gave his precious life for me;
He it is that bears me on,
His the arm I lean upon.

3 All things hasten to decay,
Earth and sea will pass away;
Soon will yonder circling sun
Cease his blazing course to run.

4 Scenes will vary, friends grow strange,
But the Changeless cannot change:
Gladly will I journey on,
With his arm to lean upon.

PLEYEL'S HYMN. 7a.

I. PLEYEL.

532

Isaiah 35: 8—10.

J. CENNICK.

CHILDREN of the heavenly King,
As ye journey, sweetly sing;
Sing your Saviour's worthy praise,
Glorious in his works and ways.

2 Ye are traveling home to God
In the way the fathers trod;
They are happy now, and ye
Soon their happiness shall see.

3 Shout, ye little flock, and blest!
You on Jesus' throne shall rest;
There your seat is now prepared;
There your kingdom and reward.

4 Fear not, brethren; joyful stand
On the borders of your land;
Jesus Christ, your Father's Son,
Bids you undismayed go on.

5 Lord, submissive make us go,
Gladly leaving all below;
Only thou our Leader be,
And we still will follow thee.

533

Redeeming Love.

M. MADAN.

Now begin the heavenly theme,
Sing aloud in Jesus' name;
Ye who Jesus' kindness prove,
Triumph in redeeming love.

2 Ye who see the Father's grace
Beaming in the Saviour's face,
As to Canaan on ye move,
Praise and bless redeeming love.

3 Mourning souls, dry up your tears;
Banish all your guilty fears;
See your guilt and curse remove,
Canceled by redeeming love.

4 Welcome, all by sin opprest,
Welcome to his sacred rest;
Nothing brought him from above,
Nothing but redeeming love.

5 Hither, then, your music bring,
Strike aloud each joyful string;
Mortals, join the host above,
Join to praise redeeming love.

GLORY to God! whose witness-train,
Those heroes bold in faith,
Could smile on poverty and pain,
And triumph ev'n in death.

2 Oh, may that faith our hearts sustain,
Wherein they fearless stood,
When, in the power of cruel men,
They poured their willing blood.

3 God whom we serve, our God, can save,
Can damp the scorching flame,
Can build an ark, can smoothe the wave,
For such as love his name.

4 Lord! if thine arm support us still
With its eternal strength,
We shall o'ercome the mightiest ill,
And conquerors prove at length.

RISE, O my soul, pursue the path
By ancient worthies trod;
Aspiring, view those holy men
Who lived and walked with God.

2 Though dead, they speak in reason's ear,
And in example live;
Their faith, and hope, and mighty deeds
Still fresh instruction give.

3 'Twas thro' the Lamb's most precious blood
They conquered every foe;
And to his power and matchless grace
Their crowns of life they owe.

4 Lord, may I ever keep in view
The patterns thou hast given,
And ne'er forsake the blessed road
That led them safe to heaven.

536 "What time I am afraid." T. HASTINGS.

In time of fear, when trouble's near,
I look to thine abode;
Though helpers fail, and foes prevail,
I'll put my trust in God.
2 And what is life, 'mid toil and strife?
What terror has the grave?
Thine arm of power, in peril's hour,
The trembling soul will save.
3 In darkest skies, though storms arise,
I will not be dismayed:
O God of light, and boundless might,
My soul on thee is stayed!

537 "I shall be with Him." R. BAXTER.

Lord, it belongs not to my care
Whether I die or live;
To love and serve thee is my share,
And this thy grace must give.
2 If life be long, I will be glad
That I may long obey;
If short, yet why should I be sad
To soar to endless day?
3 Christ leads me through no darker rooms
Than he went through before;
No one into his kingdom comes,
But through his opened door.
4 Come, Lord, when grace has made me
Thy blessed face to see; [meet,
For if thy work on earth be sweet,
What will thy glory be?

5 Then shall I end my sad complaints,
And weary, sinful days,
And join with all triumphant saints
Who sing Jehovah's praise.

6 My knowledge of that life is small;
The eye of faith is dim;
But 'tis enough that Christ knows all,
And I shall be with him.

538 "If God be for us." F. W. FABER.

God's glory is a wondrous thing,
Most strange in all its ways,
And of all things on earth, least like
What men agree to praise.
2 Oh, blest is he to whom is given
The instinct that can tell
That God is on the field, when he
Is most invisible!
3 And blest is he who can divine
Where real right doth lie,
And dares to take the side that seems
Wrong to man's blindfold eye!
4 Oh, learn to scorn the praise of men!
Oh, learn to lose with God!
For Jesus won the world through shame,
And beckons thee his road.
5 And right is right, since God is God;
And right the day must win;
To doubt would be disloyalty,
To falter would be sin!

AWAKE, my soul, stretch every nerve,
And press with vigor on;
A heavenly race demands thy zeal,
And an immortal crown.
2 A cloud of witnesses around
Hold thee in full survey;
Forget the steps already trod,
And onward urge thy way.
3 'Tis God's all-animating voice,
That calls thee from on high,
'Tis his own hand presents the prize
To thine aspiring eye.

The Warfare.

I. WATTS.

AM I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?
2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease?
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?
3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?

4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord!
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.
5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die;
They view the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.

And all thine armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

His name is all my trust;
Nor will he put my soul to shame,
Nor let my hope be lost.
3 Firm as his throne his promise stands,
And he can well secure
What I've committed to his hands,
Till the decisive hour.
4 Then will he own my worthless name

No cross, no crown. T. SHEPHERD, alt.

Must Jesus bear the cross alone,
And all the world go free?
No, there's a cross for every one,
And there's a cross for me.

2 How happy are the saints above,
Who once went sorrowing here!
But now they taste unmingled love,
And joy without a tear.

3 The consecrated cross I'll bear,
Till death shall set me free;
And then go home my crown to wear,
For there's a crown for me.

4 Upon the crystal pavement, down
At Jesus' pierced feet,
Joyful, I'll cast my golden crown,
And his dear name repeat.

5 And palm shall wave, and harp shall ring,
Beneath heaven's arches high;
The Lord that lives, the ransomed sing,
That lives no more to die.

6 Oh, precious cross! oh, glorious crown!
Oh, resurrection day!
Ye angels, from the stars come down,
And bear my soul away.

Our Salvation near. A. M. TOPLADY.

Your harps, ye trembling saints,
Down from the willows take:
Loud to the praise of love divine
Bid every string awake.

2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home;
And nearer to our house above
We every moment come.

3 His grace will to the end
Stronger and brighter shine;
Nor present things, nor things to come,
Shall quench the spark divine.

4 When we in darkness walk,
Nor feel the heavenly flame,
Then is the time to trust our God,
And rest upon his name.

5 Soon shall our doubts and fears
Subside at his control;
His loving-kindness shall break through
The midnight of the soul.

6 Blest is the man, O God,
Who stays himself on thee;
Who waits for thy salvation, Lord,
Shall thy salvation see.

554

"Be of good courage." J. WESLEY, tr.

GIVE to the winds thy fears;
Hope, and be undismayed;
God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears;
God shall lift up thy head.

2 Through waves, and clouds, and storms,
He gently clears thy way;
Wait thou his time; so shall this night
Soon end in joyous day.

3 What though thou rulest not!
Yet heaven, and earth, and hell
Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne,
And ruleth all things well.

4 Far, far above thy thought
His counsel shall appear,
When fully he the work has wrought,
That caused thy needless fear.

Matthew 6 : 25-34.

W. COWPER.

SOMETIMES a light surprises
The Christian while he sings;
It is the Lord who rises
With healing in his wings:
When comforts are declining,
He grants the soul again
A season of clear shining,
To cheer it after rain.

- 2 In holy contemplation,
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new:
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
Let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may.
- 3 It can bring with it nothing,
But he will bring us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing,
Will clothe his people too:
Beneath the spreading heavens,
No creature but is fed;
And he who feeds the ravens,
Will give his children bread.
- 4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither,
Their wonted fruit should bear,
Though all the fields should wither,
Nor flocks, nor herds be there;

Yet God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice,
For while in him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice.

556

Perfect peace.

A. E. WARING.

In heavenly love abiding,
No change my heart shall fear,
And safe is such confiding,
For nothing changes here:
The storm may roar without me,
My heart may low be laid,
But God is round about me,
And can I be dismayed?

- 2 Wherever he may guide me,
No want shall turn me back;
My Shepherd is beside me,
And nothing can I lack:
His wisdom ever waketh,
His sight is never dim:
He knows the way he taketh,
And I will walk with him.
- 3 Green pastures are before me,
Which yet I have not seen;
Bright skies will soon be o'er me,
Where darkest clouds have been:
My hope I cannot measure;
My path to life is free;
My Saviour has my treasure,
And he will walk with me.

Lift high his royal banner,

It must not suffer loss:

From victory unto victory

His army shall he lead,

Till every foe is vanquished,

And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!

The trumpet call obey;

Forth to the mighty conflict,

In this his glorious day:

"Ye that are men, now serve him,"

Against unnumbered foes;

Let courage rise with danger,

And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!

Stand in his strength alone;

The arm of flesh will fail you—

Ye dare not trust your own:

Put on the gospel armor,

And, watching unto prayer,

Where duty calls, or danger,

Be never wanting there.

4 Stand up!—stand up for Jesus!

The strife will not be long;

This day, the noise of battle,

The next, the victor's song:

To him that overcometh,

A crown of life shall be;

He with the King of glory

Shall reign eternally!

COME on, my partners in distress,
My comrades through the wilderness,
Who still your bodies feel:
Awhile forget your griefs and fears,
And look beyond this vale of tears,
To that celestial hill.

2 Beyond the bounds of time and space,
Look forward to that heavenly place,
The saints' secure abode;
On faith's strong eagle-pinions rise,
And force your passage to the skies,
And scale the mount of God.

3 Who suffer with our Master here,
We shall before his face appear,
And by his side sit down;
To patient faith the prize is sure;
And all that to the end endure
The cross, shall wear the crown.

"Complete in him."

S. MEDLEY.

COME join, ye saints, with heart and voice,
Alone in Jesus to rejoice,
And worship at his feet;
Come, take his praises on your tongues,
And raise to him your thankful songs,
"In him ye are complete!"

2 In him, who all our praise excels,
The fullness of the Godhead dwells,
And all perfections meet:
The head of all celestial powers,
Divinely theirs, divinely ours;—
"In him ye are complete!"

3 Still onward urge your heavenly way,
Dependent on him day by day,
His presence still entreat;
His precious name for ever bless,
Your glory, strength, and righteousness,—
"In him ye are complete!"

Tinged are the distant skies with glory,
A beacon-light hung out for thee;
Arise! arise! the light breaks o'er thee;
Thy name is graven on the hrone;
Thy home is in the world of glory,
Where thy Redeemer reigns alone.

2 Tossed on time's rude, relentless surges,

Calmly composed, and dauntless stand,
For lo! beyond those scenes emerges
The height that bounds the promised land:

Behold! behold! the land is nearing,
Where the wild sea-storm's rage is o'er;
Hark! how the heavenly hosts are cheering,

See in what throngs they range the shore!

3 Cheer up! cheer up! the day breaks o'er thee,

Bright as the summer's noon-tide ray,
The star-gemmed crowns and realms of
Invite thy happy soul away; [glory
Away! away! leave all for glory,
Thy name is graven on the throne;
Thy home is in that world of glory,
Where thy Redeemer reigns alone.

578 S. M. Psalms 23. A. STRELE.

WHILE my Redeemer's near,
My Shepherd and my guide,
I bid farewell to anxious fear:
My wants are all supplied.

2 To ever fragrant meads,
Where rich abundance grows,
His gracious hand indulgent leads,
And guards my sweet repose.

3 Dear Shepherd, if I stray,
My wandering feet restore;
To thy fair pastures guide my way,
And let me rove no more.

4 Unworthy, as I am,
Of thy protecting care,
Jesus, I plead thy gracious name,
For all my hopes are there.

579 S. M. The Warfare. C. WESLEY.

SOLDIERS of Christ, arise,
And put your armor on,
Strong is the strength which God supplies
Through his eternal Son.

2 Strong in the Lord of hosts,
And in his mighty power,
Who in the strength of Jesus trusts
Is more than conqueror.

3 Stand then in his great might,
With all his strength endued,
And take, to arm you for the fight,
The panoply of God.

4 Till, having all things done,
And all your conflicts past,
You may overcome, through Christ alone,
And stand entire at last.

5 From strength to strength go on;
Wrestle, and fight, and pray;
Tread all the powers of darkness down,
And win the well-fought day.

6 Still let the Spirit cry
In all his soldiers, come!
Till Christ the Lord descend from high,
And take the conquerors home.

580 75, 65, D. Psalms 77. J. MONTGOMERY.

IN time of tribulation,
Hear, Lord! my feeble cries;
With humble supplication
To thee my spirit flies:

My heart with grief is breaking;
Scarce can my voice complain:
Mine eyes, with tears kept waking,
Still watch and weep in vain.

2 Thee, with the tribes assembled,
O God, the billows saw;
They saw thee and they trembled,
Turned, and stood still with awe;
The clouds shot hail,—they lightened,—
The earth reeled to and fro;
The fiery pillar brightened
The gulf of gloom below.

3 Thy way is in great waters:
Thy footsteps are not known:
Let Adam's sons and daughters
Confide in thee alone:
Through the wild sea thou leddest
Thy chosen flock of yore:
Still on the waves thou treadest,
And thy redeemed pass o'er.

581 66, 58. Growth by Conflict.
 PURER yet and purer
 I would be in mind,
 Dearer yet and dearer
 Every duty find;
 Hoping still and trusting
 God without a fear,
 Patiently believing
 He will make all clear.

2 Calmer yet and calmer
 Trial bear and pain,
 Surer yet and surer
 Peace at last to gain;
 Suffering still and doing,
 To his will resigned,
 And to God subduing
 Heart and will and mind.

3 Higher yet and higher
 Out of clouds and night,
 Nearer yet and nearer
 Rising to the light—
 Light serene and holy,
 Where my soul may rest,
 Purified and lowly,
 Sanctified and blest.

4 Quicker yet and quicker
 Ever onward press,
 Firmer yet and firmer
 Step as I progress:
 Oft these earnest longings
 Swell within my breast,
 Yet their inner meaning
 Ne'er can be expressed.

582 H. M. 1 Tim. 6: 12. J. MONTGOMERY.
 FIGHT the good fight! lay hold
 Upon eternal life;
 Keep but thy shield,—be bold!
 Stand through the hottest strife:
 With thy great Captain on the field,
 Thou canst not fail, unless thou yield.

2 No force of earth or hell,
 Though fiends with men unite,
 Truth's champion can compel,
 However pressed, to flight:
 He stands unmoved upon the field;
 He cannot fall, unless he yield.

3 Great words are these, and strong;
 Yet, Lord, I look to thee;

ANON. To whom alone belong
 Valor and victory:
 With thee, my Captain, in the field,
 I must prevail—I cannot yield!

583 C. M. D. "Wake thy heart!" J. BOWDLER.
 CHILDREN of God, who, faint and slow,
 Your pilgrim-path pursue,
 In strength and weakness, joy and woe,
 To God's high calling true!—
 Why move ye thus, with lingering tread,
 A doubting, mournful band?
 Why faintly hangs the drooping head?
 Why fails the feeble hand?

2 Oh, weak to know a Saviour's power,
 To feel a Father's care!
 A moment's toil, a passing shower,
 Is all the grief ye share.
 The orb of light, though clouds awhile
 May hide his noon-tide ray,
 Shall soon in lovelier beauty smile
 To gild the closing day,—

3 And, bursting through the dusky shroud
 That dared his power invest,
 Ride throned in light o'er every cloud,
 Triumphant to his rest.
 Then, Christian, dry the falling tear,
 The faithless doubt remove;
 Redeemed at last from guilt and fear,
 Oh! wake thy heart to love.

584 72. Deut. 33: 25. W. F. LLOYD.
 WAIT, my soul, upon the Lord,
 To his gracious promise flee,
 Laying hold upon his word,
 "As thy days thy strength shall be."

2 If the sorrows of thy case
 Seem peculiar still to thee,
 God has promised needful grace—
 "As thy days thy strength shall be."

3 Days of trial, days of grief,
 In succession thou mayst see;
 This is still thy sweet relief—
 "As thy days thy strength shall be."

4 Rock of Ages, I'm secure,
 With thy promise full and free;
 Faithful, positive, and sure—
 "As thy days thy strength shall be."

585 "Closer than a brother." J. NEWTON.

- ONE there is, above all others,
Well deserves the name of Friend;
His is love beyond a brother's,
Costly, free, and knows no end.
- 2 Which of all our friends, to save us,
Could or would have shed his blood?
But our Jesus died to have us
Reconciled in him to God.
- 3 When he lived on earth abased,
Friend of sinners was his name;
Now above all glory raised,
He rejoices in the same.
- 4 Oh, for grace our hearts to soften!
Teach us, Lord, at length, to love;
We, alas! forget too often
What a friend we have above.

- JESUS only, when the morning
Beams upon the path I tread;
Jesus only, when the darkness
Gathers round my weary head.

Cold and sullen o'er me roll;
Jesus only, when the trumpet
Rends the tomb and wakes the soul.
- 3 Jesus only, when, adoring,
Saints their crowns before him bring;
Jesus only, I will, joyous,
Through eternal ages sing.

587 None but Jesus. A. E. COUSIN.

- NONE but Christ: his merit hides me,
He was faultless—I am fair;
None but Christ, his wisdom guides me,
He was out-cast—I'm his care.
- 2 None but Christ: his Spirit seals me,
Gives me freedom with control;
None but Christ, his bruising heals me,
And his sorrow soothes my soul.
- 3 None but Christ: his life sustains me,
Strength and song to me he is;
None but Christ, his love constrains me,
He is mine and I am his.

588 "With you always." E. H. NEVIN.

- ALWAYS with us, always with us—
Words of cheer and words of love;
Thus the risen Saviour whispers,
From his dwelling-place above.
- 2 With us when we toil in sadness,
Sowing much and reaping none;
Telling us that in the future
Golden harvests shall be won.
- 3 With us when the storm is sweeping
O'er our pathway dark and drear;
Waking hope within our bosoms,
Stillling every anxious fear.
- 4 With us in the lonely valley,
When we cross the chilling stream—
Lighting up the steps to glory
With salvation's radiant beam.

C. WESLEY.

Jesus, thou source of calm repose,
All fullness dwells in thee divine;
Our strength to quell the proudest foes;
Our light, in deepest gloom to shine;
Thou art our fortress, strength, and tower,
Our trust and portion, evermore.

2 Jesus, our Comforter thou art;
Our rest in toil, our ease in pain;
The balm to heal each broken heart,
In storms our peace, in loss our gain;
Our joy, beneath the worldling's frown;
In shame, our glory and our crown;—

3 In want, our plentiful supply;
In weakness, our almighty power;
In bonds, our perfect liberty;
Our refuge in temptation's hour;
Our comfort when in grief and thrall;
Our life in death; our all in all.

"Just such as I."

J. EDMESTON.

As off with worn and weary feet,
We tread earth's rugged valley o'er,
The thought, how comforting and sweet,
Christ trod this very path before!
Our wants and weaknesses he knows,
From life's first dawning till its close.

1. Always with us, always with us— Words of cheer and words of love; Thus the risen Saviour whispers, From his dwelling-place above.

2 If Satan tempt our hearts to stray,
And whisper evil things within,
So did he, in the desert way,
Assail our Lord with thoughts of sin:
When worn, and in a feeble hour,
The tempter came with all his power.

3 Just such as I, this earth he trod,
With every human ill but sin;
And, though indeed the very God,
As I am now, so he has been:
My God, my Saviour! look on me
With pity, love, and sympathy.

"My Strength, my Tower."

J. WESLEY, tr.

THEE will I love, my Strength, my Tower!
Thee will I love, my Joy, my Crown;
Thee will I love, with all my power,
In all thy works, and thee alone:
Thee will I love, till the pure fire
Fill my whole soul with chaste desire.

2 Thee will I love, my Joy, my Crown!
Thee will I love, my Lord, my God!
Thee will I love, beneath thy frown
Or smile, thy sceptre or thy rod.
What though my heart and flesh decay?
Thee shall I love in endless day.

Yet we rejoice to hear his name;

Thou Fount of life! thou Light of men!

2 Thy truth unchanged hath ever stood;
Thou savest those that on thee call;
To them that seek thee thou art good,
To them that find thee, All in All.

3 We taste thee, O thou Living Bread,
And long to feast upon thee still;
We drink of thee, the Fountain Head,
And thirst our souls from thee to fill!

Glad, when thy gracious smile we see,
Blest, when our faith can hold thee fast.

2 Oh, not my own this wondrous frame,
Its curious work, its living soul;
But his who for my ransom came;
Slain for my sake, he claims the whole.

3 Oh, not my own the grace that keeps
My feet from fierce temptations free;
Oh, not my own the thought that leaps,
Adoring, blessed Lord, to thee.

4 Oh, not my own; I'll soar and sing,

The springs of comfort seem to fail,
And all my hopes decline.

For me, ev'n for my soul, was shed.

3 When from the dust of death I rise
To claim my mansion in the skies—
Ev'n then, this shall be all my plea:
Jesus hath lived, hath died for me.

4 This spotless robe the same appears,
When ruined nature sinks in years;
No age can change its glorious hue,
The robe of Christ is ever new.

5 Oh, let the dead now hear thy voice:
Bid, Lord, thy mourning ones rejoice;
Their beauty this, their glorious dress,
Jesus, the Lord our Righteousness.

RAY PALMRE.

Away from earth my spirit turns,
Away from every transient good;

2 Thou, Saviour, art the living bread;
Thou wilt my every want supply:
By thee sustained, and cheered, and led,
I'll press through dangers to the sky.

3 What though temptations oft distress,
And sin assails and breaks my peace;
Thou wilt uphold, and save, and bless,
And bid the storms of passion cease.

And walk beside thee onward still;

O Love Divine! that stooped to share
Our sharpest pang, our bitterest tear,
On thee we cast each earth-born care,

2 Though long the weary way we tread,
And sorrow crown each lingering year,
No path we shun, no darkness dread,
Our hearts still whispering, thou art near.

3 When drooping pleasure turns to grief,
And trembling faith is changed to fear,
The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf,
Shall softly tell us thou art near.

O Love Divine, for ever dear;
Content to suffer while we know,
Living or dying, thou art near!

Fain would I sound it out so loud,

2 Yes!—thou art precious to my soul,
My transport and my trust;
Jewels, to thee, are gaudy toys,
And gold is sordid dust.

3 All my capacious powers can wish,
In thee doth richly meet;
Not to mine eyes is light so dear,
Nor friendship half so sweet.

The noblest balm of all its wounds,
The cordial of its care.

"He is precious." J. NEWTON.

How SWEET the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear.
2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'Tis manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary, rest.
3 Jesus! my Shepherd, Guardian, Friend,
My Prophet, Priest, and King;
My Lord, my Life, my Way, my End,
Accept the praise I bring.
4 Weak is the effort of my heart,
And cold my warmest thought;
But when I see thee as thou art,
I'll praise thee as I ought.
5 Till then I would thy love proclaim,
With every fleeting breath;
And may the music of thy name,
Refresh my soul in death.

"Jesus only." E. CASWALL, fr.

JESUS, the very thought of thee,
With sweetness fills my breast;
But sweeter far thy face to see
And in thy presence rest.
2 Nor voice can sing, nor heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find
A sweeter sound than thy blest name,
O Saviour of mankind!
3 O Hope of every contrite heart!
O Joy of all the meek!
To those who fall, how kind thou art!
How good to those who seek!
4 But what to those who find? Ah! this,
Nor tongue nor pen can show;
The love of Jesus, what it is,
None but his loved ones know.
5 Jesus, our only joy be thou,
As thou our prize wilt be;
Jesus, be thou our glory now.
And through eternity.

Cant. 1: 7, 8.

THOS. HASTINGS.

- Oh, tell me, thou life and delight of my soul,
Where the flock of thy pasture are feed-
ing;
I seek thy protection, I need thy control,
I would go where my Shepherd is leading.
- 2 Oh, tell me the place where thy flock are at rest,
Where the noontide will find them re-
posing;
The tempest now rages, my soul is distressed,
And the pathway of peace I am losing.
- 3 And why should I stray with the flocks
of thy foes,
In the desert where now they are rov-
ing,
- Where hunger and thirst, where affliction
and woes,
And temptations their ruin are proving?
- 4 Ah, when shall my woes and my wander-
ings cease,
And the follies that fill me with weeping?
Thou Shepherd of Israel, restore me that peace,
Thou dost give to the flock thou art keeping.
- 5 A voice from the Shepherd now bids me return
By the way where the footprints are lying;
No longer to wander, no longer to mourn:
And homeward my spirit is flying.

And vie with Gabriel while he sings
In notes almost divine.

I'd sing his glorious righteousness,
In which all-perfect heavenly dress
My soul shall ever shine.

3 I'd sing the characters he bears,
And all the forms of love he wears,
Exalted on his throne:
In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
I would to everlasting days
Make all his glories known.

4 Well—the delightful day will come,

BLESSED Saviour! thee I love,
All my other joys above;
All my hopes in thee abide,
Thou my hope, and naught beside:
Ever let my glory be,
Only, only, only thee.

2 Once again beside the cross,
All my gain I count but loss;
Earthly pleasures fade away,—
Clouds they are that hide my day:
Hence, vain shadows! let me see
Jesus, crucified for me.

3 Blessed Saviour, thine am I,

Let my heart be all thine own,
Let me live to thee alone.

2 Other lords have long held sway;
Now thy name alone to bear,
Thy dear voice alone obey,
Is my daily, hourly prayer.
Whom have I in heaven but thee?
Nothing else my joy can be.

3 Jesus, Master, I am thine;
Keep me faithful, keep me near;
Let thy presence in me shine

3 Still looking to Jesus, oh, may I be found,
When Jordan's dark waters encompass me

They bear me away in his presence to be:
I see him still nearer whom always I see.

Guardian angels, ever nigh,
Lead and draw my soul on high ;
Constant to my latest end,
Thou my footsteps wilt attend.

3 Jesus, with thy presence blest,
Death is life, and labor rest ;
Guide me while I draw my breath,
Guard me through the gate of death ;
And at last, oh, let me stand,
With the sheep at thy right hand.

Though conscience, fiercest of my foes,
Swells with remembered guilt my woes ;
Yet ev'n in nature's utmost ill,
I love thee, Lord ! I love thee still !

2 Though Sinai's curse, in thunder dread,
Peals o'er mine unprotected head,
And memory points, with busy pain,
To grace and mercy given in vain ;
Till nature, shrinking in the strife,
Would fly to hell to 'scape from life ;
Though every thought has power to kill,
I love thee ; Lord ! I love thee still !

3 Oh, by the pangs thyself hast borne,
The ruffian's blow, the tyrant's scorn,
By Sinai's curse, whose dreadful doom
Was buried in thy guiltless tomb ;
By these my pangs, whose healing smart,
Thy grace hath planted in my heart—
I know, I feel thy bounteous will,
Thou lov'st me, Lord ! thou lov'st me still !

Psalms 23.

I. WATTS.

My Shepherd will supply my need,
Jehovah is his name;
In pastures fresh he makes me feed,
Beside the living stream.
He brings my wandering spirit back,
When I forsake his ways;
And leads me, for his mercy's sake,
In paths of truth and grace.

2 When I walk through the shades of
Thy presence is my stay; [death,
A word of thy supporting breath
Drives all my fears away.
Thy hand, in sight of all my foes,
Doth still my table spread;
My cup with blessings overflows,
Thine oil anoints my head.

3 The sure provisions of my God
Attend me all my days;
Oh, may thy house be mine abode,
And all my works be praise:
There would I find a settled rest,
While others go and come,—
No more a stranger, or a guest,
But like a child at home.

Christ, our Model. F. CASWALL, fr.

O Jesus! King most wonderful,
Thou Conqueror renowned;
Thou sweetness most ineffable,
In whom all joys are found!

2 When once thou visitest the heart,
Then truth begins to shine,
Then earthly vanities depart,
Then kindles love divine.

3 O Jesus, Light of all below!
Thou Fount of life and fire!
Surpassing all the joys we know,
All that we can desire,—

4 May every heart confess thy name,
And ever thee adore;
And, seeking thee, itself inflame
To seek thee more and more.

5 Thee may our tongues for ever bless:
Thee may we love alone;
And ever in our life express
The image of thine own.

Christ above all.

J. NEWTON.

LET worldly minds the world pursue—
It has no charms for me;
Once I admired its trifles too,
But grace hath set me free.

2 Its joys can now no longer please,
Nor ev'n content afford:
Far from my heart be joys like these,
For I have seen the Lord.

3 As by the light of opening day
The stars are all concealed,
So earthly pleasures fade away
When Jesus is revealed.

4 Creatures no more divide my choice—
I bid them all depart;
His name, his love, his gracious voice,
Have fixed my roving heart.

5 And may I hope that thou wilt own
A worthless worm like me?
Dear Lord! I would be thine alone,
And wholly live to thee.

72, 68, D. "God, our Saviour."

T. HAWKIN

To thee, my God and Saviour!

My heart exulting sings,
Rejoicing in thy favor,
Almighty King of kings!
I'll celebrate thy glory,
With all thy saints above,
And tell the joyful story
Of thy redeeming love.

2 Soon as the morn with roses
Bedecks the dewy east,
And when the sun reposes
Upon the ocean's breast,
My voice, in supplication,
Well-pleased the Lord shall hear:
Oh, grant me thy salvation,
And to my soul draw near.

3 By thee, through life supported,
I'll pass the dangerous road,
With heavenly hosts escorted,
Up to thy bright abode;
Then cast my crown before thee,
And, all my conflicts o'er,
Unceasingly adore thee:—
What could an angel more?

BLESSED are the sons of God,
 They are bought with Christ's own blood;
 They are ransomed from the grave;
 Life eternal they shall have:
 With them numbered may we be,
 Here, and in eternity.

2 They are justified by grace,
 They enjoy the Saviour's peace;
 All their sins are washed away;
 They shall stand in God's great day:
 With them numbered may we be,
 Here, and in eternity.

3 They are lights upon the earth,
 Children of a heavenly birth,—

One with God, with Jesus one:
 Glory is in them begun:
 With them numbered may we be,
 Here, and in eternity.

Charity. C. WINKWORTH, tr.

THOUGH I speak with angel tongues
 Bravest words of strength and fire,
 They are but as idle songs,
 If no love my heart inspire;
 All the eloquence shall pass
 As the noise of sounding brass.

2 Though I lavish all I have
 On the poor in charity,
 Though I shrink not from the grave,
 Or unmoved the stake can see,—
 Till by love the work be crowned,
 All shall profitless be found.

3 Come, thou Spirit of pure love,
 Who didst forth from God proceed,
 Never from my heart remove;
 Let me all thy impulse heed;
 Let my heart henceforward be
 Moved, controlled, inspired by thee.

1. Qui - et, Lord, my froward heart, Make me teach-a-ble and mild, Upright, simple, free from art
Make me as a weaned child: From distrust and en - vy free, Pleased with all that pleases thee.

642

Psalm 131.

J. NEWTON.

QUIET, Lord, my froward heart,
Make me teachable and mild,
Upright, simple, free from art,
Make me as a weaned child:
From distrust and envy free,
Pleased with all that pleases thee.

2 What thou shalt to-day provide.
Let me as a child receive;
What to-morrow may betide,
Calmly to thy wisdom leave:
'Tis enough that thou wilt care;
Why should I the burden bear?

3 As a little child relies
On a care beyond his own,
Knows he's neither strong nor wise,
Fears to stir a step alone;—
Let me thus with thee abide,
As my Father, Guard, and Guide.

643

Trust.

E. H. NEVIN.

SAVIOUR, happy would I be,
If I could but trust in thee;
Trust thy wisdom me to guide;
Trust thy goodness to provide;
Trust thy saving love and power;
Trust thee every day and hour:—

2 Trust thee as the only light
In the darkest hour of night;
Trust in sickness, trust in health;
Trust in poverty and wealth;
Trust in joy and trust in grief;
Trust thy promise for relief:—

3 Trust thy blood to cleanse my soul;
Trust thy grace to make me whole;
Trust thee living, dying too;
Trust thee all my journey through;
Trust thee till my feet shall be
Planted on the crystal sea.

LORD, I believe; thy power I own;
Thy word I would obey;
I wander comfortless and lone,
When from thy truth I stray.

2 Lord, I believe; but gloomy fears
Sometimes bedim my sight;
I look to thee with prayers and tears,
And cry for strength and light.

3 Lord, I believe; but oft, I know,
My faith is cold and weak:
My weakness strengthen, and bestow
The confidence I seek.

4 Yes! I believe; and only thou
Canst give my soul relief:
Lord, to thy truth my spirit bow;
"Help thou mine unbelief!"

646

Meekness.

T. H. GILL.

LORD! when I all things would possess,
I crave but to be thine;
Oh, lowly is the loftiness
Of these desires divine.

2 Each gift but helps my soul to learn
How boundless is thy store;
I go from strength to strength, and yearn
For thee, my Helper, more.

3 How can my soul divinely soar,
How keep the shining way,
And not more tremblingly adore,
And not more humbly pray!

4 The more I triumph in thy gifts,
The more I wait on thee;
The grace that mightily uplifts
Most sweetly humbleth me.

5 The heaven where I would stand complete
My lowly love shall see,
And stronger grow the yearning sweet,
My holy One! for thee.

CALM me, my God, and keep me calm;
Let thine outstretched wing
Be like the shade of Elim's palm,
Beside her desert spring:

2 Yes, keep me calm, though loud and rude
The sounds my ear that greet,—
Calm in the closet's solitude,
Calm in the bustling street,—

3 Calm in the hour of buoyant health,
Calm in my hour of pain,
Calm in my poverty or wealth,
Calm in my loss or gain,—

4 Calm in the sufferance of wrong,
Like him who bore my shame,
Calm 'mid the threatening, taunting throng:
Who hate thy holy name.

5 Calm me, my God, and keep me calm,
Soft resting on thy breast;
Soothe me with holy hymn and psalm,
And bid my spirit rest.

REJOICE in God alway;

When tears at wakeful midnight flow,
And morn brings heaviness.

3 Rejoice in hope and fear;
Rejoice in life and death;

Rejoice when threatening storms are near,

4 When should not they rejoice,
Whom Christ his brethren calls,
Who hear and know his guiding voice,

- OH, gift of gifts! oh, grace of faith!
My God! how can it be
That thou, who hast discerning love,
Shouldst give that gift to me?
- 2 How many hearts thou mightst have had
More innocent than mine!
How many souls more worthy far
Of that sweet touch of thine!
- 3 Ah, grace! into unlikeliest hearts
It is thy boast to come,
The glory of thy light to find
In darkest spots a home.

Glory shall chase away its gloom,
For Christ hath conquered there.

Who dwells in cloudless light enshrined,
In whom no darkness is.

- FAITH adds new charms to earthly bliss,
And saves me from its snares;
Its aid, in every duty, brings,
And softens all my cares.
- 2 The wounded conscience knows its power
The healing balm to give;
That balm the saddest heart can cheer;
And make the dying live.
- 3 Wide it unavails celestial worlds,
Where deathless pleasures reign;
And bids me seek my portion there,
Nor bids me seek in vain.
- 4 It shows the precious promise sealed
With the Redeemer's blood;
And helps my feeble hope to rest
Upon a faithful God.
- 5 There—there unshaken would I rest,
Till this frail body dies;
And then, on faith's triumphant wings,
To endless glory rise.

My God, how endless is thy love!
 Thy gifts are every evening new;
 And morning mercies from above,
 Gently distill like early dew.

2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night,
 Great Guardian of my sleeping hours;
 Thy sovereign word restores the light,
 And quickens all my drowsy powers.

3 I yield my powers to thy command;
 To thee I consecrate my days;
 Perpetual blessings from thine hand
 Demand perpetual songs of praise.

658

Faith.

J. NEWTON.

By faith in Christ I walk with God,
 With heaven, my journey's end, in view;
 Supported by his staff and rod,
 My road is safe and pleasant too.

2 Though snares and dangers throng my path,
 And earth and hell my course withstand,
 I triumph over all by faith,
 Guarded by his almighty hand.

3 The wilderness affords no food,
 But God for my support prepares,
 Provides me every needful good,
 And frees my soul from wants and cares.

4 With him sweet converse I maintain;
 Great as he is, I dare be free;
 I tell him all my grief and pain,
 And he reveals his love to me.

659

*Contentment.*W. COWPER, tr.

O LORD, how full of sweet content
 Our years of pilgrimage are spent!
 Where'er we dwell, we dwell with thee,
 In heaven, in earth, or on the sea.

2 To us remains nor place nor time:
 Our country is in every clime:
 We can be calm and free from care
 On any shore, since God is there.

3 While place we seek, or place we shun,
 The soul finds happiness in none;
 But with our God to guide our way,
 'Tis equal joy to go or stay.

4 Could we be cast where thou art not,
 That were indeed a dreadful lot;
 But regions none remote we call,
 Secure of finding God in all.

Voicless Prayer.

GREEK HYMN.

O BLESSED God, to thee I raise
 My voice in thankful hymns of praise;
 And when my voice shall silent be,
 My silence shall be praise to thee.

2 For voice and silence doth impart
 The filial homage of my heart;
 And both alike are understood
 By thee, thou Parent of all good—

3 Whose grace is all unsearchable,
 Whose care for me no tongue can tell,
 Who loves my loudest praise to hear,
 And loves to bless my voiceless prayer.

Faith.

I. WATTS.

'Tis by the faith of joys to come,
We walk through deserts dark as night;
Till we arrive at heaven, our home,
Faith is our guide, and faith our light.

2 The want of sight she well supplies;
She makes the pearly gates appear;
Far into distant worlds she pries,
And brings eternal glories near.

3 Cheerful we tread the desert through,
While faith inspires a heavenly ray;
Though lions roar, and tempests blow,
And rocks and dangers fill the way.

662

Self-denial.

J. KESLE.

If on our daily course our mind
Be set, to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

2 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be,
As more of heaven in each we see;
Some softening gleam of love and prayer
Shall dawn on every cross and care.

3 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we ought to ask;—
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

4 Only, O Lord, in thy dear love,
Fit us for perfect rest above;
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

663

Love.

I. WATTS.

HAD I the tongues of Greeks and Jews,
And nobler speech than angels use,
If love be absent, I am found
Like tinkling brass, an empty sound.

2 Were I inspired to preach and tell
All that is done in heaven and hell—
Or could my faith the world remove,
Still I am nothing without love.

3 Should I distribute all my store
To feed the hungry, clothe the poor;
Or give my body to the flame,
To gain a martyr's glorious name:—

4 If love to God and love to men
Be absent, all my hopes are vain;
Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fiery zeal,
The work of love can e'er fulfill.

664

Consistency.

I. WATTS.

So LET our lips and lives express
The holy gospel we profess;
So let our works and virtues shine,
To prove the doctrine all divine.

2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
The honors of our Saviour God;
When his salvation reigns within,
And grace subdues the power of sin.

3 Religion bears our spirits up,
While we expect that blessed hope,—
The bright appearance of the Lord:
And faith stands leaning on his word.

 Nor let his mercies lie
 Forgotten in unthankfulness,
 And without praises die.

 'T is he relieves thy pain,
 'T is he that heals thy sicknesses,

CHOSEN not for good in me,
Waked from coming wrath to flee,
Hidden in the Saviour's side,
By the Spirit sanctified—
Teach me, Lord, on earth to show,
By my love, how much I owe.

2 Oft I walk beneath the cloud,
Dark as midnight's gloomy shroud:
But, when fear is at the height,
Jesus comes, and all is light;
Blesséd Jesus! bid me show
Doubting saints how much I owe.

3 Oft the nights of sorrow reign—
Weeping, sickness, sighing, pain;
But a night thine anger burns—
Morning comes, and joy returns:
God of comforts! bid me show
To thy poor how much I owe.

4 When in flowery paths I tread,
Oft by sin I'm captive led;
Oft I fall, but still arise—
Jesus comes—the tempter flies:
Blesséd Jesus! bid me show
Weary sinners all I owe.

Till all, who are distressed,
From my example comfort take,
And charm their griefs to rest.

3 Oh, magnify the Lord with me,
With me exalt his name!
When in distress to him I called,
He to my rescue came.

4 The hosts of God encamp around
The dwellings of the just;
Deliverance he affords to all,
Who on his succor trust.

5 Oh, make but trial of his love;
Experience will decide,
How blest are they, and only they,
Who in his truth confide.

LORD, how secure and blest are they
Who feel the joys of pardoned sin!
Should storms of wrath shake earth and sea,
Their minds have heaven and peace within.

2 The day glides sweetly o'er their heads,
Made up of innocence and love;
And soft and silent as the shades,
Their nightly minutes gently move.

3 Quick as their thoughts their joys come on,
But fly not half so swift away:
Their souls are ever bright as noon,
And calm as summer evenings be.

4 How oft they look to heavenly hills,
Where streams of living pleasures flow;
And longing hopes and cheerful smiles
Sit undisturbed upon their brow!

5 They scorn to seek earth's golden toys,
But spend the day, and share the night,
In numbering o'er the richer joys
That heaven prepares for their delight.

EARTH'S transitory things decay;

Survives in the vicissitude.

2 As, 'mid the ever-rolling sea,
The eternal isles established be,
'Gainst which the surges of the main
Fret, dash, and break themselves in vain;—

3 As in the heavens, the urns divine
Of golden light for ever shine;
Tho' clouds may darken, storms may rage,
They still shine on from age to age;—

4 So, through the ocean tide of years,

So, through the tempest and the gloom,
The good man's virtues light the tomb.

2 Who shall adjudge the saints to hell?
'Tis Christ who suffered in their stead;
And their salvation to fulfill,
Behold him rising from the dead!

3 He lives! he lives! and sits above,
For ever interceding there:
Who shall divide us from his love,
Or what shall tempt us to despair?

4 Shall persecution or distress,
Famine, or sword, or nakedness?
He who hath loved us bears us through,
And makes us more than conquerors too.

And all the steps that grace display,

Well in affliction's thorny maze,

Nor fall in fatal snares,
Since God, my guard and guide,
Defends me from my fears :
Those wakeful eyes | Shall Israel keep
That never sleep, | When dangers rise.

3 No burning heats by day,
Nor blasts of evening air,
Shall take my health away,
If God be with me there ;
Thou art my sun, | To guard my head
And thou my shade, | By night or noon.

4 Hast thou not given thy word
To save my soul from death ?
And I can trust my Lord
To keep my mortal breath :
I'll go and come, | Till, from on high
Nor fear to die, | Thou call me home.

702 L. M. At Jesus' Feet. MRS. E. REED.

OH, that I could for ever dwell,
Delighted at the Saviour's feet ;
Behold the form I love so well,
And all his tender words repeat !

2 The world shut out from all my soul,
And heaven brought in with all its bliss,—
Oh ! is there aught, from pole to pole,
One moment to compare with this ?

3 This is the hidden life I prize—
A life of penitential love ;
When most my follies I despise,
And raise my highest thoughts above ;

4 When all I am I clearly see,
And freely own, with deepest shame ;
When the Redeemer's love to me
Kindles within a deathless flame.

5 Thus would I live till nature fail,
And all my former sins forsake ;
Then rise to God within the veil,
And of eternal joys partake.

703 C. M. Our Father.—Psalms 31. A. STEELS

MY God, my Father!—blissful name !
Oh, may I call thee mine ?
May I, with sweet assurance, claim
A portion so divine ?

2 This only can my fears control,
And bid my sorrows fly :
What harm can ever reach my soul,
Beneath my Father's eye ?

3 Whate'er thy providence denies,
I calmly would resign
For thou art just, and good, and wise ;
Oh, bend my will to thine.

4 Whate'er thy sacred will ordains,
Oh, give me strength to bear ;
And let me know my Father reigns,
And trust his tender care.

5 If pain and sickness rend this frame,
And life almost depart,
Is not thy mercy still the same,
To cheer my drooping heart ?

6 My God, my Father ! be thy name
My solace and my stay ;
Oh, wilt thou seal my humble claim,
And drive my fears away ?

"Balm in Gilead." W. SHIRLEY.

PEACE, troubled soul, whose plaintive moan
Hath taught each scene the notes of woe,
Cease thy complaint, suppress thy groan,
And let thy tears forget to flow;
Behold, the precious balm is found,
To lull thy pain, to heal thy wound.

2 Come, freely come, by sin oppressed;
On Jesus, cast thy weighty load;
In him thy refuge find, thy rest,
Safe in the mercy of thy God;
Thy God's thy Saviour—glorious word!
For ever love and praise the Lord.

He gave thee warrant from that hour
To trust his wisdom, love, and power:
Did ever trouble yet befall
And he refuse to hear thy call?

3 He who has helped thee hitherto,
Will help thee all thy journey through;
Though rough and thorny be the road,
It leads thee home, apace, to God;
Then count thy present trials small,
For heaven will make amends for all.

"Eben-eser." J. NEWTON.

BE still, my heart! these anxious cares
To thee are burdens, thorns, and snares;
They cast dishonor on thy Lord,
And contradict his gracious word;
Brought safely by his hand thus far,
Why wilt thou now give place to fear?

2 When first before his mercy-seat
Thou didst to him thy all commit,

WHEN adverse winds and waves arise,
And in my heart despondence sighs;
When life her throng of cares reveals,
And weakness o'er my spirit steals,
Grateful I hear the kind decree,
That "as my day, my strength shall be."

2 One trial more must yet be past,
One pang—the keenest and the last;
And when, with brow convulsed and pale,
My feeble, quivering heart-strings fail,
Redeemer! grant my soul to see
That "as my day, my strength shall be."

"At evening time."

ANON.

At evening time let there be light;
 Life's little day draws near its close;
 Around me fall the shades of night,
 The night of death, the grave's repose;
 To crown my joys, to end my woes,
 At evening time let there be light.

2 At evening time let there be light;
 Stormy and dark hath been my day—
 Yet rose the morn divinely bright;
 Dews, birds, and blossoms cheered the
 way;—

Oh, for one sweet, one parting ray!
 At evening time let there be light.

3 At evening time there shall be light!
 For God hath spoken; it must be;
 Fear, doubt, and anguish take their flight;
 His glory now is risen on me;
 Mine eyes shall his salvation see;
 'T is evening time, and there is light!

"Jesus wept."

R. GRANT.

WHEN gathering clouds around I view,
 And days are dark, and friends are few,

On him I lean, who, not in vain,
 Experienced every human pain;
 He sees my wants, allays my fears,
 And counts and treasures up my tears.

2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
 From heavenly virtue's narrow way,—
 To fly the good I would pursue,
 Or do the sin I would not do,—
 Still he, who felt temptation's power,
 Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.

3 When sorrowing o'er some stone, I bend,
 Which covers all that was a friend,
 And from his voice, his hand, his smile,
 Divides me, for a little while,
 My Saviour sees the tears I shed,
 For Jesus wept o'er Lazarus dead.

4 And, oh, when I have safely passed
 Through every conflict, but the last,—
 Still, still unchanging, watch beside
 My painful bed,—for thou hast died;
 Then point to realms of cloudless day,
 And wipe my latest tear away.

O THOU, whose bounty fills my cup
With every blessing meet!

I give thee thanks for every drop—
The bitter and the sweet.

2 I praise thee for the desert road,
And for the river-side;
For all thy goodness hath bestowed,
And all thy grace denied.

3 I thank thee for both smile and frown,
And for the gain and loss;
I praise thee for the future crown,
And for the present cross.

4 I thank thee for the wing of love,
Which stirred my worldly nest;
And for the stormy clouds which drove
The flutterer to thy breast.

5 I bless thee for the glad increase,
And for the waning joy;
And for this strunge, this settled peace,
Which nothing can destroy.

In thee I firmly trust;
Thy ways, unknown or understood,

3 May I remember that to thee
Whate'er I have I owe;
And back, in gratitude, from me
May all thy bounties flow.

4 And though thy wisdom takes away,
Shall I arraign thy will?
No, let me bless thy name, and say,
"The Lord is gracious still."

For this is not my rest.

And feel that death is gain!

2 'Tis not that murmuring thoughts arise,
And dread a Father's will;
'Tis not that meek submission flies,
And would not suffer still.

3 It is that heaven-born faith surveys
The path that leads to light,
And longs her eagle plumes to raise,
And lose herself in sight.

Those accents tranquilize each fear,—
"Tis I; be not afraid."

3 There is a gulf that must be crossed:
Saviour, be near to aid!
Whisper, when my frail bark is tossed,—
"Tis I; be not afraid."

4 There is a dark and fearful vale,
Death hides within its shade;
Oh, say, when flesh and heart shall fail,—
"Tis I; be not afraid."

When along life's thorny road,
Faints the soul beneath the load,
By its cares and sins oppressed,
Finds on earth no peace or rest;
When the wily tempter's near,
Filling us with doubt and fear:
Jesus, to thy feet we flee,
Jesus, we will look to thee.

2 Thou, our Saviour, from the throne
List'nest to thy people's moan;
Thou, the living Head, dost share
Every pang thy members bear;
Full of tenderness thou art,
Thou wilt heal the broken heart;
Full of power, thine arm shall quell
All the rage and might of hell.

3 Mighty to redeem and save,
Thou hast overcome the grave;
Thou the bars of death hast riven,
Opened wide the gates of heaven;
Soon in glory thou shalt come,
Taking thy poor pilgrims home;
Jesus, then we all shall be,
Ever—ever—Lord, with thee.

G. RAWSON

In the dark and cloudy day,
When earth's riches flee away,
And the last hope will not stay,
Saviour, comfort me!

2 When the secret idol's gone
That my poor heart yearned upon,— Desolate, bereft, alone,
Saviour, comfort me!

3 Thou, who wast so sorely tried,
In the darkness crucified,
Bid me in thy love confide;
Saviour, comfort me!

4 Comfort me; I am cast down:
'Tis my heavenly Father's frown;
I deserve it all, I own:
Saviour, comfort me!

5 So it shall be good for me
Much afflicted now to be,
If thou wilt but tenderly,
Saviour, comfort me!

3 Heaven and earth may pass away,
God's free grace shall not decay;
He hath promised to fulfill
All the pleasure of his will.

'Tis my happiness below
Not to live without the cross,
But the Saviour's power to know,

2 Trials must and will befall;
But with humble faith to see
Love inscribed upon them all,—
This is happiness to me.

3 God in Israel sows the seeds
Of affliction, pain and toil;
These spring up and choke the weeds
Which would else o'erspread the soil.

4 Did I meet no trials here,
No chastisement by the way,
Might I not with reason fear
I should prove a castaway?

5 Trials make the promise sweet;
Trials give new life to prayer;
Trials bring me to his feet,
Lay me low, and keep me there.

"Spare me."

J. G. DECK.

It is thy hand, my God;
My sorrow comes from thee:
I bow beneath thy chastening rod,
'Tis love that bruises me.

2 I would not murmur, Lord;
Before thee I am dumb:
Lest I should breathe one murmuring word,
To thee for help I come.

3 My God, thy name is Love;
A Father's hand is thine;

With tearful eyes I look above,
And cry, "Thy will be mine!"

4 Jesus for me hath died;
Thy Son thou didst not spare:
His pierced hands, his bleeding side,
Thy love for me declare.

5 Here my poor heart can rest;
My God, it cleaves to thee:
Thy will is love, thine end is blest,
All work for good to me.

Along my earthly way,
How many clouds are spread!
Darkness, with scarce one cheerful ray,
Seems gathering o'er my head.

2 Yet, Father, thou art Love;
Oh, hide not from my view!
But when I look, in prayer, above,
Appear in mercy through!

3 My pathway is not hid;
Thou knowest all my need;

And I would do as Israel did,—
Follow where thou wilt lead.

4 Lead me, and then my feet
Shall never, never stray;
But safely I shall reach the seat
Of happiness and day.

5 And, oh, from that bright throne
I shall look back, and see,—
The path I went, and that alone
Was the right path for me.

How soon we found a smiling God,
Where deep distress had been!

3 A Father's hand we felt,
A Father's heart we knew;
With tears of penitence we knelt,
And found his word was true.

4 We told him all our grief,
We thought of Jesus' love;
A sense of pardon brought relief,
And bade our pains remove.

Whose anger is so slow to rise,

2 God will not always chide;
And when his strokes are felt,
His strokes are fewer than our crimes,
And lighter than our guilt.

3 The pity of the Lord
To those that fear his name,
Is such as tender parents feel:
He knows our feeble frame.

4 Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower;

2 But, bowed in lowliness of mind,
I make my humble wishes known;
I only ask a will resigned,
O Father, to thine own.

3 In vain I task my aching brain,
In vain the sage's thoughts I scan;
I only feel how weak I am,
How poor and blind is man.

4 And now my spirit sighs for home,
And longs for light whereby to see;
And, like a weary child, would come,
O Father, unto thee.

2 In the world will foes assail me,
Craftier, stronger far than I;
And the strife may never fail me,
Well I know, before I die.

Therefore, Lord, I come believing
Thou canst give the power I need;
Through the prayer of faith receiving
Strength—the Spirit's strength, indeed.

3 I would trust in thy protection,
Wholly rest upon thine arm;
Follow wholly thy direction,
Thou, mine only guard from harm!
Keep me from mine own undoing,
Help me turn to thee when tried,
Still my footsteps, Father, viewing,
Keep me ever at thy side.

"Thy will be done." T. HASTINGS.

JESUS, while our hearts are bleeding
O'er the spoils that death has won,
We would at this solemn meeting,
Calmly say,—thy will be done.

2 Though cast down, we're not forsaken;
Though afflicted, not alone;
Thou didst give, and thou hast taken;
Blessed Lord,—thy will be done.

3 Though to-day we're filled with mourning,
Mercy still is on the throne;
With thy smiles of love returning,
We can sing—thy will be done.

4 By thy hands the boon was given,
Thou hast taken but thine own:
Lord of earth, and God of heaven,
Evermore,—thy will be done!

1. Lead, kindly Light! amid th' encircling gloom, Lead thou me on; The night is dark, and I am far from home,

Lead thou me on; Keep thou my feet; I do not ask to see The distant scene; one step enough for me.

"Lead thou me on!" J. H. NEWMAN.

LEAD, kindly Light! amid the encircling
Lead thou me on; [gloom,
The night is dark, and I am far from home,
Lead thou me on;

Keep thou my feet; I do not ask to see
The distant scene; one step enough for me.

2 I was not ever thus, nor prayed that thou
Shouldst lead me on;
I loved to choose and see my path; but now
Lead thou me on:

I loved the garish day, and spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will. Remember not past years.

3 So long thy power has blessed me, sure
Will lead me on [it still
O'er moor and fen, o'er crag and torrent, till

Which I have loved long since, and lost

Blessing for mourners. W. C. BRYANT.

DEEM not that they are blest alone
Whose days a peaceful tenor keep;
The anoointed Son of God makes known
A blessing for the eyes that weep.

2 The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.

3 There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide an evening guest,
But joy shall come with early light.

4 Nor let the good man's trust depart,
Though life its common gifts deny,

Though with a pierced and broken heart,
And spurned of men, he goes to die.

5 For God has marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear;
And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all his children suffer here.

Resignation.

J. ROSCOE.

THY will be done! I will not fear
The fate provided by thy love;
Though clouds and darkness shroud me here,
I know that all is bright above.

2 Father, forgive the heart that clings,
Thus trembling, to the things of time;
And bid my soul, on angel wings,
Ascend into a purer clime.

3 There shall no doubts disturb its trust,
No sorrows dim celestial love;
But these afflictions of the dust,
Like shadows of the night, remove.

4 Ev'n now, above, there's radiant day,
While clouds and darkness brood below;
Then, Father, joyful on my way
To drink the bitter cup, I go.

"Thy will be done." C. ELLIOTT.

My God, my Father, while I stray
Far from my home, on life's rough way,

Oh, teach me from my heart to say,
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

2 What though in lonely grief I sigh
For friends beloved no longer nigh;
Submissive still would I reply,
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

3 If thou shouldst call me to resign
What most I prize,—it ne'er was mine;
I only yield thee what was thine:
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

4 If but my fainting heart be blest
With thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
My God, to thee I leave the rest;
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

5 Renew my will from day to day;
Blend it with thine, and take away
Whate'er now makes it hard to say,
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

6 Then when on earth I breathe no more
The prayer oft mixed with tears before,
I'll sing, upon a happier shore,
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

Be tranquil, O my soul,
Be quiet, every fear!
Thy Father hath control,
And he is ever near.
Ne'er of thy lot complain,
Whatever may befall;
Sickness, or care, or pain,
'T is well-appointed all.

2 A Father's chastening hand
Is leading thee along;
Nor distant is the land,
Where swells the immortal song.
Oh, then, my soul, be still!
Await heaven's high decree;
Seek but thy Father's will,
It shall be well with thee.

Pleasing or painful, dark or bright,
As best may seem to thee.

Why should I doubt or fear?
My Father's hand will never cause

4 What if the springs of life were broke,
And flesh and heart should faint,
Thou art my soul's eternal rock,
The strength of every saint.

5 Then to draw near to thee, my God,
Shall be my sweet employ;
My tongue shall sound thy works abroad,
And tell the world my joy.

742L. M.*Psalms 90: 12.*GUYON.

If life in sorrow must be spent,
So be it; I am well content;
And meekly wait my last remove,
Desiring only trustful love.

2 No bliss I'll seek, but to fulfill
In life, in death, thy perfect will;
No succor in my woes I want,
But what my Lord is pleased to grant.

3 Our days are numbered: let us spare
Our anxious hearts a needless care;
'Tis thine to number out our days;
'Tis ours to give them to thy praise.

4 Faith is our only business here—
Faith, simple, constant, and sincere;
Oh, blessed days thy servants see!
Thus spent O Lord! in pleasing thee.

743C. M.*"Be ye also ready."*A. REED.

THERE is an hour when I must part
With all I hold most dear;
And life, with its best hopes, will then
As nothingness appear.

2 There is an hour when I must sink
Beneath the stroke of death;
And yield to him, who gave it first,
My struggling vital breath.

3 There is an hour when I must stand
Before the judgment-seat;
And all my sins, and all my foes,
In awful vision meet.

4 There is an hour when I must look
On one eternity;
And nameless woe, or blissful life,
My endless portion be.

5 O Saviour, then, in all my need
Be near, be near to me:
And let my soul, by steadfast faith,
Find life and heaven in thee.

744 S. M. Tell Jesus.

IN every trying hour
My soul to Jesus flies;
I trust in his almighty power,
When swelling billows rise.
2 His comforts bear me up;
I trust a faithful God;
The sure foundation of my hope
Is in my Saviour's blood.
3 Loud hallelujahs sing
To our Redeemer's name;
In joy or sorrow—life or death—
His love is still the same.

745 L. M. "Afterwards." A. R. WOLFE.

I BLESS thee, Lord, for sorrows sent
To break the dream of human power,
For now my shallow cistern's spent,
I find thy fount and thirst no more.
2 I take thy hand and fears grow still:
Behold thy face, and doubts remove;
Who would not yield his wavering will
To perfect truth and boundless love!
3 That truth gives promise of a dawn,
Beneath whose light I am to see,
When all these blinding veils are drawn,
This was the wisest path for me.
4 That love this restless soul doth teach
The strength of thy eternal calm;
And tunes its sad and broken speech,
To sing ev'n now the angels' psalm.

746 L. M. God is love. J. BOWRING.

I CANNOT always trace the way
Where thou, Almighty One, dost move;
But I can always, always say,
That God is love, that God is love.
2 When fear her chilling mantle flings
O'er earth, my soul to heaven above,
As to her native home, upsprings,
For God is love, for God is love.
3 When mystery clouds my darkened path,
I'll check my dread, my doubts reprove;
In this my soul sweet comfort hath,
That God is love, that God is love.
4 Yes, God is love;—a thought like this
Can every gloomy thought remove,
And turn all tears, all woes, to bliss,
For God is love, for God is love.

ANON. 747 8s, 7s. Life's Evening. C. P. SMITH, alt.

TARRY with me, O my Saviour!
For the day is passing by;
See! the shades of evening gather,
And the night is drawing nigh.
2 Deeper, deeper grow the shadows,
Paler now the glowing west,
Swift the night of death advances;
Shall it be the night of rest?
3 Lonely seems the vale of shadow;
Sinks my heart with troubled fear;
Give me faith for clearer vision,
Speak thou, Lord, in words of cheer.
4 Let me hear thy voice behind me,
Calming all these wild alarms;
Let me, underneath my weakness,
Feel the everlasting arms.
5 Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying,
Lord, I cast myself on thee;
Tarry with me through the darkness;
While I sleep, still watch by me.
6 Tarry with me, O my Saviour!
Lay my head upon thy breast
Till the morning; then awake me—
Morning of eternal rest!

748 6s, D. More like God. H. BONAR.

I DID thee wrong, my God,
I wronged thy truth and love;
I fretted at the rod,—
Against thy power I strove.
Come nearer, nearer still;
Let not thy light depart;
Bend, break this stubborn will;
Dissolve this iron heart!
2 Less wayward let me be,
More pliable and mild;
In glad simplicity
More like a trustful child.
Less, less of self each day,
And more, my God, of thee;
Oh, keep me in the way,
However rough it be.
3 Less of the flesh each day,
Less of the world and sin:
More of thy Son, I pray,
More of thyself within.
More moulded to thy will,
Lord, let thy servant be;
Higher and higher still,
More, and still more, like thee!

The harvest truly, Lord! is great,
The laborers are few.

2 Convert and send forth more
Into thy Church abroad;
And let them speak thy word of power,
As workers with their God.
Give the pure Gospel-word,
The word of general grace;
Thee let them preach, the common Lord,
The Saviour of our race.

3 Oh, let them spread thy name;
Their mission fully prove;
Thy universal grace proclaim
Thy all-redeeming love.
On all mankind forgiven,
Empower them still to call,
And tell each creature under heaven,
That thou hast died for all.

But owned and loved of God.

3 Not many rich or noble called,
Not many great or wise;
They whom God makes his kings and priests
Are poor in human eyes.

HOW BLEST are those, how truly wise,
Who learn and keep the sacred road!
How happy they whom heaven employs
To turn rebellious hearts to God:—

- 2 To win them from the fatal way,
Where erring folly thoughtless roves,
And that blest righteousness display
Which Jesus wrought and God approves.
- 3 The shining firmament shall fade,
And sparkling stars resign their light;
But these shall know nor change nor shade,
For ever fair, for ever bright.

763

Installation.

J. MONTGOMERY.

WE bid thee welcome in the name
Of Jesus, our exalted Head;
Come as a servant: so he came,
And we receive thee in his stead.

- 2 Come as a shepherd; guard and keep
This fold from hell, and earth, and sin;
Nourish the lambs, and feed the sheep,
The wounded heal, the lost bring in.
- 3 Come as a teacher, sent from God,
Charged his whole counsel to declare;
Lift o'er our ranks the prophet's rod,
While we uphold thy hands with prayer.
- 4 Come as a messenger of peace,
Filled with the Spirit, fired with love!
Live to behold our large increase,
And die to meet us all above.

764

For Dedication.

N. P. WILLIS.

THE perfect world, by Adam trod,
Was the first temple,—built by God;
His fiat laid the corner-stone,
And heaved its pillars, one by one.

- 2 He hung its starry roof on high—
The broad, illimitable sky;
He spread its pavement, green and bright,
And curtained it with morning light.
- 3 The mountains in their places stood,
The sea—the sky—and “all was good;”
And when its first pure praises rang,
The “morning stars together sang.”
- 4 Lord, 'tis not ours to make the sea,
And earth, and sky, a house for thee;
But in thy sight our offering stands—
An humbler temple, “made with hands.”

B. REDDOME.

FATHER of mercies, bow thine ear,
Attentive to our earnest prayer;
We plead for those who plead for thee;
Successful may they ever be.

- 2 Clothe thou with energy divine
Their words, and let those words be thine;
Teach them immortal souls to gain,
Nor let them labor, Lord, in vain.
- 3 Let thronging multitudes around
Hear from their lips the joyful sound;
And light through distant realms be spread
Till Zion rears her drooping head.

Convocation. J. MONTGOMERY.

- POUR out thy Spirit from on high;
 Lord! thine assembled servants bless;
 Graces and gifts to each supply,
 And clothe thy priests with righteousness.
- 2 Wisdom and zeal, and faith impart,
 Firmness with meekness from above,
 To bear thy people on our heart,
 And love the souls whom thou dost love:—
- 3 To watch and pray, and never faint;
 By day and night strict guard to keep;
 To warn the sinner, cheer the saint,
 Nourish thy lambs, and feed thy sheep;—
- 4 Then, when our work is finished here,
 In humble hope our charge resign:
 When the chief Shepherd shall appear,
 O God! may they and we be thine!

767

Seeking a Pastor. F. DODDRIDGE.

- O LORD, thy pitying eye surveys
 Our wandering paths, our trackless ways:
 Send forth, in love, thy truth and light,
 To guide our doubtful footsteps right.
- 2 In humble faith, behold we wait:
 On thee we call at mercy's gate;
 Our drooping hearts, O God, sustain,—
 Shall Israel seek thy face in vain?
- 3 O Lord! in ways of peace return,
 Nor let thy flock neglected mourn;
 May our blest eyes a shepherd see,
 Dear to our souls, and dear to thee.

768

Prayer for Pastor. R. HILL.

- WITH heavenly power, O Lord, defend
 Him whom we now to thee commend;
 Thy faithful messenger secure,
 And make him to the end endure.
- 2 Gird him with all-sufficient grace;
 Direct his feet in paths of peace;
 Thy truth and faithfulness fulfill,
 And arm him to obey thy will.

Church Dedication. J. PIERPONT.

- OH, bow thine ear, Eternal One!
 On thee our heart adoring calls;
 To thee the followers of thy Son
 Have raised, and now devote these walls.
- 2 Here let thy holy days be kept;
 And be this place to worship given,
 Like that bright spot where Jacob slept,
 The house of God, the gate of heaven.
- 3 Here may thine honor dwell; and here,
 As incense, let thy children's prayer,
 From contrite hearts and lips sincere,
 Rise on the still and holy air.
- 4 Here be thy praise devoutly sung;
 Here let thy truth beam forth to save,
 As when, of old, thy Spirit hung,
 On wings of light, o'er Jordan's wave.
- 5 And when the lips, that with thy name
 Are vocal now, to dust shall turn,
 On others may devotion's flame
 Be kindled here, and purely burn!

Psalms 48.

I. WATTS.

FAR as thy name is known,
The world declares thy praise;
Thy saints, O Lord, before thy throne,
Their songs of honor raise.

2 With joy thy people stand
On Zion's chosen hill,
Proclaim the wonders of thy hand,
And counsels of thy will.

3 Let strangers walk around
The city where we dwell,
Compass and view thine holy ground,
And mark the building well—

4 The order of thy house,
The worship of thy court,
The cheerful songs, the solemn vows;
And make a fair report.

5 How decent, and how wise!
How glorious to behold!
Beyond the pomp that charms the eyes,
And rites adorned with gold.

6 The God we worship now
Will guide us till we die;
Will be our God, while here below,
And ours above the sky.

75, 66. The Church is Christ's.

S. J. STONE.

THE Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord;
She is his new creation
By water and the word:
From heaven he came and sought her,
To be his holy bride;
With his own blood he bought her,
And for her life he died.

2 Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation
One Lord, one faith, one birth;
One holy name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

3 Though with a scornful wonder,
Men see her sore oppressed,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distressed,
Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up, "How long!"
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

Psalms 48.

I. WATTS.

GREAT is the Lord our God,
And let his praise be great;
He makes his churches his abode,
His most delightful seat.

2 These temples of his grace,
How beautiful they stand!
The honors of our native place,
The bulwarks of our land.

3 In Zion God is known,
A refuge in distress;
How bright has his salvation shone
Through all her palaces!

4 Oft have our fathers told,
Our eyes have often seen,
How well our God secures the fold
Where his own sheep have been.

5 In every new distress
We'll to his house repair,
We'll think upon his wondrous grace,
And seek deliverance there.

"Daughter of Zion!"

ANON.

DAUGHTER of Zion! awake from thy sadness:
Awake, for thy foes shall oppress thee
no more;
Bright o'er thy hills dawns the day-star
of gladness;
Arise! for the night of thy sorrow is o'er.

2 Strong were thy foes, but the arm
that subdued them,
And scattered their legions, was mightier
far;
They fled, like the chaff, from the scourge
that pursued them;
For vain were their steeds and their chariots of war!

3 Daughter of Zion! the Power that hath saved thee,
Extolled with the harp and the timbrel should be:
Shout! for the foe is destroyed that enslaved thee,
Th' oppressor is vanquished, and Zion
is free!

LORD of hosts ! to thee we raise
Here a house of prayer and praise :
Thou thy people's hearts prepare,
Here to meet for praise and prayer.

2 Let the living here be fed
With thy word, the heavenly bread :
Here, in hope of glory blest,
May the dead be laid to rest.

3 Here to thee a temple stand,
While the sea shall gird the land :
Here reveal thy mercy sure,
While the sun and moon endure.

Hallelujah ! hence ascend

ROLL on, thou mighty ocean ;
And, as thy billows flow,
Bear messengers of mercy
To every land below.
Arise, ye gales, and waft them
Safe to the destined shore ;
That man may sit in darkness,
And death's black shade no more.

2 O thou eternal Ruler,
Who holdest in thine arm
The tempests of the ocean,
Protect them from all harm !
Thy presence, Lord, be with them,
Wherever they may be :
Though far from us, who love them,
Still let them be with thee.

Church Opening.

L. WATTS.

ARISE, O King of grace, arise,
And enter to thy rest ;
Lo ! thy church waits, with longing eyes,
Thus to be owned and blest.

2 Enter with all thy glorious train,
Thy Spirit and thy word ;
All that the ark did once contain
Could no such grace afford.

3 Here, mighty God, accept our vows,
Here let thy praise be spread ;
Bless the provisions of thy house,
And fill thy poor with bread.

4 Here let the Son of David reign,
Let God's Anointed shine ;
Justice and truth his court maintain,
With love and power divine.

5 Here let him hold a lasting throne,
And as his kingdom grows,
Fresh honors shall adorn his crown,
And shame confound his foes.

Kings and prophets long desiring,
Saw not this before they died :—
Lo ! the light to them denied !
See its beams to earth directed !

Welcome, O thou long-expected !

On the accursed tree he suffers,
That his death's sweet savor may
Take our curse for aye away ;
Cross and curse for us enduring,
Hope and heaven to us securing :

J. MONTGOMERY.

- WORK while it is to-day!
This was our Saviour's rule;
With docile minds let us obey,
As learners in his school.
- 2 Lord Christ, we humbly ask
Of thee the power and will,
With fear and meekness, every task
Of duty to fulfill.
- 3 At home, by word and deed,
Adorn redeeming grace;
And sow abroad the precious seed
Of truth in every place:—
- 4 That thus the wilderness
May blossom like the rose,
And trees spring up of righteousness,
Where'er life's river flows.
- 5 For thee our all to spend,
Still may we watch and pray,
And, persevering to the end,
Work while it is to-day.

- 3 To comfort and to bless,
To find a balm for woe,
To tend the lone and fatherless
Is angel's work below.
- 4 The captive to release,
To God the lost to bring,
To teach the way of life and peace—
It is a Christ-like thing.
- 5 And we believe thy word,
Though dim our faith may be;
Whate'er for thine we do, O Lord,
We do it unto thee.

As stewards true receive,
And gladly, as thou blestest us,
To thee our first-fruits give.

- MOURN for the thousands slain,
The youthful and the strong;
Mourn for the wine-cup's fearful reign,
And the deluded throng.
- 2 Mourn for the ruined soul,—
Eternal life and light
Lost by the fiery, maddening bowl,
And turned to hopeless night.
- 3 Mourn for the lost,—but call,
Call to the strong, the free;
Rouse them to shun the dreadful fall,
And to the refuge flee.
- 4 Mourn for the lost,—but pray,
Pray to our God above,
To break the fell destroyer's sway,
And show his saving love.

"Harvest home." J. MONTGOMERY.

Sow in the morn thy seed,
At eve hold not thy hand;
To doubt and fear give thou no heed;
Broad-cast it o'er the land.

2 And duly shall appear
In verdure, beauty, strength,
The tender blade, the stalk, the ear,
And the full corn at length.

3 Thou canst not toil in vain;
Cold, heat, the moist and dry,
Shall foster and mature the grain
For garners in the sky.

4 Then, when the glorious end,
The day of God shall come,
The angel-reapers shall descend,
And heaven sing "Harvest home!"

"The night cometh."

S. DYER.

WORK, for the night is coming;
Work, through the morning hours;
Work, while the dew is sparkling;
Work, 'mid springing flowers;
Work, when the day grows brighter,
Work, in the glowing sun;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man's work is done.

2 Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon.

Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store:
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for daylight flies.
Work till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work while the night is darkening,
When man's work is o'er.

MISSION SONG. 8a, 7a. D.

P. P. VAN ARSDALE.

1. Hark! the voice of Jesus calling,—Who will go and work to-day? Fields are white, the harvest waiting,

Who will bear the sheaves away? Loud and long the Master calleth, Rich reward he of-fers free;

"The Laborers are few." D. MARCH.

HARK! the voice of Jesus calling,—
Who will go and work to-day?
Fields are white, the harvest waiting,—
Who will bear the sheaves away?
Loud and long the Master calleth,
Rich reward he offers free;
Who will answer, gladly saying,
"Here am I, O Lord, send me."
2 If you cannot cross the ocean
And the heathen lands explore,
You can find the heathen nearer,
You can help them at your door;
If you cannot speak like angels,
If you cannot preach like Paul,
You can tell the love of Jesus,
You can say he died for all.
3 While the souls of men are dying,
And the Master calls for you,
Let none hear you idly saying,
"There is nothing I can do!"
Gladly take the task he gives you,
Let his work your pleasure be;
Answer quickly when he calleth,
"Here am I, O Lord, send me."

785

"What thy hand findeth." E. H. GATES.

If you cannot on the ocean
Sail among the swiftest fleet,

Rocking on the highest billows,
Laughing at the storms you meet,
You can stand among the sailors,
Anchored yet within the bay,
You can lend a hand to help them,
As they launch their boat away.
2 If you are too weak to journey
Up the mountain steep and high,
You can stand within the valley,
While the multitude go by;
You can chant in happy measure,
As they slowly pass along;
Though they may forget the singer,
They will not forget the song.
3 If you have not gold and silver
Ever ready to command;
If you cannot toward the needy
Reach an ever open hand,
You can visit the afflicted,
O'er the erring you can weep;
You can be a true disciple
Sitting at the Saviour's feet.
4 If you cannot in the harvest
Garner up the richest sheaf,
Many a grain both ripe and golden
Will the careless reapers leave;
Go and glean among the briers,
Growing rank against the wall,
For it may be that the shadow
Hides the heaviest wheat of all.

786

8a, 7a. Christian Union. T. W. AVELING.

HAIL! thou God of grace and glory!

Who thy name hast magnified,
By redemption's wondrous story,
By the Saviour crucified;
Thanks to thee for every blessing,
Flowing from the Fount of love;
Thanks for present good unceasing,
And for hopes of bliss above.

2 Hear us, as thus bending lowly,
Near thy bright and burning throne;
We invoke thee, God most holy!
Through thy well-belovéd Son;

Send the baptism of thy Spirit,
Shed the pentecostal fire;
Let us all thy grace inherit,
Waken, crown each good desire.

3 Bind thy people, Lord! in union,
With the sevenfold cord of love;
Breathe a spirit of communion
With the glorious hosts above;
Let thy work be seen progressing;
Bow each heart, and bend each knee;
Till the world, thy truth possessing,
Celebrates its jubilee.

ONWARD, Christian, though the region

Is the mount of vision won;
Tread it without shrinking, brother;
Jesus trod it; press thou on.

3 Be this world the wiser, stronger,
For thy life of pain and peace;
While it needs thee, oh, no longer
Pray thou for thy quick release.

4 Pray thou, Christian, daily rather,

Not my will, but thine, be done."

789

Courage and Faith. ANON.

FATHER, hear the prayer we offer!
Not for ease that prayer shall be,
But for strength that we may ever
Live our lives courageously.

2 Not for ever by still waters
Would we idly quiet stay;
But would smite the living fountains
From the rocks along our way.

In our wanderings, be our guide;
Through endeavor, failure, danger,
Father, be thou at our side!

LIKE the eagle, upward, onward,
Let my soul in faith be borne:
Calmly gazing, skyward, sunward,
Let my eye unshrinking turn!

2 Where the cross, God's love revealing,
Sets the fettered spirit free,
Where it sheds its wondrous healing,
There, my soul, thy rest shall be!

3 Oh, may I no longer, dreaming,
Idly waste my golden day,
But, each precious hour redeeming,
Upward, onward, press my way!

791

Psalm 127.

H. AUGER.

VAINLY, through night's weary hours,
Keep we watch, lest foes alarm;
Vain our bulwarks, and our towers,
But for God's protecting arm.

2 Vain were all our toil and labor,
Did not God that labor bless;
Vain, without his grace and favor,
Every talent we possess.

3 Vainer still the hope of heaven,
That on human strength relies;
But to him shall help be given,
Who in humble faith applies.

4 Seek we, then, the Lord's Anointed;
He will grant us peace and rest:
Ne'er was suppliant disappointed,
Who thro' Christ his prayer addressed.

It again some future day.

2 Cast thy bread upon the waters;

Truth to spread from pole to pole.

3 As the seed by billows floated,
To some distant island lone,
So to human souls benighted,
That thou flingest may be borne.

Why wilt thou still doubting stand?
Bounteous shall God send the harvest,
If thou sow'st with liberal hand.

F. DODDRIDGE.

FATHER of mercies! send thy grace,
All powerful from above,
To form in our obedient souls
The image of thy love.

2 Oh, may our sympathizing breasts
The generous pleasure know,
Kindly to share in others' joy,
And weep for others' woe!

3 When the most helpless sons of grief
In low distress are laid,
Soft be our hearts their pains to feel,
And swift our hands to aid.

4 So Jesus looked on dying men,
When throned above the skies;
And mid the embraces of his God,
He felt compassion rise.

5 On wings of love the Saviour flew,
To raise us from the ground,
And made the richest of his blood
A balm for every wound.

795

God's hidden ones.

W. CROSWELL.

LORD, lead the way the Saviour went,
By lane and cell obscure,
And let love's treasures still be spent,
Like his, upon the poor.

2 Like him, through scenes of deep distress, 3
Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their crowded loneliness,
Would seek the desolate.

3 For thou hast placed us side by side
In this wide world of ill;
And that thy followers may be tried,
The poor are with us still.

4 Mean are all offerings we can make;
Yet thou hast taught us, Lord,
If given for the Saviour's sake,
They lose not their reward.

796

Minute fidelity.

ANON.

SCORN not the slightest word or deed,
Nor deem it void of power;
There's fruit in each wind-wafted seed,
That waits its natal hour.

2 A whispered word may touch the heart,
And call it back to life;
A look of love bid sin depart,
And still unholy strife.

3 No act falls fruitless; none can tell
How vast its power may be,
Nor what results infolded dwell
Within it silently.

4 Work on, despair not, bring thy mite,
Nor care how small it be;
God is with all that serve the right,
The holy, true, and free.

797

Psalm 41.

A. L. BARBAULD.

BLEST is the man whose softening heart
Feels all another's pain;
To whom the supplicating eye
Was never raised in vain:—

2 Whose breast expands with generous [warmth]
A stranger's woes to feel;
And bleeds in pity o'er the wound
He wants the power to heal.

3 He spreads his kind supporting arms
To every child of grief;
His secret bounty largely flows,
And brings unasked relief.

4 To gentle offices of love
His feet are never slow:
He views, through mercy's melting eye,
A brother in a foe.

5 Peace from the bosom of his God,
The Saviour's grace shall give;
And, when he kneels before the throne,
His trembling soul shall live.

798

More laborers. S. LONGFELLOW.

OH, still in accents sweet and strong
Sounds forth the ancient word,—
"More reapers for white harvest fields,
More laborers for the Lord!"

2 We hear the call; in dreams no more
In selfish ease we lie,
But, girded for our Father's work,
Go forth beneath his sky.

3 Where prophets' word, and martyrs' blood,
And prayers of saints were sown,
We, to their labors entering in,
Would reap where they have strown.

799

The Martyr-spirit.

R. HESER.

THE Son of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain;
His blood-red banner streams afar:
Who follows in his train?

2 Who best can drink his cup of woe,
And triumph over pain,
Who patient bear his cross below—
He follows in his train.

3 A glorious band, the chosen few,
On whom the Spirit came:
Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew,
And mocked the cross and flame.

4 They climbed the dizzy steep to heaven
Through peril, toil, and pain:
O God! to us may grace be given
To follow in their train!

800

Charitableness.

FLETCHER.

THINK gently of the erring one!
And let us not forget,
However darkly stained by sin,
He is our brother yet.

2 Heir of the same inheritance,
Child of the self-same God;
He hath but stumbled in the path,
We have in weakness trod.

3 Forget not thou hast often sinned,
And sinful yet must be:
Deal gently with the erring one,
As God has dealt with thee.

801

Beneficence.

P. DODDRIDGE.

JESUS, our Lord, how rich thy grace!
Thy bounties how complete!
How shall we count the matchless sum!
How pay the mighty debt!

2 High on a throne of radiant light
Dost thou exalted shine;
What can our poverty bestow,
When all the worlds are thine?

3 But thou hast brethren here below,
The partners of thy grace;
And wilt confess their humble names,
Before thy Father's face.

4 In them thou mayst be clothed and fed,
And visited and cheered;
And in their accents of distress,
Our Saviour's voice is heard.

It may not be our lot to wield
The sickle in the ripened field;
Nor ours to hear, on summer eves,
The reaper's song among the sheaves.
2 Yet ours the grateful service whence
Comes, day by day, the recompense;
The hope, the trust, the purpose stayed,
The fountain, and the noonday shade.

3 And were this life the utmost span,
The only end and aim of man,
Better the toil of fields like these
Than waking dream and slothful ease.
4 But life, though falling like our grain,
Like that revives and springs again;
And, early called, how blest are they
Who wait, in heaven, their harvest day!

Speed, speed thy work,—cast sloth away!
It is not thus that souls are won.
- 2 Men die in darkness at your side,
Without a hope to cheer the tomb:
Take up the torch and wave it wide—
The torch that lights time's thickest gloom.
- 3 Toil on,—faint not; keep watch and pray!
Be wise the erring soul to win;
Go forth into the world's highway;
Compel the wanderer to come in.

- 2 Go, imitate the grace divine—
The grace that blazes like the sun;
Hold forth your fair, though feeble light,
Through all your lives let mercy run.
- 3 When all is done, renounce your deeds,
Renounce self-righteousness with scorn:
Thus will you glorify your God,
And thus the Christian name adorn.

Faith and Works.

W. H. DRUMMOND.

- ONE cup of healing oil and wine,
One offering laid on mercy's shrine,
Is thrice more grateful, Lord, to thee,
Than lifted eye or bended knee.
- 2 In true and inward faith we trace
The source of every outward grace;
Within the pious heart it plays,
A living fount of joy and praise.
- 3 Kind deeds of peace and love betray
Where'er the stream has found its way;
But, where these spring not rich and fair,
The stream has never wandered there.

Liberality.

T. GIBBONS.

- WHEN Jesus dwelt in mortal clay,
What were his works from day to day,
But miracles of power and grace,
That spread salvation through our race?
- 2 Teach us, O Lord, to keep in view
Thy pattern, and thy steps pursue;
Let alms bestowed, let kindness done,
Be witnessed by each rolling sun.
- 3 That man may last, but never lives,
Who much receives, but nothing gives;
Whom none can love, whom none can thank,
Creation's blot, creation's blank!
- 4 But he who marks, from day to day,
In generous acts his radiant way,
Treads the same path his Saviour trod,
The path to glory and to God.

O God of Bethel, by whose hand
Thy people still are fed;
Who through this weary pilgrimage
Hast all our fathers led!

2 Our vows, our prayers, we now present
Before thy throne of grace;
God of our fathers! be the God
Of their succeeding race.

3 Through each perplexing path of life
Our wandering footsteps guide;
Give us, each day, our daily bread,
And raiment fit provide.

4 Oh, spread thy covering wings around
Till all our wanderings cease,
And at our Father's loved abode,
Our souls arrive in peace.

For 'twas to bless such souls as these,

How fair the lily grows!
How sweet the breath beneath the hill
Of Sharon's dewy rose!

2 Lo! such the child whose early feet
The paths of peace have trod;
Whose secret heart, with influence sweet,
Is upward drawn to God.

3 By cool Siloam's shady rill
The lily must decay;
The rose that blooms beneath the hill
Must shortly fade away.

4 And soon, too soon, the wintry hour
Of man's maturer age
May shake the soul with sorrow's power
And stormy passion's rage.

5 O thou, whose infant feet were found
Within thy Father's shrine,
Whose years, with changeless virtue crowned,
Were all alike divine!

In childhood, manhood, age and death,

DEAR Saviour, if these lambs should stray
From thy secure enclosure's bound,
And, lured by worldly joys away,
Among the thoughtless crowd be found;—

That thy dear sacred name they bear;
Think that the seal of love divine,
The sign of covenant grace they wear.

3 In all their erring, sinful years,
Oh, let them ne'er forgotten be;
Remember all the prayers and tears
Which made them consecrate to thee.

4 And when these lips no more can pray,
These eyes can weep for them no more,
Turn thou their feet from folly's way;
The wanderers to thy fold restore.

Keep thy flock, from sin defend us,

Seek us when we go astray.

Poor and sinful though we be;

Thou hast mercy to relieve us,

Grace to cleanse, and power to free:

Early let us seek thy favor,

Early help us do thy will;

Holy Lord, our only Saviour!

With thy grace our bosom fill.

Raise we then with glad emotion

Thankful lays: and while we sing,

Vow a pure, a full devotion

To thy work, O Saviour King!

3 When we tell the wondrous story

Of thy rich, exhaustless love,

Send thy Spirit, Lord of glory,

All the feeble gently leading,

While the lambs thy bosom share;

Now, these little ones receiving,

Fold them in thy gracious arm;

There, we know, thy word believing,

Only there, secure from harm.

2 Never, from thy pasture roving,

Let them be the lion's prey;

Let thy tenderness, so loving,

Keep them all life's dangerous way:

Then, within thy fold eternal,

Let them find a resting-place,

Feed in pastures ever vernal,

Drink the rivers of thy grace.

Are one in Christ their head.

2 Among the saints on earth,
Let mutual love be found;
Heirs of the same inheritance,
With mutual blessings crowned.

3 Thus will the church below
Resemble that above;
Where streams of pleasure ever flow,
And every heart is love.

GOLDEN HILL. S. M.

A. CHAPIN.

1. Dear Saviour! we are thine, By ev-er-last-ing bands; Our hearts, our souls, we would resign En-tire-ly to thy hands.

827

"We are thine."

F. DODDRIDGE.

DEAR SAVIOUR! we are thine,
By everlasting bands;
Our hearts, our souls, we would resign
Entirely to thy hands.

2 To thee we still would cleave
With ever-growing zeal;
If millions tempt us Christ to leave,
Oh, let them ne'er prevail!

3 Thy Spirit shall unite
Our souls to thee, our Head;
Shall form in us thine image bright,
And teach thy paths to tread.

4 Death may our souls divide
From these abodes of clay;
But love shall keep us near thy side,
Through all the gloomy way.

5 Since Christ and we are one,
Why should we doubt or fear?
If he in heaven has fixed his throne,
He'll fix his members there.

828

At closing.

A. R. WOLFE.

A PARTING hymn we sing,
Around thy table, Lord;
Again our grateful tribute bring,
Our solemn vows record.

2 Here have we seen thy face,
And felt thy presence here;
So may the savor of thy grace
In word and life appear.

3 The purchase of thy blood—
By sin no longer led—
The path our dear Redeemer trod
May we rejoicing tread.

4 In self-forgetting love
Be our communion shown,
Until we join the church above,
And know as we are known.

The invitation.

I. WATTS.

JESUS invites his saints
To meet around his board;
Here pardoned rebels sit and hold
Communion with their Lord.

2 This holy bread and wine
Maintains our fainting breath,
By union with our living Lord,
And interest in his death.

3 Our heavenly Father calls
Christ and his members one;
We, the young children of his love,
And he, the first-born Son.

4 Let all our powers be joined,
His glorious name to raise;
Pleasure and love fill every mind
And every voice be praise.

5 To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit, glory be,
As was, and is, and shall remain
Through all eternity!

830

Great wishes.

C. WESLEY.

JESUS, my strength, my hope,
On thee I cast my care,
With humble confidence look up,
And know thou hear'st my prayer.

2 I want a sober mind,
A self-renouncing will,
That tramples down, and casts behind
The lures of pleasing ill;—

3 I want a godly fear,
A quick-discerning eye,
That looks to thee when sin is near,
And sees the tempter fly;—

4 A spirit still prepared,
And armed with jealous care,
For ever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer.

831

"Christ, our Passover." R. CAMPBELL, tr.

At the Lamb's high feast we sing
Praise to our victorious King,
Who hath washed us in the tide,
Flowing from his wounded side.

2 Where the Paschal blood is poured,
Death's dark angel sheathes his sword;
Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe.

3 Christ, our Paschal Lamb, is slain,
Holy victim, without stain;
Death and hell defeated lie,
Heaven unfolds its gates on high.

4 Hymns of glory and of praise,
Father, unto thee we raise;
Risen Lord, all praise to thee,
With the Spirit ever be.

832

"This is my Body."

J. CONDER.

BREAD of heaven! on thee we feed,
For thy flesh is meat indeed:
Ever let our souls be fed
With this true and living bread!

2 Vine of heaven! thy blood supplies
This blest cup of sacrifice:
Lord! thy wounds our healing give,
'To thy cross we look and live.

3 Day by day, with strength supplied,
Through the life of him who died:
Lord of life! oh, let us be,
Rooted, grafted, built on thee!

833

Wounded for us.

ANON.

JESUS, Master! hear me now,
While I would renew my vow,
And record thy dying love;
Hear, and help me from above.

2 Feed me, Saviour, with this bread,
Broken in thy body's stead;
Cheer my spirit with this wine,
Streaming like that blood of thine.

3 And as now I eat and drink,
Let me truly, sweetly think,
Thou didst hang upon the tree,
Broken, bleeding, there—for me!

834

"Thine for ever."

M. F. MAUDE.

THINE for ever! God of love,
Hear us from thy throne above!
Thine for ever may we be,
Here and in eternity!

2 Thine for ever! oh, how blest
They who find in thee their rest!
Saviour, Guardian, heavenly Friend,
Oh, defend us to the end!

3 Thine for ever! Saviour keep
These thy frail and trembling sheep;
Safe alone beneath thy care,
Let us all thy goodness share.

4 Thine for ever! thou our Guide,—
All our wants by thee supplied,—
All our sins by thee forgiven,—
Lead us, Lord, from earth to heaven!

1. When on Sinai's top I see God descend, in ma-jes-ty, To proclaim his ho-ly law. All my spirit sinks with awe.

835

Three Mountains. J. MONTGOMERY.

WHEN on Sinai's top I see
God descend, in majesty,
To proclaim his holy law,
All my Spirit sinks with awe.

2 When, in ecstasy sublime,
Tabor's glorious steep I climb,
At the too transporting light,
Darkness rushes o'er my sight.

3 When on Calvary I rest,
God, in flesh made manifest,
Shines in my Redeemer's face,
Full of beauty, truth, and grace.

4 Here I would for ever stay,
Weep and gaze my soul away;
Thou art heaven on earth to me,
Lovely, mournful Calvary!

4 "Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above;
Deeper than the depths beneath—
Free and faithful—strong as death.

5 "Thou shalt see my glory soon,
When the work of grace is done;
Partner of my throne shalt be!
Say, poor sinner! lovest thou me?"

6 Lord! it is my chief complaint,
That my love is weak and faint;
Yet I love thee, and adore;—
Oh, for grace to love thee more.

836

"Lovest thou me?" W. COWPER.

HARK! my soul! it is the Lord;
'Tis thy Saviour—hear his word;
Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee,
"Say, poor sinner, lovest thou me?"

2 "I delivered thee when bound,
And when bleeding, healed thy wound:
Sought thee wandering, set thee right,
Turned thy darkness into light.

3 "Can a woman's tender care
Cease towards the child she bare?
Yes, she may forgetful be,
Yet will I remember thee.

837

"Thy people shall be my people." J. MONTGOMERY.

PEOPLE of the living God,
I have sought the world around,
Paths of sin and sorrow trod,
Peace and comfort nowhere found.

2 Now to you my spirit turns—
Turns, a fugitive unblest;
Brethren, where your altar burns,
Oh, receive me into rest!

3 Lonely I no longer roam,
Like the cloud, the wind, the wave:
Where you dwell shall be my home,
Where you die shall be my grave;—

4 Mine the God whom you adore,
Your Redeemer shall be mine;
Earth can fill my soul no more,
Every idol I resign.

FLEYEL'S HYMN. 7a.

I. FLEYEL.

1. Bread of heaven! on thee we feed, For thy flesh is meat in - deed: Ev-er let our souls be fed With this true and living bread!

OWEN, S. M.

J. E. SWEETSER.

Sing rapidly.

1. Oh, what, if we are Christ's, Is earth - ly shame or loss?
Bright shall the crown of glo - ry be, When we have borne the cross.

838

"Via crucis, via lucis." H. W. BAKER.

Oh, what, if we are Christ's,
Is earthly shame or loss?
Bright shall the crown of glory be,
When we have borne the cross.

2 Keen was the trial once,
Bitter the cup of woe,
When martyred saints, baptized in blood,
Christ's sufferings shared below.

3 Bright is their glory now,
Boundless their joy above,
Where, on the bosom of their God,
They rest in perfect love.

4 Lord, may that grace be ours!
Like them in faith to bear
All that of sorrow, grief, or pain,
May be our portion here!

5 Enough, if thou at last
The word of blessing give,
And let us rest beneath thy feet,
Where saints and angels live!

839

"I can do all things."

ANON.

O SAVIOUR, who didst come
By water and by blood;
Confessed on earth, adored in heaven,
Eternal Son of God!

2 Jesus, our life and hope,
To endless years the same;
We plead thy gracious promises;
And rest upon thy name.

3 By faith in thee we live,
By faith in thee we stand,
By thee we vanquish sin and death,
And gain the heavenly land.

4 O Lord, increase our faith;
Our fearful spirits calm;
Sustain us through this mortal strife,
Then give the victor's palm!

840

"I have peace."

H. BONAR.

I HEAR the words of love,
I gaze upon the blood,
I see the mighty sacrifice,
And I have peace with God.

2 'Tis everlasting peace,
Sure as Jehovah's name;
'Tis stable as his steadfast throne,
For evermore the same.

3 The clouds may go and come,
And storms may sweep my sky;
This blood-sealed friendship changes not,
The cross is ever nigh.

4 I change—he changes not;
The Christ can never die;
His love, not mine, the resting-place;
His truth, not mine, the tie.

5 My love is oftentimes low,
My joy still ebbs and flows;
But peace with him remains the same,
No change Jehovah knows.

Behold the open door!
Oh, haste to gain that dear abode,
And rove, my soul, no more.

There sweet shall be thy rest;
And every longing satisfied,
With full salvation blest.

"This is my blood." E. DENNY.

- BLEST feast of love divine!
'Tis grace that makes us free

In memory, Lord, of thee.

In symbol here we see,
And feel the blessed pledge within,
That we are loved of thee.

What will it be, O Lord, above,
Thy gladdening smile to meet!

Close to thy bleeding side;
This all my hope, and all my plea—

Sprinkle me ever with thy blood!

"The banqueting house." C. WESLEY.

- JESUS, we thus obey
Thy last and kindest word,
And in thine own appointed way
We come to meet thee, Lord!
- 2 Thus we remember thee,
And take this bread and wine
As thine own dying legacy,
And our redemption's sign.
- 3 Thy presence makes the feast;
Now let our spirits feel
The glory not to be expressed,—
The joy unspeakable!
- 4 With high and heavenly bliss
Thou dost our spirits cheer;
Thy house of banqueting is this,
And thou hast brought us here.

With manna from above,
And over us thy banner spread
Of everlasting love.

I. WATTS.

'T WAS on that dark, that doleful night,
When powers of earth and hell arose
Against the Son of God's delight,
And friends betrayed him to his foes.

2 Before the mournful scene began,
He took the bread, and blessed, and brake;
What love through all his actions ran!
What wondrous words of grace he spake!

3 "This is my body, broke for sin;
Receive and eat the living food:"
Then took the cup, and blessed the wine;
"Tis the new covenant, in my blood."

4 "Do this," he cried, "till time shall end,
In memory of your dying Friend;
Meet at my table, and record
The love of your departed Lord."

5 Jesus, thy feast we celebrate;
We show thy death, we sing thy name,

Till thou return, and we shall eat
The marriage supper of the Lamb.

846

The Institution.

I. WATTS

At thy command, our dearest Lord,
Here we attend thy dying feast;
Thy blood, like wine, adorns the board,
And thine own flesh feeds every guest.

2 Our faith adores thy bleeding love,
And trusts for life in One that died;
We hope for heavenly crowns above
From a Redeemer crucified.

3 Let the vain world pronounce it shame,
And fling their scandals on the cause;
We come to boast our Saviour's name,
And make our triumphs in his cross.

4 With joy we tell the scoffing age,
He that was dead has left his tomb;
He lives above their utmost rage,
And we are waiting till he come.

The Memorial of our Lord. I. WATTS.

JESUS is gone above the skies,
Where our weak senses reach him not;
And carnal objects court our eyes,
To thrust our Saviour from our thought.

2 He knows what wandering hearts we have, 2 This be my joy and comfort here,
Apt to forget his lovely face; This pledge of future glory mine:
And, to refresh our minds, he gave
These kind memorials of his grace.

3 Let sinful sweets be all forgot,
And earth grow less in our esteem;
Christ and his love fill every thought;
And faith and hope be fixed on him.

4 While he is absent from our sight,
'Tis to prepare our souls a place,
That we may dwell in heavenly light,
And live for ever near his face.

848

"We would see Jesus." I. WATTS.

HERE let us see thy face, O Lord,
And view salvation with our eyes,
And taste and feel the living Word,
The Bread descending from the skies.

2 Thou hast prepared this dying Lamb,
Hast set his blood before our face,
To teach the terrors of thy name,
And show the wonders of thy grace.

3 Jesus, our Light! our Morning-star!
Shine thou on nations yet unknown;
The glory of thy people here,
And joy of spirits near thy throne.

Feeding on Christ. J. MONTGOMERY.

I FEED by faith on Christ; my bread,
His body broken on the tree;
I live in him, my living Head,
Who died, and rose again for me.

2 This be my joy and comfort here,
This pledge of future glory mine:
Jesus, in spirit now appear,
And break the bread, and pour the wine.

3 From thy dear hand, may I receive
The tokens of thy dying love,
And, while I feast on earth, believe
That I shall feast with thee above.

"Eat, O friends." A. R. WOLFE.

DRAW near, O Holy Dove, draw near,
With peace and gladness on thy wing;
Reveal the Saviour's presence here,
And light, and life, and comfort bring.

2 "Eat, O my friends—drink, O beloved!"
We hear the Master's voice exclaim:
Our hearts with new desire are moved,
And kindled with a heavenly flame.

3 No room for doubt, no room for dread,
Nor tears, nor groans, nor anxious sighs;
We do not mourn a Saviour dead,
But hail him living in the skies!

4 While this we do, remembering thee,
Dear Saviour, let our graces prove
We have thy blessed company,
Thy banner over us is love.

Rich banquet of his flesh and blood!
Thrice happy he, who here partakes
That sacred stream, that heavenly food.
- 3 Oh, let thy table honored be,
And furnished well with joyous guests;
And may each soul salvation see,
That here its sacred pledges tastes.

"Our exalted Lord." A. STREBL.

- To JESUS, our exalted Lord,
That name in heaven and earth adored,
Fain would our hearts and voices raise

Are weak, and languishing, and low;
Far, far above our humble songs,
The theme demands immortal tongues.

Oh, let our warm affections move,
In glad returns of grateful love.

At the Cross.

ANON.

Around thee on the curséd tree,
Some loyal, loving hearts there were,
Some pitying eyes that wept for thee.

Our dying Lord, tho' crowned with thorn;
Like thee, thy blessed self, endure
The cross with all its cruel scorn.

Pilgrims on earth, disowned by those
Who see no beauty, Lord, in thee.

The day of Espousals.

L. WATTS.

Accept the tribute that we bring;
Accept the well-deserved renown,
And wear our praises as thy crown.
- 2 Let every act of worship be
Like our espousals, Lord! to thee;
Like the dear hour, when, from above,
We first received thy pledge of love.
- 3 The gladness of that happy day—
Our hearts would wish it long to stay;
Nor let our faith forsake its hold,
Nor comfort sink, nor love grow cold.
- 4 Each following minnte, as it flies,
Increase thy praise, improve our joya,
Till we are raised to sing thy name,
At the great supper of the Lamb.

Parting Song.

L. WATTS.

Oh, the sweet wonders of that cross
Where my Redeemer loved and died !
Her noblest life my spirit draws
From his dear wounds, and bleeding side.

2 I would for ever speak his name
In sounds to mortal ears unknown ;
With angels join to praise the Lamb,
And worship at his Father's throne.

With full consent thine I would be,
And own thy sovereign right in me.

2 Grant one poor sinner more a place
Among the children of thy grace ;
A wretched sinner, lost to God,
But ransomed by Immanuel's blood.

3 Thine would I live, thine would I die,
Be thine through all eternity ;
The vow is past beyond repeal ;
And now I set the solemn seal.

And consecrate to thee my all.

JESUS! thou art the sinner's Friend;
As such I look to thee;
Now, in the fullness of thy love,
O Lord! remember me.

- 2 Remember thy pure word of grace,—
Remember Calvary;
Remember all thy dying groans,
And then remember me.
- 3 Thou wondrous Advocate with God!
I yield myself to thee;
While thou art sitting on thy throne,
Dear Lord! remember me.
- 4 Lord! I am guilty—I am vile,
But thy salvation's free;
Then, in thine all-abounding grace,
Dear Lord! remember me.

"Prepare us, Lord."

T. COTTERILL.

PREPARE us, Lord, to view thy cross,
Who all our griefs hast borne;
To look on thee, whom we have pierced—
To look on thee and mourn.

And as thy cross we see,
Let each exclaim, in faith and hope,
"The Saviour died for me!"

861

Persistent Love.

I. WATTS.

HOW SWEET and awful is the place,
With Christ within the doors,
While everlasting love displays
The choicest of her stores.

- 2 While all our hearts, and all our songs,
Join to admire the feast,
Each of us cries with thankful tongue,—
"Lord, why was I a guest?"
- 3 "Why was I made to hear thy voice,
And enter while there's room,
When thousands make a wretched choice,
And rather starve than come?"
- 4 'Twas the same love that spread the feast,
That sweetly drew us in;
Else we had still refused to taste,
And perished in our sin.
- 5 Pity the nations, O our God!
Constrain the earth to come;
Send thy victorious word abroad,
And bring the strangers home.

ACCORDING to thy gracious word,
In meek humility,
This will I do, my dying Lord,
I will remember thee.

2 Thy body, broken for my sake,
My bread from heaven shall be;
Thy testamental cup I take,
And thus remember thee.

3 Gethsemane can I forget?
Or there thy conflict see,
Thine agony and bloody sweat,
And not remember thee?

4 When to the cross I turn mine eyes,

O Lamb of God, my sacrifice!
I must remember thee:—

And all thy love to me;
Yea, while a breath, a pulse remains,
Will I remember thee.

6 And when these failing lips grow dumb,
And mind and memory flee,
When thou shalt in thy kingdom come,
Then, Lord, remember me!

"The cup of blessing." C. WESLEY.

JESUS, at whose supreme command,
We now approach to God,
Before us in thy vesture stand,
Thy vesture dipped in blood.

22

2 Now, Saviour, now thyself reveal,
And make thy nature known;
Affix thy blessed Spirit's seal,
And stamp us for thine own.

3 Obedient to thy gracious word,
We break the hallowed bread,
Commemorate our dying Lord,
And trust on thee to feed.

4 The cup of blessing, blessed by thee,
Let it thy blood impart;
The broken bread thy body be,
To cheer each languid heart.

864

"Greater love hath no man." G. T. NOEL.

If human kindness meets return,
And owns the grateful tie:
If tender thoughts within us burn,
To feel a friend is nigh;—

2 Oh, shall not warmer accents tell
The gratitude we owe
To him, who died our fears to quell—
Who bore our guilt and woe!

3 While yet in anguish he surveyed
Those pangs he would not flee,
What love his latest words displayed,—
"Meet and remember me!"

4 Remember thee—thy death, thy shame,
Our sinful hearts to share!—
O memory! leave no other name
But his recorded there.

C. C. CONVERSE.

1. While in sweet communion feeding On this earthly bread and wine, Saviour, may we see thee bleeding On the cross, to make us thine.

865

"In remembrance."

E. DENNY.

WHILE in sweet communion feeding
On this earthly bread and wine,
Saviour, may we see thee bleeding
On the cross, to make us thine.

2 Though unseen, now be thou near us,
With the still small voice of love;
Whispering words of peace to cheer us—
Every doubt and fear remove.

3 Bring before us all the story,
Of thy life, and death of woe;
And, with hopes of endless glory,
Wean our hearts from all below.

866

"His banner."

E. PARK.

JESUS spreads his banner o'er us,
Cheers our famished souls with food;
He the banquet spreads before us,
Of his mystic flesh and blood.

2 Precious banquet; bread of heaven;
Wine of gladness, flowing free;
May we taste it, kindly given
In remembrance, Lord, of thee!

3 In thy trial and rejection;
In thy sufferings on the tree;
In thy glorious resurrection;
May we, Lord, remember thee!

DORENANCE. 8s, 7s.

I. B. WOODBURY.

1. Jesus calls us, o'er the tumult Of our life's wild, restless sea; Day by day his sweet voice soundeth, Saying, Christian, follow me!

"Follow me."

C. F. ALEXANDER.

JESUS calls us, o'er the tumult
Of our life's wild, restless sea;
Day by day his sweet voice soundeth,
Saying, Christian, follow me!

2 Jesus calls us—from the worship
Of the vain world's golden store;
From each idol that would keep us,—
Saying, Christian, love me more!

3 In our joys and in our sorrows,
Days of toil and hours of ease,
Still he calls, in cares and pleasures,—
Christian, love me more than these!

4 Jesus calls us! by thy mercies,
Saviour, may we hear thy call;
Give our hearts to thy obedience,
Serve and love thee best of all!

868

"Take my heart."

ANON.

TAKE my heart, O Father! take it;
Make and keep it all thine own;
Let thy Spirit melt and break it—
This proud heart of sin and stone.

2 Father, make me pure and lowly,
Fond of peace and far from strife;
Turning from the paths unholy
Of this vain and sinful life.

3 Ever let thy grace surround me,
Strengthen me with power divine,
Till thy cords of love have bound me:
Make me to be wholly thine.

4 May the blood of Jesus heal me,
And my sins be all forgiven;
Holy Spirit, take and seal me,
Guide me in the path to heaven.

Before the cross.

J. ALLEN.

SWEET the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross we spend;
Life, and health, and peace possessing,
From the sinner's dying Friend.

2 Truly blessed is this station,
Low before his cross to lie,
While we see divine compassion,
Beaming in his gracious eye.

3 Love and grief our hearts dividing,
With our tears his feet we bathe;
Constant still, in faith abiding,
Life deriving from his death.

4 For thy sorrows we adore thee,
For the pains that wrought our peace,
Gracious Saviour! we implore thee
In our souls thy love increase.

5 Here we feel our sins forgiven,
While upon the Lamb we gaze;
And our thoughts are all of heaven,
And our lips o'erflow with praise.

6 Still in ceaseless contemplation,
Fix our hearts and eyes on thee,
Till we taste thy full salvation,
And, unvailed, thy glories see.

J. ROWE.

FROM the table now retiring,
Which for us the Lord hath spread,
May our souls refreshment finding,
Grow in all things like our Head!

2 His example while beholding,
May our lives his image bear;
Him our Lord and Master calling,
His commands may we revere.

3 Love to God and man displaying,
Walking steadfast in his way,
Joy attend us in believing,
Peace from God, through endless day.

4 Praise and honor to the Father,
Praise and honor to the Son,
Praise and honor to the Spirit,

The Rock of Ages. A. M. TOPLADY.

Rock of Ages, cleft for me!
Let me hide myself in thee;
Let the water and the blood,
From thy wounded side that flowed,
Be of sin the perfect cure;
Save me, Lord! and make me pure.

2 Should my tears for ever flow,
Should my zeal no languor know,
This for sin could not atone,
Thou must save and thou alone:
In my hand no price I bring;
Simply to thy cross I cling.

3 While I draw this fleeting breath,
When mine eye-lids close in death,
When I rise to worlds unknown,
And behold thee on thy throne,
Rock of ages, cleft for me!
Let me hide myself in thee.

872

"Manifest thyself."

R. MANT.

Son of God! to thee I cry:
By the holy mystery
Of thy dwelling here on earth,
By thy pure and holy birth,
Lord, thy presence let me see,
Manifest thyself to me.

2 Lamb of God! to thee I cry:
By thy bitter agony,
By thy pangs to us unknown,
By thy spirit's parting groan,
Lord, thy presence let me see,
Manifest thyself to me.

3 Prince of Life! to thee I cry:
By thy glorious majesty,
By thy triumph o'er the grave,
Meek to suffer, strong to save,
Lord, thy presence let me see,
Manifest thyself to me.

4 Lord of glory, God most high,
Man exalted to the sky!
With thy love my bosom fill,
Prompt me to perform thy will;
Then thy glory I shall see,
Thou wilt bring me home to thee.

873

"Till he come."

E. H. BICKERSTETH

"Till He come:" oh, let the words
Linger on the trembling chords;
Let the little while between
In their golden light be seen;
Let us think how heaven and home
Lie beyond that—"Till he come."

2 When the weary ones we love
Enter on their rest above,
Seems the earth so poor and vast,
All our life joy overcast?
Hush, be every murmur dumb;
It is only—"Till he come."

3 See, the feast of love is spread,
Drink the wine, and break the bread;
Sweet memorials,—till the Lord
Call us round his heavenly board;
Some from earth, from glory some,
Severed only—"Till he come."

"Wash me, Saviour." A. M. TOPLADY.

Rock of Ages, cleft for me!
 Let me hide myself in thee;
 Let the water and the blood,
 From thy wounded side that flowed,
 Be of sin the double cure;
 Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

2 Not the labor of my hands
 Can fulfill the law's demands;
 Could my zeal no respite know,
 Could my tears for ever flow,
 All for sin could not atone;
 Thou must save, and thou alone.

3 Nothing in my hand I bring,
 Simply to thy cross I cling;
 Naked, come to thee for dress,
 Helpless, look to thee for grace;
 Vile, I to the fountain fly,
 Wash me, Saviour, or I die!

4 While I draw this fleeting breath,
 When my eyelids close in death,
 When I soar to worlds unknown,
 See thee on thy judgment throne,
 Rock of Ages, cleft for me!
 Let me hide myself in thee.

"Take my Heart." C. WESLEY.

FATHER, Son, and Holy Ghost,
 One in Three, and Three in One,
 As by the celestial host,
 Let thy will on earth be done;
 Praise by all to thee be given,
 Glorious Lord of earth and heaven!

2 Vilest of the fallen race,
 Lo, I answer to thy call;
 Meanest vessel of thy grace,
 Grace divinely free for all;
 Lo, I come to do thy will,
 All thy counsel to fulfill.

3 If so poor a worm as I
 May to thy great glory live,
 All my actions sanctify,
 All my words and thoughts receive;
 Claim me for thy service, claim
 All I have, and all I am.

4 Take my soul and body's powers,
 Take my memory, mind and will,
 All my goods, and all my hours,
 All I know and all I feel,
 All I think, or speak, or do;
 Take my heart, but make it new.

HENLEY. 10a.

LOWELL MASON.

Here grasp with firmer hand th'e-ter-nal grace, And all my wea-ri-ness up-on thee lean.

Sweet Foretastes.

H. BONAR.

- HERE, O my Lord, I see thee face to face;
Here would I touch and handle things
unseen;
Here grasp with firmer hand the eternal grace,
And all my weariness upon thee lean.
- 2 Here would I feed upon the bread of God;
Here drink with thee the royal wine of
heaven;
Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.
- 3 Too soon we rise; the symbols disappear;
The feast, though not the love, is passed
and gone;
The bread and wine remove, but thou art
here—
Nearer than ever—still my Shield and Sun.
- 4 Feast after feast thus comes and passes by;
Yet, passing, points to the glad feast above,
Giving sweet foretastes of the festal joy,
The Lamb's great bridal feast of bliss and love.
- 5 A weary, heavy-laden sinner comes
To plead thy promise and obey thy call
I am not worthy to be thought thy child;
Nor sit the last and lowest at thy board;
Too long a wanderer, and too oft beguiled,
I only ask one reconciling word.
- 3 One word from thee, my Lord! one smile, one look, [again,
And I could face the cold, rough world
And with that treasure in my heart could brook
The wrath of devils and the scorn of men.
- 4 And is not mercy thy prerogative—
Free mercy, boundless, fathomless, divine?
Me, Lord! the chief of sinners, me forgive,
And thine the greater glory, only thine.
- 5 I hear thy voice; thou bid'st me come and rest;
I come, I kneel, I clasp thy pierced feet;
Thou bid'st me take my place, a welcome
guest,
Among thy saints, and of thy banquet eat.
- 6 My praise can only breathe itself in prayer,
My prayer can only lose itself in thee;
Dwell thou for ever in my heart, and there,
Lord! let me sup with thee; sup thou with me.

ANON.

Trust, strength, calmness.

S. JOHNSON, alt.

- WE would see Jesus—for the shadows lengthen
Across this little landscape of our life;
We would see Jesus, our weak faith to strengthen
For the last weariness—the final strife.
- 2 We would see Jesus—the great Rock Foundation,
Whereon our feet were set with sovereign grace;
Not life, nor death, with all their agitation,
Can thence remove us, if we see his face.
- 3 We would see Jesus—other lights are paling,
Which for long years we have rejoiced to see;
The blessings of our pilgrimage are failing,
We would not mourn them, for we go to thee.
- 4 We would see Jesus—this is all we're needing,
Strength, joy, and willingness come with the sight;
We would see Jesus, dying, risen, pleading,
Then welcome day, and farewell mortal night!
- SAVIOUR, in thy mysterious presence kneeling,
Fain would our souls feel all thy kindling love;
For we are weak, and need some deep revealing
Of trust, and strength, and calmness from above.
- 2 Lord, we have wandered forth through doubt and sorrow,
And thou hast made each step an onward one;
And we will ever trust each unknown morrow,—
Thou wilt sustain us till its work is done.
- 3 In the heart's depths a peace serene and holy Abides, and when pain seems to have its will,
Or we despair,—oh, may that peace rise slowly,
Stronger than agony, and we be still!
- 4 Now, Saviour, now, in thy dear presence kneeling,
Our spirits yearn to feel thy kindling love;
Now make us strong, we need thy deep revealing
Of trust, and strength, and calmness from above.

"Calvary."

C. WESLEY.

LAMB of God, whose dying love

We now recall to mind,
Send the answer from above,
And let us mercy find:
Think on us who think on thee,
And every struggling soul release;

Oh, remember Calvary,
And bid us go in peace!

2 By thine agonizing pain,
And bloody sweat, we pray,
By thy dying love to man,
Take all our sins away:
Burst our bonds, and set us free;
From all iniquity release;

Oh, remember Calvary.
And bid us go in peace!

3 Let thy blood, by faith applied,
The sinner's pardon seal;
Speak us freely justified,
And all our sickness heal:
By thy passion on the tree,
Let all our griefs and troubles cease;
Oh, remember Calvary,
And bid us go in peace!

P. M.

Cant. 5: 1.

T. HASTINGS.

FORGET thyself! Christ bade thee come

To think upon his love,
Which could reverse the sinner's doom,
And write his name above;
Bid the returning rebel live,
And freely all his sins forgive.

2 Forget thyself! and think what pain,
What agony he bore,
To wash away each guilty stain,
To bless thee evermore:
To fit thee for his high abode,
The temple of the living God.

3 Forget thyself! but let thy soul
With memories o'erflow,
Rejoice in his supreme control,
And seek his will to know:
With thankful heart approach the feast,
And thou wilt be a welcome guest.

882

C. M.

Long-suffering.

A. STEELE.

DEAR Saviour, when my thoughts recall
The wonders of thy grace,

Low at thy feet ashamed, I fall,
And hide this wretched face.

2 Shall love like thine be thus repaid?
Ah, vile, ungrateful heart!

By earth's low cares so oft betrayed,
From Jesus to depart.

3 But he for his own mercy's sake,
My wandering soul restores;
He bids the mourning heart partake
The pardon it implores.

4 Oh, while I breathe to thee, my Lord,
The deep repentant sigh,
Confirm the kind, forgiving word,
With pity in thine eye.

5 Then shall the mourner at thy feet
Rejoice to seek thy face;
And, grateful, own how kind, how sweet,
Thy condescending grace.

"In remembrance."

T. HASTINGS.

SAVIOUR of our ruined race,
Fountain of redeeming grace,
Let us now thy fullness see,
While we here converse with thee;
Hearken to our ardent prayer,—
Let us all thy blessing share.

2 While we thus, with glad accord,
Meet around thy table, Lord,
Bid us feast with joy divine,
On the appointed bread and wine:
Emblems may they truly prove,
Of our Saviour's bleeding love.

3 Weak, unworthy, sinful, vile,
Yet we seek thy heavenly smile:
Canst thou all our sins forgive?
Dost thou bid us look and live?
Lord, we wonder and adore!
Oh, for grace to love thee more!

"Planted in Christ."

S. F. SMITH.

PLANTED in Christ, the living vine,
This day, with one accord,
Ourselves, with humble faith and joy,
We yield to thee, O Lord!

2 Joined in one body may we be:
One inward life partake;
One be our heart, one heavenly hope
In every bosom wake.

3 In prayer, in effort, tears, and toils,
One wisdom be our guide;
Taught by one Spirit from above,
In thee may we abide.

4 Then, when among the saints in light
Our joyful spirits shine,
Shall anthems of immortal praise,
O Lamb of God, be thine!

885 75, 68, D. Ancient Hymn. RAY PALMER, tr.

O BREAD, to pilgrims given,
O Food, that angels eat,
O manna, sent from heaven,
For heaven-born natures meet!
Give us, for thee long pining,
To eat till richly filled;
Till, earth's delights resigning,
Our every wish is stilled.

2 O Water, life-bestowing,
From out the Saviour's heart!
A fountain purely flowing,
A fount of love thou art;
Oh, let us, freely tasting,
Our burning thirst assuage!
Thy sweetness, never wasting,
Avails from age to age.

3 Jesus! this feast receiving,
We thee unseen adore;
Thy faithful word believing,
We take, and doubt no more;
Give us, thou true and loving!
On earth to live in thee;
Then, death the veil removing,
Thy glorious face to see.

886 75, 68, D. Hope at the Cross.

WHEN human hopes all wither,
And friends no aid supply,
Then whither, Lord, ah! whither
Can turn my straining eye?
'Mid storms of grief still rougher,
'Midst darker, deadlier shade,
That cross where thou didst suffer,
On Calvary was displayed.

2 On that my gaze I fasten,
My refuge that I make;
Though sorely thou mayst chasten,
Thou never canst forsake:
Thou, on that cross didst languish,
Ere glory crowned thy head!
And I, through death and anguish,
Must be to glory led.

887 L. M. Crucifying Afresh. C. F. ALEXANDER.

O Jesus! bruised and wounded more
Than bursted grape, or bread of wheat,
The Life of life within our souls,
The Cup of our salvation sweet;—

2 We come to show thy dying hour,
Thy streaming vein, thy broken flesh;
And still the blood is warm to save,
And still the fragrant wounds are fresh.

3 O Heart! that, with a double tide
Of blood and water, maketh pure;
O Flesh! once offered on the cross,
The gift that makes our pardon sure;—

4 Let never more our sinful souls
The anguish of thy cross renew;
Nor forge again the cruel nails,
That pierced thy victim body through.

888 L. M. Consecration. J. MONTGOMERY.

JESUS! our best beloved Friend,
On thy redeeming name we call;
Jesus! in love to us descend,
Pardon and sanctify us all.

2 Our souls and bodies we resign,
To fear and follow thy commands;
Oh, take our hearts, our hearts are thine,
Accept the service of our hands.

3 Firm, faithful, watching unto prayer,
Our Master's voice will we obey,
Toil in the vineyard here, and bear
The heat and burden of the day.

4 Yet, Lord, for us a resting-place,
In heaven, at thy right hand prepare;
And till we see thee face to face,
Be all our conversation there.

889 L. M. "Our Lord is Crucified." F. W. FABER.

OH, come, and mourn with me awhile;
Oh, come ye to the Saviour's side;
Oh, come, together let us mourn;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

2 Have we no tears to shed for him,
While soldiers scoff and Jews deride?
Ah, look how patiently he hangs;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

3 Come, let us stand beneath the cross;
So may the blood from out his side
Fall gently on us drop by drop;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.

4 A broken heart, a fount of tears
Ask, and they will not be denied;
Lord Jesus, may we love and weep,
Since thou for us art crucified.

FROM Greenland's icy mountains,
 From India's coral strand,
 Where Afric's sunny fountains
 Roll down their golden sand,—
 From many an ancient river,
 From many a palmy plain,
 They call us to deliver
 Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes
 Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
 Though every prospect pleases,
 And only man is vile;
 In vain with lavish kindness
 The gifts of God are strown;
 The heathen, in his blindness,
 Bows down to wood and stone!

3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
 With wisdom from on high,—
 Shall we, to men benighted,
 The lamp of life deny?
 Salvation, oh, salvation!
 The joyful sound proclaim,
 Till earth's remotest nation
 Has learned Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
 And you, ye waters, roll,
 Till, like a sea of glory,
 It spreads from pole to pole;

Till o'er our ransomed nature
 The Lamb for sinners slain,
 Redeemer, King, Creator,
 In bliss returns to reign!

 The feet of him that brings,
 Like streams from living fountains,
 Good tidings of good things;

 And jubilee release,
 To every tribe and nation,
 God's reign of joy and peace!

2 Lift up thy voice, O watchman!
 And shout, from Zion's towers,
 Thy hallelujah chorus,—
 "The victory is ours!"
 The Lord shall build up Zion
 In glory and renown,
 And Jesus, Judah's lion,
 Shall wear his rightful crown.

3 Break forth in hymns of gladness;
 O waste Jerusalem!
 Let songs, instead of sadness,
 Thy jubilee proclaim;
 The Lord, in strength victorious,
 Upon thy foes hath trod;
 Behold, O earth! the glorious

OUR country's voice is pleading.

Ye men of God, arise !

His providence is leading,

Day-gleams are o'er it brightening,

And promise clothes the soil ;

Wide fields, for harvest whitening,

Invite the reaper's toil.

2 Go, where the waves are breaking

On California's shore,

Christ's precious gospel taking,

More rich than golden ore ;

On Alleghany's mountains,

Through all the western vale,

Beside Missouri's fountains,

Rehearse the wondrous tale.

3 The love of Christ unfolding,

Speed on from east to west,

Till all, his cross beholding,

In him are fully blest.

Great Author of salvation,

Haste, haste the glorious day,

When we, a ransomed nation,

Thy sceptre shall obey.

When all shall dwell together,

One shepherd and one fold ?

Shall every idol perish,

To moles and bats be thrown,

And every prayer be offered

To God in Christ alone ?

2 Shall Jew and Gentile, meeting

From many a distant shore,

Around one altar kneeling,

One common Lord adore ?

Shall all that now divides us

Remove and pass away,

Like shadows of the morning

Before the blaze of day ?

3 Shall all that now unites us

More sweet and lasting prove,

A closer bond of union,

In a blest land of love ?

Shall war be learned no longer,

Shall strife and tumult cease,

All earth his blessed kingdom,

The Lord and Prince of Peace ?

4 O long-expected dawning,

Come with thy cheering ray !

When shall the morning brighten,

The shadows flee away ?

O sweet anticipation !

It cheers the watchers on,

To pray, and hope, and labor,

Till the dark night be gone.

Psalms 72.

J. MONTGOMERY.

HAIL to the Lord's anointed,
Great David's greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression,
To set the captive free,
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

2 He comes, with succor speedy,
To those who suffer wrong;
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemned and dying,
Were precious in his sight.

3 He shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth,
And love, and joy, like flowers,
Spring in his path to birth:
Before him, on the mountains,
Shall peace the herald go,
And righteousness in fountains
From hill to valley flow.

4 Arabia's desert-ranger
To him shall bow the knee;
The Ethiopian stranger
His glory come to see:

With offerings of devotion,
Ships from the isles shall meet,
To pour the wealth of ocean
In tribute at his feet.

5 Kings shall fall down before him,
And gold and incense bring:
All nations shall adore him;
His praise all people sing;
For he shall have dominion
O'er river, sea, and shore,
Far as the eagle's pinion
Or dove's light wing can soar.

6 For him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing,
A kingdom without end.
The heavenly dew shall nourish
A seed in weakness sown,
Whose fruit shall spread and flourish,
And shake like Lebanon.

7 O'er every foe victorious,
He on his throne shall rest;
From age to age more glorious,
All-blessing and all-blessed.
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove;
His name shall stand for ever;
His great, best name of Love!

7s, 6s. The morning light.

S. F. SMITH.

THE morning light is breaking;
The darkness disappears!
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears;
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
Brings tidings from afar,
Of nations in commotion,
Prepared for Zion's war.

2 See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above;

While sinners, now confessing,
The gospel call obey,
And seek the Saviour's blessing—
A nation in a day.

3 Blest river of salvation!
Pursue thine onward way;
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay:
Stay not till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home:
Stay not till all the holy Proclaim—"The Lord is come!"

The Promise.

T. HASTINGS.

HAIL to the brightness of Zion's glad morning!
Joy to the lands that in darkness have lain!
Hushed be the accents of sorrow and mourning;
Zion in triumph begins her mild reign.

2 Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning,
Long by the prophets of Israel foretold;
Hail to the millions from bondage returning;
Gentile and Jew the blest vision behold.

3 Lo! in the desert rich flowers are springing,
Streams ever copious are gliding along;
Loud from the mountain-tops echoes are ringing,
Wastes rise in verdure, and mingle in song.

4 See, from all lands—from the isles of the ocean,
Praise to Jehovah ascending on high;
Fallen are the engines of war and commotion,
Shouts of salvation are rending the sky.

Revival Implored.

J. NEWTON.

SAVIOUR, visit thy plantation!

Grant us, Lord, a gracious rain:

All will come to desolation,

Unless thou return again.

2 Keep no longer at a distance,
Shine upon us from on high,
Lest, for want of thine assistance,
Every plant should droop and die.

3 Once, O Lord, thy garden flourished;
Every part looked gay and green;
Then thy word our spirits nourished:
Happy seasons we have seen.

4 But a drought has since succeeded,
And a sad decline we see:
Lord, thy help is greatly needed:
Help can only come from thee.

5 Let our mutual love be fervent:
Make us prevalent in prayer;
Let each one esteemed thy servant
Shun the world's bewitching snare.

6 Break the tempter's fatal power,
Turn the stony heart to flesh,
And begin from this good hour
To revive thy work afresh.

2 See celestial radiance beaming,
Lighting up the midnight sky;
'Tis the promised day-star gleaming,
'Tis the day-spring from on high.

3 Westward, all along the ages,
Trace its pathway clear and bright;
Star of hope to Eastern sages,
Radiant now with gospel light.

4 Angels from the realms of glory,
Peace on earth delight to sing;
Christian, tell the wondrous story,
Go proclaim the Saviour King!

God is the refuge of his saints,

Ere we can offer our complaints,

2 Let mountains from their seats be hurled

Convulsions shake the solid world—
Our faith shall never yield to fear.

3 Loud may the troubled ocean roar—
In sacred peace our souls abide;
While every nation, every shore,
Trembles, and dreads the swelling tide.

Supplies the city of our God;
Life, love, and joy, still gliding through,

But friends provoke the silent lyre,

2 In peopled vale, in lonely glen,
In crowded mart, by stream or sea,
How many of the sons of men
Hear not the message sent from thee!

3 Send forth thy heralds, Lord, to call
The thoughtless young, the hardened old,
A scattered, homeless flock, till all
Be gathered to thy peaceful fold.

4 Send them thy mighty word to speak,
Till faith shall dawn, and doubt depart,
To awe the bold, to stay the weak,
And bind and heal the broken heart.

Thou city of our God below !
Thy fame shall Tyre and Egypt know.

4 Egypt and Tyre, and Greek and Jew,
Shall there begin their lives anew ;
Angels and men shall join to sing
The hill where living waters spring.

5 When God makes up his last account
Of natives in his holy mount,
'T will be an honor to appear,
As one new-born, or nourished there.

Psalm 80.

I. WATTS.

GREAT Shepherd of thine Israel !
Who didst between the cherubs dwell,
And lead the tribes, thy chosen sheep,
Safe through the desert and the deep ;—

2 Thy Church is in the desert now ;
Shine from on high and guide us through ;
Turn us to thee, thy love restore ;
We shall be saved, and sigh no more.

3 Hast thou not planted, with thy hand,
A lovely vine in this our land ?
Did not thy power defend it round,
And heavenly dews enrich the ground ?

4 Return, almighty God ! return,
Nor let thy bleeding vineyard mourn :
Turn us to thee, thy love restore ;
We shall be saved, and sigh no more.

"Alleluia."

ANON.

HALLELUJAH ! song of gladness,
Song of everlasting joy ;
Hallelujah ! song the sweetest
That can angel-hosts employ ;
Hymning in God's holy presence
Their high praise eternally.

2 Hallelujah ! church victorious,
Thou mayst lift this joyful strain :
Hallelujah ! songs of triumph

Well befit the ransomed train :
We our song must raise with sadness,
While in exile we remain.

3 Hallelujah ! strains of gladness
Suit not souls with anguish torn ;
Hallelujah ! notes of sadness
Best befit our state forlorn :
For, in this dark world of sorrow,
We, with tears, our sin must mourn.

4 But our earnest supplication,
Holy God, we raise to thee ;
Bring us to thy blissful presence,
Make us all thy joys to see ;
Then we'll sing our Hallelujah,—
Sing to all eternity.

Psalm 14.

H. F. LYTH.

OH, that the Lord's salvation
Were out of Zion come,
To heal his ancient nation,
To lead his outcasts home !
How long the holy city
Shall heathen feet profane ?
Return, O Lord, in pity,
Rebuild her walls again.

2 Let fall thy rod of terror,
Thy saving grace impart ;
Roll back the veil of error,
Release the fettered heart ;
Let Israel, home returning,
Their lost Messiah see ;
Give oil of joy for mourning,
And bind thy Church to thee.

The Gospel Banner.

T. HASTINGS.

Now be the gospel banner,
In every land unfurled ;
And be the shout,—“ Hosanna ! ”
Re-echoed through the world ;
Till every isle and nation,
Till every tribe and tongue,
Receive the great salvation,
And join the happy throng.

2 Yes,—thou shalt reign for ever,
O Jesus, King of kings !
Thy light, thy love, thy favor,
Each ransomed captive sings :
The isles for thee are waiting,
The deserts learn thy praise,
The hills and valleys greeting,
The song responsive raise.

929 75, D. Gospel Increase.

C. WESLEY.

SEE! how great a flame aspires,
Kindled by a spark of grace!
Jesus' love the nations fires,—
Sets the kingdoms on a blaze;
Fire to bring on earth he came;
Kindled in some hearts it is;
Oh, that all might catch the flame,
All partake the glorious bliss!

2 When he first the work begun,
Small and feeble was his day:
Now the word doth swiftly run;
Now it wins its widening way:
More and more it spreads and grows,
Ever mighty to prevail;
Sin's strongholds it now o'erthrows,—
Shakes the trembling gates of hell.

3 Sons of God! your Saviour praise;
He the door hath opened wide;
He hath given the word of grace;
Jesus' word is glorified;
Jesus, mighty to redeem—
He alone the work hath wrought;
Worthy is the work of him,—
Him who spake a world from naught.

Psalms 102.

I. WATTS.

LET Zion and her sons rejoice—
Behold the promised hour!
Her God hath heard her mourning voice,
And comes to exalt his power.

2 Her dust and ruins that remain
Are precious in our eyes;
Those ruins shall be built again,
And all that dust shall rise.

3 The Lord will raise Jerusalem,
And stand in glory there;
Nations shall bow before his name,
And kings attend with fear.

4 He sits a sovereign on his throne,
With pity in his eyes;
He hears the dying prisoners' groan,
And sees their sighs arise.

5 He frees the souls condemned to death;
Nor, when his saints complain,
Shall it be said that praying breath
Was ever spent in vain.

Isaiah 52: 1, 2.

J. MONTGOMERY.

DAUGHTER of Zion! from the dust
Exalt thy fallen head;
Again in thy Redeemer trust,—
He calls thee from the dead.

2 Awake, awake, put on thy strength,—
Thy beautiful array;
The day of freedom dawns at length,—
The Lord's appointed day.

3 Rebuild thy walls, thy bounds enlarge,
And send thy heralds forth;
Say to the south,—“Give up thy charge,
And keep not back, O north!”

4 They come! they come! thine exiled bands,
Where'er they rest or roam,
Have heard thy voice in distant lands,
And hasten to their home.

5 Thus, though the universe shall burn,
And God his works destroy,
With songs, the ransomed shall return,
And everlasting joy.

75, D. “Tell us of the Night.”

J. BOWRING.

WATCHMAN! tell us of the night,
What its signs of promise are;—
Traveler! o'er yon mountain's height,
See that glory-beaming star!—
Watchman! does its beauteous ray
Aught of joy or hope foretell?—
Traveler! yes; it brings the day,
Promised day of Israel:—

2 Watchman! tell us of the night;
Higher yet that star ascends;—
Traveler! blessedness and light,
Peace and truth, its course portends;—
Watchman! will its beams alone
Gild the spot that gave them birth?—
Traveler! ages are its own;
See, it bursts o'er all the earth!—

3 Watchman! tell us of the night,
For the morning seems to dawn;—
Traveler! darkness takes its flight,
Doubt and terror are withdrawn;—
Watchman! let thy wanderings cease;
Hie thee to thy quiet home!—
Traveler! lo! the Prince of Peace,
Lo! the Son of God, is come!

933 "I would not live alway." W. A. MUHLENBERG.

I WOULD not live alway: I ask not to stay
Where storm after storm rises dark o'er
the way;

The few lurid mornings that dawn on us here
Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer.

2 I would not live alway, thus fettered by sin—
Temptation without and corruption within:
Ev'n the rapture of pardon is mingled with fears,
And the cup of thanksgiving with penitent
tears.

3 I would not live alway; no, welcome the tomb;
Since Jesus hath lain there, I dread not its gloom;

There sweet be my rest till he bid me arise
To hail him in triumph descending the skies.

4 Who, who would live alway, away from his God,
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,

And the noontide of glory eternally reigns?

5 Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet;
While the anthems of rapture unceasingly
roll,

And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

Thou art gone to the grave! but we will not deplore thee,

Though sorrows and darkness encompass
the tomb;

The Saviour hath passed through its portals
before thee,

And the lamp of his love is thy guide
through the gloom.

2 Thou art gone to the grave! we no longer behold thee,

Nor tread the rough paths of the world by thy side;

But the wide arms of mercy are spread to
enfold thee,

And sinners may hope, for the Sinless hath died.

3 Thou art gone to the grave! and, its mansion forsaking,

Perchance thy weak spirit in doubt lingered long;

But the sunshine of glory beamed bright
on thy waking,

And the sound thou didst hear was the seraphim's song.

4 Thou art gone to the grave! but we will not deplore thee,

Since God was thy ransom, thy guardian,
and guide:

He gave thee, he took thee, and he will restore thee,

And death has no sting, since the Saviour
hath died.

TENDER Shepherd, thou hast stilled
 Now thy little lamb's brief weeping:
 Ah, how peaceful, pale, and mild
 In its narrow bed 'tis sleeping!
 And no sigh of anguish sore
 Heaves that little bosom more.

2 In this world of care and pain,
 Lord, thou wouldst no longer leave it;
 To the sunny heavenly plain
 Thou dost now with joy receive it;
 Clothed in robes of spotless white,
 Now it dwells with thee in light.

3 Ah, Lord Jesus, grant that we
 Where it lives may soon be living,
 And the lovely pastures see
 That its heavenly food are giving;
 Then the gain of death we prove,
 Though thou take what most we love.

"Ye shall live also." F. E. COX, tr.

JESUS lives! no longer now
 Can thy terrors, Death, appall me;
 Jesus lives! and well I know,
 From the dead he will recall me;
 Better life will then commence—
 This shall be my confidence.

2 Jesus lives! to him the throne
 Over all the world is given;
 I shall go where he is gone,
 Live and reign with him in heaven:
 God is pledged; weak doubtings, hence!
 This shall be my confidence!

3 Jesus lives! henceforth is death
 Entrance into life immortal;
 Calmly I can yield my breath,
 Fearless tread the frowning portal;
 Lord, when faileth flesh and sense,
 Thou wilt be my confidence!

Life's Sunset.

W. B. O. PEABODY.

BEHOLD the western evening light!
It melts in deepening gloom:
So calmly Christians sink away,
Descending to the tomb.
The winds breathe low, the withering leaf
Scarce whispers from the tree:
So gently flows the parting breath,
When good men cease to be.

2 How beautiful on all the hills
The crimson light is shed!
'Tis like the peace the Christian gives
To mourners round his bed.
How mildly on the wandering cloud
The sunset beam is cast!
'Tis like the memory left behind
When loved ones breathe their last.

3 And now above the dews of night
The rising star appears:
So faith springs in the heart of those Whose eyes are bathed in tears.
But soon the morning's happier light
Its glory shall restore,
And eyelids that are sealed in death
Shall wake to close no more.

"Number our days."

R. HERBER.

BENEATH our feet and o'er our head
Is equal warning given;
Beneath us lie the countless dead,
Above us is the heaven!
Death rides on every passing breeze,
And lurks in every flower;
Each season hath its own disease,
Its peril every hour!

2 Our eyes have seen the rosy light
Of youth's soft cheek decay;
And fate descend in sudden night
On manhood's middle day.
Our eyes have seen the steps of age
Halt feebly to the tomb;
And yet shall earth our hearts engage,
And dreams of days to come?

3 Then, mortal, turn! thy danger know;
Where'er thy foot can tread,
The earth rings hollow from below,
And warns thee of her dead!
Turn, mortal, turn! thy soul apply
To truths divinely given:
The dead, who underneath thee lie,
Shall live for hell or heaven!

 Fire ascending seeks the sun;
 Both speed them to their source:
 So a soul that's born of God,

 Upward tends to his abode,
 To rest in his embrace.

3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn,
 Press onward to the prize;
 Soon our Saviour will return
 Triumphant in the skies:

Yet a season,—and you know
 Happy entrance will be given,
 All our sorrows left below,
 And earth exchanged for heaven.

"His beloved sleep."

I. WATTS.

WHY should we start, and fear to die?
What timorous worms we mortals are!
Death is the gate of endless joy,
And yet we dread to enter there.

2 The pains, the groans, the dying strife
Fright our approaching souls away;
We still shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.

3 Oh, if my Lord would come and meet,
My soul should stretch her wings in haste,
Fly fearless through death's iron gate,
Nor feel the terrors as she passed.

4 Jesus can make a dying bed
Feel soft as downy pillows are,
While on his breast I lean my head,
And breathe my life out sweetly there!

Death of the Righteous. A. L. BARBAULD.

HOW BLEST the righteous when he dies,—
When sinks a weary soul to rest!
How mildly beam the closing eyes!
How gently heaves the expiring breast!

2 So fades a summer-cloud away;
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
So gently shuts the eye of day;
So dies a wave along the shore.

3 A holy quiet reigns around,—
A calm which life nor death destroys;
And naught disturbs that peace profound,
Which his unfettered soul enjoys.

4 Life's labor done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies;
While heaven and earth combine to say,—
"How blest the righteous when he dies!"

943

Psalm 90.

I. WATTS.

THROUGH every age, eternal God!
Thou art our Rest, our safe Abode;
High was thy throne, ere heaven was made,
Or earth thy humble footstool laid.

2 Long hadst thou reigned, ere time began,
Or dust was fashioned into man;
And long thy kingdom shall endure,
When earth and time shall be no more.

3 Death, like an overflowing stream,
Sweeps us away; our life's a dream;
An empty tale; a morning flower,
Cut down, and withered in an hour.

4 Teach us, O Lord, how frail is man;
And kindly lengthen out our span,
Till thine own grace, so rich, so free,
Fit us to die and dwell with thee.

"For ever with the Lord!"
So, Jesus! let it be;
Life from the dead is in that word;
'Tis immortality.

- 2 Here, in the body pent,
Absent from thee I roam:
Yet nightly pitch my moving tent

Thy golden gates appear!

Father, if 'tis thy will,
The promise of thy gracious word
Ev'n here to me fulfill.
- 5 So, when my latest breath
Shall rend the vail in twain,
By death I shall escape from death,

How shall I love that word,

Resurrection. S. F. SMITH.

Oh, for the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord!
Oh, be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward!

Till the last trumpet's joyful sound
Shall call them to the sky.
- 3 Their ransomed spirits soar

To meet the Saviour they adore,
And reign with him above.
- 4 With us their names shall live
Through long succeeding years,
Embalmed with all our hearts can give,
Our praises and our tears.

"I will wait." H. BONAR.

- A FEW more years shall roll,
A few more seasons come;
And we shall be with those that rest,
Asleep within the tomb;—
- 2 A few more storms shall beat
On this wild rocky shore;
And we shall be where tempests cease,
And surges swell no more:—
  - 3 A few more struggles here,
A few more partings o'er,
A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more.
  - 4 Then, O my Lord, prepare

Oh, wash me in thy precious blood,
And take my sins away!

ONE sweetly solemn thought
Comes to me o'er and o'er,—
Nearer my home, to-day, am I
Than e'er I've been before.

2 Nearer my Father's house,
Where many mansions be;
Nearer to-day the great white throne,
Nearer the crystal sea.

3 Nearer the bound of life,
Where burdens are laid down;
Nearer to leave the heavy cross;
Nearer to gain the crown.

4 But, lying dark between,
Winding down through the night,
There rolls the deep and unknown stream
That leads at last to light.

5 Ev'n now, perchance, my feet
Are slipping on the brink,
And I, to-day, am nearer home,—
Nearer than now I think.

"I shall go to him."

H. K. WHITE.

THROUGH sorrow's night, and danger's path,
Amid the deepening gloom,
We, followers of our suffering Lord,
Are marching to the tomb.

- 2 There, when the turmoil is no more,
And all our powers decay,
Our cold remains, in solitude,
Shall sleep the years away.
- 3 Our labors done, securely laid
In this our last retreat,
Unheeded o'er our silent dust
The storms of earth shall beat.
- 4 Yet not thus buried or extinct,
The vital spark shall lie:
For o'er life's wreck that spark shall rise
To seek its kindred sky.

- 5 These ashes, too, this little dust,
Our Father's care shall keep,
Till the last angel rise and break
The long and dreary sleep.

- 6 Then love's soft dew o'er every eye
Shall shed its mildest rays,
And the long silent voice awake
With shouts of endless praise.

WHEN downward to the darksome tomb
I thoughtful turn my eyes,
Frail nature trembles at the gloom,
And anxious fears arise.

- 2 Why shrinks my soul?—in death's embrace
Once Jesus captive slept:
And angels, hovering o'er the place,
His lowly pillow kept.
- 3 Thus shall they guard my sleeping dust,
And, as the Saviour rose,
The grave again shall yield her trust,
And end my deep repose.
- 4 My Lord, before to glory gone,
Shall bid me come away;
And calm and bright shall break the dawn
Of heaven's eternal day,
- 5 Then let my faith each fear dispel,
And gild with light the grave;
To him my loftiest praises swell,
Who died, from death to save.

953

"We are confident."

I. WATTS.

WHY do we mourn departing friends,
Or shake at death's alarms?
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends,
To call them to his arms.

2 Are we not tending upward, too,
As fast as time can move?
Nor would we wish the hours more slow,
To keep us from our love.

3 Why should we tremble to convey
Their bodies to the tomb?
There the dear flesh of Jesus lay,
And scattered all the gloom.

4 The graves of all the saints he blessed,
And softened every bed;
Where should the dying members rest,
But with the dying Head?

5 Thence he arose, ascending high,
And showed our feet the way;
Up to the Lord we, too, shall fly
At the great rising-day.

6 Then let the last loud trumpet sound,
And bid our kindred rise;
Awake! ye nations under ground;
Ye saints! ascend the skies.

HOW VAIN is all beneath the skies!
How transient every earthly bliss!
How slender all the fondest ties
That bind us to a world like this!
2 The evening-cloud, the morning dew,
The withering grass, the fading flower,
Of earthly hopes are emblems true,—
The glory of a passing hour.
3 But, though earth's fairest blossoms die,
And all beneath the skies is vain,
There is a land whose confines lie
Beyond the reach of care and pain.
4 Then let the hope of joys to come
Dispel our cares and chase our fears:
If God be ours, we're traveling home,
Though passing through a vale of tears.

Psalms 17.

L. WATTS.

WHAT sinners value I resign;
Lord! 'tis enough that thou art mine;
I shall behold thy blissful face,
And stand complete in righteousness.
2 This life's a dream—an empty show;
But the bright world, to which I go,
Hath joys substantial and sincere;
When shall I wake, and find me there?
3 Oh, glorious hour! oh, blest abode!
I shall be near, and like my God;
And flesh and sin no more control
The sacred pleasures of the soul.
4 My flesh shall slumber in the ground,
Till the last trumpet's joyful sound;
Then burst the chains, with sweet surprise,
And in my Saviour's image rise!

WHAT is life? 'tis but a vapor,
 Soon it vanishes away;
 Life is but a dying taper—
 O my soul, why wish to stay?
 Why not spread thy wings and fly
 Straight to yonder world of joy?

 Brighter far than fancy paints;
 There, in majesty transcendent,
 Jesus reigns—the King of saints.
 Why not spread, etc.

3 Joyful crowds his throne surrounding,
 Sing with rapture of his love;
 Through the heavens his praise resounding,
 Filling all the courts above.
 Why not spread, etc.

WHEN thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come
 To take thy ransomed people home,
 Shall I among them stand?
 Shall such a worthless worm as I,
 Who sometimes am afraid to die,
 Be found at thy right hand?

2 I love to meet thy people now,
 Before thy feet with them to bow,
 Though vilest of them all;
 But, can I bear the piercing thought,
 What if my name should be left out,
 When thou for them shalt call?

3 O Lord, prevent it by thy grace,
 Be thou my only hiding-place,
 In this the accepted day;
 Thy pardoning voice, oh, let me hear,
 To still my unbelieving fear,
 Nor let me fall, I pray.

4 Among thy saints let me be found,
 Whene'er the archangel's trump shall sound,
 To see thy smiling face;
 Then loudest of the throng I'll sing,
 While heaven's resounding mansions ring
 With shouts of sovereign grace.

Our fathers; where are they. P. TODDRIDGE.
 How swift the torrent rolls,
 That bears us to the sea,
 The tide that hurries thoughtless souls
 To vast eternity!

2 Our fathers, where are they,
 With all they called their own?
 Their joys and griefs, and hopes and cares,
 And wealth and honor gone.

3 God of our fathers, hear,
 Thou everlasting Friend!
 While we, as on life's utmost verge,
 Our souls to thee commend.

4 Of all the pious dead
 May we the footsteps trace,
 Till with them, in the land of light,
 We dwell before thy face.

"How long, O Lord!" H. BONAR.

THE Church has waited long
 Her absent Lord to see;
 And still in loneliness she waits,
 A friendless stranger she.

2 How long, O Lord our God,
 Holy and true and good,
 Wilt thou not judge thy suffering Church,
 Her sighs and tears and blood?

3 Saint after saint on earth,
 Has lived and loved and died;
 And as they left us, one by one,
 We laid them side by side.

4 We laid them down to sleep,
 But not in hope forlorn;
 We laid them but to ripen there,
 Till the last glorious morn.

5 We long to hear thy voice,
 To see thee face to face,
 To share thy crown and glory then,
 As now we share thy grace.

6 Come, Lord, and wipe away
 The curse, the sin, the stain,
 And make this blighted world of ours
 Thine own fair world again.

For all thy saints, O God,
 Who strove in Christ to live,
 Who followed him, obeyed, adored,
 Our grateful hymn receive.

2 For all thy saints, O God,
 Accept our thankful cry,
 Who counted Christ their great reward,
 And yearned for him to die.

3 They all, in life and death,
 With him; their Lord, in view,
 Learned from thy Holy Spirit's breath
 To suffer and to do.

4 For this thy name we bless,
 And humbly pray that we
 May follow them in holiness,
 And live and die in thee.

It is not death to die—

To leave this weary road,
And 'mid the brotherhood on high,
To be at home with God.

2 It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears,
And wake, in glorious repose
To spend eternal years.

3 It is not death to bear
The wretch that sets us free
From dungeon chain,—to breathe the air
Of boundless liberty.

4 It is not death to fling
Aside this sinful dust,
And rise, on strong exulting wing,
To live among the just.

Thy chosen cannot die;
Like thee, they conquer in the strife,
To reign with thee on high.

Death of a Minister. J. MONTGOMERY.

SERVANT of God, well done!
Rest from thy loved employ:
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy!

2 The voice at midnight came;
He started up to hear;
A mortal arrow pierced his frame;
He fell, but felt no fear.

3 His spirit with a bound
Left its encumbering clay:
His tent, at sunrise, on the ground
A darkened ruin lay.

4 The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease,
And, life's long warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.

5 Soldier of Christ, well done!
Praise be thy new employ;
And, while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

"With thy might."

H. BONAR.

MAKE haste, O man, to live,
For thou so soon must die;
Time hurries past thee like the breeze;
How swift its moments fly!

2 To breathe, and wake, and sleep,
To smile, to sigh, to grieve,
To move in idleness through earth—
This, this is not to live.

3 Make haste, O man, to do
Whatever must be done;
Thou hast no time to lose in sloth,
Thy day will soon be gone.

4 Up, then, with speed, and work;
Fling ease and self away—
This is no time for thee to sleep—
Up, watch, and work, and pray!

Psalms 90.

I. WATTS.

Our God, our help in ages past,
 Our hope for years to come ;
 Our shelter from the stormy blast,
 And our eternal home :—
 Under the shadow of thy throne
 Thy saints have dwelt secure ;
 Sufficient is thine arm alone,
 And our defence is sure.

2 Before the hills in order stood,
 Or earth received her frame,
 From everlasting thou art God,
 To endless years the same.
 A thousand ages, in thy sight,
 Are like an evening gone ;
 Short as the watch that ends the night,
 Before the rising sun.

3 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
 Bears all its sons away ;
 They fly, forgotten, as a dream
 Dies at the opening day.
 Our God, our help in ages past,
 Our hope for years to come,
 Be thou our guard while troubles last,
 And our eternal home.

 To go unto our God ;

2 No, no, it is not dying
 Heaven's citizen to be ;
 A crown immortal wearing,
 And rest unbroken sharing,
 From care and conflict free.

3 No, no, it is not dying
 To wear a heavenly crown ;
 Among God's people dwelling,
 The glorious triumph swelling,
 Of him whose sway we own.

4 Oh, no ! this is not dying,

 There, streams of love are flowing,
 No hindrance ever knowing ;
 Here, only drops we find.

Burial of Believers.

I. WATTS.

UNVAIL thy bosom, faithful tomb !
 Take this new treasure to thy trust,

And give these sacred relics room
 To seek a slumber in the dust.

2 Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear,
 Invade thy bounds ;—no mortal woes
 Can reach the peaceful sleeper here,
 While angels watch the soft repose.

3 So Jesus slept ; God's dying Son Passed thro' the grave and blessed the bed !

Rest here, blest saint ! till, from his throne,
 The morning break, and pierce the shade.

4 Break from his throne, illustrious morn !
 Attend, O earth ! his sovereign word ;
 Restore thy trust ;—a glorious form
 Shall then arise to meet the Lord.

The Soul Departing.

A. POPE.

VITAL spark of heavenly flame !
 Quit, oh, quit this mortal frame ;
 Trembling, hoping, lingering, flying—
 Oh, the pain !—the bliss of dying !
 Cease, fond nature, cease thy strife,
 And let me languish into life !

2 Hark ! they whisper ; angels say,
 " Sister spirit, come away ;"
 What is this absorbs me quite ?—
 Steals my senses, shuts my sight,
 Drowns my spirits, draws my breath ?—
 Tell me, my soul, can this be death ?

3 The world recedes—it disappears !
 Heaven opens on my eyes !—my ears
 With sounds seraphic ring !
 Lend, lend your wings ! I mount ! I fly !
 " O Grave ! where is thy victory ?
 O Death ! where is thy sting ?"

 Thine unveiled glory to behold ;
 Then only will this wandering heart
 Cease to be false to thee and cold.

Job 3: 17-20.

R. BLAIR.

How still and peaceful is the grave!

Where, life's vain tumults past,
The appointed house, by heaven's decree,
Receives us all at last.

2 The wicked there from troubling cease;
Their passions rage no more;
And there the weary pilgrim rests
From all the toils he bore.

3 There servants, masters, small and
Partake the same repose; [great,
And there, in peace, the ashes mix
Of those who once were foes.

4 All, leveled by the hand of death,
Lie sleeping in the tomb,
Till God in judgment calls them forth
To meet their final doom.

To die is gain.

W. H. BATHURST.

Why should our tears in sorrow flow,
When God recalls his own;
And bids them leave a world of woe
For an immortal crown?

2 Is not ev'n death a gain to those Whose life to God was given?
Gladly to earth their eyes they close,
To open them in heaven.

3 Their toils are past, their work is done,
And they are fully blest:
They fought the fight, the victory won,
And entered into rest.

4 Then let our sorrows cease to flow,—
God has recalled his own;
And let our hearts in every woe,
Still say,—“Thy will be done!”

The Cemetery.

J. MONTGOMERY.

This place is holy ground!

World, with its cares, away!
A holy, solemn stillness, round
This lifeless, mouldering clay;
Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear,
Can reach the peaceful sleeper here.

2 Behold the bed of death,
The pale and mortal clay!
Heard ye the sob of parting breath?
Marked ye the eye's last ray?
No! life so sweetly ceased to be,
It lapsed in immortality.

3 Bury the dead, and weep
In stillness o'er the loss!
Bury the dead! in Christ they sleep
Who bore on earth his cross;
And from the grave their dust shall rise,
In his own image to the skies.

Go to the grave in all thy glorious prime!
In full activity of zeal and power;
A Christian cannot die before his time;
The Lord's appointment is the servant's hour.

2 Go to the grave; at noon from labor

Come from the heat of battle, and in

3 Go to the grave, for there thy Saviour lay
In death's embraces, ere he rose on high;
And all the ransomed, by that narrow
way,
Pass to eternal life beyond the sky.

4 Go to the grave! no, take thy seat

O Son of God, in glory crowned,
The Judge ordained of quick and dead!
O Son of man, so pitying found
For all the tears thy people shed!

This weary, restless, dangerous night;
And teach, oh, teach us, by thy grace,
To struggle onward into light!

Our sins are written, every one,—
The crime, the wrath, the wandering look,
The good we knew, and left undone;—

DAY of judgment! day of wonders!

 How the summons
 Will the sinner's heart confound!

 Clothed in majesty divine!
 You, who long for his appearing,
 Then shall say, "This God is mine!"

1. { Great God, what do I see and hear! The end of things cre - a - ted! }

Prepare to meet God. W. B. COLLYER, tr.

GREAT God, what do I see and hear!
 The end of things created!
 The Judge of man I see appear,
 On clouds of glory seated:
 The trumpet sounds; the graves restore
 The dead which they contained before;
 Prepare, my soul, to meet him.

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise,
 At the last trumpet's sounding—
 Caught up to meet him in the skies,
 With joy their Lord surrounding;
 No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
 His presence sheds eternal day
 On those prepared to meet him.

3 But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
 Behold his wrath prevailing;
 For they shall rise, and find their tears
 And sighs are unavailing:
 The day of grace is past and gone;
 Trembling they stand before the throne,
 All unprepared to meet him.

4 Great God! what do I see and hear!
 The end of things created!
 The Judge of man I see appear,
 On clouds of glory seated:
 Beneath his cross I view the day
 When heaven and earth shall pass away,
 And thus prepare to meet him.

977

"Into thine hand."

GERMAN.

WHEN my last hour is close at hand,
 My last sad journey taken,
 Do thou, Lord Jesus! by me stand;
 Let me not be forsaken:
 O Lord! my spirit I resign
 Into thy loving hands divine;
 'Tis safe within thy keeping.

2 Countless as sands upon the shore,
 My sins may then appall me;
 Yet, though my conscience vex me sore,
 Despair shall not enthrall me;
 For as I draw my latest breath,
 I'll think, Lord Christ! upon thy death,
 And there find consolation.

3 I shall not in the grave remain,
 Since thou death's bonds hast severed
 By hope with thee to rise again,
 From fear of death delivered,
 I'll come to thee, where'er thou art,—
 Live with thee, from thee never part;
 Therefore I die in rapture.

4 And so to Jesus Christ I'll go,
 My longing arms extending;
 So fall asleep, in slumber deep,
 Slumber that knows no ending;
 Till Jesus Christ, God's only Son,
 Opens the gates of bliss, leads on
 To heaven, to life eternal.

978 All over and gone.

H. ALFORD.

EARTH is past away and gone,
All her glories, every one,
All her pomp is broken down;
God is reigning, God alone!

2 All her high ones lowly lie,
All her mirth hath passed by,
All her merry-hearted sigh;
God is reigning, God on high!

3 No more sorrow, no more night;
Perfect joy and purest light!
With his spotless saints and bright,
God is reigning in the height!

4 Blessing, praise and glory bring;
Offer every holy thing;
Everlasting praises sing;
God is reigning, God our King!

979 The Last Day.

B. BEDDOME.

BEHOLD, the day is come;
The righteous Judge is near;
And sinners, trembling at their doom,
Shall soon their sentence hear.

2 How awful is the sight!
How loud the thunders roar!
The sun forbears to give his light,
And stars are seen no more.

3 The whole creation groans;
But saints arise and sing:
They are the ransomed of the Lord,
And he their God and King.

980 Now is the time.

P. DODDRIDGE.

AND will the Judge descend,
And must the dead arise,
And not a single soul escape
His all-discerning eyes?

2 How will my heart endure
The terrors of that day,
When earth and heaven before his face
Astonished shrink away?

3 But, ere the trumpet shakes
The mansions of the dead,
Hark, from the gospel's cheering sound
What joyful tidings spread!

4 Ye sinners! seek his grace
Whose wrath ye cannot bear;
Fly to the shelter of his cross,
And find salvation there.

981 "The Day of the Lord."

W. SCOTT.

THE day of wrath! that dreadful day,
When heaven and earth shall pass away!
What power shall be the sinner's stay?
How shall he meet that dreadful day!

2 When, shriveling like a parched scroll,
The flaming heavens together roll,
And louder yet, and yet more dread,
Swells the high trump that wakes the dead!

3 Oh, on that day, that wrathful day,
When man to judgment wakes from clay,
Be thou, O Christ, the sinner's stay,
Though heaven and earth shall pass away.

982 "The Mighty God."

W. GOODR.

Lo! the mighty God appearing—
From on high Jehovah speaks!
Eastern lands the summons hearing,
O'er the west his thunder breaks:
Earth beholds him:
Universal nature shakes.

2 Zion, all its light unfolding,
God in glory shall display:
Lo! he comes,—nor silence holding,
Fire and clouds prepare his way:
Tempests round him
Hasten on the dreadful day.

3 To the heavens his voice ascending,
To the earth beneath he cries—
"Souls immortal now descending,
Let the sleeping dust arise!
Rise to judgment;
Let my throne adorn the skies.

4 "Gather first my saints around me,
Those who to my covenant stood;
Those who humbly sought and found me,
'Through the dying Saviour's blood:
Blest Redeemer!
Choicest sacrifice to God!"

5 Now the heavens on high adore him,
And his righteousness declare:
Sinners perish from before him,
But his saints his mercies share:
Just his judgment!
God, himself the Judge, is there.

H. ALFORD.

DAY of anger! that dread day
Shall the sign in heaven display,
And the earth in ashes lay!

2 Oh, what trembling shall appear,
When his coming shall be near,
Who shall all things strictly clear!

3 When the trumpet shall command,
Through the tombs of every land,
All before the throne to stand!

4 What shall I before him say?
How shall I be safe that day—
When the righteous scarcely may?

5 King of awful majesty,
Saving sinners graciously,—
Fount of mercy! save thou me!

6 Leave me not, my Saviour! one,
For whose soul thy course was run!
Lest I be that day undone!

7 Though unworthy is my prayer,
Make my soul thy mercy's care,
And from death eternal spare!

The Lord Coming.

R. HEBER.

THE Lord shall come! the earth shall quake!

The mountains to their centre shake;
And, withering from the vault of night,
The stars withdraw their feeble light.

2 The Lord shall come! but not the same
As once in lowly form he came,—
A silent Lamb before his foes,
A weary man, and full of woes.

3 The Lord shall come! a dreadful form,
With wreath of flame, and robe of storm,
On cherub-wings, and wings of wind,
Anointed Judge of human kind!

4 While sinners in despair shall call,
"Rocks, hide us! mountains, on us fall!"
The saints, ascending from the tomb,
Shall sing for joy, "The Lord is come!"

Isa. 57: 15. C. WINKWORTH, tr.

ETERNITY! eternity!
How long art thou, eternity!
And yet to thee time hastes away,
Like as the war horse to the fray,
Or swift as couriers homeward go,
Or ships to port, or shafts from bow;
Ponder, O man, eternity!

2 Eternity! eternity!
How long art thou, eternity!
As long as God is God, so long
Endure the pains of hell and wrong,
So long the joys of heaven remain;
Oh, lasting joy! oh, lasting pain!
Ponder, O man, eternity!

3 Eternity! eternity!
How long art thou, eternity!
O man, full oft thy thoughts should dwell
Upon the pains of sin and hell,
And on the glories of the pure,
That do beyond all time endure;
Ponder, O man, eternity!

88, 75, 49. "Lo! he comes!"

C. WESLEY.

Lo! he comes with clouds descending,
Once for favored sinners slain!
Thousand thousand saints attending,
Swell the triumph of his train!
Hallelujah!
Jesus comes, and comes to reign.

2 Every eye shall now behold him,
Robed in dreadful majesty!
Those who set at naught and sold him,
Pierced and nailed him to the tree,
Deeply wailing,
Shall the true Messiah see!

3 Lo! the last long separation,
As the cleaving crowds divide,
And one dread adjudication
Sends each soul to either side!
Lord of mercy!
How shall I that day abide?

4 Yea, Amen! let all adore thee,
High on thine eternal throne!
Saviour, take the power and glory;
Make thy righteous sentence known!
Men and angels
Kneel and bow to thee alone!

Thou Sovereign of my heart!
How could I bear to hear thy voice
Pronounce the sound, "Depart!"
3 Jesus, I throw my arms around,
And hang upon thy breast:

Without one gracious smile from thee,
My spirit cannot rest.

4 Oh, tell me that my worthless name
Is graven on thy hands!
Show me some promise in thy book,
Where my salvation stands.

"Let me go over!"

S. STENNETT.

ON Jordan's rugged banks I stand,
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.

2 Oh, the transporting, rapturous scene,
That rises to my sight!
Sweet fields arrayed in living green,
And rivers of delight!

3 O'er all those wide extended plains
Shines one eternal day;
There God, the Son, for ever reigns,
And scatters night away.

4 No chilling winds, or poisonous breath,
Can reach that healthful shore;
Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
Are felt and feared no more.

5 When shall I reach that happy place,
And be for ever blest?
When shall I see my Father's face,
And in his bosom rest?

6 Filled with delight, my raptured soul
Can here no longer stay;
Though Jordan's waves around me roll,
Fearless I'd launch away.

2 Let elders worship at his feet,
The church adore around,
With vials full of odors sweet,
And harps of sweeter sound.

3 Now to the Lamb that once was slain,
Be endless blessings paid!
Salvation, glory, joy remain
For ever on thy head!

4 Thou hast redeemed our souls with blood,
Hast set the prisoners free;
Hast made us kings and priests to God,
And we shall reign with thee.

THERE is a land of pure delight,
 Where saints immortal reign;
 Infinite day excludes the night,
 And pleasures banish pain.
 There everlasting spring abides,
 And never-withering flowers;
 Death, like a narrow sea, divides
 This heavenly land from ours.

2 Sweet fields beyond the swelling flood
 Stand dressed in living green;
 So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
 While Jordan rolled between.
 But timorous mortals start and shrink
 To cross this narrow sea;
 And linger, shivering on the brink,
 And fear to launch away.

3 Oh, could we make our doubts remove,
 These gloomy doubts that rise,
 And see the Canaan that we love
 With unclouded eyes:—
 Could we but climb where Moses stood,
 And view the landscape o'er,
 Not Jordan's stream, nor death's cold flood,
 Should fright us from the shore.

"Hold fast."

C. F. ALEXANDER.

THE roseate hues of early dawn,
 The brightness of the day,
 The crimson of the sunset sky,
 How fast they fade away!
 Oh, for the pearly gates of heaven!
 Oh, for the golden floor!
 Oh, for the Sun of Righteousness,
 That setteth nevermore!

2 The highest hopes we cherish here,
 How soon they tire and faint!
 How many a spot defiles the robe
 That wraps an earthly saint!
 Oh, for a heart that never sins!
 Oh, for a soul washed white!
 Oh, for a voice to praise our King,
 Nor weary day or night!

3 Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope,
 And grace to lead us higher;
 But there are perfectness and peace,
 Beyond our best desire.
 Oh, by thy love and anguish, Lord,
 And by thy life laid down,
 Grant that we fall not from thy grace,
 Nor fail to reach our crown!

 While angels shout triumphant,

 Long-suffering is his grace;
 And glorious is the splendor
 That beameth from his face.
 Our hearts up-leap in gladness
 When we behold that love,
 As we go singing onward
 To dwell with him above.

If thou, my God and Teacher,
 Vouchsafe to be my own,
 Though poor, I shall be richer
 Than monarch on his throne.

3 If, while on earth I wander,
 My heart is right and blest,
 Ah, what shall I be yonder,

Would not detain them as they fly,

Those hours of toil and danger.

For, oh, we stand on Jordan's strand,

Our friends are passing over;

And just before, the Shining Shore

We may almost discover!

2 We'll gird our loins, my brethren dear,

Our heavenly home discerning;

Our absent Lord has left us word,

Let every lamp be burning.—REF.

3 Should coming days be cold and dark,

We need not cease our singing;

That perfect rest naught can molest,

Where golden harps are ringing.—REF.

4 Let sorrow's rudest tempest blow,

Each cord on earth to sever;

Our King says, Come, and there's our home

For ever, oh, for ever!

For, oh, we stand on Jordan's strand,

Our friends are passing over;

And just before, the Shining Shore

We may almost discover!

"Sown in tears."

W. B. TAFFAN.

THERE is an hour of hallowed peace,
For those with cares oppressed,
When sighs and sorrowing shall cease,
And all be hushed to rest:—

2 'Tis then the soul is freed from fears
And doubts, which here annoy;
Then they, who oft have sown in tears,
Shall reap again in joy.

3 There is a home of sweet repose,
Where storms assail no more;
The stream of endless pleasure flows,
On that celestial shore.

4 There, purity with love appears,
And bliss without alloy;
There, they, who oft have sown in tears,
Shall reap again in joy.

"Things not seen."

A. STEELE.

OH, could our thoughts and wishes fly,
Above these gloomy shades,
To those bright worlds, beyond the sky,
Which sorrow ne'er invades!—

2 There, joys, unseen by mortal eyes
Or reason's feeble ray,
In ever-blooming prospect rise,
Unconscious of decay.

3 Lord! send a beam of light divine,
To guide our upward aim;
With one reviving touch of thine,
Our languid hearts inflame.

4 Oh, then, on faith's sublimest wing,
Our ardent hope shall rise
To those bright scenes, where pleasures spring
Immortal in the skies.

W. B. TAPPAN.

THERE is an hour of peaceful rest,

A balm for every wounded breast:
'Tis found above—in heaven.

By sin and sorrow driven,—
When tossed on life's tempestuous shoals,
Where storms arise, and ocean rolls,
And all is drear—but heaven

3 There faith lifts up her cheerful eye
To brighter prospects given;
And views the tempest passing by,
The evening shadows quickly fly,
And all serene—in heaven

4 There fragrant flowers immortal bloom,
And joys supreme are given;
There rays divine disperse the gloom;
Beyond the confines of the tomb
Appears the dawn of heaven!

"Christ is coming."

J. R. MACDUFF.

CHRIST is coming! let creation
Bid her groans and travail cease:
Let the glorious proclamation
Hope restore and faith increase;
Christ is coming!
Come, thou blessed Prince of peace!

2 Earth can now but tell the story
Of thy bitter cross and pain;
She shall yet behold thy glory
When thou comest back to reign;
Christ is coming!
Let each heart repeat the strain.

3 Long thy exiles have been pining,
Far from rest, and home, and thee:
But, in heavenly vesture shining,
Soon they shall thy glory see;
Christ is coming!
Haste the joyous jubilee.

4 With that "blesséd hope" before us,
Let no harp remain unstrung;
Let the mighty advent chorus
Onward roll from tongue to tongue;
Christ is coming!
Come, Lord Jesus, quickly come.

Not our Rest.

H. BONAR.

THIS is not my place of resting,—
Mine's a city yet to come;
Onward to it I am hasting—
On to my eternal home.

2 In it all is light and glory;
O'er it shines a nightless day:
Every trace of sin's sad story,
All the curse, hath passed away.

3 There the Lamb, our Shepherd, leads us
By the streams of life along,—
On the freshest pastures feeds us,
Turns our sighing into song.

4 Soon we pass this desert dreary,
Soon we bid farewell to pain;
Never more are sad or weary,
Never, never sin again!

HARK! the sound of holy voices,
Chanting at the crystal sea,
Hallelujah, hallelujah,
Hallelujah, Lord, to thee!

2 Multitudes, which none can number,
Like the stars in glory stand,
Clothed in white apparel, holding
Palms of victory in their hands.

3 They have come from tribulation,
And have washed their robes in blood,
Washed them in the blood of Jesus;
Tried they were and firm they stood.

4 Mocked, imprisoned, stoned, tormented,
Sawn asunder, slain with sword,
They have conquered death and Satan
By the might of Christ the Lord.

5 Love and peace they taste for ever,
And all truth and knowledge see
In the Beatific Vision
Of the blessed Trinity.

The City. S. BARING-GOULD.

DAILY, daily sing the praises
Of the City God hath made;
In the beauteous fields of Eden
Its foundation-stones are laid.

2 In the midst of that dear City
Christ is reigning on his seat,
And the angels swing their censers
In a ring about his feet.

3 From the throne a river issues,
Clear as crystal, passing bright,
And it traverses the City
Like a sudden beam of light.

4 There the wind is sweetly fragrant,
And is laden with the song
Of the seraphs, and the elders,
And the great redeemed throng.

5 Oh, I would my ears were open
Here to catch that happy strain!
Oh, I would my eyes some vision
Of that Eden could attain!

The Consummation. J. CONDER.

Jesus, blessed Mediator!
 Thou the airy path hast trod;

Thou the Judge, the Consummator!
 Shepherd of the fold of God!
 Can I trust a fellow-being?
 Can I trust an angel's care?
 O thou merciful All-seeing!
 Beam around my spirit there.

2 Blessed fold! no foe can enter,
 And no friend departeth thence;
 Jesus is their sun, their centre,
 And their shield—Omnipotence!
 Blessed, for the Lamb shall feed them,
 All their tears shall wipe away,
 To the living fountains lead them,
 Till fruition's perfect day.

3 Lo! it comes, that day of wonder!
 Louder chorals shake the skies:
 Hadés' gates are burst asunder;
 See! the new-clothed myriads rise!
 Thought! repress thy weak endeavor;
 Here must reason prostrate fall;
 Oh, the ineffable Forever!
 And the eternal All in All!

J. M. NEALE, tr.

JERUSALEM, the glorious!
The glory of the elect,—
O dear and future vision
That eager hearts expect!
Ev'n now by faith I see thee,
Ev'n here thy walls discern;
To thee my thoughts are kindled,
And strive, and pant, and yearn!

2 The Cross is all thy splendor,
The Crucified, thy praise;
His laud and benediction
Thy ransomed people raise;—
Jerusalem! exulting
On that securest shore,
I hope thee, wish thee, sing thee,
And love thee evermore!

3 O sweet and blessed Country!
Shall I e'er see thy face?
O sweet and blessed Country!
Shall I e'er win thy grace?
Exult, O dust and ashes!
The Lord shall be thy part;
His only, his for ever,
Thou shalt be, and thou art!

The shades of eve are thickening,

And darker night is near;
The Bridegroom is advancing;
Each hour he draws more nigh;
Up! watch and pray, nor slumber;
At midnight comes the cry.

2 See that your lamps are burning,
Your vessels filled with oil;
Wait calmly your deliverance
From earthly pain and toil.
The watchers on the mountains
Proclaim the Bridegroom near,
Go, meet him, as he cometh,
With hallelujahs clear.

3 The saints, who here in patience
Their cross and sufferings bore,
With him shall reign for ever,
When sorrow is no more:
Around the throne of glory
The Lamb shall they behold,
Adoring cast before him
Their diadems of gold.

4 Our hope and expectation,
O Jesus, now appear!
Arise, thou Sun so looked-for,
O'er this benighted sphere!
With hearts and hands uplifted,
We plead, O Lord, to see
The day of our redemption,
And ever be with thee.

JERUSALEM, the golden,
With milk and honey blest!
Beneath thy contemplation
Sink heart and voice oppressed:
I know not, oh, I know not,
What social joys are there,
What radiancy of glory,
What light beyond compare.

2 They stand, those halls of Zion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng;
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

3 There is the throne of David;
And there, from care released,
The song of them that triumph,
The shout of them that feast:
And they who, with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight
For ever and for ever
Are clad in robes of white.

"Short toil."

J. M. NEALE, tr.

BRIEF life is here our portion;
Brief sorrow, short-lived care;
The life, that knows no ending,
The tearless life, is there:
Oh, happy retribution!
Short toil, eternal rest;
For mortals, and for sinners,
A mansion with the blest!

2 And there is David's fountain,
And life in fullest glow;
And there the light is golden,
And milk and honey flow;
The light, that hath no evening,
The health, that hath no sore,
The life, that hath no ending,
But lasteth evermore.

3 There Jesus shall embrace us,
There Jesus be embraced,—
That spirit's food and sunshine;
Whence earthly love is chased:
Yes! God my King and Portion,
In fullness of his grace,
We then shall see for ever,
And worship face to face.

BRIDE of the Lamb, awake, awake!
 Why sleep for sorrow now?
 The hope of glory, Christ, is thine,
 A child of glory thou.
 Thy spirit, through the lonely night,
 From earthly joy apart,
 Hath sighed for one that's far away,—
 The Bridegroom of thy heart.

2 But see! the night is waning fast,
 The breaking morn is near;
 And Jesus comes, with voice of love,
 Thy drooping heart to cheer.
 Then weep no more; 'tis all thine own,
 His crown, his joy divine;
 And, sweeter far than all beside,
 He, he himself is thine!

"Behold, I come quickly."

ANON.

Soon will the heavenly Bridegroom come;
 Ye wedding-guests, draw near,
 And slumber not in sin, when he,
 The Son of God, is here!
 Come, let us haste to meet our Lord,
 And hail him with delight;
 Who saved us by his precious blood,
 And sorrows infinite!

2 Beside him all the patriarchs old,
 And holy prophets stand;
 The glorious apostolic choir,
 And noble martyr band.

As brethren dear they welcome us,
 And lead us to the throne,
 Where angels bow their vailed heads,
 Before the Three in One;—

3 Where we, with all the saints of God,
 A white-robed multitude,
 Shall praise the ascended Lord, who deigns
 To bear our flesh and blood!
 Our lot shall be for aye to share
 His reign of peace above:
 And drink, with unexhausted joy,
 The river of his love.

 With all our tears, away.
 No resting-place we seek on earth,
 No loveliness we see;
 Our eye is on the royal crown,
 Prepared for us—and thee!

2 But, dearest Lord, however bright,
 That crown of joy above,
 What is it to the brighter hope
 Of dwelling in thy love?
 What to the joy, the deeper joy,

 Of union with our living Head,
 Of fellowship with thee?

THERE is a land immortal,
The beautiful of lands;
Beside its ancient portal
A silent sentry stands;
He only can undo it,
And open wide the door;
And mortals who pass through it,
Are mortal nevermore.

2 Though dark and drear the passage
That leadeth to the gate,
Yet grace attends the message,
To souls that watch and wait:
And at the time appointed
A messenger comes down,
And guides the Lord's anointed
From cross to glory's crown.

3 Their sighs are lost in singing,
They're blessed in their tears;
Their journey heavenward winging,
They leave on earth their fears:
Death like an angel seemeth;
"We welcome thee," they cry;
"Thy face with glory beameth—
'Tis life for them to die!"

The New Paradise.

T. DAVIS.

O PARADISE eternal!
What bliss to enter thee,
And, once within thy portals,
Secure for ever be!
In thee no sin nor sorrow,
No pain nor death, is known;
But pure glad life, enduring
As heaven's benignant throne.

2 There all around shall love us,
And we return their love;
One band of happy spirits,
One family above:
There God shall be our portion,
And we his jewels be;
And gracing his bright mansions,
His smile reflect and see.

3 So songs shall rise for ever,
While all creation fair,
Still more and more revealed,
Shall wake fresh praises there—
O Paradise eternal!

O God of mercy! guide us,

RAY PALMER.

LORD, thou wilt bring the joyful day!
Beyond earth's weariness and pains,
Thou hast a mansion far away,
Where for thine own a rest remains.

2 No sun there climbs the morning sky,
There never falls the shade of night;
God and the Lamb, for ever nigh,
O'er all shed everlasting light.

3 The bow of mercy spans the throne,
Emblem of love and goodness there;
While notes to mortals all unknown,
Float on the calm celestial air.

4 Around that throne bright legions stand,
Redeemed by blood from sin and hell;
And shining forms, an angel band,
The mighty chorus join to swell.

Where beams of God's own glory fall;
And trees of life immortal grow,
Whose fruits o'erhang the sapphire wall

3 I know that thou, who on the tree
Didst deign our mortal guilt to bear,
Wilt bring thine own to dwell with thee,
And waitest to receive me there!

4 Thy love will there array my soul
In thine own robe of spotless hue;
And I shall gaze, while ages roll,
On thee, with raptures ever new!

The summer morn I've sighed for,
The fair sweet morn awakes:
Dark, dark hath been the midnight,
But day-spring is at hand,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

2 Oh, Christ, he is the fountain,
The deep sweet well of love;
The streams of earth I've tasted,
More deep I'll drink above.

There to an ocean fullness
His mercy doth expand,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

3 The bride eyes not her garment,
But her dear bridegroom's face;
I will not gaze at glory,
But on my King of Grace—
Not at the crown he gifteth,
But on his pierced hand;—
The Lamb is all the glory
Of Immanuel's land.

C. P. M. Celestial Praise. C. WINKWORTH, Jr.

THY mighty working, mighty God !
Wakes all my powers ; I look abroad,
And can no longer rest ;
I, too, must sing when all things sing,
And from my heart the praises ring
The Highest loveth best.

2 If thou, in thy great love to us,
Wilt scatter joy and beauty thus
O'er this poor earth of ours ;
What nobler glories shall be given
Hereafter in thy shining heaven,
Set round with golden towers !

3 What thrilling joy, when on our sight
Christ's garden beams in cloudless light
Where all the air is sweet ;
Still laden with the unwearied hymn
From all the thousand seraphim
Who God's high praise repeat !

4 Oh, were I there ! oh, that I now
Before thy throne, my God, could bow,
And bear my heavenly palm !
Then, like the angels, would I raise
My voice, and sing thine endless praise
In many a sweet-toned psalm.

1039

L. M. "The Lamb is the Light." A. STEELE.

OH, for a sweet, inspiring ray,
To animate our feeble strains,
From the bright realms of endless day—
The blissful realms where Jesus reigns !

2 There, low before his glorious throne,
Adoring saints and angels fall ;
And, with delightful worship, own
His smile their bliss, their heaven, their all.

3 Immortal glories crown his head,
While tuneful hallelujahs rise,
And love and joy, and triumph spread
Through all the assemblies of the skies.

4 He smiles,—and seraphs tune their songs
To boundless rapture, while they gaze ;
Ten thousand thousand joyful tongues
Resound his everlasting praise.

5 There all the followers of the Lamb
Shall join at last the heavenly choir :
Oh, may the joy-inspiring theme
Awake our faith and warm desire !

S. M. D. "No night there." F. M. KNOLLER.

THERE is no night in heaven ;
In that blest world above
Work never can bring weariness,
For work itself is love.
There is no grief in heaven ;
For life is one glad day,
And tears are of those former things
Which all have passed away.

2 There is no want in heaven ;
The Lamb of God supplies
Life's tree of twelve-fold fruitage still,
Life's spring which never dries.

There is no sin in heaven ;
Behold that blessed throng !
All holy is their spotless robe,
All holy is their song.

3 There is no death in heaven ;
For they who gain that shore
Have won their immortality,
And they can die no more.
There is no death in heaven ;
But when the Christian dies,
The angels wait his parted soul,
And waft it to the skies !

C. M. The New Song. I. WATTS.

EARTH has engrossed my love too long ;
'T is time I lift mine eyes
Upward, dear Father, to thy throne,
And to my native skies.

2 There the blest Man, my Saviour, sits ;
The God, how bright he shines !
And scatters infinite delights
On all the happy minds.

3 Seraphs with elevated strains
Circle the throne around ;
And move, and charm the starry plains
With an immortal sound.

4 Jesus, the Lord, their harps employs ;
Jesus, my love, they sing ;
Jesus, the life of both our joys,
Sounds sweet from every string.

5 Now let me dwell on earth no more,
But mount in haste above,
To bless the God that I adore,
And sing the Man I love.

1042 75, 62, D. "A Holy City."

ANON.

THERE is a holy city,
A happy world above,
Beyond the starry regions,
Built by the God of love;
An everlasting temple—
And saints arrayed in white,
There serve their great Redeemer,
And dwell with him in light.

2 The meanest child of glory
Outshines the radiant sun;
But who can speak the splendor
Of that eternal throne
Where Jesus sits exalted,
In god-like majesty?
The elders fall before him,
The angels bend the knee.

3 The hosts of saints around him
Proclaim his work of grace;
The patriarchs and prophets,
And all the godly race,
Who speak of fiery trials
And tortures on their way—
They came from tribulation
To everlasting day.

4 And what shall be my journey,
How long my stay below,
Or what shall be my trials,
Are not for me to know;
In every day of trouble,
I'll raise my thoughts on high;
I'll think of the bright temple,
And crowns above the sky.

1043 65, D. The Rest remaineth.

H. W. BAKER.

THERE is a blessed home
Beyond this land of woe,
Where trials never come,
Nor tears of sorrow flow;
Where faith is lost in sight,
And patient hope is crowned,
And everlasting light
Its glory throws around.

2 There is a land of peace,
Good angels know it well;
Glad songs that never cease
Within its portals swell;
Around its glorious throne
Ten thousand saints adore
Christ, with the Father One,
And Spirit, ever more.

3 Look up, ye saints of God,
Nor fear to tread below
The path your Saviour trod
Of daily toil and woe;
Wait but a little while
In uncomplaining love,
His own most gracious smile
Shall welcome you above.

J. M. NEALE, &amp;c.

1044 85, 73, 61. "The Lamb's Wife."

BLESSED Salem, long expected,
Vision bright of peace and dear!
Who, of living stones erected,
Moulded in the heavenly sphere,
And, by angel-guards protected,
Dost in bridal-pomp appear.

2 From the heaven of heavens descend—
All prepared to meet thy Head, [ing,
In thy robes of light attending,
Thou art to his presence led;
Golden glories, richly blending,
Round thy streets and walls are shed.

3 Bright with pearls thy gates are beam—
Wide unfolded they remain: [ing,
Thither come, through grace redeeming,
All who wear Christ's lowly chain:
And, his last award esteeming,
Gladly share his cup of pain.

1045 P. M. "The Golden Shore."

ANON.

Lo, the seal of death is breaking;
Those who slept its sleep are waking,
Heaven opes its portals fair!
Hark! the harps of God are ringing,
Hark! the seraph's hymn is flinging
Music on immortal air.

2 There, no more at eve declining,
Suns without a cloud are shining
O'er the land of life and love;
There the founts of life are flowing,
Flowers unknown to time are blowing,
In that radiant scene above.

3 There no sigh of memory swelleth;
There no tear of misery wellet;—
Hearts will bleed or break no more;
Past is all the cold world's scorning,
Gone the night and broke the morning
Over all the golden shore!

GEORGE J. ELVEY.

1. Come, ye thankful people, come, Raise the song of Harvest-Home! All is safely gathered in, Ere the winter storms begin:

1046

Song for Harvest.

H. ALFORD.

COME, ye thankful people, come,
Raise the song of Harvest Home!
All is safely gathered in,
Ere the winter storms begin:
God our Maker doth provide
For our wants to be supplied:
Come to God's own temple, come,
Raise the song of Harvest Home!

2 We ourselves are God's own field,
Fruit unto his praise to yield:
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown:
First the blade, and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear:
Grant, O Harvest-Lord, that we
Wholesome grain and pure may be!

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take his harvest home:
From his field shall in that day
All offences purge away:
Give his angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast:
But the fruitful ears to store
In his garner evermore.

4 Then, thou Church Triumphant, come,
Raise the song of Harvest Home!
All are safely gathered in,
Free from sorrow, free from sin:

There, for ever purified,
In God's garner to abide:
Come, ten thousand angels, come,
Raise the glorious Harvest Home!

1047

The close of the year. RAY PALMER.

THOU who roll'st the year around,
Crowned with mercies large and free,
Rich thy gifts to us abound,
Warm our praise shall rise to thee.
Kindly to our worship bow,
While our grateful thanks we tell,
That, sustained by thee, we now
Bid the parting year—farewell!

2 All its numbered days are sped,
All its busy scenes are o'er,
All its joys for ever fled,
All its sorrows felt no more.
Mingled with the eternal past,
Its remembrance shall decay;
Yet to be revived at last
At the solemn judgment-day.

3 All our follies, Lord, forgive!
Cleanse us from each guilty stain;
Let thy grace within us live,
That we spend not years in vain.
Then, when life's last eve shall come,
Happy spirits, may we fly
To our everlasting home,
To our Father's house on high!

New Year.

J. NEWTON.

WHILE, with ceaseless course, the sun
Hasted through the former year,
Many souls their race have run,
Nevermore to meet us here:
Fixed in an eternal state,
They have done with all below;
We a little longer wait,—
But how little none can know.

2 As the wingéd arrow flies
Speedily the mark to find;
As the lightning from the skies
Darts, and leaves no trace behind,
Swiftly thus our fleeting days
Bear us down life's rapid stream;
Upward, Lord, our spirits raise,
All below is but a dream.

3 Thanks for mercies past receive;
Pardon of our sins renew;
Teach us henceforth how to live,
With eternity in view:
Bless thy word to young and old;
Fill us with a Saviour's love;
And, when life's short tale is told,
May we dwell with thee above!

Independence Day.

N. STRONG.

SWELL the anthem, raise the song;
Praises to our God belong;
Saints and angels join to sing
Praises to the heavenly King.

Blessings from his liberal hand
Flow around this happy land:
Kept by him, no foes annoy;
Peace and freedom we enjoy.

2 Here, beneath a virtuous sway
May we cheerfully obey;
Never feel oppression's rod,
Ever own and worship God.
Hark! the voice of nature sings
Praises to the King of kings;
Let us join the choral song,
And the grateful notes prolong.

Thanksgiving. A. L. BARBAULD.

PRAISE to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days!
Bounteous Source of every joy,
Let thy praise our tongues employ.
For the blessings of the field,
For the stores the gardens yield;
For the fruits in full supply,
Ripened 'neath the summer sky;—

2 All that spring with bounteous hand
Scatters o'er the smiling land;
All that liberal autumn pours
From her rich, o'erflowing stores;
These to thee, my God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow;
And for these my soul shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

J. R. WRENFORD.

LORD! while for all mankind we pray,
Of every clime and coast,
Oh, hear us for our native land,
The land we love the most.

2 Oh, guard our shores from every foe,
With peace our borders bless,
With prosperous times our cities crown,
Our fields with plenteousness.

3 Unite us in the sacred love
Of knowledge, truth, and thee:
And let our hills and valleys shout
The songs of liberty.

4 Here may religion, pure and mild,
Smile on our Sabbath hours;
And piety and virtue bless
The home of us and ours.

5 Lord of the nations, thus to thee
Our country we commend;
Be thou her refuge and her trust,
Her everlasting friend.

The Traveler's Hymn.

J. ADDISON.

HOW ARE thy servants blest, O Lord!
How sure is their defence!
Eternal wisdom is their guide,
Their help, Omnipotence.

2 In foreign realms, and lands remote,
Supported by thy care,
Through burning climes they pass unhurt,
And breathe in tainted air.

3 When by the dreadful tempest borne
High on the broken wave,
They know thou art not slow to hear,
Nor impotent to save.

4 The storm is laid, the winds retire,
Obedient to thy will;
The sea, that roars at thy command,
At thy command is still.

5 In midst of dangers, fears, and deaths,
Thy goodness we'll adore;
We'll praise thee for thy mercies past,
And humbly hope for more.

6 Our life, while thou preserv'st that life,
Thy sacrifice shall be;
And death, when death shall be our lot,
Shall join our souls to thee.

1053

Prayer for Seamen.

J. SPAULDING.

WE come, O Lord, before thy throne,
And, with united plea,
We meet and pray for those who roam
Far off upon the sea.

2 Oh, may the Holy Spirit bow
The sailor's heart to thee,
Till tears of deep repentance flow,
Like rain-drops in the sea!

3 Then may a Saviour's dying love
Pour peace into his breast,
And waft him to the port above
Of everlasting rest.

New Year.

ANON.

OUR Father! through the coming year
We know not what shall be;
But we would leave without a fear
Its ordering all to thee.

2 It may be we shall toil in vain
For what the world holds fair;
And all the good we thought to gain
Deceive and prove but care.

3 It may be it shall darkly blend
Our love with anxious fears,
And snatch away the valued friend,
The tried of many years.

4 It may be it shall bring us days
And nights of lingering pain;
And bid us take a farewell gaze
Of these loved haunts of men.

5 But calmly, Lord, on thee we rest;
No fears our trust shall move;
Thou knowest what for each is best,
And thou art Perfect Love.

1055

Close of the Year.

I. WATTS.

THEE we adore, eternal Name!
And humbly own to thee
How feeble is our mortal frame,
What dying worms are we!

2 The year rolls round, and steals away
The breath that first it gave;
Whate'er we do, where'er we be,
We're traveling to the grave.

3 Great God! on what a slender thread
Hang everlasting things!
The eternal state of all the dead
Upon life's feeble strings!

4 Infinite joy, or endless woe,
Attends on every breath;
And yet, how unconcerned we go
Upon the brink of death!

5 Waken, O Lord, our drowsy sense
To walk this dangerous road!
And if our souls are hurried hence,
May they be found with God.

1056

Close of the Year. P. DODDRIDGE.

AWAKE, ye saints! and raise your eyes,
And raise your voices high:
Awake, and praise the sovereign love,
That shows salvation nigh.

2 Swift on the wings of time it flies,
Each moment brings it near:
Then welcome each declining day,
Welcome each closing year.

3 Not many years their rounds shall run,
Nor many mornings rise,
Ere all its glories stand revealed,
To our admiring eyes.

4 Ye wheels of nature! speed your course;
Ye mortal powers! decay;
Fast as ye bring the night of death,
Ye bring eternal day.

NEW YEAR'S HYMN. 11s, 5s.

S. WEBBE.

2 Our life is a dream; our time, as a stream,
Glides swiftly away,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay.
The arrow is flown,—the moment is gone;
The millennial year
Rushes on to our view, and eternity's here.

3 Oh, that each in the day of his coming may say,

New Year.

C. WESLEY.

COME, let us anew our journey pursue,
Roll round with the year,
And never stand still till the Master appear.
His adorable will let us gladly fulfill,
And our talents improve,
By the patience of hope, and the labor of love.

"I have fought my way through:
I have finished the work thou didst give me
to do!"

Oh, that each from his Lord may receive

"Well and faithfully done!"

Blend the living with the dead;
Soon shall we who sing be lying,

2 Soon our souls to God who gave them
Will have sped their rapid flight;
Able now by grace to save them,
Oh, that while we can we might!

3 Jesus, infinite Redeemer,

My country! 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died!
Land of the Pilgrims' pride!
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring!

2 My native country, thee—
Land of the noble, free—
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song:
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,—
The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers' God! to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King!

Forefathers' Day.

L. BACON.

O God, beneath thy guiding hand,
Our exiled fathers crossed the sea,
And when they trod the wintry strand,
With prayer and psalm they worshiped thee.

2 Thou heardest, well pleased, the song, the prayer—

Thy blessing came; and still its power
Shall onward through all ages bear
The memory of that holy hour.

3 What change! through pathless wilds
no more

The fierce and naked savage roams:
Sweet praise, along the cultured shore,
Breaks from ten thousand happy homes.

4 Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God
Came with those exiles o'er the waves,
And where their pilgrim feet have trod,
The God they trusted guards their graves.

5 And here thy name, O God of love,
Their children's children shall adore,
Till these eternal hills remove,
And spring adorns the earth no more.

The New Year. F. DODDRIDGE.

GREAT God! we sing that mighty hand
By which supported still we stand;
The opening year thy mercy shows;
Let mercy crown it till it close.

2 By day, by night, at home, abroad,
Still we are guarded by our God;

By his incessant bounty fed,
By his unerring counsel led.

3 With grateful hearts the past we own;
The future, all to us unknown,
We to thy guardian care commit,
And peaceful leave before thy feet.

4 In scenes exalted or depressed,
Be thou our joy, and thou our rest;
Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adored through all our changing days.

5 When death shall interrupt our songs,
And seal in silence mortal tongues,
Our Helper, God, in whom we trust,
In better worlds our souls shall boast.

1062

The New Year. F. DODDRIDGE.

Our Helper, God! we bless thy name,
Whose love forever is the same;
The tokens of thy gracious care
Open, and crown, and close the year.

2 Amid ten thousand snares we stand,
Supported by thy guardian hand;
And see, when we review our ways,
Ten thousand monuments of praise.

3 Thus far thine arm has led me on;
Thus far we make thy mercy known;
And while we tread this desert land,
New mercies shall new songs demand.

4 Our grateful souls, on Jordan's shore,
Shall raise one sacred pillar more;
Then bear in thy bright courts above,
Inscriptions of immortal love.

Giving of thanks. W. F. SHERWIN.

GRANDER than ocean's story,
Or songs of forest trees—
Purer than breath of morning,
Or evening's gentle breeze—
Clearer than mountain echoes
Ring out from peaks above—
Rolls on the glorious anthem
Of God's eternal love.

2 Dearer than any lovings,
The truest friends bestow;
Stronger than all the yearnings,
A mother's heart can know;
Deeper than earth's foundations,
And far above all thought;
Broader than heaven's high arches—
The love that Christ has brought.

3 Richer than all earth's treasure,
The wealth my soul receives;
Brighter than royal jewels,
The crown that Jesus gives;
Wondrous the condescension,
And grace beyond degree!
I would be ever singing
The love of Christ to me.

His steady counsels change the face
 Of the declining year;
 He bids the sun cut short his race,
 And wintry days appear.

2 He sends his word and melts the snow,
 The fields no longer mourn;
 He calls the warmer gales to blow,
 And bids the spring return.
 The changing wind, the flying cloud,
 Obey his mighty word;
 With songs and honors sounding loud
 Praise ye the sovereign Lord.

God's Mercies.

H. F. LYTH.

THE mercies of my God and King
 My tongue shall still pursue:
 Oh, happy they, who, while they sing
 Those mercies, share them too!
 As bright and lasting as the sun,
 As lofty as the sky,
 From age to age, thy word shall run,
 And chance and change defy.

2 The covenant of the King of kings
 Shall stand for ever sure;
 Beneath the shadow of thy wings
 Thy saints repose secure.
 In earth below, in heaven above,
 Who, who is Lord like thee?
 Oh, spread the gospel of thy love,
 Till all thy glories see!

So shall he hear when fervently we raise
 Our supplications and our songs of praise,

"Day is dying." M. A. LATHBURY.

DAY is dying in the West;
Heaven is touching earth with rest:
Wait and worship while the night
Sets her evening lamps alight
Through all the sky.
Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts!
Heaven and earth are full of thee!
Heaven and earth are praising thee,
O Lord most high!

2 Lord of life, beneath the dome
Of the Universe, thy home,
Gather us who seek thy face
To the fold of thy embrace,
For thou art nigh.
Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts!
Heaven and earth are full of thee!
Heaven and earth are praising thee,
O Lord most high!

"A little while." J. CREWDSON.

- Oh, for the peace which floweth like a river,
Making life's desert places bloom and smile!
Oh, for the faith to grasp heaven's bright
"forever,"
Amid the shadows of earth's "little while!"
- 3 A little while to keep the oil from failing,
A little while faith's flickering lamp to trim;
And then, the Bridegroom's coming footsteps hailing,
To haste to meet him with the bridal hymn!
- 4 And he who is himself the gift and giver,—
The future glory and the present smile,—
With the bright promise of the glad "for ever"
Will light the shadows of the "little while!"
- 2 A little while for patient vigil-keeping,
To face the storm, to battle with the strong;
A little while to sow the seed with weeping,
Then bind the sheaves and sing the harvest song!

- CHRIST for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With loving zeal;
The poor, and them that mourn,
The faint and overborne,
Sin-sick and sorrow-worn,
Whom Christ doth heal.
- 2 Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,

The wayward and the lost,
By restless passions tossed,
Redeemed, at countless cost,
From dark despair.

- 3 Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With one accord;
With us the work to share,
With us reproach to dare,
With us the cross to bear,
For Christ our Lord.

- 4 Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With joyful song;
The new-born souls, whose days,
Reclaimed from error's ways,
Inspired with hope and praise,
To Christ belong.

HYMN.		HYMN.
Time is winging us away.....	940	What shall I render to my God .....	186
Time, thou speedest on but slowly.....	1018	What sinners value I resign.....	965
'Tis a point I long to know.....	499	What various hindrances we meet.....	77
'Tis by the faith of joys to come.....	661	When adverse winds and waves arise.....	706
"'Tis finished!"—so the Saviour cried.....	274	When all thy mercies, O my God.....	187
'Tis God the Spirit leads.....	365	When along life's thorny road.....	717
'Tis midnight; and on Olive's brow.....	273	When, as returns this solemn day.....	53
'Tis my happiness below.....	720	When downward to the darksome tomb.....	962
'Tis not a cause of small import.....	761	When gathering clouds around I view.....	706
'Tis not that I did choose thee.....	178	When God, of old, came down from heaven.....	370
To God the Father, God the Son.....	81	When human hopes all wither.....	886
To God the only wise.....	121	When I can read my title clear.....	662
To Jesus, our exalted Lord.....	852	When I survey the wondrous cross.....	275
To our Redeemer's glorious name.....	296	When I view my Saviour bleeding.....	283
To thee, my God and Saviour.....	639	When Jesus dwelt in mortal clay.....	807
To thee, O God, we raise.....	219	When Jordan hushed his waters still.....	242
To thy pastures fair and large.....	4	When languor and disease invade.....	711
To thy temple we repair.....	3	When, like a stranger on our sphere.....	250
To us a Child of hope is born.....	237	When, marshaled on the nightly plain.....	241
Together with these symbols, Lord.....	858	When musing sorrow weeps the past.....	714
Traveling to the better land.....	573	When my last hour is close at hand.....	977
Trembling before thine awful throne.....	477	When on Sinai's top I see.....	835
Triumphant, Lord, thy goodness reigns.....	228	When, overwhelmed with grief.....	699
Triumphant Zion, lift thy head.....	921	When our heads are bowed with woe.....	716
'Twas by an order from the Lord.....	159	When, rising from the bed of death.....	988
'Twas on that dark, that doleful night.....	845	When sins and fears, prevailing, rise.....	527
'Twas the day when God's Anointed.....	287	When streaming from the eastern skies.....	9
Unshaken as the sacred hill.....	571	When thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come.....	957
Unvail thy bosom, faithful tomb.....	966	When waves of trouble round me swell.....	715
Upon the gospel's sacred page.....	163	Where high the heavenly temple stands.....	75
Upward I lift mine eyes.....	701	Where the woodman's axe is ringing.....	899
Vain are the hopes the sons of men.....	388	Where two or three, with sweet accord.....	59
Vain, delusive world, adieu.....	479	While in sweet communion feeding.....	865
Vainly through night's weary hours.....	791	While my Redeemer's near.....	578
Vital spark of heavenly flame.....	997	While shepherds watched their flocks.....	238
Wait, my soul, upon the Lord.....	584	While thee I seek, protecting Power.....	185
Wait, O my soul! thy Maker's will.....	182	While we lowly bow before thee.....	153
Wake, O my soul, and hail the morn.....	255	While, with ceaseless course, the sun.....	1046
Wake! the welcome day appeareth.....	778	Who are these in bright array.....	999
Walk in the light! so shalt thou know.....	655	Who is this that comes from Edom.....	810
Watchman! tell us of the night.....	932	Who shall the Lord's elect condemn.....	679
We are on our journey home.....	1035	Why do we mourn departing friends.....	963
We are watching, we are waiting.....	787	Why is thy faith, O child of God.....	1063
We bid thee welcome in the name.....	763	Why on the bending willows hung.....	922
We bless thee for thy peace, O God.....	697	Why should our tears in sorrow flow.....	970
We come, O God, before thy throne.....	1053	Why should the children of a King.....	359
We give immortal praise.....	230	Why should we start, and fear to die.....	941
We give thee but thine own.....	780	Why will ye waste on trifling cares.....	423
We may not climb the heavenly steeps.....	271	With all my powers of heart and tongue.....	223
We praise thee, O God; we acknowledge.....	1074	With broken heart and contrite sigh.....	456
We shall see Him, in our nature.....	304	With deepest reverence at thy throne.....	180
We stand in deep repentance.....	465	With heavenly power, O Lord, defend.....	788
We would see Jesus—for the shadows.....	878	With joy we hail the sacred day.....	24
Weary, Lord, of struggling here.....	483	With joy we lift our eyes.....	33
Weeping will not save me.....	430	With songs and honors sounding loud.....	1068
Welcome, delightful morn.....	10	With tearful eyes I look around.....	506
Welcome, sweet day of rest.....	30	Work, for the night is coming.....	783
What a Friend we have in Jesus.....	567	Work while it is to-day.....	779
What cheering words are these.....	692	Would you win a soul to God.....	443
What equal honors shall we bring.....	338	Ye angels! who stand round the throne.....	625
What finite power, with ceaseless toil.....	190	Ye messengers of Christ.....	775
What grace, O Lord, and beauty shone.....	264	Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim.....	97
What is life! 'tis but a vapor.....	656	Your harps, ye trembling saints.....	553
		Zion! awake, thy strength renew.....	906
